

Index

- Abdicratic governors, 97, 100–102
- Abstract conceptualisation, 140, 147
- Academies, 108, 110
 - programme, 24
- Academization, emerging and potential
 - problems of, 108–110
- Academy trusts, 23
- Accommodative learning style, 142
- Accountability, 113
- Accretion, 145
- Acquisitions, 16
 - assumption and early stages of headship, 45–46
 - heads' workloads, 61
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - personal impact of headship, 126
 - school leadership and management problems, 18–19
 - school-based staff, 78
- Action intelligences, 133
- Active experimentation, 140
- Adjustment, 175
 - situational, 170
- Advisory role, 106
- Aesthetic knowledge, 133
- Agency, problematic of, 28–29
- Aggression, 81, 91–93
- Amalgamation, 66
- Anticipatory socialisation, 170
- Appointment processes, 31–32
- Apprehension, 141
- Apprenticeship of observation, 170
- Aristotle's intellectual virtues, 130–133
- Assimilative learning style, 142
- Attitudes, 136
- Autonomous school leadership and management, 110
 - 'Balkan and labyrinthine' administrative systems, 106–107
- Behaviours, 201
- 'Bonding' social capital, 168
- Budgets, 98
 - budget-determined reductions in staffing, 60
 - management, 51
 - problems, 52
- Bureau-professional middle tier, 24
- Buzz
 - of enthusiastic and energetic staff, 121
 - factors, 117
- Calculative trust, 176
- 'Capable' headship, 2
- Captive socialisation, 174
- Career deputies, 26
- Career plans and pathways, 35
 - influences on headship ambitions, 35–36
 - key preparatory experiences, 36–38
- Cause and effect, 30, 169, 183
- Ceremonies in school, 159
- Championing, 189
- 'Change for change's sake' reform, 118
- Child protection, 57–58
- Child-centred values, 164
- Children, 84, 90, 93
- 'Children rule' phenomenon, 94–95, 164
- Clarity chimera, 22
- Classic knowledge bases for problem analysis and framing
 - organisational micropolitics, problematic nature of, 152–155

- organisational symbolism, problematic nature of, 155–161
- organisational values, problematic nature of, 161–164
- Clients, 81
- ‘Closed’ decisions, 16
- Collaborative and investigative learning approach, 83
- Collegial intelligence, 133
- Common-sense reflection, 187
- Community role, 99–100
- Competence, 147
 - competent learning, 147–148
 - issues, 71–73
- Complex learning (see also Experiential learning)
 - relevance, 146–147
 - stages and processes, 146
 - theory of, 145
- Comprehension, 141
- Conceptual knowledge, 132
- Concrete experience, 140
- Conscious learning, 147–148
- Conscious incompetence, 187
- Consciousness in learning, 147
- Conscripts, 109–110
- Consensual rational values, 163
- Consensualism, 163
- Consequential rational values, 163
- Conservative-Liberal Democrat and Conservative governments, 108
- Conservative/Liberal Democrat coalition government, 11
- Constructive criticism, 72, 137
- Consultancy role, 106
- Consumers, 81
- Content innovation, 177
- Contextual intelligence, 132–133
- Contextual repertory, 135–137
- Contextual subsets, 134–135
- Contractual and legal staff management responsibilities, 73–74
- Control knowledge, 132
- Controlling and overly critical governors, 98–99
- Convergent learning style, 142
- Conversions, 16
 - assumption and early stages of headship, 46
 - parents and pupils, 96
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - personal impact of headship, 126
 - school leadership and management problems, 19
 - school-based staff, 78
- Creative problem solving, 185
- Culpability culture, 25
- Cultural activities, 81
- Curriculum, 71, 81
- Custodial outcomes, 177
- Day-to-day process management, 28–29
- De jure*, 167
 - headship, 37
 - organisational decision-maker, 58
 - power, 154
 - roles, 136–137
- Decentralized centralism, 21–22
- Decision-making, 16, 137
- Decisions, 16
 - heads’ workloads, 61
 - parents and pupils, 96
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - personal impact of headship, 126
 - related to assumption and early stages of headship, 46
 - school leadership and management problems, 19
 - school-based staff, 78
- Deficiencies/overloads, 15
 - heads’ workloads, 61
 - parents and pupils, 95
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - personal impact of headship, 125
 - related to assumption and early stages of headship, 45
 - school leadership and management problems, 18
 - school-based staff, 78

