

INDEX

- Acxiom, 122
- Adobe, 75, 122
- AdSense, 60, 125
- Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA), 16
- ARPANET, 18–19
- convergence of design and use, 17–18
- free circulation of information, 19–20
- progressive project, 16–17
- Advertising dominance of internet, 107
- collecting and using users' data, 119
- Facebook advertising, 126–129
- Google advertising, 123–126
- personal data market, 121–122
- programmatic trading, 122–123
- tracking methods, 119–121
- critique of advertising, 108
- advertising heteronomy, 112–113
- audience as a product, 111–112
- critique of advertising discounted, 114–115
- mass culture and advertising, 113–114
- public policy, influence on, 109
- two-sided market, 109–111
- resisting and regulating online advertising, 129
- democratic regulation, impossibility of, 131–133
- market regulation, 133–134
- online advertising market, blind spots of, 134–136
- personal data, 130
- Advertising on internet, 116–117

- advertising 2.0, 118–119
internet's 'original sin',
117–118
- AdWords, 124
- Airbnb, 60
- Algorithmic brokerage systems, 123
- Algorithms, 85, 88, 89,
122, 123
- Alphabet (GOOG), 67
- Amateur expertise, 84
- Amazon, 7, 9, 66, 74, 90,
94, 146
- Amazon Echo, 93
- Amazon Prime Music, 100
- American Research and Development
Corporation (ARDC),
43
- American Telephone and Telegraph (AT&T), 24
- Anti-competitive practices,
64, 71, 75
- AOL, 3, 40, 46, 49
- Apple, 2, 3, 7, 9, 28, 66,
71, 90, 146
- Apple II, 27
- Apple Music, 100
- Apple Safari, 93
- ARPANET, 16, 17, 18–19,
20, 23, 27, 40, 43
- Arrow, Kenneth, 108
- Artificial intelligence (AI)
technologies, 73
- Artistic critique, 31, 45
- Association of National Advertisers (ANA),
135
- AudioContext
fingerprinting, 120
- Audio–visual content, 99
- Bing, 98
- Bitcoin, 19
- BlueKai, 121, 122
- Bourdieu's criticism of television, 112
- Brand, Stewart, 27–29, 31
- British Labour Party, 25
- British Telecom company,
25
- Bulletin boards, 39
- Bulletin Board Systems*
(BBS), 27, 28
- Bush, George H. W., 38,
39
- Californian Ideology, 6
- Canvas fingerprinting, 120
- Canvas-Font
fingerprinting, 120
- Capitalism, technology to overcome critiques of,
22–23
- Cardon, Dominique, 15
- Castel San Giovanni hub,
74
- Chinese Foxconn, 71
- Chinese Qzone, 98
- Circular circulation of information, 136
- Clinton, Bill, 37, 38
- Cloud computing, 93–94
- Coca-Cola, 31, 68, 127
- The Coming of Post-Industrial Society: A*

- Venture in Social Forecasting*, 20
- Commodification of internet, 15
- Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA), legacy of, 16
- ARPANET, 18–19
- convergence of design and use, 17–18
- free circulation of information, 19–20
- progressive project, 16–17
- from counterculture to the commodification of cyberculture, 26
- Digerati, heralds of market, 31–32
- freelance knowledge workers, platform for, 30–31
- new audience for networked, personal computer, 27–28
- Whole Earth ‘Lectronic Link (WELL), 28–30
- deregulation of telecom and neoliberal turn, 23
- deregulation as remedy for recession, 25
- European dogma, 25–26
- pioneers, 24
- information society and post-industrial economy, 20
- convergence of neoliberalism and technological determinism, 21–22
- technology to overcome critiques of capitalism, 22–23
- Commodore PET, 27
- Communication and networking services, 97–98
- CompuServe, 39, 40
- Computers and consumer electronics, 91–93
- Conseil supérieur de l’audiovisuel*, 109
- Consumer electronics, 48, 91
- Content dissemination, 83
- Content moderators, subcontracting, 72–73
- ‘Convergence’ strategy, 50
- Cook, Tim, 65
- Cooperative component, 88
- Coopetitive goods and services, 88
- Counterforce, 2, 3, 6
- Criteo, 122
- CrowdSource, 73
- Cultural idealism, 8
- Data centres, 91, 93, 94, 96
- Datalogix, 121, 122
- Decentralized Web Summit, 146, 147
- Deliveroo, 60

