

Index

- Absences, 10, 11–12, 17, 411, 414–416
- Active interviewing, 93–96
- Actor-network theory, 228
- Agency, 239–257
 - organic agency, 14
 - personal agency, 70, 345, 361
 - human agency, 167, 343
 - political agency, 469
- Agonistic interviews, 93
- Allegories of environmental harm, 155, 165–167
- Allegory, 165–166
- Al-Shabaab, 27, 133, 143, 460
- Analytical dialogue, 381–384
- Andrews, M., 65
- Animating interest, 371
- Anti-jihadism, 39
- Armed conflict and war, 4
- Art, 9, 36, 66–68, 121, 180, 197–200, 203, 207, 217
- Articulating resistance, 472, 483–486
- As-salamu alaykum*, 458
- As-told-to autobiography, 135
- Attentiveness, 96, 102–103
- Attorney stories, 156–160
- Australia, 250
- Autobiographical resources, 67
- Autobiographical writing, 13, 64, 429
 - archived criminality reform, 434–439
 - Chinese Literary Tradition, 432–433
 - ideological reform, 433–434
 - incarcerated Chinese, 429–432
- Autobiography
 - analysis in practice, 140–145
 - defining, 134–136
 - paratexts, 136–140
 - terrorism, 133–134
- Autoethnography, 7, 63, 68–71, 79, 420
- Bad apple hypothesis, 323
- Bakhtin, M., 78, 136, 368, 370, 383
- Becker, H., 2
- Belgium, 8, 90, 101
- Belgian bureaucratic system, 101
- Biography, 9, 73, 135
- The Birth of Purgatory*, 218
- Bourdieu, Pierre, 3, 369
- Canadian treatment programme for men, 280
- Capriccio, 212–214
- Carceral, 5, 7, 109, 113, 122, 161, 197–216
- Character, 29, 36, 52, 54, 79, 100, 178, 181, 184, 283, 296, 329, 371, 419, 462
- Chico's visual narratives
 - Chico the friend, 189–190
 - economic and social marginalisation, 181
 - friend, 189–190
 - menacing rebel, 184–188
 - methamphetamine, 180
- Children's stories, 162–164
- China, 13, 117, 202, 427–440
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 431, 433
- Class
 - class status, 114, 143, 265
 - middle-class values, 4, 49, 79, 413, 415

- social class, 410, 415
- working-class, 75
- Coding, 12, 48, 134, 378
- Collective representations, 7, 63, 142, 163, 397, 484
- Co-conspirators, 55
- Collecting stories, 6
- Colonialism. See also 'Race', 16, 198, 225, 470
- Compulsory Education Law of the People's Republic of China, 1986, 433
- Confucian ideology, 432
- Constitutive perspective, 2, 46–48, 67, 92, 104, 134, 219, 283, 410
- Conversation, 34, 35, 37, 51, 93, 95, 102, 114, 193, 282, 317, 391, 449
- Convict criminology, 63–80
- Corporate offenders, 156–160
- Counterinsurgency, 335
- Counternarratives, 7, 13, 65, 66, 103
 - narrative analysis, 446–448
 - narrative resistance, 450–461
 - power, 446–448
 - resistance, 446–448
 - study and participants, 448–449
 - team research, 449–450
- Court case files, 87, 89, 90
- Co-victim narratives, 265, 269, 270
- Crime
 - crime narratives, 389
 - crime-involved populations, 110
 - criminality, 131
 - criminological facts, 72
 - drug crime, 4
 - environmental crime, 153–172
 - general theory, 412–414
 - narrative scripts, 2
 - personality disorders, 5
 - proximal antecedents to, 345
 - serious crimes, 180
 - types, 13
 - victims' narratives, 265–272
- Crime Victims' Rights Week programs, 270
- Criminal justice
 - crafting language, 50
 - ethnography, 45–47
 - honesty, 52–54
 - impartiality, 57–59
 - making evidence intelligible, 50–52
 - performance, 54–57
 - prosecutorial narratives, 47–50
 - real-time narrative creation, 45–47
 - The Trial*, 217
- Criminal Justice Institutions
 - courts, 16, 90, 92, 99, 243, 294, 314
 - police, 5, 11, 31, 35, 39, 90, 92, 191, 131, 184, 189, 296, 321–341
 - prisons, 9, 16, 65, 72, 76, 115, 197, 204, 211, 212, 297, 431
 - youth justice, 5, 8, 87–108
- Criminal justice professionals, attorney stories, 156–160
- Criminal law, 309–314
- Critical criminology, 4, 66
- Culture, 3, 5, 9, 15, 28, 37, 89, 119, 136, 155, 176, 197, 217–233, 226, 271, 321–341, 346, 414, 416, 438, 463, 468
- Cultural criminology, 4, 153–172
- Daya's story, 113–115, 119, 120, 125
- Decolonial analysis, 467–491
- Deconstruction, 200, 202, 214
- Decontextualized images, 179
- Defence mechanism, 12, 390, 395, 400, 404
- Derogatory counternarratives, 457
- Dialogical narrative analysis (DNA), 367–385
 - analytical dialogue, 381–384
 - animating interest, 371
 - apocalyptic stories, 377–381
 - definition, 370
 - forms of, 372–374
 - implications, 384–385

