

Index

- Ability to take risks in trying newness, 453, 455
- Actor-to-actor (A2A), 504
- ADDIE Model, 204
- Advertising, 20
 - business model, 267
- Affection, 95
- Affects, 35
- Africa Centre for Disease Control (ACDC), 436–438
- AGILE method, 204
- Agility, 369–370
- Agriculture, 438
- AlBaik case study, 96
- Allgemeine Elektrizitäts Gesellschaft (AEG), 151
- Analysis of variance (ANOVA), 108–109
- Anthropocentric paradigm, 370–371
- Application Programming Interfaces (APIs), 504–505
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 75–76, 288, 293–294
 - index, 288
- Attraction toward newness, 461
- Augmented Events Pay-Per-Use, 266–267
- Augmented reality (AR), 7, 263–264
 - case questions, 274
 - case study, 271–274
 - future research directions, 270–271
 - at service of corporate brand identity, 270–271
 - solutions and recommendations, 266
 - between tools and business models, 266–270
- Authenticity, 14
- Autonomy in innovative decision, 453, 455
- Average variance extracted (AVE), 111–112
- Average Variance Extracted validity (AVE validity), 481
- Aviation sector, 343–344
 - aviation continuum and Malaysian aviation industry, 347–350
 - case questions, 361
 - case study, 359–361
 - changes in business and operational activities, 356
 - interpretive method approach, 352–353
 - key crisis/challenges faced by aviation players, 350–351
 - key impact of COVID-19 pandemic to, 354–357
 - literature review, 345–352
 - pandemic COVID-19, global and local outlook of aviation sector, 345–350
 - recovery strategy, company image and brand reputation, 357–358
 - revenue and huge losses, 355–356
 - strategy and reputation of aviation players, 351–352
 - travel restriction domestic and international passenger, 356
 - underprepared situation, 356–357
- Axial coding, 529
- Back and forth information flow, 533
- Behavioural intention, 458
- Bias-laden ML algorithms, 131
- Bibliometrics, 423
- Big data, 293–294

- Black Swan event, 367
- Blackboard system, 202–203
- Blended learning, 191
 - case questions, 207
 - case study, 206–207
 - future research directions, 206
 - intrinsic and extrinsic motivation, 198–205
 - nature and significance of current study, 192–197
 - pandemic shaping teaching, 191–192
- Brand, 228–229
- Brand awareness, 456–457
- Brand co-innovation, 541
 - case questions, 557
 - case study, 556–557
 - conceptual framework, 555
 - research background, 541–545
 - research hypotheses, 546–554
- Brand coherence challenge, 75
- Brand communication for re-branding, 256–257
- Brand engagement, 287
 - CE strategy on brand engagement properties, 418–419
 - digital content marketing in, 282–283
 - properties on brand engagement outcomes, with moderating role of longevity, 420–421
- Brand identity consistency, 19
- Brand loyalty, 95
- Brand structure
 - corporate identity, 153–154
 - corporate social responsibility, 156–157
- Branding, 5, 51, 54
 - for multi-stakeholder communication, 246–250
 - reconfiguration, 37
- Business ethics and technology, 130
- Business model
 - changes, 358
 - for digital, 267–270
- Business to business markets (B2B markets), 228
- Business to customer (B2C), 545
 - context, 5
 - markets, 228
- Buyer-to-supplier identification, 229
- Buyer–supplier relationships (BSRs), 6, 213–214, 216
 - case questions, 236
 - case study, 234–236
 - communication, brand, and identity in, 226–230
 - future research directions, 231
 - opportunism, 218–223
 - research background, 213–214
 - specific investment, 216–218
 - typology, 230–231
- Changes in business and operational activities, 356
- Chief digital officer (CDO), 74–75, 80–81
- Chief sustainability officers (CSOs), 383, 385
- Citation analysis, 403
- City marketing plans, 307
 - case questions, 321–322
 - case study, 319–321
 - future research directions, 317–319
 - goal-oriented project planning as supportive tool, 312–313
 - hidden strategy, 312–313
 - nature and range of issue, 315
 - participants, 315–317
 - reasons for involvement and expected results, 314–315
 - solutions and recommendations, 313–317
- Cloud computing model, 267–268
- Co-creation, 379, 381, 532, 544
- Co-creativity, 38–39
- Co-creators, 12–13
- Co-innovation, 542, 545–546
- Coalition Against COVID-19 (CACOVID), 8, 434, 443, 445

