

Index

- “A’amil, 160
- Actions, 3, 4
- Adequacy, 64
- Advice-based leadership style
 - Al-Sahifa Al-Sajjadiyya, 167, 168
 - applications of, 165
 - and benevolence, 165
 - communications, 166
- Agent, 160
- Agent intention, 42
- Ahزاب case study
 - attributes of followers, 211–212
 - attributes of leader, 212
 - compassionate management style, 212–213
 - environmental requirements, 211
- Akhirah-based organization, 5
- Al-Biruni’s utopia model, 56
- Altruism behavior, 9
- Anticitizenship behavior, 11
- Asabiyya, 138
- Ashuraic organizational culture
 - event-related elements of, 227–232
 - post-event elements of, 232–234
 - pre-event elements of, 226–227
 - unitarianism organizations, 226
- Authorization roles, servant leadership style
 - advertiser, 202
 - fatwa issuer, 202
 - Islam centered, 202–203
 - Islam recognizer, 202
 - jurisprudent, 201
 - justice orientation, 203
 - religious affairs, 202
 - value protector, 203
- Autocracy, 138
- Basij institution, 175, 176
- Beasts, 29
- Behavioral dispositions, 29–30
- Blaming demeanor, 23
- Carnal demeanor, 23
- Chastity, speaking, 103–104
- Citizenship roles, servant leadership style, 200–201
- Civic needs, 49–51
- Coaching roles, servant leadership style
 - belief maker, 200
 - breeder, 200
 - educator, 200
 - identity maker, 200
 - reformer, 200
 - regulator, 200
- Collective organizational culture, 224–225
- Commander roles, servant leadership style
 - convincing role, 196
 - delegating role, 195–196
 - participative role, 196
 - telling role, 196–197
- Common language, 101
- Compassionate management style, 205–206
- Communication
 - channels, 107
 - colleagues, 108–109
 - downward/bottom-handed communication, 108
 - listening skill, 105–106
 - nature, 91–95
 - skills, 95–96
 - speaking skills (See Speaking skills)

- upward/top-handed
 - communication, 107–108
 - visual skill, 104–105
 - writing skill, 106–107
- Conflict management
 - approaches, 112
 - collapse of the organization, 113
 - combat and war strategy, 124–125
 - common goal strategy, 133
 - cooperation strategy, 128
 - divine law, 112
 - enemy strategy, 133–134
 - ethnic and tribal differences, 112–113
 - familiarity of hearts strategy, 121–122
 - familiarity strategy, 122–123
 - Imam Khomeini, 132
 - Khaje Nasirodin Toosi, 129–132
 - negotiation strategy, 123–124
 - Quranic case studies, 125–128
 - Quran perspectives, 120
 - reasoning strategy, 128
 - retaliation to ensure rights, 113–116
 - serious confrontation with enemies, 113
 - strategies, 119–120
 - strategy of fighting, 129
 - third-party strategy, 120–121
 - tradition, 112
 - typology, 116–119
 - unity of word strategy, 134
 - withdrawal/leaving conflict, 124
 - withdrawal strategy, 128–129
- Conscience, 26
- Constitution, 21, 25
- Contentment behaviors, 9
- Cooperative-based leadership style
 - Ash-Shura surah, 174
 - Basij institution, 175, 176
 - blessing and purifying, 178
 - council principle, 176–177
 - divine responsibility, 177
 - empathy and wisdom, 178
 - good listener, 177
 - participation based on ability, 178
 - principle of benefit, 178–179
 - Tasaalom, 174
- Covenant of organizations, 84–85
- Culture of appreciation, 64–65
- Denial of imitation, 33
- Destructive organizational behaviors, 6–7
- Distributive justice, 235
- Divine covenant, 82
- Divine glory, 55
- Divine leaders, 155–156
- Divine needs, 54–56
- Divine tradition, 162
- The Divinity, 34, 64, 139, 155, 161, 162, 170
 - devotion, 3
 - followers, 240–241
 - piety, 32
 - satisfaction, 5
- Divinity-centered behavior, 8
- Downward/bottom-handed communication, 108
- Eid ul-Fitr prayer, 174
- Eid-ul-Qurban prayer, 174
- Emirate, 160
- Encourage acquirement, 33
- Enjoyment system, 28
- Ethical–Mystical roles, servant leadership style
 - forbearer, 204
 - forgiver, 204
 - prayer, 204
 - preacher, 204
 - purifier, 204
 - recommender, 204
 - right centered, 203–204
 - thankful, 204–205
 - trusting, 204

