INDEX

Acquiescence resistance, 84
Active commitment, 77
Active involvement, 118
Active manipulation resistance, 84
Active participation, 144
Adaptable methods, 118
Adjourning, 20
Affective commitment, 76
Age, 126
Appreciative inquiry (A/I), 8–11
Artifacts, 106–107
Assimilated communication, 64
Authenticity, 33
Autocratic leadership style, 50
Autonomy, 24
Avoidance resistance, 84
Awareness, desire, knowledge, ability, reinforcement model (ADKAR model), 7–11

Baby-Boomers, 17–18
Bardo, 6
Basic assumptions, 107
Beckhard–Harris model of change, 88–89, 115
Behavior, 127
Beliefs, 17
Beyond Culture (Hall), 21
Bottom up communication, 64
Broad-based action, 7
Broadcast, 79
Burning platform, 70

Capacity, 117
Challenger safety, 125
Change, 75, 135
  ADKAR model, 7–11
  agents, 2, 35, 85
  change-readiness surveys, 109
  complex systems, 3–4
  complicated systems, 3–4 economic versus organizational approaches to, 3 history, 4–7
  implications for practice, 145–146
  management, 1–2 method, 117–118 metrics and data, 137–141
  process, 1
  sustaining change, 141–145
  template for maintaining, 145
  vision, 7
Channel(s), 59
  richness, 59–60
Chevrolet, 58
Chevy Nova, 58
Codes, 59
Coercive power, 49
Cognition, 99
Collectivism, 24
Commitment, 29, 75–76, 117 (see also Gain commitment) or psychology of previous investment, 86 Communication, 29, 57, 111 environment of, 57–58
  implications for practice, 66–67
  mechanisms, 58–62
  template for action in, 66

timeline, 66
travels, 63–65
Communication, consistency and co-workers (3-C), 26
Complex systems, 3–4
Complicated systems, 3–4
Comprehensive communication plan, 72
Compromise resistance, 84
Condensed communication, 64
Confirmation bias, 86
Contextual example, 137
Contingency leadership, 52
Continuance commitment, 76
Contributor safety, 125
COVID-19
issues of COVID transmission, 50 pandemic, 107
Critical theory in organizational studies, 98
Cultural/culture, 7, 24, 30, 105–106, 117, 136–137 assessments, 109 change readiness questions, 109–110
implications for practice, 112–113
individual change agent attributes, 110–112
template for action, 112

Dashboards, 138
Data, 137–141
Defect Derby, 128
Defiance resistance, 84
Define, discovery, dream, design, destiny model (5D model), 8–9
Democratic leadership style, 50
DICE model, 3
Diffusion practices, 144
Disclose first, 78
Disconfirming data, 5
Discretionary effort, 26
Dissatisfaction, 88–89

Egalitarianism, 22
Embellished communication, 65
Emotional objects, 88
Emotions, 87–88, 91
Empathy, 33
Employee engagement, 26
Employee turnover, 139
Encoded message, 60
Environment of communication, 57–58
Epistemological perspective, 59
Espoused values, 107
Esthetics, 96
Ethics, 28, 34–35
implications for practice, 36–37
template for action, 36
External(s), 2
change agents, 110
data, 70
stimulus, 58–59
Eye contact, 61

Fear, 88
Feedback, 61
Feminine cultures, 23
Femininity, 23
Financial contribution, 136
Force field analysis, 70–71
Forming, 19
Frame of reference, 58

Gain commitment, 29, 75–76
implications for practice, 80
template for action for, 78–80
Gains, 7
Gender, 126
Generational cohorts, 16–18
Generations X, Y and Z, 16–18
Gestures, 61
GM executives, 58
Goal-directed performance reviews, 143

Grapevine communication, 63
Grounded and emergent possibilities, 41
Group development, 18–20
Guiding coalition, 7

Haptics, 61
High-context culture, 21–22
Hofstede's model, 20–21
Homans' A-I-S cycle, 128, 130
Horizontal or lateral communication, 64
How, 30, 115 change method, 117–118
  implications for practice, 120
  schedules for implementation, 116–117
  template for action, 118–120
Human Side of Enterprise, The (McGregor), 15

IBM, 20–21
Imagery, 41
Improving methods, 118
Inclusion safety, 125
Indirect metrics (see Proxy metrics)
Individual change agent attributes, 110–112
Individual commitment, 136
Individualism, 24
Indulgence cultures, 25–26
Inexpressibility, 45*n*1
Informal communication, 63
Integrity, 28, 33–34
  implications for practice, 36–37
  template for action, 36
Intellectual assets, 14
Intercultural differences, 20–26
Interdependence of fate, 123–124
Intergroup meetings, 142
Internal(s), 2
  change agents, 110
  data, 70
  motivation and engagement, 6 noise, 60
Inverse scenarios, 97–98
Involvement, 4, 30, 75

