

Index

- Accuracy rule, 199–200
- Acrobatic dance club, 165
- Adjustments, 119
- Amateur sports, 13, 81
 - entities, 7, 106, 207
- Amateurs, 2
- Analytical models, 19
- Annulment technique, 148
- Anonymity, 116–117, 136, 194
- Archer club, 165
- Archival research, 83
- Astro-turfing approach, 66
- Athletes, 2, 21, 23
 - amateur athletes, 3
 - development of specific records
 - or archives of, 3–4
 - growth of, 13
 - professional, 14, 107
 - top-level professional, 141
- Attitude, 126–127, 199
 - measurement through test
 - methods, 126–132
 - psychological attitudes, 103
 - in sports industry, 111–113
 - synergy of, 93
- Attractive factors of sports, 33
- Avalanche effect, 93
- Average family, standard of, 173

- Basic set, 42, 116–117, 123, 155,
157–158, 159, 161
- Benchmark(ing), 51
 - benefits and disadvantages,
59–61
 - entity, 54, 55
 - method, 33, 201–202, 207
 - phases of benchmarking
 - implementation process,
57–59
 - project, 47
 - sport entity, 51–52
 - in sports industry, 51
 - types, 53–57
- Business
 - philosophy, 15
 - records of sport entity, 86
 - strategy, 107
- Business intelligence (BI), 73
 - completeness of application,
76–77
 - data collection approaches,
73–74
 - decision-making, 78–79
 - market research in sports
industry, 74–75
 - ORI, 75–76
 - strategic decision-making,
79–80
 - technology development,
77–78

- Capital inflow, 74
- Capital-intensive sports, 81
- Causal research, 42, 152, 153
- Causality, 8, 23, 34, 102, 171, 174
- Central epistemological principle,
174
- Central statistical bureaus, 87
- Clusters. See Groups
- Code of ethics, 192–193

- Collected data evaluation, 119
- College sport competitions, 3
- Communicative factors, 33
- Competitive intelligence, 76
- Competitor intelligence (CI), 76
 - See also* Business intelligence (BI)
- Complex
 - quantitative methods, 167
 - questions, 119
 - sports phenomena, 38
- Computer-aided interviewing (CAI), 118
- Computer-Assisted Telephone Interviewing (CATI), 118
- Concept (definition), 40
- Connoisseurs sample, 68, 91, 162, 164
- Consistency rule, 199–200
- Consumer intelligence, 75
- Contemporary marketing principles, 16
- Contemporary sport, 1
 - marketing, 32, 206
- Content analysis method, 133–134, 187–188
- Content marketing, 65, 66
- Continuity of revenues, 15–16
- Continuous long-term monitoring, 181
- Continuous research, 102
- Continuous systematic process, 114–115
- Control settings of experiment method implementation, 147
- Cookie, 68
- Core sample category, 159
- Corporate entities, 206
- Costs, 210
 - reduction, 124
- Crawling process, 66
- Crisis management, 51
- Cross-cultural competencies, 75–76
- Cross-tabulation, 201–202
- Cultural anthropology, 111
- Cultural intelligence (CQ), 75
- Culture, 2
- Customer relationship management (CRM), 70
- Customer-related information, 20
- Customization, 27
 - of market research, 35
- Data, 158, 174, 181
 - analysis, 179
 - coding, 43
 - mining, 78
- Data collection, 42–43
 - process, 13
 - techniques, 42
- Database, 80
- De-objectification principle, 175
- Decision support systems, 77
- Decision-making, 11, 78–79, 164
 - based on findings of exploratory research, 98–100
 - process, 18–19, 83
 - secondary data for decision-making in management, 81–82
 - in sports entities management, 43–45, 96–98
- Deming Prize, 51
- Demographic characteristics, 84, 103–104, 110
- Demographic variables, 27
- Dependent variable of sport phenomenon, 147
- Description method, 174

