

INDEX

- Academic culture, 142
- Agency, 3–4
- Alberta Initiative for School Improvement, 46
- Alignment, 49
- Association of School and College Leaders (ASCL), 170
- ‘Australian Catholic Bishops’ Conference (ACBC), 203
- Australian Catholic University (ACU), 189
- Australian Church, 203–204
- Australian Council for Educational Leaders (ACEL), 20
- Australian Council of Educational Research (ACER), xxviii, 180
- Australian Educational Leader (AEL), 20
- Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (AITSL), 179
- Authentic engagement, 21
- Boundaries, 20, 111
- Capacity, 50, 66
- Catholic education, 201–202
  - in Australia, 202
  - context and mission of, 206–209
- Catholic Education, Diocese of Wagga Wagga (CEDWW), xxviii, 180, 182, 234
  - Central Office Staff, 185–186
  - need for, 187
  - principals and assistant principals, 186
  - system improvement initiative, 194
- Catholic Education Diocese of Wilcannia Forbes, 187
- Catholic Religious Australia (CRA), 203
- Catholic schools, 206–208
- Catholicism, xxix
- CEDWW Workforce Capability Framework (CWCF), 190–191
- China, cultural and contextual antecedents for system leadership in, 91–93
- Chinese educational reforms, 226
- Classroom conditions, 138–140
  - relative effects, 141–142
- Co-curricular activities (CCA), 112
- Co-responsibility, 212, 232
- Coherence, 16–17
- Collaboration, 16–17
- Collaborative leadership, 18
- Collective capacity-building
  - for quality improvement, 62–64
  - quality strategy based on, 66–69
- Collective leadership, 18
- Commission contract, 94
- Commissioned administration networks, 94–95
- Commonwealth Education Act (2013), 207
- Communities of practice, 122
- Community-based learning, 25
- Compliant engagement, 21

- Compulsory Education Law, 91–92
- Connected partnership-based system, 229
- Consultation process, 48
- Cooperative learning, 21
- Cooperative seating, 21
- Courage, 195, 230–231
- COVID-19, xxiii–xxiv, 1–2, 222
 destructive forces, 223 experience during, 55
 first wave, 51
 virus, 87
- Cross-cutting principles, 68
- Cultural and contextual antecedents for system leadership in China, 91–93
- Culture, 209–210
- Curriculum reform, 46
- Deep-level questioning, 21
- Dialogue, 213, 232
- District leadership framework for, 153–156
 implications for, 145–147
 practices, 135–137
 in schools, classrooms and families, 144–145
- District(s), 133
 characteristics, 135–137
 district/municipal-level teaching-research officers, 98–100 effectiveness studies, 133 governance, 137
 practices of district leaders, 143–144
- Ecological thinking in education, 24
- Economist Intelligence Unit, 122
- Ecosystems, 222
- Education change, 37–38, 44
 engagement of stakeholders, 47–48
 implications for system leadership, 53–55
 institutional and policy alignment, 48–50
 policy design process, 45–47
 in practice, 50–53
 processes, xxiv, 39–40
 traditional change approaches, 40–44
- Education Development Trust, 174, 229
- Education policymakers, 55
- Education policymaking, 38, 44, 55
- Education System Improvement Tool (ESIT), xxviii–xxix, 180 development and trial, 182–186
- ‘Educational Excellence Everywhere’, 159
- Educational leaders, 2
- Educational leadership researchers and commentators, 17
- Educational reform leaders, 26
- Educational system
 leadership, 193
 and organisations, 20
- Effective school leadership, 142–143
- Energy National Innovation Challenge, 125
- Energy Research Institute @ NTU (ERI@N), 125
- Engagement of stakeholders, 47–48
- English education system, 157–158
- Equity, 3
- European Union (EU), 63
- External evaluation, 72–74
- External partner-led networks, 94–95
- Fake news, 124
- Family conditions, 138–140
 relative effects, 141–142
- Finance Department of MOE, 112
- Finland curricular reform processes, 48
- Fixed mindset, 6–7
- Fixed-identity mindsets, 5–6

