

Index

- Acquisitive entrepreneur, 330
- Actor Network Theory, 285–286
- Adaptation, 187
- Administrative entrepreneur, 330
- African National Congress (ANC), 316
- Agency theory, 209
- Akafuku, 155, 157–158
- “Always more Brazil” program, 188–189
- AmCham Chile*, 192
- Americanas.com* platform, 187–188
- Apprenticeship, 89
- Artisanal Cheeses “La Vaquita”, 254–257
- Asetori*, 158
- Australian family businesses, 165–166
  - innovation and entrepreneurship, 173–175
  - readiness by family, 167–171
  - readiness for recovery, 166–167
  - readiness for sustainability post COVID-19, 178–179
  - relationships and succession transitions, 175–177
  - SEW, 171–173
- Autoethnography, 302
- B2W-Companhia Global do Varejo*, 188
- Barceló*, 198
- Bell Potinger, 316
- Biocultural Region of Puuc Yucatan, 251
- BlueSky Partners*, 194
- Board composition, 210–212
- Board of directors, 208
  - board tasks, composition, and processes, 209–212
  - in family firms, 208–213
  - international perspective, 213
  - in Latin America, 213–218
  - theoretical streams, 209
- Board processes, 212
- Board tasks, 209–210
- Brazil, Odebrecht Family in, 314–315
- Business, 74, 244
  - analysis, 362
  - environment, 265
  - management, 107
- CANVAS model, 331
- Casa Ermelinda Freitas–Lisbon, Portugal, 122–123
- Case selection, 268–269
- CashOnline*, 194
- Change management, 4–5
- Chao Family in China, 317–318
- Chile’s National Innovation Council (CNIC), 190
- China, Chao Family in, 317–318
- Chinese economy, 269
- Chinese family business, 266–267
- Civil society organizations (CSOs), 107
- Classism in family business
  - heterotopia, 295
- Clinical history approach for FB
  - succession process, 340–342
- Cognition, 231
- Communities of practice (CoP), 90
- Competencies, 79
- Competitive aggressiveness on debt
  - financing, influence of, 365–367
- Comptoirs Modernes*, 188
- Conception Focused Curriculum
  - approach (CFC approach), 90
- Consultant testimonial, 381–382
- Context, 118

- Contextualizing family business, 244, 249
- Continents, 4
- Continuity, 226
reassurance of, 292–293
- Control on corruption in family business, 310–313
- Cooperation, 266
- Corporate governance. See also Governance, 128–129, 207–209
- Corporate governance rating (CGR), 215–216
- Corporations, 185–186
- Corrupt family businesses, 312–313
- Corruption, 8, 310
- “Corruption inflated” financials, 318–319
- Cosmology episodes, 300
- COVID-19, 165–166
- Creative destruction process, 329
- Creativity, 78–79
- Critical studies of family firms, 52
- Critical theory and research in family business, 52–54 implications for family business research, 53–54
- Crystal Lagoons Corp.*, 190–192
- Cultural ties, 5–6
- Customer designs, 364
- Dark Side of Family Business (DSFB), 8, 54–55
dealing with, 58–59
drivers, 56
symptoms and outcomes, 59–62
- de Sade, Marquis, 284–285
- Debt financing, 352
influence of autonomy on, 364–365 influence of competitive aggressiveness on, 365–367 influence of entrepreneurial orientation on, 358 influence of innovativeness on, 360–361 influence of proactiveness on, 362–364 influence of risk-taking on, 358–360
- Decolar. com*, 194
- Despegar. com, Inc.*, 192–194
- Destructive creativity, 75
- Developed economies, 208–213
- Digital entrepreneurial ecosystem, 118
- Dive Bar, 288–289
family members at, 293–294
- Downward causation, 119–120
- Drama, 97
- Ecosystems, 80, 119
- Electronic media, 336
- Electronic payment device, 362
- Emerging economies, 244
- Emotion, 232–233
- Enthusiasm, 338
- Entrepreneurial ecosystem, 118–119, 126–127
- Entrepreneurial investor, 331
- Entrepreneurial leadership, 286
- Entrepreneurial learning, 54
- Entrepreneurial orientation (EO), 7–8, 352–353, 355–356 case study area, 356 contributions and practical implications, 367 findings and discussion, 358–367 influence of autonomy on debt financing, 364–365 influence of competitive aggressiveness on debt financing, 365–367 influence of innovativeness on debt financing, 360–361 influence of proactiveness on debt financing, 362–364 influence of risk-taking on debt financing, 358–360 influence on debt financing, 358
limitations of study, 367
literature review, 353–356
research methodology, 356–358
sample and data, 356–358