- Descriptive analysis, 101–102, 201–202
 - in sports industry, 105–106
- Descriptive data, 90
- Descriptive research, 41
 - descriptive analysis in sports industry, 105–106
 - MIS, 102–103
 - panels types, 104
 - sport, 101
 - See also* Exploratory research
- Descriptive statistics application, 169
- Desk research, 83–84, 109
- Development incentives, 173
- Dichotomous questions, 119–120, 133–134
- Direct observation, 138
- Direct scales, 126–127
- Directorate-General for Education and Culture, 108
- Display advertising, 65, 67
- Documentary secondary data, 83
- Draft, 58

- E Post experiment form, 149–150
- E Post–K Post experiment form, 151
- E Pre–post experiment form, 150
- E Pre–Post–K Pre–Post experiment form, 151
- E-mail
 - discussion groups, 65
 - marketing, 65, 71
- Economic
 - factors, 5
 - phenomena, 171
 - recession, 8
- Elasticity of demand, 34
- Elimination technique, 148

- Emotions in sports industry, 111–113
- Entity's decision-making, 172
- Environment(al), 2, 171
 - adaptation, 206
 - awareness of sport entity's activities, 112–113
 - changes monitoring, 26–28
 - intelligence, 75
 - research, 16
 - terms, 84
- Epistemological principle, 171
- Epistemology, 178
- Errors
 - of interviewers and research organizers, 123
 - in processing of results, 123–124
 - in selection of sample units, 123
- ESPN sports channel, 4
- Ethical
 - conflicts, 193
 - factors, 5
 - principles in market research in sports industry, 191–195
 - standards, 73
- Ethnography, 168
 - knowledge, 184
 - study, 181
- Ethnomethodology, 167, 168
- European Quality Award, 51
- European Society for Opinion and Marketing Research (ESOMAR), 194–195
- Evaluative sample, 162
- Ex Post Facto experiment form, 151
- Exclusivity, 200
- Experiences, 9, 69
 - analysis, 12, 81

- research on previous
 - experiences with sport phenomenon, 90–91
- Experiment method, 42, 48
 - advantages and disadvantages, 152–154
 - application in sports industry, 144
 - implementation, 145
 - implementation methods of
 - primary research, 115
 - practical implementation in sports industry, 146–152
 - sports industry, 110
- Expert concept, 142
- Expert samples, 164
- Exploratory research, 41, 89, 90, 187
 - analysis of selecting sport case studies, 91–92
 - decision-making based on findings, 98–100
 - findings, 161
 - pilot studies, 92–96
 - research on previous
 - experiences with sport phenomenon, 90–91
 - secondary data analysis for decision-making in management, 96–98
 - secondary data collection for management of sport entities, 90
 - in sports industry, 98–100
 - See also* Descriptive research
- External benchmarking, 54–57
- External competitive
 - benchmarking, 54
- External data sources, 47
- External generic benchmarking, 55–57
- External intelligence (EXI), 75
- External non-competitive
 - benchmarking, 55
- External sources, 84
 - of secondary data in sports industry market research, 87–88
- Facebook profile use, 69
- Factorial experiment, 152
- Fan panels, 102–103
- Fans, 10, 196
- FC Bayern Munich, football clubs, 70
- FC Bayern TV (FCB.TV), 70
- Field implementation of market research
 - additional guidelines, 195–197
 - ethical principles in market research in sports industry, 191–195
- Field researchers, 190, 193–195
- Financial resources
 - redistribution, 14
- Financial support intelligence, 76
- Focus group, 182–184
- Follower intelligence, 76
- Formal approach, 56
- Formal benchmarking process, 56
- Free-time culture, 23
- Fullness, 200
- Funnel technique, 135
- Genealogical approach, 181
- General data, 48
- Generalization methods, 88
- Generic benchmarking, 60
- Generic external
 - benchmarking, 56
- Geographic characteristics, 110
- Global business, 208