- Dell, 75, 91
- Demand management, 112
- Demand-side platforms (DSPs), 122
- Democratic regulation, impossibility of, 131–133
- The Dialectic of Enlightenment*, 113
- Digerati, heralds of market, 31–32
- Digital goods, non-rivalry of, 56–57
- Digital information economy, 9, 55
- Digital political economy, necessary critique of, 6–10
- Digital technologies, 5, 31, 56, 59, 61
- Digitisation, 56, 58
- Dropbox, 3
- Duval, Julien, 112
- eBay, 41, 75, 122
- Economic neoliberalism, 15, 22, 145
- Electronic messaging, 39
- Emergence of internet oligopoly, 55
- exploiting labour, 71
- flexibility,
- precariousness and wage-fixing, 73–75
- subcontracting content moderators, 72–73
- financialisation and deregulation, 63
- exceptional financial power, 65
- regulators avoid challenging oligopoly, 63–65
- globalised companies and strategies, 67
- avoiding taxes, 69–71
- matrix management, 68–69
- Internet's effect on information economy, 55
- distribution advantages, 58
- non-rivalry of digital goods, 56–57
- positive externalities of internet, 59
- reducing transaction costs, 59–61
- winner-take-all economics, 61–63
- Epsilon, 121
- European Commission, 26, 63, 64, 70, 109, 132
- European Union (EU), 25, 71, 131, 132
- Evercookie, 119, 120
- Facebook, 1, 2, 7, 9, 66, 89–90, 98, 108, 118, 126–129, 146
- Facebook ID, 129
- Facebook Moves, 92
- Facebook News Feed, 89
- Fan Pages, 127–128

- Federal Communication Commission (FCC), 63
- FidoNet, 27, 40
- 'Financial bubble' phenomena, 49
- Financialisation and deregulation, 50, 63
- exceptional financial power, 65
- regulators avoid
 - challenging oligopoly, 63–65
- Fitzpatrick-Martin, Iris, 86
- Firefox, 59
- Flexibility, precariousness and wage-fixing, 73–75
- Flickr, 118
- Foxconn, 61
- Free and unfettered competition, 5
- Free digital labour, 30
- Freelance knowledge workers, platform for, 30–31
- French Data Protection Agency (CNIL), 132
- French Minitel, 39
- French Socialist Party, 25–26

- GAFAM, 4, 67, 74
- Galbraith, Kenneth, 114
- General platformisation process, 86
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679, 132
- Gensollen, Michel, 56
- Global Business Network, 31
- Globalised companies and strategies, 67
- matrix management, 68–69
- taxes, avoiding, 69–71
- Gmail, 58, 125, 126
- Google, 2, 3, 7, 9, 66, 89–90, 98, 107, 118, 146
- Google advertising, 123–126
- Google Analytics, 125
- Google Home, 93
- Google Trends, 125
- Goto.com, 124
- Gross, Bill, 124

- Habermas, Jürgen, 113
- Help Center and forum, 125
- Hi-media, 123
- HoloLens, 92
- Horizontal concentration of internet, 96
- access to information and online content, 98–99
- communication and networking services, 97–98
- paid downloads and streaming, 99–100
- HTML5, 119, 120
- Huawei, 91