- Entrepreneurial psychological support module, 346
- Entrepreneurial succession, 341
- Entrepreneurs, 57–58, 62, 329, 331, 337, 340, 367
  - personalities, 338
  - types of, 330–331, 338
- Entrepreneurship. See also Social entrepreneurship, 105, 118, 169–170, 173, 175, 185–186, 284, 327–328
  - analytical proposal, 334
  - clinical history approach for FB succession process, 340–342
  - economics of, 73–77
  - enterprise business practices, 345
  - entrepreneurial life, potential successor, clinic history, 342–346
  - ethics of, 80–83
  - evidence of dark side of, 56–58 and family, 82–83
  - kind of, 332
  - limitations to, 332–342
  - literature, 352–353
  - micro, meso, and macro analytical scopes, 329–332
  - morality of, 77–80
  - successor's non-psychological characteristics, 342–343
  - successor's psychological characteristics, 344
  - true or false entrepreneur, 334–340
- Facebook, 336
  - clinical history approach for FB succession process, 340–342
- Failure, 54
- False entrepreneur, 328, 333–334, 340
  - entrepreneurship, 329–332
- Family, 82–83, 244
  - agreement, 228
  - capitalism, 107
  - cohesion, 271
  - constitution, 228
  - council, 228
  - dynamics, 247
  - enterprise, 107–108
  - entrepreneurs, 121
  - in family business, 293–294
  - family-based entrepreneurial learning, 62
  - framework conditions, 127–129
  - influence, 175
  - meeting, 228
  - networks, 66–67
  - ownership, 15
  - protocol, 228
- Family business (FB), 4, 51–52, 86, 118, 147, 225–226, 244, 265, 286–287, 310–312, 327–328, 352–355, 357, 381
  - complexity, 8–9
  - debates, 4–5
  - dynamics, 5–6
  - economics of entrepreneurship, 73–77
  - education, 86, 88, 91
  - ethics of entrepreneurship, 80–83
  - in Latin America, 248–250
  - leadership learning phases, 89
  - learning needs, 91–92
  - members, 86
  - methodology, 287–300
  - morality of entrepreneurship, 77–80
  - ownership and governance, 13–14
  - pedagogical strategies for, 92–99
  - power enables corruption roadmap, 319
  - power–corruption nexus in, 319–320
  - research, 13–14
  - support, 6–8
- Family business ecosystem (FBE), 118
- Family business entrepreneurial ecosystem model (FBEE model), 9, 125, 127
  - case studies, 122–124
  - literature review, 118–121
  - method, 121–122
- “Family business S”, 328, 335

- Family firms (FF), 8, 118, 169, 207–208, 225–226, 310–312
  - board of directors in, 208–213
  - key specific challenges of family firm boards, 212–213
- Fashion Design Week, 361
- Fear of failure (FoF), 54–56
  - dealing with, 58–59
  - root causes, 61
- Female leadership, 266
  - data analysis, 270
  - data collection, 269–270
  - findings, 270–274
  - impact, 266–267
  - research design and method, 268–270
  - theoretical background, 267–268
- Female-characterized resource orchestration, 6
- Female-embodied attributes, 6, 271
- Female-empowered governance, 6, 273
- Female-enabled family cohesion, 6, 272
- Ferrovial*, 195–200
- Firearms, 297
- Firm-oriented approaches, 267
- First-generation family firms, 311
- 5th wave perspectives, 4
- Flipped learning, 94
- Footwear Industry, 123–124
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), 186
- Foremost Maritime Group, 317
- Founders, 14
  - approach and methods, 17–18, 22–23
  - location, 19, 23
  - main debates and critical analysis, 17–22
  - methods, 14
  - publications, 22
  - recommendations for future study, 22–24
  - scoping reviews, 14–17
  - time studied, 19
  - topics and frameworks, 19, 22, 24
- Games, 98
- Gamification, 98–99
- Gekkeikan Okura Sake Museum, 155–156
- Generational family learning, 66
- Generational intelligence, 87
- Generations on corruption in family business, 310–313
- Geopolitical, 4
  - frontiers, 4
  - structure, 4
  - theory to family business research, 4
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor Survey (GEM), 332
- Global Value Chains (GVCs), 184
- Globalization, 5
- Governance, 207–208, 270
  - on corruption in family business, 310–313
  - of family firms, 208
  - mechanisms, 312
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 213–214
- Grupo Pirma, Leon, Guanajuato, Mexico, 123–124
- Gupta Family in South Africa, 316–317
- Heterotopias, 284–285
  - methodology, 287–300
- Historical evolution, 199–200
- Horizontal embeddedness, 121
- Hoteles Sol*, 198
- House Oversight Committee, 318
- Iberostar*, 198
- ie* protection, 159
- Imitator entrepreneur, 330
- Incubator entrepreneur, 330
- Individual-oriented approaches, 267
- Individualism, 74–75
- Informal payments, 312
- Ingresso.com*, 188
- Initial Public Offering (IPO), 194, 199
- Inmobiliaria El Plomo*, 190

