Index

Achievement outcomes, 6, 114, 157
Achievement standards, 6, 131
Activity, 77
  system, 133
Adult conceptions of learning, 10
Adulthood, 19
Affect/emotion (CRISPA), 36, 43, 64, 68
Agency, 16, 20
Agentic engagement, 161
Ako Manga, 11–12, 49–50, 111, 117–126, 146–150
Anti-colonialism, 18
Aotearoa New Zealand, 112–113 schooling context, 160
Artefacts, 36
Article 12 (UNCRC), 18, 158
Article 13 (UNCRC), 18
Assembly-line instruction (ALI), 28
Autonomy-supportive teaching, 160–161

Belonging, 73, 75, 78
Best Evidence Synthesis (BES), 114
Blended families, 82–86
Boundary, 12
Boundary crossing, 159, 162, 165

Categories of description, 43–45, 54–56
Change Laboratory process, 49, 117
Child/childhood/children, 7, 19 categories and dimensions of informal learning, 56–64 as co-researchers, 22–23
  conceptions of informal learning, 53, 55 consent, 24–25 development, 17 dimensions, 64–68 everyday learning, researching, 3–5 geographies, 15 home and school, 157–158 learning, 6, 138–142
  rights, 18 social interactions, 27 stories, 158–159
  strengths, breadth, depth, and variety of children's informal learning, 5–6 studies, 15
  teachers engage with CRISPA and CHAT, 160–163
Children's culture, relationships, identity, strategies, purpose, and affect or emotion (CRISPA), 11–12 and CHAT to expand learning, 150–152 contingent use, 119–122
  framework, 97
  intentional use, 123–125
  melded use, 122–123
  teachers engage with, 160–163
Children's lives, 15 in Aotearoa New Zealand, 29–31 changing conceptions of children and participation in research, 16–17 child consent, 24–25 children as co-researchers, 22–23 ethical and rights-based approaches, 22 research about children, 17–18
  research with children, 18–20 richness, 25–29
  supporting and scaffolding participation, 23–24

Children's Research Advisory group (CRAG), 44
Clandinin, J., 157
Classroom teachers, 115
Co-researchers, children as, 22–23
Code of conduct and standards for teachers, 116
Collages and phenomenographic interviews with children, 39–44
Communities of learning, 116
Community (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131
Conceptions, 20, 40, 43–44, 54, 153, 160
Conceptions of learning, 1, 11, 36, 53–54, 67, 98, 106, 132
Contemporary ideas about informal learning, 96–97
Content of Children's Minds, The (Hall), 17
Contribution, 20, 28, 30, 46, 70, 78, 86, 101, 112, 161, 163
Critical psychology, 18–19
Criticality, 105–106
Cultural (practices, processes), 2, 9
Cultural competencies, 115–116, 129
Cultural Historical Activity Theory (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131 analysis, 132
  in context using cultural examples, 145–150 in context using train ride example, 144–145 generations, 49
  teachers engage with, 160–163
Cultural responsiveness, 115
Culture (CRISPA), 36, 43, 64, 68
Culture, 19, 80, 96
Culture, relationships, identity, strategies, purpose, and affect/emotion (CRISPA), 36, 41, 65–68 examples, 68–72
  framework, 53–55
Culture of teaching, 111–112

Dimensions of informal learning (CRISPA), 36, 43, 64, 68
Durie, A., 8–10, 29–30

Engeström, Y., 16, 19, 48, 150
Ethical dilemmas, 24
Ethical engagement, 23–24
Ethical involvement of children, 38–39
Ethical-based approaches, 22
Ethnographic methods, 36
Ethnographic research, 25
Ethnographic semi-structured interviews at home and at school, 40 Ethnography, 25–26, 44–48 of everyday cognition, 79
Everyday activities, 5, 7, 43, 46, 55, 60, 99, 107, 109, 164
Everyday learning, 2–3, 35, 131 (see also Intergenerational learning) researching children's, 3–5
  as systemic activity, 133–136
Expansive learning, 150–151
Extended family, 5, 10–11, 42, 61, 66, 75–76, 81–82, 87, 89, 94, 96, 107, 131, 142, 164

Family (whānau), 4–5, 8, 10, 24, 28, 30, 38, 45, 48, 63, 68, 75, 125, 163
Family cultures, 76–78, 100–101
Family elders, 86–89
First-generation CHAT, 133, 135, 144
Formal learning, 2, 30, 106, 143 (see also Informal learning)
Funds of knowledge, 76, 78, 126, 165

Generations, 26, 28, 49, 63, 86, 92, 133
González, N., 78
Grandparents, 7, 46, 48, 61, 63, 75, 79, 86–89, 101