- Codes, 330
- Coding stage, 529–536
- Collaboration, 379–381
- Collegial model of control, 473
- Colour coding, 334
- Coloured lithography, 152
- Common latent factor method (CLF), 482
- Common method factor (CMF), 482
- Common Method Variance (CMV), 482–483
- Communication, 3, 13, 15, 58–59, 64, 226, 228, 381, 533
 - as tool, 328
- Communicative Constitution of Organization approach (CCO approach), 371–372
- Communitas, 38
- Community model, 267–268
- Community of Inquiry (CoI), 205
- Complexity, 365–366
- Composite reliability (CR), 481
- Consistency, 14
- Constituents, 378
- Constructed emotion theory, 33–34
- Consumer brand engagement (CBE), 410
- Content characteristics, 285–286
- Content volume and valence, 288
- Contracts, 215–216
- Control groups, 193
- Controlled communication, 18–19
- Controlled corporate communication
 - corporate identity, 155
 - corporate social responsibility, 159
- Conventional marketing
 - communication, 20–21
- Cooperation, 227, 266–267
- Corporate advertising, 250–251
- Corporate behaviour, 154–155
- Corporate brand communication, 6–7, 245–246, 249–250
 - branding for multi-stakeholder communication, 246–250
 - case question, 257–258
 - case study, 256–257
 - corporate advertising, 250–251
 - corporate rebranding, 252–253
 - corporate sponsorships, 251
 - future research, 255–256
 - in higher education sector, 250
 - internal branding, 251–252
 - managerial implications, 255
 - theoretical implications, 254–255
- Corporate branding, 101–102, 106
- Corporate brands, 129, 365
 - business ethics and technology, 130
 - case questions, 139–140
 - case study, 139
 - ethical challenges, 129–130
 - ethical challenges of technology and corporate brand responsibility, 130–131
 - future research directions, 139
 - human autonomy and manipulation, 133–134
 - identity, 13–15
 - implications for corporate brand reputation and sustainability, 376–381
 - issues, 135
 - reputation, 376–381
 - solutions and recommendations, 138–139
 - stakeholders' communication, 6
 - technology and future of employment, 135–136
 - technology and governance, 136–137
 - technology and human well-being, 136
 - technology and personal integrity, 137
 - technology and trust, 137–138
 - and technology ethics, 131, 133
 - trust, 134–135
- Corporate communication (CC), 3, 20, 150, 246, 249
- Corporate communication mix. See Total corporate communications

- Corporate design corporate identity, 162
- Corporate identity, 6, 13, 147, 149, 151
 - antecedents, 153–156
 - case questions, 170
 - consequences, 160–162
 - corporate reputation, 160–161
 - external change affects identity, 169–170
 - future research, 167–168
 - Logica plc, 169
 - management communication
 - activities, 153
 - managerial implications, 166–167
 - moderators, 162–164
 - theoretical contribution, 165–166
 - theoretical framework, 152–164
 - theoretical underpinning for, 151–152
 - value, 148
- Corporate image, 147–148
- Corporate level communication, 71
- Corporate mission, 172
- Corporate philosophy, 149–150
- Corporate rebranding, 252–253
- Corporate reputation, 153–154
 - non-financial brand performance, 161–162
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 153, 373, 556–557
 - antecedents, 156–160
 - corporate identity, 153
- Corporate social responsiveness (CSR2), 373
- Corporate sponsorships, 251
- Corporate structure, 170
- Corporate sustainability (CS), 7, 365, 371, 373
 - case questions, 385
 - case study, 383–385
 - future research directions, 381–382
 - global disruption, 366, 368, 373, 376
 - learning to operate in complexity, 382–383
 - organization as social enterprise, 370–371
 - protecting profit and planet, 384
 - S30, 384
 - shareholder support for ESG focus, 384
 - sustainability, 384
 - value-led sustainability, 384–385
- Corporate values, 172
- Cosmetic and beauty industry, 102–103
- COVID-19
 - pandemic, 31, 366, 433–434
 - tests, 45
- Creating shared value (CSV), 556–557
- Crowd diversity, 286–287
- Cultural barrier, 74–75
- Culture, 92–95
- Culture-control, 474, 478
- Customer characteristics, 286
- Customer co-production (CCP), 468, 478–479
- Customer e-participation, 287
- Customer engagement (CE), 7–8, 393, 533, 544
 - brand engagement properties on
 - brand engagement
 - outcomes, with moderating
 - role of longevity, 420–421
 - case study, 423–424
 - case study questions, 424
 - conceptualization and
 - measurement, 410
 - conceptualizations, 396–397
 - ecosystems, 410–411
 - integrated framework for future
 - brand engagement research, 416–418
 - limitations, 422
 - literature review, 395–404
 - managerial implications, 421–422
 - method, 402–404
 - moderating role of online
 - community attribute, 419–420
 - online brand communities
 - engagement, 410