- Event-related elements, Ashura-driven
 - organizational culture
 - Ashoura-driven insight, 227–228
 - Ashura's style of leadership, 230–231
 - faithful following, 231–232
 - inclusive participation, 228
 - maintaining divine rituals, 228
 - purposeful recruitment and refinement, 230
 - sacrificial leadership, 229–230
 - seeking justice, 231
 - spiritual motives over material ones, 232
 - virtuous behaviors, 228
- Excellent behaviors, 9
- Fallacious behaviors, 12
- Filtration speech, 103
- Financial jihad, 169
- Followers' roles, servant leadership style, 197
- Freemen, 29
- Frugality, 240
- Gentlemanly behaviors, 9
- God's mercy, 182
- Greater jihad, 172
- Hadith (Islamic traditions), 163–164
- Hajj, 159
- Hereafter-oriented organizations, 8, 44
 - commitment, 81–83
 - confidence building, 76–81
 - The Divinity, 83–84
 - leader–follower relations, 137–158
 - management commitment, 85–87
 - organization commitment, 84–85
- Hierarchy of needs, 56–65
 - insatiability, 63–65
 - material needs, 57–62
 - motivating individuals, 57
 - spiritual needs, 57–62
- Holy Quran, 33, 35, 139
 - competency, 162
 - divine tradition, 162
 - freedom and free, 163
 - precedence of Imamate to prophecy, 162
- Human divine existence, 44
- Human identity, 20, 43–44
- Human imaginal existence, 43
- Human intellectual existence, 43
- Human material existence, 43
- Human perception
 - classification, 31
 - definition, 31
 - denial of imitation, 33
 - encourage acquirement, 33
 - human spirit, 32
 - indolent reprimand, 33
 - introspection, 31
 - levels, 35–38
 - perfectionism, 32
 - sensational perception, 37–38
 - stages, 38–39
- Human resources mobilization, 172
- Human spirit, 32
- Human virtues, 234
- Hypocrites group behaviors, 10–12
- Ijtihad power, 141
- Imagination power, 36
- Imam Khomeini
 - authorization roles of, 201
 - coaching roles of, 199
 - commander roles of, 196
 - ethical–mystical roles of, 203
 - managerial roles of, 192
 - political roles of, 198
 - and roles of, 191
- Indifferent group behaviors, 9–10
- Individual differences, 19–30
- Individual organizational culture, 224–225
- Indolent reprimand, 33
- Inefficient followers
 - apostates, 13–14
 - characteristics, 12–15

- distorted, 13
- impostors, 13
- organizational distorted, 14
- organizational impostors, 14
- organizational rebels, 15
- organizational sophists, 15
- rebels, 13
- sophists, 14
- Infallible Imams, 137
- Inspired demeanor, 23
- Intellect, 26
- Intellectual knowledge, 36
- Intellectual needs, 51–54
- Intellectual policy, 138
- Intellectual wisdom, 36
- Intentions, 4, 41–44
- Interactive justice, 235
- Introspection, 31
- Islamic ethics
 - individualism approach, 235
 - justice (See Justice approach)
 - law-ethics approach, 235
 - utilitarianism, 235
- Islamic ideology, 26
- Islamic management
 - communication (See Communication)
 - conflict management (See Conflict management)
 - ethics, 234–240
 - human perception (See Human perception)
 - leader–follower relations (See Leader-follower relations)
 - leadership styles, 159–220
 - management styles, 164–206
 - organizational behavior, 1–15
 - organizational culture, 221–234
 - personality (See Personality)
- Islamic theocracy, 161
- Jihadi management style
 - characteristics, 170
 - features of, 171–173
 - financial jihad, 169
 - importance of, 170
 - issues, 169–170
 - scientific jihad, 169
 - technical jihad, 169
- Justice, 161
- Justice approach
 - components of, 239–240
 - distributive justice, 235
 - interactive justice, 235
 - negative moral features, 237
 - procedural justice, 235
- Justice-based leadership style
 - advantages of, 188
 - manifestations of, 186–187
 - manners, 187–188
- Kindly leadership style
 - kindliness, 180–181
 - tolerance, 179–180
- Leader–follower relations
 - Akhbaris, 140
 - Asabiyya, 138
 - autocracy, 138
 - avoiding blaming, 153
 - avoiding deception, 147
 - benevolence, Ummah, 146
 - compassion and tolerance, 147
 - consultation with citizens, 147
 - consultation with people, 149–150
 - disadvantaged people, 147
 - The Divinity, 139
 - education of people, 149
 - enthusiastic submission, 142–143
 - expecting obedience, 147
 - forgiving, 146
 - infallible Imams, 137
 - insistence and exaggeration, 153
 - intellectual policy, 138
 - justice among people, 148
 - leader’s secrecy, 153
 - loving leader, 152
 - mutual rights, 143