- IBM, 18, 39, 75, 122
 Infectious Media, 123
Infomediary, 87
 Infomediation, 10, 83, 84
 Google and Facebook, 89–90
 information brokerage and competition, 87–89
 Information Age, 26
 Informational liberalism, 19
 Information brokerage, 87
 Information economy, internet's effect on, 55
 digital goods, non-rivalry of, 56–57
 distribution advantages, 58
 positive externalities of internet, 59
 transaction costs, reducing, 59–61
 winner-take-all economics, 61–63
 Information highways leading to internet privatisation, 37 closed networks, limits of, 39–40
 from Keynesian stimulus to deregulation, 38
 NSFNet, 40–41
 Information revolution, 21, 22, 25
Information Rules (Carl Shapiro and Hal Varian), 47
 Information society, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 86
 Information society and post-industrial economy, 20
 convergence of neoliberalism and technological determinism, 21–22
 technology to overcome critiques of capitalism, 22–23
 Information Superhighways project, 39
 Initial Public Offering (IPO), 44, 46, 65
 Instant Messenger, 129
 Intellectual monopoly capitalism, 4
 Interactive Advertising Bureau, 135
 Interactive television, 39
 Intergalactic Computer Network, 16
 Internet.org, 96
 Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF), 17
 Internet Explorer, 93
 Interpersonal communication, 27, 28, 56, 83
 'Irrational exuberance' of new economy and convergence, 46
 from convergence to concentration, 48–49

- failed mergers with big impact, 49–50
- ‘new economy’, emergence of, 47–48
- JavaScript protocol, 120
- Kaldor, Nicholas, 108
- Keynesian project, 38
- Korean Samsung, 71
- Kozmo.com, 44
- Labour, exploiting, 71
 - content moderators, subcontracting, 72–73
 - flexibility, precariousness and wage-fixing, 73–75
- Lenovo, 91
- LG, 91
- LinkedIn, 29, 98
- Local Shared Objects, 119, 120
- Loop Transportation, 74
- MagicLeap, 92
- Marcuse, Herbert, 114
- Market liberalisation, 63
- Mass culture, radical criticism of, 114
- Mass culture and advertising, 113–114
- Mass personalisation, 87
- Matrix management, 68–69
- McChesney, Robert, 41
- Media Lab, 31, 117
- Mercury Communications, 25
- Microsoft, 3, 7, 9, 66, 90, 94, 122, 146
- Microsoft Azure, 94
- Microsoft Network (MSN), 40
- Microsoft Health Vault, 92
- Minitel, 23, 24
- Mountain View company, 67
- MSN Messenger, 97
- MVNO (mobile virtual network operator) licence, 95
- NASDAQ index, 46
- Negroponte, Nicholas, 31, 48
- Neo-classical economics, 21
- Neoliberal economic policy, 24, 38–39
- Neoliberal hegemony, 23, 84, 115
- Neoliberalism, 5, 9, 26, 30, 131, 148
- Netscape, 19
- Network economy, 47
- Networked computing, 9, 15, 19, 37, 145, 147
- Networks, 4, 94–96
- New Cross Pacific (NCP), 95
- New economy, 37
 - emergence of, 47–48

- New spirit of capitalism, 30
- Non-excludable goods, 110
- Non-rival goods, 56, 110, 112
- NSFNet, 40–41
- Oligopoly actors, 8, 65, 70, 71, 90, 100
- Online advertising market, blind spots of, 134–136
- Online content, access to information and, 98–99
- Online display advertising, 118
- Online social network, 29
- Open Text Index, 116, 124
- Operating systems, 91, 93, 96
- Oracle Software, 121
- ‘Original Sin’, of internet, 117–118
- Paid downloads and streaming, 99–100
- Palo Alto, 42
- Peer-level social networking, 84
- Personal data market, 121–122
- Pets.com, 44
- Platformisation, 84, 85, 86
 - dual logic of platformisation, 84
- Platform studies, 84, 85
- Platform Theory, 86
- Political economy, 7, 49, 84, 112
- Political issue, internet as, 3–6
- Popular creativity, 84
- Populist ethos, 84
- Positive externalities of internet, 59
- Post-industrial society, 21, 86
- Private networks, 40
- Privatisation of internet, 37–50
 - information highways leading to, 37
 - from Keynesian stimulus to deregulation, 38
 - limits of closed networks, 39–40
 - NSFNet, 40–41
 - internet start-up culture meets venture capital, 41
 - birth of Silicon Valley, 42–43
 - experiments in deregulated labour, 45–46
 - financing innovative companies, 43
 - from advising to speculating, 44–45
 - ‘irrational exuberance’ of new economy and convergence, 46
 - failed mergers with big impact, 49–50