- and perceived value, 411
- research, 395–398
- research background, 393–395
- results, 404–411
- strategy on brand engagement
 - properties, 418–419
 - theoretical perspectives, 399–401
- Customer participation, 286–287
- Customer relationship management (CRM), 75–76, 556–557
- Customer to customer (C2C), 545
- Customer value proposition changed, 532
- Customer-centric outcomes, 505, 507
- Customer-centricity, 72–74
- Customer-integration, 468, 471
- Customer-orientation, 532

- Darax case study, 234–236
- Data-analytical process, 403–404
- Dematerialization, 263
- Digikala case study, 537
- Digital advertising campaigns, 20–21
- Digital business model, 532
- Digital co-creation, 557–558
- Digital communication, 22, 533
- Digital content marketing, 281
 - activities, 284–288
 - in brand engagement, 282–283
 - and brand engagement constructs, 288–291
 - case questions, 295–296
 - case study, 294–295
 - future research directions, 291–294
 - research background, 281–283
- Digital culture, 532
- Digital influencers, 106–107
- Digital marketing, 284
 - communication, 20–21
- Digital media in marketing
 - communications, 20
- Digital platforms, 543
- Digital space, 526
- Digital technologies, 130, 132–133
- Digital transformation, 521, 525, 527
 - 5C and OVP, 523–525
- case questions, 537–538
- case study, 537
- coding stage, 529–536
- creating and capturing value, 522–523
- future research, 536
- methodology, 527–529
- research background, 521–522
- research findings, 529
- studies on, 534
- Digital values, 533
- Digitalization, 71, 529
- Distinctiveness, 14

- Eco-innovation, 451, 455–456
 - case questions, 460–461
 - case study, 459–460
 - conceptual framework, 455
 - fashion brand image, lovemark and behavioural intention, 458
 - fashion brand image and purchase intention, 457
 - fashion brand image and word of mouth, 457–458
 - fashion innovativeness, value co-creation and fashion brand image, 457
 - fashion innovativeness and fashion brand image, 456–457
 - formation of research questions, 454
 - literature review, 455–458
 - managerial contribution, 459
 - and perceived level of fashion innovativeness, 456
 - practices, 451–452
 - research gaps, 453–454
 - theoretical contribution, 458–459
- Education, 438–439
- Educational institutions, 199
- Educational technology, 195
- Effective communication, 148, 434
- Electronic word of mouth (e-WOM), 18, 21
- Emotions, 34
- Empathy, 35
 - affect, 38–39