- Global market, 25, 37
- Global sports industry income projections, 109
- Globalization, 45, 74, 82
 - fostered development, 23
 - processes, 24
 - of sports commercialization, 108
 - of sports industry results, 81–82
- Google analytics tools, 78
- Gradualism rule, 199–200
- Groups, 160
 - interview, 93–94, 183
 - sample, 160–161
 - sample survey, 161
 - size criterion, 161
- Guerilla marketing, 66

- Hajduk Football Club, 58, 59
- Hawthorne effect, 95, 194
- Heterogeneity, 34
- Highly complex questions, 119
- Historical approach, 176, 177
- Holistic approach, 176
- Homogenization process, 175
- Human factor, 123
- Human resource management, 189
- Humanitarian attributes, 71
- Hypocritical method, 144
- Hypothesis, 40, 41, 199–200
 - of primary research, 113–114
 - setting, 147

- Image creation in sports industry, 77
- Implementation methods of
 - primary research in sports industry, 115

- Implementation process, 163, 178–180
- In-depth analysis of experience, 102
- In-depth interviews, 94–95, 179
- Income, 160
 - structure of FIFA World Cup, Brazil, 108
- Independent variables of sport phenomenon, 147
- Indexing, 66
- Indirect observation, 138
- Indirect scales, 126–127, 128–129
- Individual
 - phenomenon, 186
 - selection method, 159
- Informal benchmarking, 56, 58
- Informal data in sports industry, 9–14
- Informal surveys, 12
- Innovations, 107
- Integrated marketing, 16, 17
 - communications, 113
 - function, 16
 - See also* Web marketing
- Intelligence of integrated
 - process, 76
- Intentional sample, 156–157, 159, 163
 - of sport entities, 91
 - types, 162
- Inter-cultural level intelligence (IQ), 75
- Interactive online communication, 181
- Interactive process, 177
- Internal benchmarking, 53–54
- Internal data sources, 85–86
- Internal databases, 47
- Internal market, 38

- Internal sources, 84
 - of secondary data in sports
 - industry market research, 85–86
- International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), 194–195
- International competitions, 3
- International Cup competitions, 3
- Internet, 62, 68, 77, 205
 - articles, 70
 - services, 67
 - software, 66
- Interpretative approach, 167
- Interpretative research, 167
- Interpretive validity—objectivity, 176
- Interval scale, 128, 129
- Interviews, 115–116
 - protocol, 94
 - questionnaire, 133–134, 136
- Introspection, 177
- ‘Judgement sample’, 162
- Karate Association of City of Split, 165
- Latin square experiment method, 152
- ‘Learning’ entity, 54–55
- Legal factors, 5
- Legal sports entity, 1
- Leisure concept, 142
- Life history method, 180–182
- Lifestyle sports, 22
- Likert scale, 129–130, 131
- Local community, 165
- Local sport federations, 82–83
- Mailing lists, 65, 68
- Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award, 51
- ‘Manoeuvre space’, 168
- Market
 - liberalization, 74
 - in sports, 32
 - variables, 27
- Market intelligence (MI), 75, 76
- Market monitoring, 37
 - data in sports industry, 9–14
 - in narrow sense, 37–38
- Market research, 35, 81, 163, 206
 - activities, 3
 - approaches to, 38–43
 - case study method, 185–187
 - classification and control of collected data, 199–200
 - content analysis method, 187–188
 - creating market research reports in sports industry, 202–204
 - data in sports industry, 9–14, 28, 45–49
 - focus group, 182–184
 - general limitations of samples, 163–165
 - implementation of marketing tools, 4–5
 - in sports entities management, 43–45
 - life history method, 180–182
 - method, 195
 - objectives and types, 46–49
 - observation method, 136–144
 - optimal development, 36–37
 - personal diaries, 184–185
 - quantitative research, 30–31
 - reports creation in sports industry, 202–204
 - research instrument design for, 133–136