- Dictated autobiography, 135
 Discipline and Punish, 70
 Discourse, 2, 8, 87, 111, 156, 253, 335, 416, 428, 447, 485, 486
 Discourse analysis, 8, 156, 199, 253, 410
 Documentary analysis, 179, 330 Documents
 case file documents, 101 forged signature, 57 forgery of bank documents, 53 legal, 296
 official documents, 8, 27
 photocopied documents, 431 textual analysis, 8
 Dominance, 484–486
 Double consciousness, 68
 Doxastic interviews, 94
 Drugs policy war, 383–384
- Elastic narratives, 391
 Elites, 59, 198, 420
 Elite and expert interviews, 47, 59, 93, 96
 Emotions, 32, 432, 447, 454, 455, 457
 Empathy, 28, 100–102, 178, 267, 272, 285, 288, 297
 England, 38, 203, 285, 394
 Environmental crime, 153–172
 Environmental harm, 8, 154, 155
 fictionalised depictions and representations, 160–162
 Epiphany, 33, 248, 251
 Episodic narratives offence narrative roles, 346–357
 Epistemic and doxastic modes, 97–99
 Epistemic interviews, 93, 94, 103
 Establishing trust, 36, 449
 Ethnicity. See also ‘Race’, 72, 87, 420, 435
 Ethnocentrism. See also ‘Race’, 329
 Ethnography, 6–7, 27–43, 46, 56, 60, 68, 178, 392, 463
- Existential narratives, 35
 Extremism, 14, 133, 445–446, 461
- Factual counternarratives, 451–454, 457, 462
 Faith, 75, 79, 240, 245, 248, 250, 252, 304, 476
 Feminism, 198, 282, 468
 black and African feminist theory, 474
 eco-feminist, 208
 intersectional feminism, 473
 Feminist research, 88 interviewing, 95–96 practice, 93–96
 Ferguson community, 332 effect, 333
 Ferguson Police Department (FPD), 332
 Fiction, 8, 59, 109, 111, 142, 155, 160, 161, 162, 166, 327, 419, 429
 Figurative devices, 12, 416, 417
 First-time offender, 124, 312, 313, 314
 Formula stories, 104, 177, 391
 Football Hooliganism, 12, 350
 Frank, A. W., 220, 229, 367–374, 382, 384, 413
 Free Association Narrative Interview (FANI), 390, 392
 Frye, N. 343, 344, 353, 354, 355, 357
- Galli de Bibiena, Ferdinando, 206
A General Theory of Crime, 409, 412–414
- Gender cultural norms, 225, 329 race. See Race regimes imposed on women, 65 transgender, 109, 113, 114
 women’s prison, 46
 Genre, 8, 102, 112, 123, 142–143, 146, 201, 204, 359, 376, 381, 383, 432