- Empiricism, 532–533
- Employee behaviours
 - corporate identity, 154–155
 - corporate social responsibility, 158
- Engagement, 282–283, 378
- Enterprises, 265
- Environment, 471–472
- Environmental, social and governance (ESG), 383
- Ernst & Young organization (EY organization), 384
- Erosion
 - of culture, 375–376
 - of trust, 374–375
- Etro
 - ground zero to digital transformation, 79–81
 - total omnichannel conversion, 81–82
- Expected results, 314
- Experimental groups, 193
- Exploratory factor analysis (EFA), 394, 402
- Extrinsic motivation, 198–205
 - impact on blended learning, 199–202
- Extrinsic motivators, 197
- Face-to-face learning sessions, 203
- Facebook, 22
- Facilitation, transformation and usage framework (FTU framework), 469
- Fashion brand image, 456–458
- Fashion innovativeness, 456–457
- Federal Capital Territory (FCT), 444–445
- Fertility Center, 333
- Fever checks, 45
- Financial success outcomes, 505
- 5C, 523–525
- Flexibility, 369–370
- Fourth Industrial Revolution (4IR), 438–439
- Framing messages, 58–59
- Free business model, 267–268
- Freemium business model, 267
- Future employment, 129
- Geospatial Content Management System (GEO CMS), 81
- Global disruption, 366, 368, 373, 376
- Global values, 39
- Goal-oriented project planning (GOPP), 312, 316
 - as supportive tool, 312–313
- Governance, 136–137
- Green Recovery, 383
- Gucci, Guccio, 271–274
 - history, 271–272
 - new route, 272–273
 - technological tools, 273–274
- Hajj*, 89, 96
- Halal, 53, 64
 - endorsements, 54–55
 - food production businesses, 52
 - negative image and reputation, 55–56
 - non-Muslim consumers and loyal consumers, 59
- Healthcare, 438
- Hedonic products, 121
- Hidden strategy, 312–313
- Hierarchical analysis (HCA), 394, 402, 404
- Higher education (HE), 11
 - case questions, 25–26
 - corporate and higher education stakeholders, 12–13
 - corporate brand identity and communication, 13–15
 - managerial implications, 23
 - marketing communications, 15, 21, 23
 - Nick's journey, 24–25
 - stakeholders, 11–12
- Higher education institutions (HEIs), 245–246, 254
- Honar Tabiaat Segal, 294–295
- Horizontal communication, 248–249
- Hospital design, 326

- Hospital Moinhos de Vento, Porto Alegre, Brazil, 336–337
- Hospitality consumption mood, 31 affects on, 35
case questions, 45
case study, 44–45
psychological impact on, 33
theoretical assumptions, 33–43
- Hospitality provider
as creators, 42
as facilitator, 42
- Human autonomy and manipulation, 133–134
- Human well-being, 136
- Hypothesis testing, 483–485
- Identity, 5, 14, 229–230
- Immersive technologies, 268
- In situ, 266
- Inconvenience, 35
affect, 41–43
- Industrial brand, 228
- Industrial buyers, 228–229
- Informal management control, 477
- Information and communication technology (ICT), 440, 545
- Information cascades, 105–106
- Information-processing, 381
- Infrastructure as a service (IAAS), 267–268
- Innovation, 543
- Innovativeness, 451–452
- Instagram, 102–103
accounts' characteristics and consumers' behavioural intentions, 104–105
- Integrated marketing communications (IMC), 18, 70, 85
evolutionary process, 72
single channel view to, 69–72
- Integrated stakeholders'
communication, 69
case questions, 84
customer-centricity, 72–74
Etro, 79, 81–82
future research directions, 84
omnichannel approach, 74–76
omnichannel management in luxury fashion industry, 76–79
single channel view to integrated marketing communications, 69–72
- Internal branding, 251–252
- Internal communication, 251–252
- Internal stakeholder, 246
- International Air Transport Association (IATA), 344–346, 350, 360
- International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), 346, 360
- International Corporate Identity group (ICIG), 150
- Internet of things, 293–294
- Interpretive method approach, 352–353
data collection and sampling, 352–353
interview guide/interview protocol, 353
- Intimacy, affective associations, 456
- Intrinsic motivation, 198–205
impact on blended learning, 198
learning, 199
- Intrinsic motivators, 197
- Islam, 53, 89
- Islamic branding, 63, 89–90
case questions, 96
case study, 96
culture and, 92–95
future research directions, 95
levels of consumption in Quran, 90–92
Muslim consumer, 90
outcomes, 95
religious beliefs and, 92
- Islamic Food and Nutrition Council of America (IFANCA), 52–53
- Islamic marketing, 51–54