- results analysis in sports
 - industry
 - seasonality, 34–35
 - secondary data, 29–30
 - special factors, 33–34
 - sport federations, 1–2
 - sports entities, 2–3, 28–29
 - in sports industry, 2, 3–4, 7, 126–127, 155, 160
 - sports marketing, 5–6
 - sports offer, 32–33
 - statistical data processing, 201–202
 - technologies, 31–32
 - types of samples, 159–163
 - utilizations of market research, 35–36
- See also* Descriptive research; Exploratory research
- Marketing, 77
 - concepts, 14, 37
 - function, 17
 - in market research, 14–18
 - See also* Web marketing
- Marketing information systems (MIS), 18, 102
 - of sport entity, 18–21
- Mass sports, 20, 144
- Mass-media sports, 157
- Mathematical data processing, 180–181
- Media, 11–12, 33, 140, 181, 187
- Median, 127–128
- Mediators, 29
- Membership fees, 205
- Metadata system, 79
- Michigan Wolverines, web
 - marketing in sports industry, 69–70
- Mixed martial arts (MMA), 164
- Mobile advertising, 65
- Mobile networks, 67
- Mode, 127–128
- Moderator, 184
- Modern marketing concepts, 17
- Money in professional and amateur sports, 73
- Monitoring, 18, 26, 179
 - continuous monitoring, 15, 18–19
 - and controlling of business, 25
 - direct monitoring, 181
 - of environmental changes surrounding sport entities, 26–28
 - market monitoring, 9–14
- Monopoly position, business, 195–196
- Motives for market research in sports industry
 - approaches to market research in sports industry, 38–43
 - invisibility of services, 7–8
 - market research, market monitoring and informal data, 9–14
 - market research and decision-making, 43–45
 - market research in sports industry, 28–37, 45–49
 - marketing concepts, 14–18
 - MIS of sport entity, 18–21
 - monitoring of environmental changes surrounding sport entities, 26–28
 - research of trends in sports industry, 21–26
 - sports entities, 8–9
 - sports industry market monitoring and market research, 37–38

- Multi-method streamlined process, 167
- Multidimensional scales, 132
- Multiple theoretical frameworks, 168
- Multiple-choice questions, 120, 133–134
- National sports federations, 3, 82–83
- National statistics, 87
- Natural factors, 5
- Naturalistic approach, 168
- Naturalistic research, 167
- Neo-functionalism, 170
- Networks, 66
- Neuro-marketing in observation, 138
- Nominal scale, 126, 127
- Non-competitive benchmarking, 60
- Non-mass sports, 157, 164
- Non-verbal communication, 184, 190–191 response, 96
- Notable observation, 138
- Objective external variables, 34
- Objective method, 160
- Observation method, 42, 48, 137–138
 - advantages and disadvantages, 139–140
 - case study, 140–144
 - implementation methods of primary research, 115
 - in market research in sports industry, 136
 - neuro-marketing in observation, 138
 - stakeholders, 137
- Olympic Games, 3, 4, 65, 108
- Olympic sports, 87
- Omnibus research in sports industry, 104
- One-time research, 102
- Online analytical processing (OLAP), 79
- Online market research, 68
- Online research, 69
- Online surveys, 69
- Online testing, sport entities, 117–118
- Ontology, 178
- Open-ended questions, 120, 133–134
- Operational decisions, 10, 12, 20
- Opinions analysis in sports industry, 111–113
- Optimization process, 65–66
- Ordinal scale, 127–128
- Organizational Intelligence (ORI), 75–76
- Organizers, representatives of, 94
- Orientation to target segments, 15
- Panel(s)
 - experiment, 152
 - types, 104
- Paradigm, 170
- Paradigmatic framework, 178
- Paralympic Games, 3
- Participants, 103–104
- Participating entities, 91
- Participating sport entities, 109
- Personal diaries, 184–185
- Personal judgement, 162
- Personal observation, 138
- Pertinent sample, 162
- Phenomenology, 163, 168, 176
- Phone testing, 116–117
- Physical entity, 2