- Deinotes, 131
- Demands of practice, 197
- Department for Education (2018), 108
- Deputy headship, 36–37
- Deviations, 15
 - assumption and early stages of headship, 45
 - heads' workloads, 61
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - school leadership and management problems, 18
 - school-based staff, 78
- Devolution and simultaneous centralised control, 97
- Divergent learning style, 142
- Dramaturgy, 159
- Dysfunction problems, 15–16, 18
- Dysfunctional home backgrounds, 87
- Dysfunctional symbolic interpretations, 161

- Education Reform Act (ERA), 13
 - reforms, 104, 201
- Educational
 - leadership and management research, 2
 - and organisational issues, 108
 - partners, 81
 - provision, 11, 23, 50, 56, 117, 120, 164
 - psychologist support, 54
 - reform, 13, 21–24
 - websites, 135
- Emotion(al), 193–194
 - intelligence, 133
 - labour, 113
 - responses, 113
- Employment law, 74
- English primary schools, 23, 108
- Enrichment process, 146
- Enthusiasm, 72
- Entrepreneurs, 108–109
- Episteme, 131
- Eraut's taxonomy, 131–132
- Ethical intelligence, 132–133
- Ethics of conscience, 162
- Ethics of responsibility, 162
- Euboulia, 131
- European Network for Improvement, Research and Development in Educational Leadership and Management (ENIRDELM), 9–10
- Evaluation strategy, 184
- Evenement, 170
- Ex officio* authority, 152
- Ex officio* leader, 154
- Expectations of new heads, 39–42
- Experienced heads, 58
- Experiential learners, 141
- Experiential learning (see also Complex learning)
 - cycle, 140–141
 - of headteachers, 145
 - relevance of, 143–145
- Extended professionalism, 69
- External demands, 10
- External organisational theatre, 159

- Factionalism, 67
- Failure of schools, 197–198
- Financial control, 43
- Financial management, 60
- Finding process, 31
- Five whys technique, 190–191
 - conceptualisation, 191–193
- Formula funding, 52
- Fostering effective communication, 77
- Framing, 183
- Free School Meals (FSM), 53
- Free schools, 23
- Functional socialisation, 169, 176

- Generic repertory, 135
- Generic subsets, 134–135
- Gnome, 131
- Goal/value dissonances
 - parents and pupils, 95
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - school-based staff, 78
- Good strategic planning, 182