- Food security, 125
- Fourth Industrial Revolution, 2
- Free market, 61
- Funding of schools, 112
- Future leaders, 170–172
- Future school leaders programme, 187–189
- Future-ready learners, 114
  - system leadership for, 116–120
- Future-ready life work, system leadership for, 120–123
- Future-ready living, leadership for, 123–125
- ‘Getting to know our workforce’ inquiry, 186–187
- Global Dialogue, 160, 162
- Global Education Reform Movement (GERM), 3, 61–63
- Global financial crisis (GFC), 19
- Global value chains, 123
- Government-funded schools, 111–112
- Government-led networks, 94–95
- Growth mindset, 6–7
- Heroism, 214
- High-stakes culture, 69, 73–74, 76
- Hubei Province, 92
- Human capital, 179
- Human flourishing, 202–203
  - context and mission of catholic education, 206–209
  - context in society, 205–206
  - context within church, 203–205
  - system leadership imperative, 209–216
- Human resource (HR), 112
- Idea generation (ideation), 121
- Ingenuity, 214
- Inspectorates, 73
- Institutes of Technical Education, 111
- Institutional and policy alignment, 48–50
- Instructional leadership, 98
- Integrity, 195, 231
- International comparative educational studies, xvi
- Interpersonal effectiveness, 195, 230
- Jiaoyanyuan* system, 98–100, 103
- Jointly determined change, adaptability, and culture-based accountability model (JAC model), 26–27
- K-12 school-based education, 25
- KnowledgeWorks*, 19, 22, 25
  - innovators and reformers, 23
- Lattice-like leadership, xv
- Leaders of schooling systems, 3
- Leadership, xii (see also Quality leadership)
  - capacities, 14
  - for future-ready living, 123–125
  - implications for, 100–105
  - teams, 54
- Leading education change, 50–53
- Leading Education Systems*, xiii, xxiii, 222
- Learning
  - communities, 12
  - organisations, 50
  - system, 64–66
  - learning-oriented organisational improvement processes, 136
- Life-deep learning, 119–120
- Life-wide learning, 118–119
- Lifelong learning, 117–118
- Linear thinking, 10
- Local Leaders of Education (LLEs), 167
- London Challenge*, 159
- Love, 214
- Market approach, 71, 79–80
- Mingshi, 103

- Ministerial Public Juridic Person (MPJP), 202, 207, 210
- Ministry of Education (MOE), xxvi, 92
objectives, 111
- Multi Academy Trust (MAT), 161
- National Assessment Programme in Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN), 179–180
- National College, xiv–xv
- National College for School Leadership (NCSL), 88
- National Exceptional Teaching for Disadvantaged Schools Programme (NETDS Programme), 190
- National Improvement Hub, 71
- National inter-diocesan improvement network, formation of, 193–194
- National Leaders of Education (NLEs), 167
- National Leaders of Governance (NLGs), 167
- National qualifications and examinations in upper stages, 74–76
- National School Improvement Tool (NSIT), xxix, 180–182
- Neo-liberal political agenda, 61
- Networked leadership, 194
- Networked teacher PLCs, 96–98
- New public management approach, 61
- Normal-level exams (N-Level exams), 113
- Norway Competence Development for Schools, 46
- Online falsehoods, 124
- Ontario leadership framework (OLF), 138
- Open systems, 111–112
- Ordinary level exams (O-level exams), 113
- Organisational environments, 222
- Partnership-based education system, 157, 172 connected and, 160–162
future of system leadership in VUCA world, 172–175
self-improving systems, 162–170 sustainability and future leaders, 170–172
- Partnerships, 157, 159, 229
Pathways to School Leadership: Leading With Impact Programme, 187
- Peer observation, 102
- Peer-to-peer learning, 19
- Performance excellence, 195, 230
- Personal attributes, 195, 230–231
- Pioneer School Networks, 48
- Plenary Council, 203
- Policy cycle, 41
- Policy design process, 45–47
- Policy enactment, 43
- Policy-oriented board of trustees, 137
- Policymakers, 42, 45
- Polytechnics, 111
- Post-secondary education, 25
- Primary School Leaving Examination (PSLE), 112
- Professional capital, 88–91
- Professional development (PD), 98, 123, 136, 226
- Professional leadership development, 137
- Professional learning communities (PLCs), 89
- Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), xvi, 62, 91
- Public education, xiii
- Quadrant-based model, 164
- Quality assurance strategy, 59
- Quality control, 63
- Quality indicators (QIs), 70

- Quality leadership for learning systems, 59
  - evaluation and appraisal of teachers and school leaders, 79–81
  - evolution of quality strategies within school systems, 60–61
  - external evaluation, 72–74
  - implications for leaders and system leadership in VUCA world, 81–83
  - learning system, 64–66
  - national qualifications and examinations in upper stages, 74–76
  - quality strategy based on collective capacity-building, 66–69
  - school self-evaluation, 70–71
  - stakeholder engagement, 78–79
  - student assessment progress at earlier stages, 76–78
  - theories of change, 61–64
- Quality strategies
  - based on collective capacity-building, 66–69
  - evolution within school systems, 60–61
- Quality systems, 224
- Radical inclusion, 28
- Recruitment process, example of use of framework in, 191–193
- Relational leadership, 214
- Relationships, 137
- Reliability, 69
- Religious Institute (RI), 202, 207, 210
- Resilience, 195, 230–231
- Return of Large-Scale Reform, The, xvi
- Revert, reboot, reframe and replace (four Rs), 4
- Rural–urban collaborative consortiums, 96
- Scaling successful educational reforms, 32
- School and system improvement, 180
  - clarity of vision and purpose, 184–186
  - CWCF, 190–191
  - example of use of framework in recruitment process, 191–193
  - formation of national inter-diocesan improvement network, 193–194
  - future school leaders programme, 187–189
  - ‘getting to know our workforce’ inquiry, 186–187
  - implications for system leadership and leaders in uncertain times, 194–197
  - phase, 180–181
  - university school/faculty of education partnerships, 189–190
- School conditions, 138–140
  - relative effects, 141–142
- School districts
  - framework, 135–140
  - mediating conditions, 138–140
  - methods, 140–141
  - results, 141–145
- School leaders, xiv–xv, 54
  - evaluation and appraisal of, 79–81
- School(s), 111
  - different forms of school consortiums, 93–96
  - education systems, 11, 64
  - leadership, 116, 138
  - school-based partnerships, 159
  - school-to-school collaboration, 157
  - self-evaluation, 70–71
  - system, xxviii
- Schooling
  - agenda, 3
  - systems, xxvii
- ‘Schools Achieving Success’, 158