- Germany, 3, 11, 305, 310, 312, 314
 German Youth Courts Act, 314
 Globalisation, 14, 16, 153, 334, 467
 Goffman, E., 2, 229
 Godka, 27, 31–36
 Green criminology, 8, 153
 Green cultural criminology, 4, 153–168
 Gubrium, J., 28, 46
Gulliver's Travels, 111, 125
- Habitus, 3, 104, 369, 370, 449
 Hall, S., 303, 305
 Haunting, 205, 206, 214, 282, 298
 Harm, 1, 2, 8, 240
 power and inequality, 15–16 self-harm, 77
 penal harm, 87, 91–104, 153–172, 411–412
 environmental harm, 156–162
 disaster, 157
 environmental harm, 160–167
Heart of Darkness, 70
 Hegemonic narratives, 17, 104, 411, 414, 415, 420, 469, 486
 Heteroglossia, 368, 381
 Homonarrativus, 92
 Honesty, 52–54
 “How-to” bias, 47
 Holstein, J., 28, 46
 Humility topos, 138
 Humour, 29, 37, 185, 190, 193, 457–460, 462
 Hegemony, 66, 414
 Human Rights, 374, 382
- ‘Ideal’ victimhood, 267
 Ideologies, 322, 446, 448
 Ideology, 189, 396, 397, 429, 466
 Images, 9, 70, 175–193, 197–214, 398
 Imaginative small talk, 34, 35, 46
 Impartiality, 57–59
 Implicit authority, 267
 Implicit psychological content, 360
- Imposter syndrome, 75
 Individual offenders, 29, 78, 87, 111, 131–132, 281, 156, 283, 286, 343, 345, 347, 390, 405, 428–429
 Inference rich, 308
 Institutional narratives, 91–104
 empathy, 100–102
 engagement, 100–102
 infusing insights, 95–96 interview, 103–104
 judicial-correctional ‘truth discourse’, 280 judicial truth, 4
 penal harm, 91–104
 police, 92
 research context and interaction, 102–103 researching up, 93–95 respect, 100–102
 self-narratives, 92, 97 shifts and porous, 97–99
 Socratic interviews, 96–97, 99–100
 Institutions, 5, 11, 16, 95, 158, 161, 298, 305, 373, 385, 427, 440, 468
 Insurgency, 335
 Intersectionality, 17, 468
 Intersectional narrative criminology, 471
 Interviews/interviewing, 7–8, 181 contextualising photographs, 178–180
 convict criminology, 72
 Dave, 11
 document studies, 29
 epistemic interviews, 94
 ethnographies, 9 individuals accused, 4 narrative inquiry, 40
 semi-structured dialogue, 72, 430 Socrates Light, 87–105
 texts, 8