- Pilot studies, in sports industry,
 - 92
 - group interview, 93–94
 - in-depth interviews, 94–95
 - projective techniques, 95–96
- Political factors, 5
- Pop-under ads, 67
- Pop-up advertising, 67
- Popularity of martial arts, 164
- Post-coding administers, 200
- Postal survey, 69, 117–118
- Pre-test examination, sports industry, 119–120
- Preliminary data, 44
- Preliminary research, 139, 189
- Preparation and planning of implementation phase, 119
- Prestigious quality awards, 51–52
- Pricing
 - policy, 20
 - strategies, 64
- Primary data collection method, 107–108
- Primary data in market research in sports industry
 - analysis of opinions, attitudes, emotions and psychological variables, 111–113
 - application of experiment method in sports industry, 144–154
 - conducting primary research in sports industry, 113–115
 - global sports industry income projections, 109
 - implementation methods of primary research in sports industry, 115
 - income structure of FIFA World Cup, 108
 - observation method in market research in sports industry, 136–144
 - primary research, 110
 - research instrument design for market research in sports industry, 133–136
 - testing method for sport entities, 115–132
- Primary method, 180
- Primary offer of sports entity, 33
- Primary research, 30, 42, 108, 109–110
 - conducting in sports industry, 113–115
 - implementation methods in sports industry, 115
- Probability
 - of inclusion of individuals, 161–162
 - theory, 156
- Problem-solving techniques, 74
- Professional sport club, 1
 - entities, 73, 98–99
- Projective techniques, 42, 95–96
- Psychological characteristics, 103–104
- Psychological variables in sports industry, 111–113
- Psychology, 111
- Public loyalty enhancement, 209
- Public relations, 77
- Publications, 13
- ‘Purposive sample’, 162
- Qualitative approach, 178
- Qualitative methods, 167, 185
- Qualitative research, 31, 49, 167, 168–169, 170
 - basic characteristics, 169–171

- case study method in market
 - research in sports industry, 185–187
- common methods, 180
- content analysis method in
 - market research in sports industry, 187–188
- criteria for implementation, 172–177
- focus group in market research
 - in sports industry, 182–184
- implementation process, 178–180
- life history method in market
 - research in sports industry, 180–182
- limitations, 171–172
- methodology, 169, 180
- personal diaries in market
 - research in sports industry, 184–185
- principles, 175
- strategy, 178
- See also* Descriptive research; Exploratory research
- Qualitative social research, 172
- Quantitative data, 90, 171
- Quantitative findings, 169
- Quantitative indicators, 171, 187
- Quantitative methods, 30, 31, 167, 185
- Quantitative research, 30, 168–169, 171
 - fundamental approach, 175
 - selection of appropriate methods, 182
- See also* Descriptive research; Exploratory research
- Quantitative studies, 49
- Questionnaire, 133–134, 199–200
- Quota sample, 68, 162, 165
- Random numbers, 160
- Random sample, 68, 156, 159
 - group sample, 160–161
 - simple, 160
 - stratified sample, 160
 - surface sample, 161
 - systematic sample, 160
- Randomization process, 175
- Ratio scales, 128
- Readability rule, 199–200
- Receptive factors, 33
- Recession reality, 23
- Recorded fans, 159
- Recreational part, 33
- Research
 - coordinators, 191, 192–193
 - design, 168
 - instrument design for market
 - research in sports industry, 133–136
 - phenomenon, 89, 156, 158, 163
 - problem, 156, 168, 177, 183
 - process, 168, 170, 176
 - sample, 155
 - strategy, 167
 - variables, 40–41
- Researchers, 124, 190–191, 194
- Respondent(s), 95, 120, 193–195
 - sport entities, 116–117
- Revenues, 209–210
- Role-play techniques, 95, 96
- Rotation technique, 148
- Sample/sampling, 42, 155–158, 160–161, 163
 - of connoisseurs, 162, 164
 - error, 158
 - frame, 157, 158
 - group, 161
 - limitations in market research
 - in sports industry, 163–165