- Joint United Nations Program on HIV and AIDs (UNAIDS), 438
- Kanoon Iran Novin case study, 556–557
- Kinder-Lyden berg, Domini and Co., Inc. (KLD), 157–158
- Knowledge, increased, 533
- Knowledgeable customers, 532
- Le Louarn’s scale, 455
- Leadership, 378
- Learning to operate in complexity, 382–383
- Legal concern management, 76
- Linked-In, 22
- Liquid society, 263
- Location layers, 266
- Lockdown, 41
- Logica plc, 169
- Lovemark, 458
- Loyalty, decreased, 532
- Luxury
 - fashion industry, 76–79
 - things, 91–92
- Machine learning, 293–294
- Maintenance repair and overhaul organization (MROs organization), 351
- Management communication, 247–248
 - activities, 173
- Manufacturing, 439
- Marker variable (MV), 482–483
- Marker variable method (MVM), 482
- Marketing communications, 15, 21, 248
 - controlled and uncontrolled communication, 18–19
 - conventional and digital, 20–21
 - personal and non-personal, 16–18
- Marketing mix, 20
- Mass media, 45
- Melissa case study, 459–460
- Mendot, 235
- Meso system, 504
- Meta-theoretical perspectives used for BE, 398–402
- Millennium Development Goals, 368–369
- Mixed reality (MR), 268–269
- Mobile payments, 439
- MOOCs, 194–195
- Moods, 34
- Motivation, 195
 - impact on blended learning, 197–198
- Motivators, 197
- Moving towards cooperation among competitor, 357–358
- Multi-channel digital communication strategy, 265
- Multi-dimensional scaling (MDS), 394, 402
- Multi-grounded theory, 528
- Multi-stakeholder communication, 3–4
 - branding for, 246–250
- Multichannel approach, 72–74
- Multichannel strategy, 85
- Multidimensional IMC, 71
- Multidisciplinary approach, 7, 541
- Multilateralism, 367
- Muslim consumer, 90
- Negative reputation, 55–56, 64
- Nigeria Centre for Disease Control (NCDC), 437
- Nigerian Government, 434, 443, 445
- Non-digital technologies, 132
- Non-financial brand performance, 161–162
- Non-Muslim consumers, 52
- Non-personal communications, 16–18
- Non-personal promotion (NPP), 16
- Non-representational theory (NRT), 37
- Nucleic Acid testing (NAT), 351
- Omnichannel
 - approach, 71, 73–74, 76
 - management in luxury fashion industry, 76–79

- marketing, 73
- strategy, 85
- Online brand communities
 - engagement, 410
- Online brand engagement, 423
- Online communities, 18
- Online community attribute,
 - moderating role of, 419–420
- Online learning systems, 204
- Online media, 435–437, 440
 - for stakeholders' communication on COVID-19 in Africa, 436–437
- Online opinion leaders, 116
- Online payment, 532
- Open coding, 529
- Opinion leaders, 106
- Opportunism, 214, 218, 223
 - in buyer–supplier relationships, 219–220
 - comprehensive model, 220–223
- Optichannel strategy, 85
- Optimal value proposition (OVP), 522–523, 525
- Order Management System (OMS), 81
- Organic view of the brand (OVB), 544
- Organization as social enterprise, 370–371
- Organizational culture, 381, 475
- Organizational purpose, 386
- Organizational structure
 - corporate identity, 154
 - corporate social responsibility, 157–158
- Organizational-commitment, 475–478
- Originality, 104
- Out-group customers, 64

- Pandemic shaping teaching, 191–192
- Pandemic travel toolkit, 44
- Partial least squares (PLS), 109–111
- Partial least squares structural equation modelling (PLS-SEM), 109, 111, 483
- Participatory action research (PAR), 310–311

- Past SST experiences, 503, 506
- Pay per Click, 267
- Pay What You Want (PWYW), 267–268
- Pay-per-ARmeet, 266–267
- Pay-per-play, 266
- Peer-to-peer activity (P2P activity), 541
- Perceived behavioural control, 95
- Perceived quality, 105
- Perceived value, 411
- Performance appraisal, 215–216
- Performance documentation (PD), 474–475, 481–482
- Personal communications, 16–18
- Personal integrity, 129, 137
- Personal promotion (PP), 16
- Personalization approach, 18
- Personalized Online Training System (POTS), 203–204
- Personalizing online learning system, 203–204
- Phygital model, 263
- Pictograms, 330–331
- Place branding, 307–308
- Place marketing, 307–308
- Place promotion, 307–308
- Platform as a service (PAAS), 267–268
- Polymerase chain reaction test (PCR test), 37
- Premium business model, 267
- Price fairness, 553
- Primary communication, 248–249
- Procedural-knowledge (PK), 472, 474, 481–482, 486
- Product, price, promotion, place and people (five Ps), 52
- Product, promotion, place, people, process and physical evidence, promise and patience (seven Ps), 52
- Product maven, 106
- Product-related connections, 544
- Project core team (PCT), 313–314
- Project Management Methodology (PM²), 311