- Governors, problematic relationships with, 97
- abdicator and passive governors,
100–102
- additional governor problems,
102–103
- controlling and overly critical
governors, 98–99
- governor management strategies,
103–104
- rogue governors, 99–100
- Hard labour
- child protection, 57–58
- facets, 61
- information demand management,
50–51
- issues for reflection, 62
- legal responsibilities, 56–57
- managing needs and demands of others, 58–59
- Multifaceted Juggling Act, 47–50
- school finance management, 51–54
- school premises management, 54–56
- teaching headships, 59–60
- Headship (see also Sense making of headship), 31, 52–53, 55–56,
58, 116, 117, 167, 195
- appointment to, 171
- career plans and pathways, 35–38
- expectations of new heads, 39–42
- functional competence in, 180
- implications for practice, 138
- issues for reflection, 46, 138
- job security in, 22
- knowledge for, 130–138
- new role and context, 42–44
- performance, 168
- postscript, 202–203
- problem facets, 45–46
- problem-based learning, 198–199
- problematic of minor profession,
199–202
- problematic of problems, 196–197
- professional judgements and advice, 98
- promotion to, 171
- responsibility, 161, 182, 195, 198
- succession circumstances, 38–39
- symbolic dimension of, 158
- Headteacher socialisation
- concepts in, 171
- implications for practice, 180
- influences on, 169–171
- issues for reflection, 180
- outcomes, 177–178
- school leader socialisation tactics,
172–173
- socialisation tactics, 171, 174
- stages, 174–177
- synthesising influence factors in,
178–180
- Headteachers, 21, 25, 28, 32, 35, 130,
139, 141, 160
- experiential learning, 145
- importance, 144
- learning of, 148
- reflection, 194
- responsibility, 74–75
- skill for, 17
- succession, 167–168, 170
- working week, 48
- Health and safety
- legislation, 56–57
- and risk assessments, 105
- Helpful knowledge acquisition
- factors, 42
- High expectations, 81–83
- Holistic reflection, 189
- Homosocial reproduction, 171
- Hostility, 81, 91–93
- Identificatory trust, 176
- Imperatives of political policymakers, 28
- Improvement-oriented accountability
processes, 109–110
- In-service professional development and training opportunities, 69
- Inbound knowledge, 133
- Incoming heads, 39
- Incremental process, 146

- Information demand management, 50–51
- Information technology, 93
- Inhibitory knowledge acquisition factors, 42
- ‘Initiative overload’ generated cynicism, 118
- Insider knowledge, 133
- Inspection process, 119
- ‘Inspectors’ judgments, 66
- Institutional ‘meta-culture’, 30
- Integrate innovative problem-solving approach, 83
- Intellectual virtues, 130–131
- Intelligent school, 132–133
- ‘Intelligent school’ attributes, 132–133
- Inter-personal relationships, 63
- Interest groups, 153
- Interest sets, 153–154
- Intermental socialisation, 168
- Internal staff conflict, 75
- Internal staff team conflict, 65
 - problematic deputies, 67–69
 - school amalgamations, 66–67
- Internal team conflict, 65
- Interpersonal reflection, 189
- Interviewees, 65, 67, 117
- Interviews, 134–135
- Intramental socialisation, 168
- Intrapersonal reflection, 189
- Introspection, 193
- Ironies of practice, 22
- Irrationality, 88–91

- Job security in headship, 22

- Knowing-in-action, 145, 149
- Knowledge, 64, 69, 179, 181
 - acquisition strategies, 42–43
 - of educational practice, 132
 - headteachers, 129, 151
 - knowledge-creating school, 133
 - knowledge-in-action, 133–134
 - of leadership and management, 129
 - of people, 132
 - repertories, 133–135
- Knowledge for headship, 130
 - Aristotle’s intellectual virtues, 130–131
 - attributes of ‘intelligent school’, 132–133
 - contextual repertory, 135–137
 - Eraut’s taxonomy, 131–132
 - generic repertory, 135
 - knowledge repertories, 133–135
 - personal repertory, 137–138
- Kolb cycle, critiques of, 141–143
- Kolb’s model, 140–141, 143

- Laissez-faire* leadership style, 38
- Landmarks in minefield, 21
 - blame and denial, 24–26
 - dearth of hard evidence, 26
 - educational reform, 21–24
 - facing facts, 32–33
 - issues for reflection, 33
 - problematic of agency, 28–29
 - problematic of role, 30–32
 - problematics of leadership and management, 27–28
 - problematics of school culture and climate, 29–30
- Leadership, 100
 - capability, 129
 - competence, 129
 - problematics of, 27–28
 - responsibilities, 119
 - roles, 68
- Learning from experience, 139
 - critiques of Kolb cycle, 141–143
 - experiential learning cycle, 140–141
 - learning styles, associated
 - characteristics and strengths, 142
 - relevance of experiential learning, 143–145
- Learning ropes, 168
- Legal responsibilities, 56–57
- Legal staff management
 - responsibilities, 73–74
- Linear models, 174
- Liquid times, 11

