INDEX

Africa, urbanization, 6–7
AI. See Artificial intelligence (AI)
Air quality, 58
  and smog, 17–18
Alibaba's City Brain project, 273
Amazon Mechanical Turk service, 39
APIs. See Application programming interfaces (APIs)
Application programming interfaces (APIs), 210
Artificial intelligence (AI), 28, 273–275, 278
Asia-Pacific region, urbanization, 7
Aspern Smart City Research study, 86–87
Austrian Court of Audit, 79–80
Autonomous systems, 278
Autonomous vehicles, 275

Bill Gates, 3–4
BMVIT, 73–74
BMW Group in Switzerland, 41
Business model
  scaling, questionnaire, 302–303
  for smart city, 55–56, 57–60
  for smart economy, 58, 59
  for smart environment, 58
  for smart mobility, 59

Cause and effect tree, 300–302
Centralized Asset Management and Limited Access, 284–291
Centralized Asset Management and Potential Access, 284–291
Century of the city, 5
Charlotte, United States, 206, 206
Cities
  current challenges for, 8–22
  limited resources of, 19
  as megatrend, 5–8
  urgent challenges for, 9
Citizens Fear the City's impact on health, 16
City administration, new role for, 26–27
City Development Plan 2025, 69
City planners, 8–9
City Services Benefit Card (CSBC), 132–133
City2Share project, Munich, 90, 103–104, 105–106
Civilization, future of, 5–6
Civitas Eccentric, 90
Co-creation Lab Vienna, 84
Computational materials, 270–271
Cooperation, with business, 54

Decentralized Asset Management and Limited Access, 284–291

Decentralized Asset Management and Potential Access, 284–291
Decentralized water supply, 33
Decision maker, 2
Demographic developments, 13
Digital hub (dhub), 38
Digitalization, 46
Digital shadow of a city, 27–31
  accessibility, 29
  courtesy, 30
  expandability, 29
  service areas of, 31–46
    smart economy, 38–39
    smart environment, 32–34
    smart government, 42–45
    smart living, 34–38
    smart mobility, 40–42
    smart people, 45–46
  structure, 29
Diverse lifestyles, development of, 13

Ecological footprint of a city, 32
Ecosystems, 272–273
Electric vehicles, 36–37
Electromobility, in St. Gallen, 217–219
EMPA, 36
"Energienetz GSG" project, 161–162
"Energiestadt Gold" (Gold Energy City) award, 155 Energy consumption, 277
  hub method, 37–38
  renewable, 35
Energy city, 155, 155, 155
Energy performance contracts (EPCs), 249
Energy systems, 16
  in Swiss, 39
Environmental and health issues, 17
EPCs. See Energy performance contracts (EPCs)
Estonia, as pioneer of smart government, 47
Europe
  Espresso project, 283
  GDPR, 278
  urbanization, 7–8
European cities
  over-tourism in, 20–21
  smartness in smart city visions of, 170
European Energy Award® (eea®), 155
European Environment Agency, 19
EU's Smarter Together project, 153

Face recognition, 273–274
Flexibility, 22

GDPR. See General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), 274–275
  Europe, 278
Georgia Tech, 270–271
German Institute of Urban Affairs, 9
Global warming, 16
Gody Suter (Frisch), 27
Green ride, 41

Health issues, environmental and, 17
Hetero-functional Graph Theory, 208–209
HIS Markit, 52
Humans and machines, 277

ICF. See Intelligent Community Forum (ICF)

ICT. See Information and communication technology (ICT)
Immigration, 22
Implementer, 2
Industrial revolution, 26
Information and communication technology (ICT), 34, 36–37, 277
  Vienna, 73
Infrastructure, overloading of, 13–17
Inhabitants, quality of life of, 13–17
Intelligent Community Forum (ICF), Toronto, 138
International Energy Agency, 48–49
Internet economy, 66
Internet of things (IoT), 29, 269–270
  world, 270
Interoperability, lack of standards and, 56
IoT. See Internet of things (IoT)

