

INDEX

- Alternative work
 - arrangements, 62
- Anglo-Saxon countries, 81, 96
- Anglo-Saxon deregulatory employment practices, 36
- Blue-collar workers, 39
- Boundaryless careers, 59
- Bureau of Labor Statistics, 62
- Capitalist accumulation, 5
- Conservative light, 81
- Contingent Worker Survey, 62
- Contract precariousness, 75
- Core workforce, 82
- Corporatist policy-making, 6
- Corrosion, 13
- Cost-cutting strategies, 190
- Country-level Labour Force Surveys, 61
- Decentralisation, 22
 - collective bargaining, 35
 - company-level agreements, 33
 - sectoral and company agreements, 34
 - wage-setting mechanisms, 35
- Deliveroo, 189
- El Khomri reforms, 43
- Employment levels, 50
- Employment Precariousness Scale, 70
- Employment protection legislation (EPL), 4
 - Belgium, 39
 - EU governance framework, 39
 - open-ended contracts, 37
 - public sectors, 40
 - severance pay, 38
- Employment relationship
 - employment levels, 50
- Employment Precariousness Scale, 70
- individual choice approach, 64–65

- individual contracts
 - approach, 62–65
- individual risk of
 - precariousness, 66
 - “lack of choice” element, 72
- quality of work
 - approach, 65–66
- EU-10 countries, 81
- EU-15 countries, 81
- European Union
 - employment protection
 - legislation, 37–40
 - flexible employment, 40–47
 - higher education
 - mismatch, 113
 - income, 110
 - insecurity, 111
 - involuntary
 - part-time, 97
 - involuntary temporary, 99
 - labour market
 - developments, 32–37
 - long usual hours of work, 105
 - night/shift work, 101
 - PES involvement, 109
 - precarious score. See Precarious score
 - Saturday/Sunday work, 103
 - unpaid overtime, 106
 - working conditions
 - dissatisfaction, 114
- European Union Labour Force Survey (EU LFS), 61, 74
- European workforce, 11
- EUROSTAT, 74
- Exclusion, 23
- Expansion of higher education, 50
- External flexibility, 7
- Female labour market
 - participation rates, 50
- Financialisation, 13
- Fixed-term employment
 - contract, 55
- Flexibilisation of
 - production, 50
- Flexible contracts, 54, 57–59
- Flexible employment, 8
 - employers commitment, 40
- EU labour markets, 40
- Greece, 43
- health risks, 42
- internal devaluation
 - policies, 43
- in-work poverty, 42
- Italy, 42–43
- labour market entry
 - barriers, 41
- liberalisation, 44
- long-term effectiveness, 44
- low-pay, 42
- non-standard work, 42
- Portugal, 43

- proliferation, 12
- risk of poverty, 42
- segmentation, 40
- Spanish labour market reforms, 43
- Swedish reform, 44
- temporary contracts, 41
- temporary employment, 44
- temporary employment contracts, 40
- zero-hours contract, 42–43
- Fordist Standard Employment model, 49
- Frictions, 59
- Grouping of countries, 80–82
- Human Capital Theory, 58
- Income levels, 191
- Income precariousness, 76
- Individual choice approach, 64–65
- Individual contracts approach, 62–63
- Insecurity
 - growing levels, 188
 - job, 7, 108, 191
 - precariousness, 76
- insecurity, 7
- Institutional avoidance, 5
- Institutional context precariousness, 75–76
- Institutional framework, 191
- International Labour Organisation (ILOs), 11, 65
- Involuntary non-standard employment (INE), 64, 73, 89, 93
- Job context, 191
 - working conditions precariousness, 76–80
- Job insecurity, 7, 108, 191
- Job security, 4
- Keynesian policies, 6
- Labour Force Survey, 54, 64
- Labour market developments, 32–33
- Labour market reforms, 45
- Labour market (de) regulation, 50
- Lay-offs, 11
- Legal-institutionalist framework, 16
- Liberalisation, 44
- Low-income jobs, 52
- Low-paid jobs, 4
- Low-skilled workers, 7, 8
- Low-wage sectors, 14
- Marginality, 23
- Mediterranean countries, 81, 96
- Minimum wage (MW), 17