- Local authorities, 23
 funding policies, 53–54
 problematic relationships with,
 104–107
- Local government reorganisation, 71
- Local management of schools
 (LMS), 51, 71
- Long-term legacy, 94
- Long-term socialisation, 174
- Longer-serving heads, 50
- Low aspirations, 83–85
- Making, 31
- Management, problematics of, 27–28
- Managerialism, 22
- Maverick governor, 99
- Metavalue, 163
- Micropolitical activity, 152
 evidence of, 155
 negative effects of, 154–155
- Micropolitics, 152
 power, 154
 strategies, 154–155
 theory, 152–153
- Minefields, 1
- Minor profession, problematic of,
 199–202
- Misinterpretations, 15–16
 assumption and early stages of
 headship, 45–46
 parents and pupils, 96
 partners in school governance, 111
 personal impact of headship, 126
 school leadership and management
 problems, 18–19
 school-based staff, 78
- Mobilising resources, 28
- Modern medical training, 201
- Moral art, 161
- Moral socialisation, 168
- Morale and motivation, 113, 117–121
- Multi-Academy Trusts (MATs), 108
- Multifaceted Juggling Act, 47–50
- National Academy of Educational
 Leadership, 12
- National Assembly Government, 11
- National College for School
 Leadership, The, 12
- National Literacy Strategy, 40
- ‘Need-to-know’ priorities, 42
- Neo-liberal politicisation of schooling, 23
- Non-profit-making charitable trusts,
 108
- Nous, 131
- NPQH programme, 10–11, 171
- ‘Off-the-job’ learning, 141
- ‘On-the-job’ experiences, 141
- Ongoing educational reform, 97
- ‘Open’ decisions, 16
- Operational intelligence, 133
- Organisational leadership, 151
- Organisational micropolitics evidence of micropolitical activity from studies, 155
 micropolitical interests, 153–154
 micropolitical power, 154
 micropolitical strategies, 154–155
 micropolitical theory, 152–153
 problematic nature of, 152
- Organisational mission, 28
- Organisational processes, 201
- Organisational socialisation, 168–170
- Organisational symbolism
 evidence of, 160
 forms of, 158
 problematic nature of, 155
 significance of symbolic analysis of schools, 156–158
 symbolism in action, 155–156
- Organisational theatre, 159
- Organisational values in educational leadership, 161–162 evidence of value-related
 problems, 164
 implications for practice, 164–165
 issues for reflection, 165
 problematic nature of, 161
 value groundings, 163–164
- Outbound knowledge, 133