- research, 41
- scope of, 158
- selection, 157
- and selection criteria
 - determination phase, 119
- types of samples in market
 - research in sports industry, 159–163
- unit, 155
- Search engine marketing (SEM), 65
- Search engine optimization (SEO), 66
- Search engines, 65, 66, 71
- Seasonality of demand, 34–35
- Secondary data, 44
 - analysis for decision-making in management of sport entities, 96–98
 - collection for management of sport entities, 90
 - decision-making process, 83
 - external sources of secondary data in sports industry market research, 87–88
 - globalization, 82
 - internal and external sources, 84
 - internal sources of secondary data in sports industry market research, 85–86
 - in market research in sports industry, 81
 - research in sports industry, 84–85
 - special records of secondary data of sport entity, 86–87
 - two basic categories of secondary data, 82–83
- Segmentation, 42
 - of environment, 27–28
 - optimal, 28
 - of total population, 42
- Segments, 21, 29, 110, 156, 185
- Semantic scales, 130, 131
- Simple market research in sports industry
 - benchmarking in sports industry, 51–61
 - web marketing and, 61–71
- Simple questions, 119
- Simple random sample, 160
- Single variable analysis, 201–202
- Single-degree
 - cluster, 161
 - surface samples, 161
- Skype, 91
- Social media marketing, 65, 66
- Social networks, 67, 71, 205
- Social process, 185, 186
- Socio-cultural factors, 5
- Socio-demographic
 - changes, 24
 - characteristics, 48, 118
- Socioeconomic characteristics, 103–104, 110
- Socioeconomic variables, 27
- Software solutions, 77
- Sport case studies, analysis of selecting, 91–92
- Sport entities, 77, 80, 81, 89, 90, 174, 186, 188, 199–200, 202–203, 205, 206, 208
 - application, 118–122
 - environment, 61
 - fan population, 161
 - followers, 160
 - measuring attitudes through test methods, 126–132
 - members, 160
 - online testing, 117–118
 - phone testing, 116–117

- secondary data analysis for
 - decision-making in management, 96–98
- secondary data collection for sport entities management, 90
- special records of secondary data of, 86–87
- testing method for, 115
- weaknesses, 122–125
- Sport federation's activities, 2
- Sport phenomenon, 46, 82, 89, 99, 159, 162, 163, 175, 177, 193, 199–200, 202–203
 - research on previous experiences with, 90–91
- Sport(s), 1, 7–8, 9, 23, 26, 101, 145, 156, 157, 168, 170, 174, 205, 208
 - clubs, 1
 - competitions, 3
 - databases, 13
 - event, 33
 - federations, 1–2
 - federations, 3
 - managers, 159
 - marketing, 5–6
 - offer, 32–33
 - practice, 94–95
 - recreational organizations, 1
 - strategy, 107
 - types, 20
- Sports entities, 1, 2, 4, 5, 8–9, 17, 27–29
 - market research and decision-making in, 43–45
 - marketing concept, 15–16
 - monitoring of environmental changes surrounding, 26–28
- Sports industry, 91, 160, 163, 172, 195
 - analysis of opinions, attitudes, emotions and psychological variables, 111–113
 - basic characteristics of qualitative research in sports industry, 169–171
 - common methods of qualitative research in sports industry, 180
 - conduct primary research in, 113–115
 - criteria for implementation of qualitative research in sports industry, 172–177
 - decision-making based on findings of exploratory research in, 98–100
 - descriptive analysis in, 105–106
 - external sources of secondary data in, 87–88
 - implementation methods of primary research in, 115
 - implementation process of qualitative research in sports industry, 178–180
 - internal sources of secondary data in, 85–86
 - limitations of qualitative research in sports industry, 171–172
 - market monitoring and informal data in market research, 9–14
 - market monitoring and market research in narrow sense, 37–38
 - market research in, 28–37, 174