Latin America, urbanization, 7
Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED), 125
LEED. See Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED)
Life of inhabitants, quality of, 13–17
Lifestyles, development of diverse, 13
Lighthouse cities, 67
Likert scale, 167, 233–234
London, smog values in, 19
LoRaWan (Low-Power Wide Area Network), 156, 211–212
Loud night noise, 19
Lyon, 120–121
  core project of, 110
  develop concept and synchronize partners, 114–116
  initiate transformation, 110–112
  location determination, 112–114
  Lyon Smart Community, 116–117
  mobilize resources, 116–117
  operation and institutionalization, 120
  realize projects, 117–120
  Smart Community project, 118
  SPL Lyon confluence, 111, 112, 113, 118, 120–121

Machines, humans and, 277
MAC protocol. See Media Access Control (MAC) protocol
Master Innovation and Development Plan (MIDP), 140–141
The Matrix, 28–29
Media Access Control (MAC) protocol, 156
Megacities (2018), TomTom Traffic Index for, 15
Megatrend, cities as, 5–8
Microjobs, 39
MIDP. See Master Innovation and Development Plan (MIDP)
Migration, 22
Mobility
  and tourism, 20
  unprecedented forms of, 275–276
Modernization requires time, 13
Moore's law, 270–271
MSI Scalability Tool, 302–303
Multienergy systems, 39
Munich, Germany, 107–108

analysis of external factors relevant to smart city development, 98–99 City2Share project, 90, 103–104
develop concepts and synchronize partners, 99–103
e-government platform, 103
EU Smarter Together project, 105
initiate transformation, 91–95
location determination, 95–99
strengths and weaknesses, 95–97
mobilize resources
additional resources, 104
funding, 103–104
open data initiatives, 102–103
open/urban data platform, 102
operation and institutionalization, 106–107
project concepts, 100–101
public participation, 101–102
qualitative smart city objectives in, 100
realize projects, 104–106
smart city program, 90–91
smart city projects, 90
smart city strategy, 99–100
smarter together project, 90, 106–107
Stadtteil Labor, 105
stakeholders, 97–98
urban development plans, 89
Munich Science Network, 270

NAVYA, 120
NEST project, 37–38
New work or no work, 276
Noise, 19
loud night, 19
Nonmotorized route planning, 58
North America, urbanization, 7

Obstacles for smart city, 46–57
ambiguity, 51
common, 51–57
complexity, 50–51
uncertainty, 48–50
volatility, 47–48
Overloading of infrastructure, 13–17

PACE. See Property Assessed Clean Energy (PACE)
Paramecium politics vs. traditional city management, 45
Peer-to-peer virtual parking places, 59
Perspektive München, 89, 91–92, 101
PESTEL analysis, 190–191
Political support, 54
Post-suburbanization, 11
PPPs. See Public–private partnerships (PPPs)
Project control and governance, 55
Property Assessed Clean Energy (PACE), 250–251
Prosumers, 35
Public participation model, for solar power plants, 77
Public–private partnerships (PPPs), 52–53, 54–55
Public value, 27

Quality of life in cities, 34

RACI matrix, 174–178
"Red Vienna" (1918??1934), 68
Regulatory conditions, 47–48
Remishueb project, 158, 159, 162
co-creation in, 199, 199, 200, 200, 200, 200–201, 201
Renewable energy, 35
Return on investment (RoI), 54
Reurbanization, 11