- Project planning matrix (PPM), 316–317
- Promotional tools, 15–16
- Proper wayfinding design, 327
- Prospective students, 12–13
- Purchase intention, 95, 457

- Quadruple bottom line (QBL), 372–373
- QUAL strand, 320
- Qualitative research methods, 193
- Quality, 285–286
- Quality-control initiatives (QCIs), 8, 467
 - and customer co-production, 478–479
 - data analysis and results, 480–485
 - data collection and sample, 480
 - environment and, 471–472
 - limitations and future research recommendations, 489–490
 - managerial implications, 488–489
 - measures, 480
 - organizational-commitment and, 475–478
 - performance documentation and types of control, 474–475
 - procedural-knowledge and type of control, 472–474
 - research background, 467–468
 - and service-quality-performance, 479
 - theoretical and managerial implications, 488
 - theoretical background and hypothesis development, 469–471
- QUAN strand, 320
- Quantitative research design, 192–193
- Quran, levels of consumption in, 90–92

- Recognition & targeting, 266–267
- Relational buyer–supplier relationships, 215–216
- Relationship marketing, 398
 - approach, 14
 - tactics, 17
- Relevance, 378–379
- Reliability, 481–482
- Religion, 439–440
- Religious beliefs, 5, 92
- Religious endorsements, 54
- Religiously endorsed products (RLPs), 63
- Representing of value, 37
- Reputation, 5
 - model, 14
- Research and development (R&D), 217–218
- Resilience, 369–370
- Revenue and huge losses, 355–356

- S30, 384
- Sadaf Beauty, 120
- Salat*, 89
- Sawm*, 89
- Scarcity, 35
 - affect, 36–38
- Scientific Center for Consultations and Development (SCCD), 206–207
- Scientific research approaches, 193
- Seamlessly integrated channels, 71
- Search Engine Optimization (SEO), 436
- Secondary communication, 249
- Selective coding, 529
- Self-service technology model (SST model), 8, 501
 - attitude, 503–504, 506
 - behaviour, 503–504, 506
 - case questions, 511
 - case study, 510–511
 - characteristics, 503
 - constructs in service ecosystem levels, 503–505
 - environment, 504–505
 - future research directions, 508–510
 - platforms, 504–505
 - providers, 504, 507
 - readiness, 503, 506

- relationships between SST
 - constructs in service ecosystem, 505–508
 - research background, 501–503
- Semi-structured interviewing method, 528
- Sensuality, sensory associations, 456
- Service ecosystems, 502
 - relationships between SST
 - constructs in, 505–508
 - self-service technology constructs in service ecosystem levels, 503–505
- Service innovation, 451, 455–456
- Service provision, 467–468
- Service-dominant logic (S-D logic), 393–394, 398
- Service-quality-performance (SQP), 479
- Service-quality-performance, 470
- Shahada*, 89
- Shared economics, 541
- Shared economy platforms (SEPs), 545–546
- Shared value, 457
- Sharia*, 91, 93
 - sources, 93
- Sharing capacity/network, 357
- Sharing economy (SE), 542
- Signage, 328–329
- Single channel view to integrated marketing communications, 69–72
- Snapp platform, 510–511
- Social disruption as complexity, 374
- Social distancing, 38
- Social enterprise, 370–371
- Social exchange theory, 393, 398, 402
- Social gaming, 266
- Social identity, 56–58
- Social interaction, 195–196
 - impact on blended learning, 205
- Social isolation, 41
- Social media
 - characteristics, 284–285
 - influencers, 282–283
 - platforms, 21
- Social media opinion leadership, 5–6, 101
 - case questions, 121
 - case study, 120
 - future research directions, 118–119
 - literature review and hypotheses development, 104–107
 - measures, 109
 - mediating role, 105–107
 - practical implications, 116–117
 - research context and data collection, 107–109
 - results, 112–116
 - statistical procedures, 109–112
 - theoretical implications, 117–118
- Social networking, 71
 - sites, 101–102
- Social presence, 205
- Sociological intervention (SI), 310–311
- Software as a service (SAAS), 267–268
- Software Development Kits (SDKs), 504–505
- Source characteristics, 285
- Source credibility, 285, 289
- Source likability, 285
- Specific investment, 214, 216, 218
 - in buyer–supplier relationships, 219–220
 - comprehensive model, 220–223
- Stakeholder communication, 4–5, 8, 101, 433
 - case questions, 445
 - case study, 443–445
 - challenges in online setting, 440–441
 - future research directions, 443
 - and online media, 435–437, 440
 - online media for stakeholders’ communication on COVID-19 in Africa, 436–437
 - recommendations, 442–443
- Stakeholder theory, 370
- Standards and procedures barrier, 75–76
- Staycations, 42–43

