

INDEX

- Acceptance, 8
- Adventure travel, 64
- Airline, 3, 41–42
- American Airlines*, 42
- Aromatherapy, 59
- Attention, 1, 4, 7, 21
- Attitude-behaviour gap, 25
- Awareness, 1, 8, 58

- Biofeedback, 18
 - wearables, 63
- Biometric assessments, 18
- Biophilia, 59–60
- Biophilic design, 60
- Body scan, 10
- Brain wave tracking, 18
- Brain-sensing technology, 3
- British Airways*, 63–64
- Buddhism, 12–13
- Buddhist moral virtues, 22
- Business travel, 38

- Calm's* tranquil landscapes, 42
- Centre for Socio-Emotional Development (CDSE), 27
- Climate-related sustainability goals, 26
- Co-creation of mindful tourism experiences, 51–54
- Commodification of mindfulness, 19–20
- Compassionate tourism, 22, 84
- Consumption, 28, 32
- COVID-19 pandemic, 28
 - mindfulness as coping strategy during and after, 76–79

- Describing, 51–52
- Direct approach to mindfulness, 63–64

- E-mindfulness, 16
- Electroencephalography (EEG), 9, 18
- Emotional reactions, 30
- Environmental pressures, 26
- Eudaemonic motives, 55
- External drivers, 23

- Fear of missing out (FOMO), 86
- Five Facet Mindfulness Questionnaire (FFMQ), 9, 51
- Flow* (neuro-stimulation headgear), 19
- Formal mindfulness, 10
- Frontline workers, 60, 62

- Gamification of mindfulness, 67
- Google Home*, 16
- Gross National Happiness (GNH), 26
- Guests, 38–39
- Guided mindful check-ins, 38

- Hawaii Tourism Authority, 26
- Headspace*, 16, 40–43
- Healium* application, 42–43
- Health, 28
- Healthicisation of mindfulness, 28
- Hedonic motives, 55
- 'Here-and-now'-ism, 47
- Hospitality services, mindfulness practices in, 38–41

- Hotel, 38, 46
Hyatt Hotels Corporation, 40
- Indirect approach to mindfulness, 63, 66
- Individual-level outcomes, 69–72
- Informal mindfulness, 10
- Innovation, 84
Inscape application, 42
Institute of Contemporary Art, 45
- Institutional recognition, 26
- Intention, Attention, and Attitude (IAA), 50
- Internal drivers, 23, 28
- Inward-oriented inclinations, 55
- Joy of missing out (JOMO), 86
- Lifestyle changes, 24
- Lifestyles of Health and Sustainability market segment (LOHAS market segment), 31
- Liminal spaces, 2
Lodge at Woodloch, The in Hawley, 39
- London's first mindfulness boutique hotel, 40
- Loneliness in tourism experiences, 73–76
- Long-term investment, 62
- Luxury and spa resorts, 38
- Malama Hawaii* program, 26
Manchester Art Gallery, 44
- McMindfulness, 22
- Meaning, 5
- Medical tourism, 28
- Medicalisation of mindfulness, 28
- Meditation, 1, 3, 12, 31
- Meditative mindfulness, 5
 commodification of mindfulness, 19–20
 criticism of mindfulness, 20–22
- elements of design features for mindfulness-based intervention, 11
- key definitions and approaches to mindfulness, 7–8
- mindfulness as intervention, 10–11
- mindfulness as state or trait, 8–9
- mindfulness measures, 9
- philosophical and religious backgrounds, 11–14
- socio-cognitive concept of mindfulness, 14–15
- technology-assisted mindfulness, 16–19
- Meditators, understanding characteristics of, 31–32
- Meetings, incentives, conferences, and exhibitions industry (MICE industry), 38
- Mental health, 44
- Mindful, 1
- Mindful Attention and Awareness Scale (MAAS), 9
- Mindful awareness, 59, 81
- Mindful consumption, 32–33
- Mindful hotel, 71
- Mindful Journeys, 59
- Mindful Restaurant Eating, 32
- Mindful tourism experiences empirical exploration, 84–87
 exploring drawbacks, 86–87 framework for co-creation of, 51–54 inputs of tourism providers into co-creation, 57–63 inputs of tourists into co-creation, 54–55
- Mindful tourists, 29–31
 and mindful consumption, 32–33 and tourism marketing, 33–36
- Mindful travel, 2
 as evidence of mindfulness applications in tourism, 36–38