- ISIS, 27, 37
 Italy, 207, 395
- Jihadism, 27, 32, 39, 41
 Jihadist organisations, 445, 454, 461
- Justice
 criminal justice, 5, 70, 75, 192, 240–241, 259, 283, 289, 298, 321, 327, 385, 418, 432
 Immanent Justice, 213 social justice, 13, 104, 467–491
 storied Justice, 45–62
 youth justice, 5, 8, 87–108
- June's story, 244–251
 practising faith, 245–247
 redemptive suffering, 249–251
- Jurors' interpretations, 49, 50
- Katz, J., 2, 177, 229, 373
- Labelling perspectives, 347
 Labelling theories, 2
 Labov, W., 371
 Landscape art, 203, 204
 Law enforcement community members, 324 culture and officer behaviour, 322, 323, 326 narrative methods, 321 visual pictures, 328
 witnesses in contact, 57
- Law, legal narratives, 5, 47, 45, 46, 59, 65, 68, 73, 78, 79, 80, 92, 110, 122, 156, 159, 198, 213, 271, 309–313, 321, 323, 325, 328, 330, 332, 378, 382, 412, 439
- Lawyers, 45, 47–49, 56, 58, 158
 Lay decision-makers, 50–52
 Lies, 8, 109–113, 125, 200, 252, 403, 455
 Life as book, 358
- Life As A Film (LAAF) approach, 11 criminal narratives, 358–359 elicitation interview, 359–360 explicit processes, 360
 implicit psychological content, 360
- Life event calendars (LECs), 113
 'Light' Socratic dialogues, 96–103
 Loseke, D. R., 176
- Maruna, S., 2, 242, 249, 279, 345, 347, 359, 390
 Marxism, 198, 214
 Masculinity, 123, 139, 227, 228, 231, 336, 379
 Master plot, 404
 Material culture, 9, 217–218
 Material objects, 223–224
 Matza, D., 2, 390
 Mauser 98K, 220–222
 McAdams, D., 134, 343, 344, 358–360
 Melancholy dilapidation, 197
 Membership Categorisation Analysis (MCA), 304, 306–309 categories, 303–304, 306–308 categorisation, 317–318
 category-bound construction, 309–316
 Dave's story, 309–316
 Memoir. See also Autobiography, 134, 135
 Metaphors, 8, 11, 39, 213, 334, 416
 Migration/migrants, 87, 92, 100, 123, 155, 166
 Mills, C. W., 2, 63, 64, 76, 77, 79
 Motherwood, Absent Mother Syndrome, 120, 248
 Mothers Against Violence, 242, 243, 248
 Murder/homicide, 10, 115, 250, 263, 361
 Muslims, 13, 39, 119, 144, 445–467

- Narrative analysis material culture studies, 217–218
 Mauser 98K, 220–222
 narratives, 218–220
 objects, 218–220
- Narrative convictions, 63–83
- Narrative dialogue, 11–12
- Narrative ethnography, 7, 47, 60, 264 criminology, 28–31
 Godka, 31–36
 trust, 36–39
- Narrative habitus, 104, 369, 370, 449
- Narrative identity, 180
- Narrative labour, 5, 71, 438, 439
- Narrative resistance, 446–447, 450–461
- Narrative Role Questionnaire (NRQ), 11, 348, 358, 362
- Narrative strategies, 45–62
- Narrative victimology. See also June's story, 244–246 audience, 271–275 challenges, 256–258 features, 269–276
 researching, 267–268
 situating, 264–267
 speaker, 269–271
 storytelling, 263
 timing, 275–276
- Nations/nationality, 164, 224, 420, 479, 480
- Neutralisations. See also Techniques of Neutralisation, 389, 390, 405
- News media, 14, 154, 379
- Norway, 35, 217, 220, 222, 225, 446, 448, 454, 457
- Objective reality, 111
- Objects, 6, 9, 175–195, 218–220, 222–231, 304, 416
 intended purpose, 224–225 owner/user, 226–228 own story, 228–231 past, 223–224
 sociocultural context, 225–226 storytelling prop, 222–223
- Observations, 6–7, 46, 93, 95, 157, 178, 192, 263–264, 267–268
- Offender Assessment System (OASys) report, 289
- Offender's narratives
 cognitive distortions, 279
 'innocent,' 282 judicial-correctional 'truth
 discourse,' 280
 missing victim, 290–293 offender and victim, 293–297 offenders and victims narratives, 286–297
 penitent offender, 286–290 punished offender, 290–293 real victim, 286–290
 slipperiness, 279 stories and justice, 297–298 victims in the prison, 283–286
- Online research
 Google, 282, 375
 YouTube.com, 375
- Organisations, antisociality, 412
- Overlexicalization, 418
- Paintings, 199, 201, 202, 208
- Panini, Giovanni Paolo, 208, 209
- Paratexts, 132
 covers, 138–140
 written introductions, 137–138
- Participant observation. See also Ethnography, 30, 45, 46, 48,
 49, 60, 262, 274, 281, 295, 374
- Penal harm, 12, 91–104, 411–412
- Penology, 5
- Personal narratives, 5, 7, 79, 156, 343, 345, 471
- Phatic talk, 34
- Phenomenal testimony, 67
- Philippines, 12, 367, 374, 376, 377, 384, 385