Risk assessment, 296–299
  checklist, 296–299
Route planning, nonmotorized, 58

St. Gallen, 154, 155, 156
  assembling a project team, 165
  assignment of tasks and responsibilities in, 175–176, 177 building a project coalition, 242–245
  business models development, 216–222
    scaling, 263
  citizen participation projects, 241–242 concepts and synchronizing partners, development, 197–238 continuous improvement process, 265–267 criteria for formulation of sub-goals, 231
  data governance, designing and implementing, 201–203 dealing with implementation risks, 258–259 dealing with risks, 224–231
  design guidelines, 247–248 direction of impact determination, 194–196
  electric power systems, 208
  electromobility, 217, 218–219
  ensuring partner and citizen participation, 198–201 environmental analysis, 189–191
    benchmarking with "ideal" smart city, 191
    PESTEL analysis, 190–191
  exploiting synergies between initiatives, 267–268 financing mechanisms for projects, 249–251
  finding partners for implementation, 222–224 5G (5th-generation wireless systems), 210–211
  funds for, 203–207, 248–253
  Hetero-functional Graph Theory, 208–209
  idea generation in, 193–194 initial self-assessment, 182–183
  initiate transformation, 162–178
  internal perspective, 178–180
  kickoff and clarifying responsibilities, 172–178 life cycles of smart city infrastructure, 204
  location determination, 178–196
  mayor's view, 172, 195, 222–223
  mobilizing citizens, 240–242
  mobilizing resources, 238–255
    finding partners, 238–240
    project partner platforms, 239–240
    sharing ideas, 238
  motion experiment in Istanbul, 206
  navly project in Lyon Confluence, 220, 221, 222
  operation and institutionalization, 259–268
  pilot projects, 158–162
  pioneer group, 173–174
  platforms/decentralized systems, 213–214
  point-of-view method, 185–186

preparations and initial considerations, 162–164 probability-of-impact matrix, 224–227 project concepts development, 207–209 project organization, 245–248
project selection criteria, 231–233
performance, 233–234
public value scorecard, 171
public works department, 156, 159–162
RACI matrix for clear responsibilities, 174–178
realizing projects, 256–259
reasons for the failure of smart city projects, 257–258
return on investment (ROI), 207
risk assessment, 227
risk categories, 225–226, 228
roadmaps development, 234–237
scaling up process, 262
setting goals and metrics, 228–231
setting priorities, 170–171, 230
smart city maturity model, 178–180
Smart City Steering Committee, 177
smart city visions, 166, 168, 169–170
Happy City, 169–170
Real-Time City, 169
Slow City, 169
Zero City, 168–169
stakeholder analysis, 187–188
map, 186–189
strategic options, identifying, 191–193
Sturzenegg building project, 264–265
synchronization, 237–238
technology
for city's digital shadow, 210–216
digital ID, 215
new technologies, 210, 211, 212, 213
platform selection, 209–216
sensors, 212
technology-oriented and citizenoriented smart city planning, 241 third-party ownership, 250
tips and tricks for a successful project, 177, 178
urban funds, 250
vision, development, 166–170, 168–169
visioning workshop, checklist, 167
Zug city administration, 214–215
SBB Green Class E-Car, 40
SCMM. See Smart City Management Model (SCMM)
SCWG. See Smart City Working Group (SCWG)
Seestadt Aspern, 79–80, 81, 85–87
Self-learning system, 28
Sensor systems, 269–270
Sidewalk Labs, 146
Sidewalk Toronto, 140, 141–142, 143, 146
Silicon Valley, 6
SIMmobil, 82–83
Singapore, virtual, 30–31
Smaller cities (2018), TomTom Traffic Index for, 15
"100 Smart Cities" plan, 3–4