- Stimulus-organism-response model (SOR model), 505
- Strategic City Marketing Plan (SCMP), 318
- Strategic consumer-centred approach, 70–71
- Strathclyde statement, 150
- Strong form of opportunism, 218
- Subjective norms, 94
- Subsistence, 91
- Sufficiency, 91
- Supplier-to-buyer identification, 229–230
- Sustainability, 368–369, 375, 384
 - integrated systems approach to, 369
- Sustainable development, 368
- SWOT analysis, 314, 320
- Symbolic identity, 14

- Target segments, 13
- Targeting, 315
- Technological ill-being, 136
- Technology
 - adoption, 358
 - ethics, 133
 - and future of employment, 135–136
 - and governance, 136–137
 - and human well-being, 136
 - impact on blended learning, 202–204
 - industry, 440
 - in learning environment, 196–197
 - and personal integrity, 137
 - and trust, 137–138
- Tertiary communication, 249
- Toblerone, 59–63
- Top management behaviour
 - corporate identity, 155
 - corporate social responsibility, 158–159
- Total corporate communications, 248–249
- Tourism, 346–347
- Transactional buyer–supplier relationships, 215–216
- Transfers
 - of caring meanings, 40
 - of recovery meanings, 40–41
 - of solidarity meanings, 41
- Transparency, 14
- Trauma, 35
 - affect, 39–41
- Travel restriction domestic and international passenger, 356
- Triple Bottom Line (TBL), 371
- Trust, 134–135, 137–138
- Two-step flow model of influence, 105–106
- Two-way interactive communication, 70–71

- UN Commission on Sustainable Development (CSD), 368
- UN Rio120 meeting, 368–369
- Uncontrolled communication, 18–19
- Uncontrolled corporate communication
 - corporate identity, 156
 - corporate social responsibility, 159–160
- Underprepared situation, 356–357
- United Nation support programme (UNSP), 96
- User experience (UX), 532–533
- Uses and gratifications theory, 402
- Utilities, 266

- Validity, 481–482
- Value co-creation, 457, 554
- Value creation, 522–523, 552–553
- Value-led sustainability (VLS), 384–385
- Vertical communication, 248–249
- Virtual customer assistants (VCAs), 42
- Virtual reality (VR), 268–269
 - ethics, 139
- Visibility, 14

- Wayfinding, 7, 325, 328–329
 - benefits, 335
 - best practices for healthcare wayfinding design, 332–335

- case questions, 338
- case study, 336–337
- design, 327–331
- designers, 328
- experiences to focusing well-being, 326–327
- future research directions, 336
- general insights, 327–329
- good practices, 332–335
- origin, 327–328
- particular insights regarding hospitals, 329–331
- pictograms, 330–331
- Weak form of opportunism, 218
- Web of Science database (WOS database), 403
- Well-being, experiences to focusing, 326–327
- Whole Foods, 55–56
- Wicked organizational collaboration, 380
- Women’s Empowerment Principles (WEPs), 170
- Word of mouth (WOM), 18, 21–23, 95, 457–458
- World Health Organization (WHO), 437
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 468
- Zaka*, 89