- from convergence to concentration, 48–49
 - ‘new economy’, emergence of, 47–48
- Privileged pricing strategy, 57
- Prodigy, 29, 39, 40
- The Production and Distribution of Knowledge in the United States*, 20
- Programmatic trading, 122–123, 135
- Progressive and egalitarian arrangement, 84
- Project Fi, 95
- Public property, 18

- Respawning, 120
- Revolutionise capitalism, 45
- Robinson, Joan, 108
- Robust online
 - commentary, 84
- Ross, Andrew, 45

- Samsung, 91, 92
- Second World War, 18, 42, 84
- Sell-side platforms (SSPs), 122
- Silicon Valley, 65
 - birth of, 42–43
- Sine qua non*, 94, 126
- Skype, 95, 97
- Small Business Investment Act, 43, 44
- Smart devices, 130

- Smythe, Dallas, 111
- Snapchat, 98, 99
- Snowden, Edward, 3, 131
- Social media platforms, 84
- Socio-technical mechanisms, 83
- Solow, Robert, 21
- Sony, 91, 92
- Sprint, 95
- Stanford Research Park, 42
- Start-up culture, 37, 41–42, 43, 45, 145
- State hackers, 5
- Stigler, George, 108
- Strategies, of oligopoly, 83
 - horizontal concentration of internet, 96
 - access to information and online content, 98–99
 - communication and networking services, 97–98
 - paid downloads and streaming, 99–100
 - infomediation, 84
 - Google and Facebook, 89–90
 - information brokerage and competition, 87–89
 - vertical integration of oligopoly, 90
 - cloud computing, 93–94
 - computers and consumer electronics, 91–93

- networks, 94–96
- operating systems, 93
- Surveillance Capitalism, 123
- Taxes, avoiding, 69–71
- Techno-liberal model, 48
- Technological determinism, 9, 15, 21–22, 26, 145
- Technological revolution, 21, 25
- Telecom and neoliberal turn,
 - deregulation of, 23
 - deregulation as remedy for recession, 25
 - European dogma, 25–26
 - pioneers, 24
- Telecommunications
 - networks, 91, 96
- Télématique (videotex), 23
- Télétel project, 23
- Terman, Fred, 42
- Thatcher, Margaret, 24, 25
- The Third Wave* (Alvin Toffler), 22
- Timesharing, 16
- Time-Warner, 49
- T-Mobile network, 95
- Total communication capability, 49
- Tracking methods, 119–121
- Transaction costs,
 - reducing, 59–61
- Turner, Fred, 26
- Twitter, 29, 98, 99, 122
- Uber, 60, 75
- Uberisation, 31
- Usenet, 27, 40, 116
- User-generated content (UGC), 84
- Valaskakis, Kimon, 86–87
- Vertical integration, 50, 90, 96
- Vertical integration of oligopoly, 90
 - cloud computing, 93–94
 - computers and consumer electronics, 91–93
 - networks, 94–96
 - operating systems, 93
- Virtual community, 29
- Walled garden, 39, 40
- Web 2.0, 4, 118
- WebRTC, 120
- WeChat, 98
- WhatsApp, 62, 97
- Whole Earth ‘Lectronic Link (WELL), 28–30
- Wi-Fi, 95
- Wikipedia, 59, 118
- Winner-take-all economics, 61–62
- World Wide Web, 17
- Xbox Live, 95
- Xerox Palo Alto Research Center, 28
- Yahoo!, 3, 41, 46, 98, 122, 124
- YouTube, 8, 72, 98, 126
- Zuckerberg, Mark, 1, 74
- Zuckerman, Ethan, 117