

Index

- Abject cosmopolitanism, 5, 66–67
Abrahamic religions, 36
Agamben, Giorgio, 61–63
Agency, humanity as, 52–53
Anarchical Fallacies, 28
Anderson, Benedict, 86–87
Anomie, 36–37
Aquinas, Thomas, 44
Arab Charter on Human Rights (2004), 41
Archibugi, Daniele, 2, 98
Arendt, Hannah, 48–49
- “Banishing”, 61–63
Benedict, Ruth, 72–73
Benhabib, Seyla, 51, 92–93
Bentham, Jeremy, 28, 31–32
Black Lives Matter, 37
Blake, Michael, 53
Bobbio, Norberto, 21
Böckenförde, Ernst-Wolfgang, 23
Bohman, James, 48
Bok, Sissela, 127
“Bottom-up” approach of ethical particularism, 119–120
Brown, Donald E., 45–46
Burke, Edmund, 28–29
- Cairo Declaration on Human Rights in Islam (1990), 41
Choice theory (see Will theory)
Chomsky, Noam, 45
Cities and renaissance republicanism, medieval feuds and, 77–79
Citizenship, 4–5, 11–12, 130–131
 from archaic period to Hellenism, 72–75 contemporary models of, 79–82 definition of, 103–104 essence of, 92, 108–109
 latitudinal citizenship, 101–102
 medieval feuds and cities and renaissance republicanism, 77–79 models of, 71–87 national, 94–95
 nationalism and performative, 83–87 peace and teleology of, 67–69 perspectives for, 106–112 requirements of, 73–75
 rights, 16
 in Roman Empire, 76–77
 subjective and objective, 87, 89, 92
 Westphalian, 79–82
“Citizenship gap”, 53, 61, 63, 87, 95
Claim (right), 14
Coercion and requirements of reciprocity, 53–60
Consent, 58–60
Constitution of Italy, 25
Cosmopolitan norms from global violations, 50–52
“Cosmopolitan” statements, 75
Cosmopolitanism, 96
Counter-intuitive doctrines, 26–28
Cultural diversity, 115–116
“Cultural ethnocentrism”, 110–111
Culture, 109
- Danish citizenship, 88
Declaration of Human and Civic Rights, 11
Declaration of Independence, 11
Defenses of national citizenship, 117–126

- of nationality in perspective of
 - ethical particularism, 118–122
 - of special ties in perspective of moral universalism, 122–126
- Democracy, 65
- “Democratic constitutions”, 83–84
- Democratic ethos, 36
- Democratization of “rights”, 21
- Deng, Francis, 67
- Dignity, 42
- Diogenes the Cyinic, 75
- Diversity, 37
- Dodds, Eric, 72–73
- “Domestic analogy”, 2, 58, 60, 132
- Double model, 8–9
- Duties, 4–5, 29, 42–43, 87
 - duty-based approach, 124–126
- Equality, 114, 116
- Ethical particularism, defense of
 - nationality in perspective of, 118–122
- European Union (EU), 2
- Evolutionary psychology, 34–35
- Exclusion, power through, 61–64
- Exclusivism, 127–128
- Families, 132
- Female Genital Mutilation (FGM), 100
- Finley, Moses I., 72–73
- Foucault, Michel, 45
- Freedom, 105, 114, 116
 - concept of peace and relation to, 112–114
 - spheres of, 127–134
- French Revolution, The, 79–81
- Frydrych, David, 7–8
- Fuji, Mount, 103–104
- Genocide, 51–52
- Geuss, Raymond, 30–31
- Glendon, Mary Ann, 18
- Global citizenship, 4, 58, 60, 101–102, 112
 - politics of, 7–10
 - requirements of, 95–98
- Global justice
 - theorists, 55–56
 - theory, 9
- “Global liberalism”, 9
- Global political system, 7
- Global Polity, 48, 50–51
- Global violations, cosmopolitan norms
 - from, 50–52
- Globalization, 65
 - of Marshall’s, 100–101
- Goodin, Robert E., 111–112, 117, 122
- Hägerström, Axel Anders Theodor, 29–30
- Held, David, 2, 98
- Hellenism, citizenship from archaic period to, 72–75
- Hohfeld, Wesley Newcomb, 13
- “Hohfeldian incidents”, 13
- Honig, Bonnie, 65
- Human
 - dignity, 48–50
 - experience, 133–134
 - nature, 44–47
 - rights, 3, 11–12, 44, 47–48, 50, 128
 - universals, 45–46
- Humanity as agency, 52–53
- ICC, 8–9
- ICJ, 8–9
- Ideological diversity, 12–13
- Ignatieff, Michael, 31
- “Imagined communities”, 86–87
- Immunity (right), 15
- Individual-based right claims, 36–37
- Individualism, 36
- Institutionalization, 85–86
- Institutions, 36
- Instrumental justification of
 - citizenship, 111–112
- Interest Theory (of rights), 17
- International Bill of Human Rights, 22
- International courts, 8–9
- International norms of justice, 92–93