- qualitative market research in, 169
 - secondary data research in, 84–85
- Stakeholders, 2, 3, 11, 12, 90, 101, 191–192
- Statistical analysis, 148, 201–202
- Statistical data processing, 180, 201–202
- Strategic benchmarking, 57
- Strategic decision-making, 36, 79, 100, 106, 122, 171, 175, 181, 186
- Stratification, 127, 160, 195
- Stratified sample, 160, 161
- Stratums, 160
- Structured observation, 138
- Structured questions
 - with hidden objectives, 120–121
 - with unhidden goals, 120
- Structured statistics, 85–86
- Subjective external variables, 34
- Subject–object relationship, 175
- Surface sample, 161
- Surveys, 115–116
- SVPETRVS Fight Night, mixed martial arts tournament, 105
- Swim swam community website, 67
- SWOT analysis, 53
- System oriented towards data, 77
- System oriented towards decision-making support, 77
- Systematic sample, 160

- Tactical benchmarking, 56, 57
- Tactical decision-making, 21, 36, 79, 81, 153, 175, 181, 186
- Tactical decisions, 10, 79, 81, 98

- Target group, 155, 157, 158
- Target population, 7, 20, 26, 43, 65, 101, 181, 207
- Target(ed) segments, 2, 16, 20, 63, 64, 143, 188
 - authentication, 37
 - orientation to, 15
 - perceptions, 16
- Technical/electronic devices, observation using, 138
- Technological development, 25
- Technological factors, 5, 77
- Tertiary method, 180
- Test(ing) method, 42, 48, 110
 - application, 118–122
 - implementation methods of
 - primary research, 115
 - measuring attitudes through
 - test methods, 126–132
 - online testing, 117–118
 - phone testing, 116–117
 - for sport entities, 115
 - weaknesses of, 122–125
- Textual argumentation, 171
- Thematic-perception techniques, 95, 96
- Theoretical paradigms, 167, 168, 170
- Third-party technique, 95, 96
- Thurston scale, 128, 129, 130
- Ticket revenues, 15
- Traditional MMA martial tournament, 164
- Transcoding, 200
- Triangulation of research methods, 98–99
- Two variable analysis, 201–202
- Two-degree cluster, 161
- Two-degree surface samples, 161
- Two-way tabulation, 201–202

- Un-notable observation, 138
- Unfinished sentences test, 95, 96
- Unrecorded fans, 159
- Unstructured observation, 138
- Unstructured question(s),
 - 133–134
 - with hidden agendas, 121
 - with unhidden goals, 120
- URLs, 66
- Validation, 83, 179
- Variables, 40, 122, 152, 202
 - causal, 186
 - dependent, 145, 147, 149
 - independent, 146, 147, 148
 - internal and external, 34
 - psychological, 49, 110
 - research, 40–41
- Verbal communication, 184
- Verbal response, 96
- Virtual services, 63
- Volley Ball Team Camp–Porech,
Croatia, 140–144
- Web bots, 66
- Web crawlers, 66
- Web marketing, 62
- case study analysis, 69
- commercial activities, 63–64
- communication with target
segments, 65–68
- exploratory research, 61–62
- FC Bayern Munich, 70
- final insights into, 68–69
- forms, 71
- and market research, 61
- Michigan Wolverines, 69–70
- pricing strategies, 64–65
- sport entity, 62–63
- Wings for Life, 70–71
- Web platform, 64, 68, 184
- Web server, 68
- Web-marketing platform, 207
- Website ranking process, 66
- Whims, 21–23
- Wings for Life marathon, 70
- Word-association tests, 95–96
- World and Continental
Championships, 3
- World Football Championship,
108
- YouTube, 63, 65, 66, 71