Smart city business models for, 55–56, 57–60
challenges faced by mayors of US Cities, 52–57 initiative, 293–295
initiatives, basic elements, 65–66
obstacles for, 46–57
in twenty-first century, 278–281
Smart City Agency of Vienna, 84
Smart City Cells, 156
Smart City Management Model (SCMM), 1, 2, 66, 67, 153
Smart city maturity model, 178–180, 283–291
Smart city projects, challenges addressed by, 9–11
Smart city transformations challenges of, 52
projects, 29–30
Smart City Vienna Framework Strategy, 69
Smart City Wien Rahmenstrategie, 69
Smart City Working Group (SCWG), Toronto, 133–134, 135–136
Smart crosswalks, 41
Smart economy, 38–39
business model for, 58, 59
Smart environment, 32–34
business model for, 58
Smart government, 42–45
Smart living, 34–38
Smart megacity projects, 4
Smart mobility, 40–42
business model for, 59
SmartNet, 156
Smart people, 45–46
Smog
air quality and, 17–18
values in London, 19
Software-based companies and services, 278–281
Solar power plants, public participation model for, 77
Songdo City, 130
Cisco's technology infrastructure, 125
develop concepts and synchronize partners, 125–127
digital shadow in, 125–126
initiate transformation, 122–123
Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design, 125
location determination, 123–125
master plan of, 126
mobilize resources, 127–129
operation and institutionalization, 129
project, 122
realize projects, 127–129
SPL Lyon confluence, 113, 118, 120–121
competencies of, 112
goals of, 111
Stakeholder integration, 53–54
Stakeholder map, 292
STEEP (social, technological, economical, ecological, and political) analysis, 98
Sturzenegg project, 158
Suburbanization, 11
Swiss Competence Center of Energy Research, Future Energy-Efficient Buildings and Districts (SCCER FEEBD), 35
Swiss, energy systems in, 39
Switzerland, BMW Group in, 41
Synergy patterns, 304–306

Tax revenues, 48
Thames River, 16
ThinkPort Vienna, 80
Toilet-as-a-service, 59
TomTom Traffic Index, 15–16
  for smaller and megacities (2018), 15
Toronto, 131, 132, 143–147
  See also Waterfront Toronto
  activate resources, 137–138
  data privacy, 144–146
  develop concepts and synchronize partners, 136–137
  initiate transformation, 132–134
  lighthouse projects, 147–151
  position determination, 134–136
  Sidewalk Toronto, 140
  Smart City Working Group (SCWG), 133–134, 135–136
  stakeholder groups, 150
  Urban Living Futures, 137
Toronto Smart Cities Region Board of Trade (TRBT), 133–134
Tourism, mobility and, 20
Tourism places, growth rate of, 20–21
Traditional city management vs. paramecium politics, 45
Tragedy of the commons, 20–22
Transaction costs, decreasing, 271–272
Twenty-first century, questions for smart cities in, 278–281

Ubiquity of data and computing, 269–270
Uncertainty, 48–50
UNESCO World Heritage site, 68
UPPLift, 137
Urban data, marketplace for, 58
Urban development, 67
Urban economic centers, growth of, 6
Urban infrastructure systems, 13–17
Urban Innovation Vienna, 74
Urbanization, 281
  global trend of, 9–11
  and opposing trends, 9–13
  worldwide, 9–11
Urbanization Across the World (United Nations, 2017), 6, 7–8
Urban Living Futures, Toronto, 137
Urban Living Lab, 82–83
Urban mobility, 40
US Cities, smart city challenges faced by mayors of, 52–57

Vehicles, autonomous, 275
Vienna, 88
  business agency, 84
  Co-creation Lab Vienna, 84
  determine location, 71–74
  financial resources as a launching force, 79–80 high public participation, 75–76
  information and communication technology (ICT), 73
  initiate transformation, 69–70
  innovation labs, 87
  jointly developed project concepts, 77–78
  mobilize resources, 79–81
  open innovation, 77
  operation and institutionalization, 87–88
  project coalitions as strategic resources in, 80–81

project selection criteria, 78
public participation model for solar power plants, 77
realize projects, 81–87
Smart City Agency of, 84
smart city lighthouse projects, 67–88
smart city program, 69
smart city strategy, 74–75
stakeholders, 72–74
strengths and weaknesses, 71–72
subways, braking energy, 84
ThinkPort Vienna, 80
urban inhabitants of, 72
virtual department, 85
Wi-Fi, public, 87
Virtual parking places, 59
Virtual Singapore, 30–31
Volatility, 47–48
VUCA world (volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity), 47, 51–52

Waiting times, 16
Warka Water Tower, 33
Water and wastewater, 16
Waterfront Toronto, 138
develop concepts and synchronize partners, 141–143
initiate transformation, 138–140
position determination, 140–141
Wiener Stadtwerke GmbH, 73
Worldwide Tourism Growth, 1996–2017, 20–21
Worldwide Urban and Rural Population from 1950 to 2050, 6–8