- Parents/parental/parenting, 90
 - educational achievement, 87
 - irrationality, 81
 - and pupils, 95–96
 - violence and aggression, 92
- Pareto principle, 151–152
- Participation in community events, 81
- Partners in school governance, 111
- Passive governors, 97, 100–102
- Pastoral and social support, 85–86
- Pastoral leadership, 74–77
- Pastoral support demands, 85–88
- Pedagogical/pedagogy, 99
 - intelligence, 133
 - reflection, 189
- People-centred problems, 6364
- Performance management, 73
- Permutations of consciousness and competence, 148
- Personal impact of headship, 125–126
 - issues for reflection, 126
 - morale and motivation, 117–121
 - professional isolation, 113–116
 - switching off, 121–125
- Personal interests, 153
- Personal knowledge, 132
- Personal repertory, 134–135, 137–138
- Personal value system, 162
- Personality, 167
 - traits, 68
- Personality conflict, 32
- Phronesis, 131
- Planned continuity, 174
- Planned discontinuity, 174
- Plausibility, 5
- Poetic leadership, 158
- Policy
 - formulation, 100
 - ironies, 22
- Policy-making processes, 27–28
- Political recruitment, 28
- Politicians, 82
- Positivity of failure, 198
- Post-code lottery, 52
- Practice, 146
 - trust, 176
- Pragmatists, 109, 141
- Pre-school phase, 83
- Prehension of experience, 141
- Primary education, 122
- Primary headship, 1, 129, 195–196
- Probably oversubscribed enrolments, 109
- Problem analysis
 - disparities in expert and novice, 188
 - and framing, 183
- Problem framing and analysis, using typology for, 17–18
- Problem management, 1, 5–6, 44
 - five whys technique, 190–191
 - issues for reflection, 194
 - proficient strategic, 185–187
 - reflection in strategic problem management, 187–190
 - reflective self and scrutiny of others, 193–194
 - strategy in, 181–185
- Problem people, 64
 - in organisations, 152
- Problem sensitivity, 182–183
- Problem-based learning (PBL), 198–199
- Problem-finding, 23
- Problematic colleagues
 - contractual and legal
 - staff management
 - responsibilities, 73–74
 - internal staff team conflict, 65–69
 - issues for reflection, 79
 - pastoral leadership and management of staff, 74–77
 - restricted professionalism, 69–71
 - school-based staff, 78
 - underperformance and competence issues, 71–73
- Problematic deputies, 67–69
- Problematic of agency, 28–29
- Problematic of role, 30–32
- Problematic parents, 81
 - high expectations, 81–83
 - hostility and aggression, 91–93
 - irrationality, 88–91
 - low aspirations, 83–85
 - pastoral support demands, 85–88

- Problematic partners in school governance
 - emerging and potential problems of academization, 108–110
 - issues for reflection, 112
 - partners in school governance, 111
 - problematic relationships with governors, 97–104
 - problematic relationships with local authorities, 104–107
- Problematic pupils, 93–95
- Problematic relationships, 97
 - abdicatoric and passive governors, 100–102
 - additional governor problems, 102–103
 - controlling and overly critical governors, 98–99
 - governor management strategies, 103–104
 - with governors, 97
 - with local authorities, 104–107
 - rogue governors, 99–100
- Problematics
 - of leadership and management, 27–28
 - of school culture and climate, 29–30
- Problems, 14
 - dysfunction, 15–16
 - problem-solver label, 40
 - problem-solver pressures, 40
 - relating to contractual and legal aspects of staffing, 65
 - remediation, 16–17
- Process knowledge, 132
- Professional, 200
 - artistry, 197
 - confidence, 76
 - expectations, 69
 - governors, 102
 - identity, 121
 - interests, 153
 - isolation, 10, 68, 113–116
 - philosophies and values, 118
 - skills or knowledge, 116
 - socialisation, 168, 170
- Professionalism characteristics, 199–200
- Proficient strategic problem management, 185–187
- Propositional knowledge, 131–132
- Psychology, 63–64, 201
- Publicly-funded independent schools, 23
- Race's conscious competence, 187
- Rational values, 163
- Reciprocal interpretation, 5
- Redundancy, 74
- Reflection, 190
 - disparities in expert and novice problem analysis and response, 188
 - issues for, 194
 - reflective self and scrutiny of others, 193–194
 - reflective thinking, 188–189
 - in strategic problem management, 187
- Reflection-in-action, 144, 149
- Reflective eye, 193
- Reflective intelligence, 133
- Reflective observation, 140, 147
- Reflectors, 141
- Reinvigorate professional culture, 70
- Remediation problems, 16–18
- Reorientation of personal identity, 168
- Replicative outcomes, 177
- Research studies, 9
 - findings, 12–14
 - issues for reflection, 19
 - problems, 14–17
 - research subjects, 19
 - school leadership and management problems, 18
 - setting research in context, 9–12
 - using typology for problem framing and analysis, 17–18
- Responsibility, 113
- Restricted professionalism, 65, 69–71
- Restructuring process, 145–146
- Revision, 146