- Nearly conservative, 81
- Neighbouring countries, 81
- Neoclassical economics, 6
- Neoliberalism, 19
 - neoliberal analysis, 19
 - neoliberal politics, 6
 - neoliberal thinking, 19, 20
- Non-permanent contract, 57
- Non-standard contracts, 54
- Non-standard employment
 - involuntary non-standard employment (INE), 73, 93
 - “job quality” characteristics, 66
- Non-standard jobs, 62
- Non-traditional employment, 59
- Non-willing temporary employment, 60
- Nordic countries, 81
- Optimal employment contracts, 54
- Opt-out clauses, 35
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 66
- Outsourcing, 189
- Part-time employment, 15
- Permanent (less risky) contracts, 60
- Permanent employment contract, 43
- Permanent temporaries, 60
- Policy-making, 16
- Precarious employment
 - age groups, 86, 87
 - atypical contracts, 63
 - Austria, 124–125
 - Belgium, 126–127
 - Bulgaria, 128–129
 - country group, 93, 94–95
 - Croatia, 150–151
 - Cyprus, 132–133
 - Czech Republic, 134–135
 - definition, 53
 - Denmark, 138–139
 - Estonia, 140–141
 - Finland, 144–145
 - France, 146–147
 - gender, 88
 - Germany, 136–137
 - Greece, 148–149
 - Hungary, 152–153
 - Iceland, 156–157
 - institutional setting, 63
 - Ireland, 154–155
 - Italy, 158–159
 - job-based indicators, 70
 - Latvia, 160–161
 - level of education, 90
 - Lithuania, 162–163
 - long expected duration of unemployment, 72
 - low pay, 70
 - Luxembourg, 164–165
 - Malta, 166–167
 - nationality, 91, 92

- Netherlands, 168–169
- non-permanent contract, 72
- non-standard
 - employment, 66
- Norway, 170–171
- outcomes, 67–69
- “plug-in and play,” 61
- Poland, 172–173
- Portugal, 174–175
- Romania, 176–177
- Slovakia, 182–183
- Slovenia, 180–181
- snowball effect, 69
- Spain, 142–143
- Sweden, 178–179
- Switzerland, 130–131
- temporary contacts, 70
- three-category scale, 71
- UK, 184–185
- unsociable hours, 75
- very short or long
 - working hours, 70
- Precariousness, 53–60
 - contract, 75
 - income, 76
 - individual risk, 66–67
 - insecurity, 76
 - institutional context, 75–76
 - intensification, 59
 - job context/working conditions, 76–80
 - unsociable hours, 75
- Precarious score
 - age, 116
 - education, 116
 - employment strictness, 121
 - EU countries, 117
 - GDP, 123
 - gender, 116
 - level of unemployment, 120
 - nationality, 116
 - size, 119
- Precarious work concept, 51–53
- Precarity
 - causes, 4
 - definitions, 22–26
 - employment protection, 5
 - Fordist systems, 5
 - Germany, 5
 - institutionalist
 - perspective, 12–17
 - Marxist perspective, 9–12
 - neoliberal perspective, 17–22
 - new social class, 26–27
 - nonstandard jobs, 8
 - theoretical perspectives, 9
 - trade union
 - membership, 5
 - wage–productivity deals, 6
- Probation periods, 56
- Proletarianisation, 27
- Psychosocial Work
 - Environment Survey, 70
- Public Employment Services (PES), 39, 75, 108
- Public-sector reforms, 7

- Quality of work approach, 65–66
- RAND American Life Panel, 62
- Recession, 188
- Rising educational levels, 50
- “Risk society system of underemployment,” 51
- Screening mechanism, 56–57
- Second World War, 188
- Self-employment, 6
- Severance pay, 38
- ‘Shadow’ economy, 61
- Societal problems, 20
- Stable employment relationship, 50
- Standard employment relationship, 49
- “Stepping-stone” interpretation, 55
- Strain, 68
- Surplus value, 9, 10
- Survival strategy, 7
- Temporary employment, 44
flexible contract, 57–59 friction of the market, 59–60
screening mechanism, 56–57
signal, 54–56
- Traditional working-class occupations, 11
- Uber, 189
- Uncertainty, 68
- Unsociable hours precariousness, 75
- Vulnerability, 71
- Vulnerable workers, 192
- White-collar workers, 27, 39
- Working Conditions Survey, 54
- Zero-hours contracts, 26, 61, 190