- International political theory, 68–69
 International rights, 95
Ius doni, 106–107
Ius nexi, 111–112
Ius sanguinis, 106–108, 111–112
Ius soli, 109–110
- Jones, Peter, 87
 Justification, 19
 of rights, 22–28
- Kant, Immanuel, 68–69
 King, Martin Luther, 42–43
 Kostakopoulou, Dora, 77–78, 132
- Latitudinal citizenship, 101–102
 Liberalism, 10
 Liberal–modern constitutions, 23
 Local communities, 87–104
 globalizing Marshall, 100–101
 latitudinal citizenship, 101–102
 national and international rights, 95
 national and universal citizenship,
 93–95
 negative and limited rights, 98–99
 objective international citizenship, 92–93
 objective national citizenship, 92–93
 problem of enforcement, 99–100
 requirements of global citizenship,
 95–98
 rethinking “special ties”, 102–104
 subjective and objective citizenship, 87–89
 subjective international citizenship,
 92–93
- Locke, John, 20
 “Longitudinal” citizenship, 101–102
- Macchiavelli, Niccolò, 78–79
 MacIntyre, Alasdair, 29, 34
 Maritain, Jacques, 22
 Marshall, Thomas H., 100–101
 globalizing Marshall, 100–101
 Marx, Karl, 29, 31–32, 34
 Marxism, 30
- Medieval feuds and cities and renaissance republicanism,
 77–79
 Meta-rationale, 111–112
 Miller, David, 118
 “Monistic theories”, 17
 Moral universalism, defense of special ties in perspective of,
 122–126
 “Mutual-benefit” model, 123–124
- Nagel, Thomas, 53
 National citizenship, 4, 93, 95, 130
 defenses of, 117–126
 National diversity, 115–116
 National duties, 129
 National identities, 129–130
 National rights, 95
 National ties, 123–124
 Nationalism, 83, 87, 107–108
 Nationality, 107–108, 110–111, 127–128
 defense of nationality in perspective of ethical particularism, 118–122
- Natural duties, 129–130
 Natural human rights, 45
 Nazi-Fascism, 26–28
 Negative concept of peace, 113–114
 Negative rights, 98–99
 Nietzsche, Friedrich, 29
 Nozick, Robert, 104
 Nussbaum, Martha, 46–47, 133
 Nyers, Peter, 66
- Objective citizenship, 87, 89, 124, 126
 closer inspection, 89–92
 Objective international citizenship,
 92–93
 Objective national citizenship, 92–93
 Ong, Ahiwa, 101–102
 Owen, David, 66–67
- Paradox of Sovereignty, 61–64
 Peace, 114–116
 of citizenship, 67–69

- concept and relation to freedom, 112–114
- negative peace, 113–114
- positive peace, 113–115
- Performative citizenship, 83–87
- Philosophical anthropology, 6
- Philosophy, 106
- Piketty, Thomas, 9–10
- Pinker, Steven, 45–46
- Pluralism, 36–37
- Pocock, John G. A., 76–77
- Political community, 1
- Political institutions, 55–56
- Political theory, 6–7, 106, 113
- Politicization, 21
- Politics of global citizenship, 7–10
- “Popular liberation”, 84–85
- Positive patriotism, 113–114
- Powers, 15
 - through exclusion, 61–64
- Privilege (right), 14–15
- Pufendorf, Samuel von, 20

- Quong, Jonathan, 26–28

- Rationale, 107–108
- Rawls, John, 22–23
- Reciprocity, coercion and requirements of, 53–60
- Refugee/stateless as essential citizen, 66–67
- Renaissance, The, 78–79
- Renaissance republicanism, medieval feuds and cities and, 77–79
- Responsibility to protect (R2P), 49–50
- Right(s) (see also Universal rights), 11, 24, 38, 47–48, 60
 - coercion and requirements of reciprocity, 53–60
 - cosmopolitan norms from global violations, 50–52
 - critical redefinition of universal rights, 31–40
 - form of, 13–16
 - function of, 16–19
 - human rights, human dignity, and global polity, 48–50
 - human rights and human nature, 44–47
 - humanity as agency, 52–53
 - justification of, 22–28
 - national and international rights, 95
 - negative rights, 99
 - origin of, 19–21
 - positive rights, 99
 - provisional list of fundamental rights and duties, 40–44
 - rejection of, 28–31
 - subjective rights, 29
- Rightlessness, 60–69
 - abject cosmopolitanism, 66–67
 - foundational role of outsiders, 65
 - peace and teleology of citizenship, 67–69
 - power through exclusion, 61–64
- Roman Empire, citizenship in, 76–77

- Sangiovanni, Andrea, 53
- Schachar, Ayelet, 106–107
- Secularization, 21
- Skepticism, 30
- Smith, Anthony, 119–120
- “Social connection model”, 103–104
- Sociobiology, 34–35
- “Sovereign ban”, 61–63
- Spatial proximity, 111–112
- Special ties in perspective of moral universalism, defense of, 122–126
- Subjective citizenship, 87–89
 - closer inspection, 89–92
- Subjective international citizenship, 92–93

- Teleology of citizenship, 67–69
- Theorizing Citizenship in Critical Times*, 1–4

- UNESCO, 22
- Unification, 131–132

- United Nations (UN), 131–132
 - Security Council, 8
- Universal citizenship, 93–95
- Universal Declaration (UD), 6, 21, 48–49, 90, 113
- Universal rights, 87, 99, 104
 - critical redefinition of, 31–40
 - globalizing Marshall, 100–101
 - latitudinal citizenship, 101–102
 - national and international rights, 95
 - national and universal citizenship, 93–95
 - negative and limited rights, 98–99
 - objective national citizenship, subjective international citizenship, and objective international citizenship, 92–93
 - problem of enforcement, 99–100
 - requirements of global citizenship, 95–98
 - rethinking “special ties”, 102–104
 - subjective and objective citizenship, 87–89
- Value pluralism, 12–13
- Veca, Salvatore, 105
- Waldron, Jeremy, 124–126
- Weber, Max, 73–75
- Wenar, Leif, 18
- Western citizenship, 5
- Western societies, 36, 72–73
- Westphalia Treaty, The, 79
- Westphalian to contemporary models of citizenship, 79–82
- Will theory, 17
- Williams, Bernard, 118
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 30–31
- Xenophobic anxieties, 73–75
- Young, Iris Marion, 103–104