- Innovation, 156–159
- Innovation, 169–170, 173, 175
- Institute for Family Business, 353
- Integration approach, 361
- Inter- and intragenerational dyads, 227
- Intergenerational learning, 66, 87–88
- Intergenerational pedagogy, 87
- Interlocking directors, 216
- International firms, 316
- Internationalization
  - of companies in Latin America and Spain, 184–187
  - of Spanish SMEs, 195–200
- Intra-layer causal relations, 119–120
- Isomorphism, 293

- Japanese family businesses (JFB), 145–146
  - literature review and relevant concepts, 147–151
  - methodology, 151–152
  - resilience and innovation, 156–159
  - social capital and relationship with local communities, 152–156

- KPMG LLP, 316
- Kwara State, 356

- Lagos, 356
- Latin America
  - Boards of Directors in, 213–218
  - cases, 259–260
  - contextual analysis, 251–252
  - and contextual approach, 246–248
  - family business, 248–250
  - key issues, 217–218
  - literature reviewed, criteria, and highlights, 214
  - methodology, 250–251
  - research in, 213–214
  - theoretical framework, 244–246
  - topics, 214–217
- Latin American countries, 315
- Latin American trajectories, 187–194
- Lean Startup*, 74–75
- Learn by doing, 62–66
- Learner-based holistic approach, 87
- Learning, 62
  - process, 89
- Learning communities (LCs), 90
- Liberalization of economy, 186
- Lifelong learning perspective
  - family business learning needs, 91–92
  - literature review, 87–91
  - pedagogical strategies for family businesses, 92–99
- Living Action Role Playing (LARP), 98
- Lojas Americanas*, 187–189
- Long-standing companies, 145–146
- Longevity, 146, 293–294
- Lool-Beek Cooperative, 257–259
- Lyuba, 289–290
  - coincidences and family members, 291–292
  - entrepreneurial dream, 290–292
  - entrepreneurial journey, 290

- Macro-analytical categorization
  - process, 332
- Macro-analytical point of view, 338
- Macro-context, 120, 126
- Maquiladora program, 184
- Marketing, 336
- Massive Online Open Courses (MOOCs), 97–98
- Master's in Business Administration (MBA), 290–291
- Maximum variation strategy, 357
- Maya Biocultural Zone of Puuc Yucatan, Mexico, 251–252
- McKinsey & Co, 316
- Mediation, 232
- Meiji Restoration, 147
- Meso analytic framework, 332
- Meso analytic setting, 338
- Meso-context, 120, 126
- Metamorphosis, 85–86
  - in education, 86

- Mexican case study, 128–129, 131, 133
     outputs and outcomes, 138–140
     systemic conditions, 135
 Micro-context, 120, 126
 Microanalytical framework, 329
 Middle East and North Africa
     (MENA), 118
Mobile Travel App, 194
 Morality of entrepreneurship, 77–80
 Multidimensional perspectives across countries, 4–5

 Nabeya, 156–157
 Narcissism, 60
 National Bureau of Statistics, 357
 National Institute for Social Development (INDESOL),
     107
 Negative learning, 67
 Negotiation, 79–80
 Nigerian context, 355–356
 Nigerian family businesses, 357–358,
     366–367
 Nonfamily, 167
 Nonfamily business (NFB), 7
 Nonfamily employees (NFEs),
     171–172
 North American Free Trade
     Agreement (NAFTA), 184

 Odebrecht Family in Brazil,
     314–315
 Odebrecht graft scheme, 315
 Okaya, 156–157
 Opportunistic entrepreneur, 331
 Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 332
 Owner capital, 355–356
 Ownership, locational, and internalization (OLI), 200
 Ownership on corruption in family
     business, 310–313

 Paradoxes, 230–231
Patentes Talgo, 196–197

 Pedagogical strategies for family businesses, 92–99
 Pedagogical techniques, 86–87
 Pedagogical trends, 87–88
 Pedagogy, 87
 Personal attributes, 268
 Persuasive entrepreneur, 331
 Philosophy, 74
 Pilot tests, 185–186
 Point of sale (POS), 362
 Popperian scientific method, 81
 Population, Concept, Context framework (PCC framework), 15
 Portuguese case study, 127–128
     demand, 131
     framework conditions, 129–133
     outputs and outcomes, 136–137
     physical infrastructure, 130–131
     systemic conditions, 134–135
 Potential successor, 341–342
 Power, 8, 310, 319
     case studies illustrating, 314
     Chao Family in China, 317–318
     and corruption in family business,
     310
     Gupta family in South Africa,
     316–317
     implications of Corruption in Family Business, 318–319
     implications of power–corruption
     nexus in family business, 319–320
     methodology and approach for case identification, 313
     Odebrecht family in Brazil,
     314–315
     three case studies illustrating,
     313–314
     three perspectives, 310–313
 PRISMA flow diagram, 15
 Productive ecosystems, 186–187
Productos Ecológicos Vida Vida, 252
 Project-based learning, 94
 Public education policies,
     233–234

