

INDEX

- Accomplishments, 31–32
Aumann, K., 35
- Belgian men, 7
Berdahl, J. L., 100
Blair-Loy, M., 100
Blue-collar jobs, 1
Bond, K., 35
- Carework, 1
 engaging in, 49
 nurturing, 49–50 professionalizing as work, 51
 See also Childcare
Chesley, N., 6, 60, 71–72,
 101, 103
Childcare, 1–2 skills, 47–51
 working-class fathers, 1
 work schedules and, 2
 See also Carework
Child molestation, 87
Children care. See Childcare emotional closeness to, 52–54
 relationship with,
 51–54
- Choice, as reason for stay-at home, 18–19
Cleaning/cleanliness,
 58–59, 64–66
Coltrane, S., 3 Communities
 exclusion/isolation,
 79–90
 See also Exclusion online, 91
 parenting critiques, 88–90
 praise and support, 76–79
Cooking, 66–67
Current Population Study
 (CPS), 5
- Data analysis of qualitative research, 15
DeVault, M., 66
Division of housework,
 3–4, 57–67
Doucet, A., 6, 8, 14, 54,
 55, 60, 87, 102, 103
- Egalitarian gender beliefs, 2
Emasculation, 32–33

- Emotional closeness, to children, 52–54, 79
- Emotional support, 79
- Evolved masculinity, 40
- Exclusion, 79–90
 feelings/sentiments of, 81–83 gendered nature of, 83–87 responses to, 90–95 schools, 83–84
- External sources, as challenge to masculinity, 30
- Facebook, 84
- Families on the Fault Line* (Rubin), 27
- Family background, as reason for stay-at-home, 21–22
- Family life, 99–107
- Fathers/fathering, 45–56
 carework. See Carework stay-at-home. See Stay-at-home fathers/fathering See also Parenting
- Feeding the Family* (DeVault), 66
- Feelings of exclusion, 81–83
- Galinsky, E., 35, 72
- Gender beliefs, 96–97
- Gender competency, 95
- Gendered expectations, 83, 94
- Gendered nature of exclusion, 83–87
- Gender-neutral parenting, 103
- Gender policing, 31, 106
- Gender roles, 24
- Gender socialization, 47
- Gender Vertigo* (Risman), 103
- Gerson, J. M., 96
- Gerstel, N., 1
- Happy SAHDs*, 5
- Harrington, B., 72
- Hegemonic masculinity, 8, 29–30, 35, 41–42, 94–95
- Hiding status, 93–95
- Hiring housekeepers, 58
- Housekeepers, hiring, 58
- Housework
 cleaning/cleanliness, 58–59, 64–66
 cooking, 66–67
 division of, 3–4, 57–67 making sense of, 67–68
 professionalization of, 68–71
- Humor in marginal status, 91–92
- In-depth interviews, 14
- Intensive parenting
 language, 102
- Isolation, 79–90
See also Exclusion
- Job issues, as reason for stay-at home, 17–18

- Kerfoot, D., 104
Knights, D., 104
- Labor force, leaving, 28
Layoffs, 17, 27
- Masculinity, 2, 29–44
 challenges to, 30–34 evolution of, 99–107
 hegemonic, 8, 29–30, 35, 41–42, 94–95 overview, 29–30
 responses to challenges, 34–41
- Men in dual-earner families, 4
 housework. See Housework as primary caregivers, 4
 vs. women, in parenting, 46–47
- Money management, 61–63
Mothering, 46
- New masculinity, 10
Nontraditional status, acceptance of, 35–37
Nurturing skills, 49–50
- Online support, 91
On-the-job training, 72–73
- Parenting attributes/characteristics, 46 gender neutral, 103 gender role negotiations, 6 insecurities around, 47 men vs. women, 46–47
 skills, developing new, 47–51 standards, falling short of, 45–47
- Parenting critiques, 88–90
Paying bills. See Money management
Peiss, K., 96
Personalities, as reason for stay-at home, 20–21
Physical activities, 7
Pleck, E. H., 103
Pleck, J. H., 103
Positive comments, 76–79
Previous occupations, 93–95
Private fatherhood, 1
Professionalization of housework, 68–71
Public behavior, 87–88
Public fatherhood, 1–2
- Qualitative research, 13–15
 See also Research project
- Relationship, with children, 51–54
Religious beliefs, 34
Representations of stay-at-home fathers, 5
Research project, 13–28 findings, 17–28
 methods, 13–15

- sample characteristics, 15–17
- Responses, to exclusion, 90–95
 - hiding one's status, 93–95
 - humor, 91–92
 - online communities, 91
- Risman, B. J., 103
- Rubin, Lillian, 27
- Schools, exclusion at, 83–84
- Schwartz, Michael, 5
- Shows, C., 1
- Skills, parenting/childcare, 47–51
- Social exclusion. See Exclusion
- Social isolation. See Isolation
- Social networks, 91
- Social support, 76–79
- Sociological research, 1
- Sports, 7
- Standards of parenting, 45–47
- Status
 - hiding/minimizing, 93–95
 - revealing, 95
- Stay-at-home fathers/
 - fathering, 99–107
 - childcare, 106
 - by definition, 5
 - disapproval from others, 7
 - gender policing, 31, 106
 - intensive parenting
 - language, 102
 - masculinity, 104
 - number of, 4–5
 - parenting critiques, 88–90
 - as primary caregiver, 102–103
 - public behavior, 87–88
 - reasons for, 6, 18–29
 - representations of, 5
 - research project on, 13–28
 - social acceptance of, 105–106
 - women's incomes, 100
 - See also* Exclusion; Housework; Parenting
- Television shows, 5
- Weird/creepy, perception of, 87–88
- Williams, J. C., 100
- Wives. See Women
- Women
 - careers, support to, 37–41
 - income, 100
 - vs.* men, in parenting, 46–47
 - See also* Housework
- Work/family conflict, 2, 4
- Working-class fathers, 1
- Yarwood, G. A., 5