- Mindful Travel Destinations
 - Association, 36
- Mindful walking or eating, 11
- Mindfulness, 1
 - in future tourism development, 82–84
 - importance of mindfulness for tourism industry, 3–4
 - importance of mindfulness for tourism research, 4
 - interventions during travel, 41–43
 - meditation, 38, 59
 - mindfulness-based therapies, 1–2
 - movement, 21–22
 - practices, 56
 - skills, 51
 - techniques for stress reduction, 2
 - and technology, 85–86
 - trails, 26–27
 - yoga, 10–11
- Mindfulness at the Museum*, 45
- Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy (MBCT), 10
- Mindfulness-based interventions, 60–61
- Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR), 10, 14
- Mindfulness-focussed mobile/tablet applications, 17
- ‘Minute by minute’ television, 35
- Miraval* (Hyatt-owned luxury wellness brand), 38–39
- Mobile applications, 42
- Muse*, 42
- Muse 2* (headbands), 18–19
- Museum of Modern Art (MoMA)*, 44
- Museums, mindfulness in, 43–45
- Music, 58–59
- Nature settings, 2–3
- Noise, 45
- Non-judgemental awareness, 51
- Non-reactivity, 9
- Notifications, 58
- Observing, 9, 51–52, 86
- Older adults, 30
- OpenSeed* pots, 46
- Organisational-level outcomes, 69–72
- Outward-oriented inclinations, 55
- Personal resources, 25
- Point-of-view (POV), 35
- Positive psychology, 20
- Post-travel period, 67
- Presence, 39, 67, 86
- Profitability, 71, 82–83
- Psychological state of relief, 8
- Quiet Mornings* program, 44
- Recal Travel*, 64–65
- Religious motivation, 29
- Samsung Health*, 16
- Scientific and multi-domain endorsement, 23
- Search Inside Yourself* program (SIY program), 20
- SIYLI, 20
- Secular mindfulness, 48
- Self-development aspirations, 28–29
- Self-help, 11, 22, 28–29
- Self-report questionnaires, 9
- Sitting meditation, 10
- Slow adventure, 64
- Slow technology, 67
- Slow television, 35
- Smiling Mind*, 42
- Social change, 5, 24, 69
- Societal acceptance, 24
- Society-level transformation, 72–73
- Socio-cognitive approach to mindfulness, 5
- Socio-cognitive concept of mindfulness, 14–15
- Socio-economic and environmental pressure, 25

- Solitude in tourism experiences, 73–76
- Solo travel, 37, 74
- Spiritual motivation, 29
- Standardised mindfulness-based interventions, 10
- Stress, 1, 19, 25
- Sustainability, 3, 5, 26, 82
- Sustainable development, 72
- Tailored technology assistance, 63
- Technological advancement, 27
- Technological savviness, 27
- Technology-assisted mindfulness, 16–19, 56
- Tourism, 23
 - drivers of mindfulness in tourism domain, 23–29
 - experiences, 51
 - importance of mindfulness for tourism industry, 3–4
 - importance of mindfulness for tourism research, 4
 - inhibitors of mindfulness in tourism settings, 46–48
 - marketing, 33–36
 - mindful travel as evidence of mindfulness applications in tourism, 36–38
 - mindfulness in museums, 43–45
 - mindfulness interventions during travel, 41–43
 - mindfulness practices in hospitality services, 38–41
 - operators, 3
 - providers, 63, 82
 - understanding characteristics of meditators, 31–32
- Tourist experience and mindfulness, 49–51
- Traditional tourism advertising methods, 34
- Trait change, 8
- Transcendentalists, 12–13
- Transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS), 18
- Transformation, 26, 30
- Transformational approach to mindfulness, 62
- Transformational power of mindful tourism experiences, 69
 - individual and organisational-level outcomes, 69–72
 - loneliness and solitude in tourism experiences, 73–76
 - mindfulness as coping strategy during and after COVID-19 pandemic, 76–79
 - society-level transformation, 72–73
- Travel, 28
 - motivations, 54–55
- Travelling, 37
- Two-component model, 7
- Uber*, 43
- Vacationing, 34
- Value co-creation, 5
- Virgin Atlantic*, 41–43
- Walden Pond State Reservation, 13
- Well-being, 28–29
- Wellness, 3, 22, 47, 83