- Public policies, 227
  - new approaches for development of public policies oriented to family business continuity, 230–235
  - traditional approaches for development of public policies oriented to family business continuity, 227–229
- Public politics, 233
- Purposive sampling technique, 357
- Qualitative evidence, 357–358
- Readiness
  - by family, 167–171
  - for recovery, 166–167
  - for sustainability post COVID-19, 178–179
- Regional business development, 121
- Regional development, 125
- Relationships, 175–177
- Research and development (R&D), 190–191
- Resilience, 150, 156, 159, 265–267
  - and development, 267
- Resource orchestration, 271
- Resource-based view (RBV), 209, 352–353
- Review, 208
- Right, 76
- Risk-taking on debt financing,
  - influence of, 358–360
- Riu*, 198
- Rural enterprises, 248
- Ruthie's Diner, 288–289
  - family members at, 293–294
- Sadean duography, 6
- Sadism, 284
  - methodology, 287–300
  - primer in, 285–286
  - separate spaces in, 285–286
- Sahara Computers (computer-hardware distribution company), 316
- Sahara Group, 316
- SAP SE, 316
- Scoping reviews, 14, 17
  - eligibility criteria and protocol, 15
  - extract study data, 17
  - identify research question, 14–15
  - limitations, 17
  - search for studies, 15
  - select studies, 15–16
- Sencha*, 157
- Service sector, 358
- Shinise*, 145–146, 150, 153–154
- Shoptime*, 188
- Shoptime TV*, 187–188
- Showcases designs, 364
- Simple marketing strategy, 361
- “Single-business, single-family” approach, 88
- Small or medium-sized family business, 7
- SME, 187
- Snowball sampling technique, 357
- Social capital and relationship with local communities, 152–156
- Social Construction of Technology (SCOT), 285–286
- Social enterprise
  - formalization and integration, 105–106
  - knowledge, 106
  - theoretical perspectives, 106–107
- Social entrepreneur, 331
- Social entrepreneurship, 105, 331–332
  - knowledge, 106
  - organizational logic of family in, 106
  - problematic, 109
- Social family enterprise, 108–109
- Socioemotional wealth (SEW), 7, 121, 126, 168–169, 171, 173
- Sol Melià Hotel Group, 198–200
- Sole proprietorships, 358
- Soubarato*, 187–188
- South Africa, Gupta Family in, 316–317
- Space, 286–287

- Spain, 225–226
- Spanish Association of Family Enterprise Researchers (SAFER), 225–226
- Spanish FDI, 186
- Spanish SMEs, internationalization of, 195–200
- Spatial embeddedness, 121
- Specialist entrepreneurs, 331
- Stakeholder theory, 209
- Stakeholders, 105
- Startling (Chao case), 314
- Startup Genome*, 186–187
- Stewardship, 89
  - theory, 209
- Storytelling, 94–97
- Submarino. com*, 187–188
- Succession, 170–171, 175, 177, 287
  - planning, 286
- Successor
  - non-psychological characteristics, 342–343
  - psychological characteristics, 344
- Sustainability, 165–166, 342

- Talgo*, 196–198
- Text analysis, 167
- Theory of planned behavior, 120–121
- Threat-rigidity effects, 267
- Timely entrepreneur, 330
- Toraya, 157–158
- Transition, 170–171, 175, 177

- True entrepreneur, 328, 333–334, 340
- Twitter, 336

- Universities, 86
- University of St. Thomas (UST), 90
- Upper echelons theory, 266–267
  - and female leaders in family businesses, 268
- Upward causation, 119–120
- US Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), 317

- Variation–selection–retention mechanisms, 265–266
- Vertical embeddedness, 121
- Vida Vida Organic Products, 252–254
- Visionary entrepreneur, 330–331
- VosViewer, 167

- WalMart Brazil*, 188
- WalMart Stores Inc.*, 188
- Web of Science, 167
- Whole Person Learning approach (WPL approach), 90
- Wine industry, 122–123

- Yamamotoyama, 157
- Yamasa, 155, 157

- Zaibatsu*, 147–150
- Zuptas, 316