- Schools at the Crossroads of Innovation in Cities and Regions*, 24
- Second Vatican Council, 208
- Self-awareness, 214
- Self-improving systems, xv, 162 system leader, 166–168
 well-connected and constantly maturing system of partnerships of schools, 163–166 well-functioning systems and structures, 163 work on mindset and culture change, 168–170
- Self-management, 195, 231
- Self-sovereign mind, 6
- Self-transforming mindset, 6–7
- Sensus fidelium, 214
- Shanghai Education Authority, xxvi
- Shared leadership, 13
- Singapore
 education system, 114
 multiculturalism, 124
 schools, 112
- Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate, 113
- SkillsFuture, 117–118
- SkillsFuture Singapore (SSG), 118
- ‘Spaces for students’ learning, 21
- Special-class Teachers, 97
- Specialist Leaders of Education (SLEs), 167
- Stakeholders engagement, 47–48, 78–79
- Standing Council on School Education and Early Childhood (SCSEEC), 181
- Stewardship, 211, 232
- Strategic thinking in action, 195, 230
- Struggling school-led networks, 94–95
- Student
 assessment progress at earlier stages, 76–78
 high-stakes tests, 40
 talk, 21
- Subject Leaders, 97
- Subsidiarity, 212, 232
- Success education, xxvi, 94
- Surface level questioning, 21
- Sustainability, 170–172
- System leaders, xxiii, 15, 59, 77, 221, 224, 227–228 challenges, 29
 complex systems, 31–32 in education, 2–3
 ethical and moral guidelines, 30–31 guiding principles for, 211–213
 implications for, 29
 insufficient preparation for VUCA challenges, 29 nuanced leadership best in uncertain times, 33 reform, 30
 scaling successful educational reforms, 32
- System leadership, xiii–xiv, xviii, xx, xxx, 166, 228 (see also Quality leadership for learning systems) cultural and contextual antecedents for system leadership in China, 91–93 in everyday, 213–215
 future of system leadership in VUCA world, 172–175
 for future-ready learning, 116–120
 for future-ready life work, 120–123 imperative, 209–216
 implications for, 53–55, 100–105
 movement, 171
 opportunity, 215–216
 and professional capital, 88–91 purposes of education, 113–116
 system reform initiatives, 93–100
- System perspective, 12

- System reform initiatives, 93
  - different forms of school consortiums, 93–96
  - district/municipal-level teaching-research officers, 98–100
  - networked teacher PLCs, 96–98
- System regeneration, 4
- Systemic leadership, 4
- TALIS, 102
- ‘Teach Less, Learn More’ initiative, 113
- Teacher(s)
  - evaluation and appraisal of, 79–81
  - professional development approaches, 46
  - talk, 21
  - teacher–student relationships, 21
- Teaching School Alliance (TSA), 161
- Teaching schools, 161
- Teaching-research officers, 98–100
- Technology, 122
- Theories of change, 61–64
- Third Global Education Industry Summit*, 24
- Third way approach, 61
- Top-down implementation, 43
- Traditional change approaches, 40–44
- Transparency, 69
- Trust, 68–69, 210
- UK National College for School Leadership, xiv
- UK–Shanghai comparative study, 104
- Uncertainty, 206
- ‘Understanding Our Workforce’ survey, 186
- Universities, 111
  - school/faculty of education partnerships, 189–190
- Validity, 69
- Vision-oriented learning, 137
- Visionary leadership, 8
- Volatility, uncertainty, complexity, ambiguity (VUCA), xxiii–xxiv, xviii–xix, xxi, xxiii, 170
  - future of system leadership in VUCA world, 172–175
  - implications for leaders and system leadership in, 81–83
  - times, 54
  - world, 1, 6, 8, 10, 59, 222
- ‘Voluntary but inevitable’ principle, 160
- Water security, 125
- Welsh system, 168
- Workforce Capability Framework, 187