- natural politics, 138
- obedience, 152
- observance of politeness, 153
- people obey, 146
- preserving religion and social values, 146
- promulgation, 152
- protest of citizens, 147
- rebellion, 142
- religious government, 141–142
- rightful rulers, 152
- roles and duties of, 144–146
- sacrifice, 152
- Shari'a politics, 138
- sincere praise, 152
- social security, 147
- teaching religion, 146
- tolerance, 153
- traditional fundamentalists, 141
- typology of, 153–158
- well-being and livelihood, 148–149
- Leadership styles
 - advice-based leadership style, 164–165
 - compassionate management style, 205–206
 - cooperative-based leadership style, 173–179
 - jihadi management style, 169–173
 - justice-based leadership style, 186–189
 - kindly leadership style, 179–182
 - patiently leading leadership style, 182–184
 - servant leadership style, 189–205
 - transactional leadership style, 184–186
- Listening skill, 105–106
- Management covenant, 85
- Managerial roles, servant leadership style
 - accountable, 194
 - antideprivation, 194
 - apologizer, 193
 - appraiser, 193
 - assigner, 193, 195
 - awakening, 193
 - clarifier, 194
 - comprehension, 192
 - cooperator, 195
 - critics taker, 192
 - encourager, 194
 - entrepreneur, 192–193
 - guider, 192
 - inspector, 193
 - integrator, 195
 - law enforcer, 194
 - law oriented, 194
 - practical, 194
 - protector, 192
 - protocol, 195
 - punisher, 194–195
 - servant, 193
 - spokesman, 191
- Managerial system, 29
- Manifestation, 4
- Material needs, lack of fascination, 62–63
- Medium talent, 155
- Meritocracy, 172
- Moderation behaviors, 9
- Moral evil, 234
- Morality, 234
- Motivation
 - civic needs, 49–51
 - divine needs, 54–56
 - Divinity, 42
 - hierarchy of needs, 56–65
 - human identity, 43–44
 - human needs, work, 44–45
 - intellectual needs, 51–54
 - intention, 41–44
 - naturalistic needs, 45–49
- Naturalistic needs, 45–49
- Natural politics, 138
- Navabet, 13–14, 30