- Photo-elicitation, 179, 190–192
 Photo-elicitation interviews, 190
 Photographs, 178–180
 Phronetic approach, 97
 Pictures
 dark visions, 203–207 fascinating ruins, 207–210
 image and narrative, 198–200 landscapes, 200–203
 sublime effects, 211–213
 visual criminology, 194, 198
 Piranesi, Giovanni Battista, 9, 197, 205, 210, 212
 Plot, 35, 115, 166, 189, 229, 230, 293, 359, 403, 404, 446
 Plurivocal narrative, 472, 486–487
 Police
 police culture, 5, 321–341
 Police narratives
 culture, 321–323
 development, 323–327 growth areas, 333–336 methodological challenges, 333–336 popular culture, 327–329
 storytelling, 323–327
 thin blue line, 329–331
 ‘truth,’ 331–333
 Polkinghorne, D., 134
 Polletta, F., 135, 253, 369, 373
 Polyphony, 318, 368, 381
 Positivism, 35, 52, 74, 109, 138, 180, 244, 251, 260, 264, 273, 313, 327, 335, 361, 416, 418, 429
 Postcolonialism. See also ‘Race’, 198
 Poststructuralism, 198
 Power
 harm, 15–16
 inequality, 15–16
 narrative analysis, 446–448
 resistance, 446–448
 social inequalities, 12–13
 Prisoner autobiography. See also Autobiographical writing, 64–66 individual autobiography, 427 rehabilitation, 428–429
 Prisons/prisoners, 3, 5, 9, 16, 64–66, 72, 76, 115, 197, 204, 211, 212, 281, 297, 431
 Prisoners’ narratives, 298
 Professional role, 355, 358
 Prosecutorial narratives, 47–49
 Prostitution. See also Sex work, 291, 472, 473
 Psychiatry, 11, 309–312
 Psychoanalysis, 198
 Psychological approach
 Agency and Communion, 343
 Leary’s personality dimensions, 344 moral justification, 345–346
 Psychological complexity, 360–361
 Psycho-social criminology free association narrative interview, 390 Gianluca’s life story, 394–402 methods, 393
 Punishment, 15, 67, 72, 155, 159, 162, 197, 217, 285, 292, 312, 314, 316, 361, 412, 431, 477
 Quantitative analysis, 5, 68
 Rapport, 36, 37, 55, 94, 95, 103, 264, 266, 272, 282
 ‘Race’. See also Ethnicity
 black and African feminist theory, 474
 black perspectives, 80
 black prisoners, 65
 Caucasian youth, 90
 colonialism, 16, 198, 225, 470
 ethnocentrism, 329
 intersectional feminism, 473
 marginalized black women, 473, 475, 483, 487, 488, 489, 490
 Northern Caucasian migrants, 89

- postcolonialism, 198
 white narratives, 80 “white pride”, 191, 195
 white prisoners, 65
 Racism, 14, 470
 Redemption, 239–257
 Reflexivity, 63, 88, 96, 103, 270
 Religion, 13, 32, 35, 38, 248, 253, 266, 334, 446, 448, 452, 456, 479 Religious narratives. See also Redemption; Epiphanies;
 Faith, 10, 14, 32, 33, 34, 35, 38, 154, 207, 240, 253, 266, 445, 446, 448, 449, 451 finding a ‘calling,’ 247–249
 redemptive suffering, 249–251
 Researching up. See Active interviewing Reissman, C. K., 321
 Resistance, 446–448
 Respectable femininity, 114
 Revengeful mission, 349, 351, 352, 357
 Ricoeur, P., 80, 369, 373
 Roles, categorisations, 10–11