Key performance indicator (KPI), 139–140
Knowledge workers, 14
Kotters' 8-steps of change process, 6–7

Labeling, 77
Lagging indicators, 138–139
Laissez-faire leadership style, 50
Leadership, 29, 47–48 contingency, 52
  formal academic definitions, 47
  implications for practice, 53–54
  servant, 51–52 setting, 136
  situational, 52 styles, 48–52
  template for action for, 53
  transformational, 52
Leading indicator, 139
Learner safety, 125
Learning, 39–40
Legitimate power, 49
Length of time with organization, 126
Leveled communication, 65
Lewin's approach to change, 5
Likert Scale, 139
Logic, 33
Long?term orientation, 24–25
Loss aversion, 77, 85–86
Low-context culture, 21–22

Managerial style, 136
Masculine cultures, 23
Masculinity, 23
Max-Mix, 126
Messages, 59, 63
Meta-stereotypes, 17–18
Metaphors, 40–42, 97

Metrics, 137–141
Millennials, 17
Mono-chronic cultures, 25
Motivation, 59
Moving, 4–5

Negotiation of meaning, 127
Neutral zone, 6
Non-verbal/visual cues, 59
Normative commitment, 76
Norming, 19–20

Oculesics, 61
Organization development (OD), 2, 35 Organization(al), 15, 22–23, 62, 136
  change, 96
  culture, 105–106 mythology, 98–99
  sensing meetings, 142

Paradigm shifts, 40
Paralanguage cues, 59
Participation, 99
Participative activity, 30, 95
  implications for practice, 100–101
  template for action, 100
People, 13
  employee engagement, 26
  generational cohorts, 16–18
  group development, 18–20
  implications for practice, 27
  intercultural differences, 20–26
  knowledge workers, 14
  principles of people?centered processes, 28–30 template for helping, 27
  theory X, Y and Z, 14–16
Performing/performance, 20 appraisal system, 79, 141 evaluations, 144 management systems, 141 measurement, 138
Piper Alpha oil rig fire, 70
Plan down, 116
Planning methods, 118
Political power system, 137
Polls, 65
Poly-chronic cultures, 25
Positions vs. interests in change management, 90
Positive deviance, 9
Positive emotions, 129
Power, 98
  distance, 22
Process, 117
Processual implementation, 137
Professional life, 75
Prominent activity, 30, 95
  implications for practice, 100–101
  template for action, 100
Prosci, 8
Proxy metrics, 139
Psychological safety, 125

Qualitative metrics, 139
Quantitative metrics, 139

Race, 126
Re-arrangement, 116–117
Re-freezing, 4–5
Re-norming, 19–20
Reciprocity, 77
Referent power, 49
Renewal conferences, 143
Resistance to change, 29, 83
  implications for practice, 91
  template for action, 90–91
Restraint cultures, 25–26
Return visits, 143
Reward(s), 144
  power, 49
  system, 143
Risk-taking, 23
Role in organization, 127
Routine meeting, 58

Savvy communicators, 63
Self-guided activity, 96
Sense of urgency, 7
Servant leadership, 51–52
Shared vision, 28–29, 39, 42–44
  implications for practice, 44
  learning, 39–40
  template for action, 44
  vivid and involving, 40–42
Sharpened communication, 64
Short term orientation, 24–25
  wins, 7
Similarity, 77
Situational leadership, 52
Six-box model, 107–108
Social aspect of communication, 58
Social constructionism, 43
Social networks, 29, 47
  implications for practice, 53–54
  template for action for, 53
Social proofs, 78
Social psychology, 124
Societies, 22–23
Sticking change, 30
Stimulus, 58–59
Storming, 19
Structure of Scientific Revolutions, The (Kuhn), 40
Structuring methods, 118
Substantial difference, 135–136
Super-ordinate goal, 39
Supportive methods, 118
Surfacing values, 97
Sustaining change, 141–145
Symbolic reinforcement, 144

Task interdependence, 124
Team meetings, 142
Teams and involvement, 123 (see also Leadership)
  implications for practice, 131
  template for action, 130–131
Technical power, 49
Telephonic communication, 60
Temporal implementation, 137
Theory X, Y and Z, 14–16
Thinking, 99
Time of day, 57–58
Top down communication, 64
Trainings, 144
Transformational leadership, 52
Transitions, 5–6
Trust, 28, 33–35
  implications for practice, 36–37
  template for action, 36

Uncertainty avoidance, 23
Unethical behavior, 35
Unfreezing, 4–5

Values, 28, 33–35, 97
  attribution, 86
  implications for practice, 36–37
  template for action, 36
Verbal cues, 59
Vision, 39
  and strategy, 7
Visual activity, 30, 95
  implications for practice, 100–101
  template for action, 100

"Why" of decision, 29, 69
  implications for practice, 72
  template for action, 71–72
Work, 75
Written communication, 59

Zoomers, 17