- Necessity, 64
- Neutral organizational behaviors, 6–7
- Noncitizenship, 11
- Nonverbal behavior, 98
- Obedience, 224, 234
- Occult – spiritual knowledge, 36
- Openness of the chest, 183
- Organizations
 - beast-like behaviors, 30
 - commitment, 84–85
 - communication (See Communication)
 - covenant, 84–85
 - distorted, 14
 - freeman-like behaviors, 29
 - impostors, 14
 - Navabet, 30
 - rebels, 15
 - servant-like behaviors, 29
 - sophists, 15
- Organizational behavior
 - destructive organizational behaviors, 6–7
 - framework, 3–6
 - hypocrites group behaviors, 10–12
 - indifferent group behaviors, 9–10
 - men behaviors characteristics, 12–15
 - nature, behavior, 1–3
 - neutral organizational behaviors, 6–7
- Organizational culture
 - Ashuraic organizational culture, 225–234
 - common law, 222
 - customs, 223
 - individual and collective, 224–225
 - Islamic ethics, 234–240
 - traditions, 223
 - values, 222
- Organizational justice, 235
- Patiently leading leadership style, 182–184
- PBUH, 84
- Perfectionism, 32
- Personality
 - behavioral dispositions, 29–30
 - constitution, 21, 25
 - definition, 19–22
 - dimensions, 19–22
 - elements, 22–24
 - factors, 24
 - functions, 25–28
 - human identity, 20
 - mankind, 20
 - primordial nature, 22
 - psychological systems, 28–29
 - Quran, 21
- Political roles, servant leadership style
 - combatant, 198
 - democrat, 197
 - disclosure, 199
 - independent, 198
 - liberal, 198–199
 - political analyst, 199
 - politician, 197
- Poor talent, 154
- Positive organizational behaviors, 9
- Postevent elements, Ashura-driven organizational culture
 - dynamics and vitality, 233
 - message of, 232–233
 - modeling, 233–234
- Pre-event elements, Ashura-driven organizational culture, 226–227
- Primordial nature, 22
- Procedural justice, 235
- Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), 28
- Prosocial behaviors, 9
- Psychological systems, 28–29
 - enjoyment system, 28
 - managerial system, 29
 - usurpative system, 28–29
- Quran, 57, 69–70, 78, 103, 176, 205

- Religious imitation, 224, 234
- Religious worker, 160

- Sacrificial leadership, 229–230
- Satisfaction of needs, 65
- Scientific jihad, 169
- Sensational knowledge, 36
- Sensational perception, 37–38
- Sensation power, 36
- Sensory organs, 36–37
- Sensory perception, 37
- Servant leadership style
 - authorization roles, 201–203
 - citizenship roles, 200–201
 - coaching roles, 199–200
 - commander roles, 195–197
 - ethical–mystical roles, 203–205
 - followers’ roles, 197
 - managerial roles, 191–195
 - political roles, 197–199
- Servants, 29
- Sharia (Islamic law), 174
- Shari’a politics, 138
- Sovereignty, 140
- Speaking skills
 - chastity, 103–104
 - common language, 101
 - communication, 98
 - eloquently moderation, 102–103
 - filtration speech, 103
 - information analysis, 98
 - justice, 99
 - nonverbal behavior, 98
 - silence, 99
 - speak and action, 99–100
 - speaking honestly, 100–101
 - speech moderation, 101–102
 - verbal behaviors, 98
- Spirit, 23
- Spiritual wisdom, 36
- Stress management, 69–73
 - avoid backbite and finding faults, 70
 - The Divinity, memorizing, 69
 - hardships, 71
 - humble heart reinforcement, 72–73
 - internal locus of control, 72
 - property and possessions, 71
 - pure soul, 69–70
 - self-esteem reinforcing, 71
- Strong talent, 155

- Tabuk case study
 - attributed of followers, 215
 - attributes of the Prophet (PBUH), 215–216
 - compassionate management style, 216–220
 - environmental requirements, 213–214
- Tasaalom, 174
- Technical jihad, 169
- Tranquil demeanor, 23
- Transactional leadership style, 184–186
- Transferred (canonical) knowledge, 36

- Uhud case study
 - attributes of followers, 207–208
 - attributes of leader, 208
 - compassionate management style, 209–210
 - environmental requirements, 206–207
- Ummah, 142
 - benevolence for, 146
- Upward/top-handed communication, 107–108
- Usurpative system, 28–29
- Utilitarianism, 235

- Vali, 159
- Verbal behaviors, 98
- Violation, 225
- Visual skills, 104–105

Wilayat, 140, 159

Wisdom, 26, 36, 161

Work-related attitudes

 freewill acts, 68

 Hereafter-oriented organizations

 (See Hereafter-oriented organizations)

knowledge, 68

mental health, 69–73

organizational justice, 73–76

principles, 68

stress management, 69–73

wisdom, 68

Writing skills, 106–107