 Self-categorisation, 313, 314, 316
 Self-help groups, 262, 266, 267, 269, 270
 Sex Offender Treatment Programme facilitators (SOTP), 287
 Sexualities, 122, 420, 477, 479, 480
 Sex Workers Education and Advocacy Taskforce (SWEAT), 472, 473
 Sex work, 115, 123, 467–491
 decolonising/rehumanising research, 467–468 intersectional agenda, 469–471
 Shameful identities, 479–482
 Side grip, 230
 Silences, 11, 16, 35, 414
 Silencing, 419–420
 Social harm, 105

 Socio-narratology, 12, 368–374, 385
 Socrates light, 87–105
 Socratic dialogues, 88, 96–97
 Socratic interviews, 99–100
 South Africa, 13, 15, 467, 472, 473, 486, 487
 Sri Lanka, 109, 113–115, 117, 119, 121–123
 Stigmatised identities, 479–482
 The State, 10, 16, 78, 94, 159, 164, 213, 295, 352, 482
 Street culture, 32, 35, 36, 37, 40, 401
 Storytelling, 15, 28, 36–39, 177, 222–223, 232, 243
 Structures of feeling, 71
 Subculture, 11, 32, 119, 334
 Sublime effects, 211–213
 Subtext, 416–417
 Superpredators, 412
 Symbolic boundaries, 177
 Symbolic interactionism, 2, 261, 347, 412
 Symbolic interactionist, 92, 261, 346

 Team research, 449–450
 Techniques of neutralisation, 2, 390
 Television, 283, 328, 329, 416
 Terrorism, 133–134
 Terrorist autobiographies, 134
 Testimony, 49, 54, 57, 60, 67, 253, 295
 Thin blue line, 329–331
The Three Little Pigs, 155, 166, 167
 Toch, H., 344, 359
 Tragic hero role, 353, 354, 357
 Translation, 122, 201, 252
 Trauma narratives, 241
 Travelling stories, 14–15
 Trial narratives, 47, 48, 213
 Trust, 36, 41, 52, 100, 266, 333, 439
 Truth, 4, 8, 35, 57, 63–64, 109–113, 115–120, 223, 248, 397, 331–333

- Truth/lies, 35, 109–113
 factual truths, 35
 slants on truth, 63–64
- Ugelvik family Mauser, 221, 222
- UK, 10, 15, 64, 66, 67, 74, 250, 271, 273, 438
- Understatement, 58, 417–418
- Unsaid, 12, 409–424
- USA, 428
- US federal prosecutors, 45–61
- Validity, 110, 125
- Verisimilitude, 112, 120–122
- Victim impact statements, 243, 262, 263
- Victimhood, 9, 240, 251, 254, 261, 267, 447, 478
- Victimology. See Narrative
 victimology
- Victims, 4, 10, 58, 124, 158, 239–257, 259, 261, 263, 264, 265–272,
 279–300, 382, 402, 455
- Victim stories
 June's story, 240, 244–251
 lethal violence, 240, 241, 242–244
- Violence, 3, 4, 39, 79, 121, 139, 161, 180, 240, 241, 242–244, 270,
 308, 392, 393, 400
 atrocities, 4
 conceptual violence, 202
 finding a 'Calling' in the aftermath, 247–249
 gun violence, 265
 Jihadi organisations, 451 mass violence, 4
 mothers against violence, 244
 political violence, 142
 redemptive suffering, 240, 249–251
 visual symbols, 139
- Visual criminology, 3, 198, 214
- Visual narratives, 9, 180–190
- Vocabularies of motive, 2
- War/armed conflict, 4, 12, 13, 115, 139, 184, 220, 447–448, 451,
 453
- War stories, 325, 334, 335, 376
- Whimsical fantasises, 208
- Youth justice, 89–108
- YouTube.com, 375