INDEX

Acculturation, 9, 47
Action research, 21
  participatory action research, 21–23
Afghanistan
  human rights activist in, 98–99
  humanitarian crisis, 2, 31
  refugee from, 3
Art therapy methods, 113–115
  art psychotherapy, 113
  dance movement psychotherapy, 113
Aspiration
  aspirational empowerment, 133
  setting goals, 75–76
Asset-based community development (ABCD), 51
Assimilation, 46–47
Asylum applications, 30–31
Asylum seeker, 6–8, 30, 31, 33–36, 47, 52, 113, 114
Austerity localism, 50

Body and mind' workshops, 119, 124, 136
Bottom-up approach, 2–3
Brexit, 7–8, 46–47
British values', 47

Community Based Participatory Research (CBPR), 21 Community development, 43, 129–130 asset-based community development, 51 asset-focused forms of, 44
  with migrant and refugee women, 130–131 needs-based and asset-based approaches, 52
  progressive localism, 50
  top-down and bottom-up practice, 49–50 top-down assessment, 53
  two-way integration, 46–47
Community work. See community development Community-based approach, 2
Confidence, 60
  rebuilding, 98
Creative workshops, 123–124
Cultural relativism', 48
Culturally informed therapy, 115
Culture, 4–5, 15–16, 131

[Dis]empowerment, 34–37
Discourse
  academic, 6
  deficit-discourse, 50
  neoliberal, 52–53
Displacement, 6–7, 13, 109, 120

Employment, 34–37
Empowerment, 10–11, 93
  aspirational empowerment, 133
  journeys of change, 102–106
  long-term, 133–135
  stories of, 97–99
  sustainable empowerment, 133–135
  sustainable levels of, 94
  tangible empowerment, 133

women's project in year three, 94–95
workshops, 96–97
English for speakers of other languages (ESOL), 29, 36, 71
Ethnicity, 5, 15–16, 126
Ethnographic approach, 16–17
European Union (EU), 7–8
Evaluation, 89, 97

Female genital mutilation (FGM), 73, 75
Feminism, 4–5
Feminist intersectionality, 4–6
Feminist theory, 4–5
Freedom, 63–65

Gender, 5
in Afghanistan, 32
discrimination, 45, 47
inequalities, 87
in society, 4–5
Gendered racism, 5
Grassroots community project, 1–2
Grassroots practice and limits, 131
Grounding techniques, 120

Happiness, 59–60
Holistic practice, 109
Humanitarian crisis, 2

Insider research, 15–16, 19–20
Insider/outsider status, 23–27 Integration, 8–10
grassroots practice and limits to, 131 isolation vs., 48–49
two-way integration, 46–47
Interpretivism, 16
Interpretivist paradigm, 16–17
Intersectionality. See also Feminist intersectionality, 3–5
Islam. See Muslim
Isolation vs. integration, 48–49

Journey of change' model, 94

Knowledge and skills, 61–62

Learning English, 34, 37, 84–85
Literacy, 12, 29, 37, 39, 41
Localism
austerity, 50
progressive, 50
London
Muslim university students in, 46
women's project in, 37, 72, 89
Long-term empowerment, 133–135
Longitudinal research qualitative longitudinal research, 17

Mental health and trauma, 135–136
Migrant communities
movement and art therapy methods with, 113–115
trauma-informed practice with, 111–112
women's experience of trauma, 115–119
Migrant[s], 7–8, 15
[dis]empowerment, 34–37
asylum applications, 30–31
employment, 34–37
learning English, 34–37
Muslim, 49
people, 6–8
and refugee groups, 29
seeking assessment and support, 33–34
traumatic trajectories, 31–33
women's project–cohort profile, 37–41
Migration, 6
Movement therapy methods, 113–115
Multi-culturalism, 9–10
Music therapy, 115
Muslim
communities, 9, 45
cultural identities, 8–9

migrants, 48
Muslim women, 71
in United Kingdom, 44–46

Narrative research qualitative narrative research, 5–6
National Union of Students (NUS), 46
Nationality, 6
Neoliberalism, 44, 50
New Labour, 10

One-to-one support, 4
Othering, 6, 8–9, 47, 134

Participatory action research, 21–23
Peer-led workshops, 74, 84, 96
Policy, 2, 134–135
integration policy, 29
Populism, 138
right-wing populism, 8, 10
Positive long-term relationships, 81–83
Post-positivist approaches, 19
Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 31–32
Poverty, 4–5, 44–45
Precarious practice, 136–137
Precarity
of ESOL funding, 40
of support for migrant and refugee women, 107
Prejudice, 45–46, 48–49
Prevent' programme, 46
Progressive localism, 50

Qualitative Longitudinal Research (QLR), 17
Qualitative research, 16
Qualitative themes, 58, 65, 77, 92
building positive long-term relationships, 81–83 children's education, 86–88
confidence, 60
feeling safe, 77–78
happiness, 59–60
knowledge and skills, 61–62
learning English, 84–85
living healthy lives, 83–84
public and private services, 85–86 reduced isolation, 78–80
wellbeing, 59–60

Race, 4–6
Racialised sexism, 5
Re-painting self' project, 114
Reflexivity, 20–21
Refugee communities
movement and art therapy methods with, 113–115
trauma-informed practice with, 111–112
women's experience of trauma, 115–119
Refugee Convention, 6
Refugees, 6, 8, 15
Religion, 4–5, 75, 126
Research approach, 16–17
Research Ethics and Integrity Committee, 18–19
Resilience, 52–53
Right-wing populism, 8, 10

Trauma
body and mind' workshops, 119–124
mental health and, 135–136 movement and art therapy methods, 113–115 with refugee and migrant communities, 111–112
refugee and migrant women's experience of, 115–119
by SAMHSA, 110
trauma-informed approach, 3
trauma-informed practice, 109
Traumatic trajectories, 31–33
Two-way integration, 46–47

UK Independence Party (UKIP), 46–47
United Kingdom, Muslim women in, 44–46

Wellbeing, 59–60
Women's empowerment, 71
Women's project, 3–4, 55–56, 72, 109
  age and family status, 38–39
  challenges, 66–67
  cohort profile, 37–41
  countries of origin, 37–38
  education and literacy levels, 39–41 isolation towards integration, 62–63
  qualitative themes, 58–65
  research data, 94
  workshops, 57–58
  in year one, 56
  in year three, 94–95
Workshops, 57–58, 73, 75