Identity (CRISPA), 8, 10–11, 36, 43, 64, 68
Illeris, K, 1, 76, 77
In-school, 3, 4, 16, 72, 112, 116, 118, 135–136, 144
Informal learning, 2–3, 27–28, 55, 95, 131 activities and strategies, 98–100 basic skills and quantifiable outcomes, 6–7 breadth, depth, and variety of children's informal learning strengths, 5–6 building relationships and opportunities to support reflexive discussions, 107 changes in children's understandings of, 97–98 changes in parents' understandings of child's informal learning, 103–105 contemporary ideas, 96–97
  criticality and reflexivity, 105–106 emotions, 102
  framing book, 10–12 framing research, 7–10 imaging, 107–108
  learning as orientation towards life, 102–103 learning within wider range of relationships, 101–102
  multimodal methods, 106–107
  researching children's, 3–5 sense of self and family culture, 100–101 supporting children to make documentaries, 107
  as systemic activity, 133–136
  talking and listening to children, 106 Informed consent, 22, 24–25, 38, 147
Intentionality, 5, 67, 97
Intergenerational learning, 11, 75
  blended families, 82–86
  family cultures, 76–78
  family elders, 86–89
  learning by observing or pitching, 78–82
  networked family learning, 89–93
Intergenerational relations, 11, 30, 75, 136, 145
Interview techniques with young children, 40

Ka Hikitia, 114, 117
Kapa Haka, 71–72
Koro (grandfather), 87–89, 92, 101, 164

Learning, 5, 41–43
  approaches, 97
  communities/social networks, 10, 29, 37, 166
  in context, 142–144
  documentaries, 48
  by guided participation, 77 about learning from children, 163–165 as orientation towards life, 102–103 in practice, 77 stories approach, 163 strengths, 7, 35, 157
  and teaching 'in stream of action', 117–126 within wider range of relationships, 101–102
Learning by observing and pitching in tradition (LOPI tradition), 28, 78–82
Learning out-of-school, 119, 151–152
Lundy, L, 4, 44, 160, 165

Māori, 29–30, 115
Marton, F., 3–4, 40, 53–54
Mediated action, 133, 142
Mediating artefacts, 12, 129, 131–132, 142, 160
Mirrored approaches in research, 36
Motivation, 140
  in context, 142–144
Multi-modal methods, 39, 106–107

National Standards, 6, 114, 117–118, 121, 129, 138
Networked family learning, 89–93
New Zealand Curriculum, 115–116, 128

Object (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131, 139
Official curriculum, 3, 5, 108, 113, 115, 117, 127–128
Out-of-school learning, 35, 136

Pacific, 7, 38, 116, 118, 162
Participatory methods, 15, 20
Partnership with schools, 128, 130
Pedagogy, 1, 30, 115–116, 127
Peer culture, 27, 29
Pepeha, 101–102
Pere, R., 8–9
Phenomenographic analysis process, 43
Phenomenographic interviews, 40
Phenomenographic methods, 11, 36
Phenomenography, 40, 53
  variation theory, 54
Piaget, J., 131, 133
Positive Behaviour for Learning programme (PB4L programme), 123
Professional learning and development (PLD), 36, 116
Purpose (CRISPA), 36, 43, 64, 68

Reflexivity, 105–106
Relational agency, 21, 31, 140–144
Relationships (CRISPA), 36, 43, 65–66, 101–102
Research about children, 17–18
Research with children, 18–20
  interrelationships, 21
Researchers, 18, 21, 23, 25, 44, 48, 107
Responsibilities, 37, 40, 60, 107
Rights-based approaches, 22
Risk taking, 62, 66–67, 135
Rogoff, B., 2, 16, 19, 25, 27–29, 77–78
Roles (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131
Rules (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131
Runaway objects, 138–140

Second-generation CHAT, 134, 136
Self-assessment, 54
Sense of self, 100–101
Situated learning, 76, 80, 133
Social construction of childhood, 18
Sociocultural environments, 26
Sociocultural perspective, 37
Sociocultural theories and methodologies, 12, 16
Sociocultural theorising, 11
Sociology of childhood, 15
Stories to live by, 12, 132, 157–159
Strategies (CRISPA), 36, 43, 64, 68
Student achievement, 6, 111–112, 114, 116–117, 129
Student questionnaire, 49
Student voice approaches, 19
Student voice work, 19
Subject (CHAT), 11–12, 36, 131

Tapasā Cultural Competencies Framework for Teachers of Pacific Learners, 116
Tātaiako, 117, 162
Te Reo Māori, 30, 148
Te Whāriki, 163
Teachers, 36, 96
  advisory services, 114 engage with CRISPA and CHAT, 160–163 professional development, 113–114 working with, 48–50
Teacher learning, 11, 111, 125–126, 146–150
  Ako Manga, 117–126
  in context, 111–117
  work, 126–129
Teaching, 4–5, 58, 79, 103, 112, 114, 119, 151
Teaching as inquiry (TAI), 116, 118, 122

Third-generation CHAT, 37–38, 135, 150, 162
Tikanga, 45, 63, 65

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), 18–19
Universal conceptions of childhood, 18–19
Unstructured child-led interviews, 40

Variation theory, 54, 142
Video-stimulated recall, 20
Visual methodologies, 44–48
Voice, 16, 20
Vygotskian sociocultural understanding of learning, 133
Vygotsky, L., 2, 16, 19, 37, 133, 142

Wellbeing, 8, 10, 75, 93, 116, 164
Whānau (family), 9, 27 cultural narratives, 10

YouTube, 43, 45, 62, 66, 81, 100, 134