- Rituals in school, 159
- Rogue
 - events, 188
 - governors, 97, 99–100
- Role
 - ambiguity, 117
 - conflicts, 32, 117
 - innovation, 177
 - problematic of, 30–32
 - role-personality conflict, 32
 - role-related learning, 149
 - trust, 176
- School, 63, 75
 - amalgamations, 66–67
 - budgets, 51
 - community, 114, 136
 - culture and climate, problematics of, 29–30
 - development planning, 100
 - finance management, 51–54
 - funding, 51
 - governors, 97
 - improvement planning and monitoring, 70
 - inspection process, 119
 - leader socialisation
 - tactics, 172–173
 - leadership, 130–131
 - premises management, 54–56
 - school-based colleagues, 63
 - school-based management, 201
 - school-based professions, 201
 - school-based staff, 78
 - symbolic credibility, 86
- Secondment, 36, 38
- Self-awareness, 132
- Self-evaluation, 132
- Self-identity, 5
- Self-improving autonomous
 - system, 23
- Self-knowledge, 132
- Self-presentation, 193
- Self-reflection, 132
- Self-sustaining, 109
- Selves-in-role-in-context, 195
- Sense making of headship (see also Headship), 139
 - conscious and competent learning, 147–148
 - implications for practice, 148–149
 - issues for reflection, 149
 - learning from experience, 139–145
 - theory of complex learning, 145–147
- Sense-making, 4–5, 130
- Simplicity chimera, 22
- ‘Situated learning’ process, 168
- Situational adjustment, 170
- Situational knowledge, 132
- Skills, 69, 116
 - for Headteachers, 17
- Social
 - capital, 168
 - and emotional leadership, 74–75
 - organisations, 161
 - services, 87
- Socialisation, 167–168, 179
 - forms of, 168–169
- Sophia, 131
- Spiritual intelligence, 132–133
- Sporting prowess, 160
- Stabilisation, 175
- Staff
 - management, 74–77
 - responsibilities, 73
 - and staffing issues, 10
 - teams, 77
- Staffing budget, 66
- Stage theory, 176
- Stakeholder
 - governors, 97
 - in school communities, 41
- Story-based symbolism, 159
- Strategic problem management, 184
 - reflection in, 187–190
- Strategic/strategy
 - implementation, 184
 - management processes, 130
 - planning, 182–184
 - in problem management, 181–182
 - reflection, 189
- Subrational values, 163

- Succession circumstances, 38–39
- Sunesis, 131
- Sure Start, 10
- Sutton Trust survey, 24
- Switching off, 121–125
- Symbolic messages, 49
- Symbolism in action, 155–156
- Symbols, 156–157
- Systemic intelligence, 133

- Tactics, 181
- Teachers, 70, 122
- Teaching headships, 59–60
- Techne, 131
- Technical socialisation, 168
- Temporality, 5
- Theorists, 141
- Time-management problems, 50–51
- Times Educational Supplement*, 135
- Traditional working-class
 - communities, 87
- Trans-rational values, 163
- Transformation of experience, 141
- Trust formation, 176
- Tuning process, 145

- Uncompetence, 147
- Unconscious competence, 187
- Unconsciousness in learning, 147
- Underperformance, 71–73
- Unforced successions, 38
- Unplanned continuity, 174
- Unplanned discontinuity, 174

- Value conflicts, 117
- Value/goal dissonances, 15–16
 - assumption and early stages of headship, 45
 - heads' workloads, 61
 - personal impact of headship, 126
 - school leadership and management problems, 18
- Value(s), 136, 161
 - conflicts, 164
 - groundings, 163–164
- Vilfredo Pareto (see Pareto principle)

- Wales Government, 11
- Welsh Foundation Phase curriculum, 83
- Welsh Office, 11
- Welsh primary schools, 11–12
- Westminster government, 24
- Whole-school management, 119
- Workloads and responsibilities, 66, 117
- Working relationship, 104