

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Academia, 3
- “Academic capitalism”, 12
- “Academic consumerism”, 8
- Academic procrastination, 75, 76–77
  - home-and personal-related determiners, 82–86
  - learning-and teaching-related determiners, 86–89
  - methodology, 77–79
  - results, 79–82
  - theoretical framework, 77
- Active involvement in existing political parties, 115
- Activism, 113
- Acute social marginalization, 35
- Adulthood, 121
- Affirmative action, 4–5
- Africa, youth in, 57, 128–129
- African Union (AU), 113, 129
- African Youth Charter, 107
- Agentic process, 157
- Alternative provision (AP), 153, 159–160
- Analytical/interpretive method, 171
- Arab Spring protests, 18, 113
- Attendance, 159
- “Audit culture”, 9
- Australia, neoliberal transformation in, 5
- Autoethnography, 171
- Autonomy of academia, 12

- Bachelor of Arts (BA), 171
- Bachelor of Education (BEd), 171
- Bachelor of Law (LLB), 171
- Bachelor of Science (BSc), 171

- Belarus protest, 21–22
- Binary logistic regression, 102
- Black Consciousness, 55
- Black South Africans, 55
- #BlackLivesMatter, 26
- “Blackness”, 55*n*1
- Blogs, 18
- “Born-free generation”, 56
- Bourdieu’s field theory, 108
- Brain circulation, 144–146
- Brain drain, 144–146
- #BringBackOurGirls protest, 24
- British universities, 5
- Burkina Faso, 108
  - consequences of exclusion of young people, 111
  - creation of political parties, 114–115
  - enrolment in terrorism and organized crime, 111–112
  - findings, 115–117
  - realities of youth exclusion, 110–111
  - representative democracy, 107–108
  - research methodology, 109–110
  - sustainable ways out of exclusionary trajectories for young people, 112–114
- By-product of mandatory schooling, 153

- Capital concept, 156
- Centre for Teaching Development (CTD), 78, 89
- China/Hong Kong Administrative Region, 26–29
- Chinese youth, 27, 29
- Chronic poverty, 40

- Civil Society Legislative Advocacy Center (CISLAC), 95
- Civil society movements, creation of, 113
- Civil society organizations (CSOs), 109, 114
- Classical theory, 96–97
- “Cognitive space”, 160
- College, 159
- Colonial matrix of power, 58
- Colonialism, 55, 122
- Coloniality, 58
- Colonization, 58
- Commission on Higher Education (CHED), 75
- Commodity, 5
- Compulsory education systems, 153
- Compulsory schooling, 155
- Confirmability, 79
- Conflict theory, 20
- Constitution of Republic of Namibia, 123
- Consumption, 36, 49
- Contextual approach, 34
- Continuous assignments, 87
- Conversation, The*, 11
- Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP), 4
- Corruption, 24
- Covid-19 global crisis, 75, 81
- Creative sector, 173
- Credibility, 79
- Crime, 144
- Criminal violence, 33
- Crisis of representative democracy, 108
- Critical literature, 3
- Cultural attitudes, 156–158
- Cultural beliefs, 76
- Cultural belonging, 40
- Cumulative prospect theory, 77
- Cyclical unemployment, 99

- Data collection techniques, 110
- Decision-making, 18
- Decoloniality, 58, 62
- Decolonization, 56–57, 58–59
  - coming alive, but slow, 63–64
  - currently lacks clarity, 65
  - dynamic and contextual, 62–63
  - South African, 60–61
  - students’ roles in decolonization/transformation committees, 66–67
  - support, 64–65
  - transformation, 65–66
- Dehumanization, 55
- Democratic governance, 107
- Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET), 66
- Dependability, 79
- Deprivation, 33, 36, 49
- Desktop research method, 122
- Disaffection, 155–156, 162
- “Disciplinary grounds”, 154
- “Discouraged work seekers”, 143
- Disengaged students, 155
- Disengagement, 155–156
- Diverse methods, 1
- Drug trafficking, 33

- “Easy-to-hard” approach, 86
- Economic crisis, 19
- Economic globalization, 33
- Economic resources, 33
- Economic transformation, 7
- Education, 2, 23, 142, 159, 161
  - alternative provision, 159–160
  - casualties of, 153
  - cultural attitudes, 156–158
  - education in England, 154–155
  - engagement, disaffection, and disengagement, 155–156
  - quiet disaffection, 158–159
  - reflection and reclamation of agency, 162–163
  - stakeholders, 75
  - system, 160–161
  - victim to casualty, 160–162
- Educational motivation, 4
- Educational practices, 76
- Effort-based factors, 128

- Elections, 18
- Emerging adulthood, 18
- Employment, 131, 142
  - factors, 146
  - generation, 95
  - growth and opportunity, 146–148
- #EndOutsourcing, 59
- #EndSARS Protest, 19, 24–26
- Engagement, 155–156, 163
- England
  - education in, 154–155
  - schooling in, 153
- English government, 159
- Enrolment in terrorism and organized crime, 111–112
- Entertainment, 80
- Entrepreneurship sector, 172
- Ethnic minorities, 5
- Eurocentred colonization, 58
- Exclusionary trajectories for young people, 112–114
- Expectancy theory, 77
- “Experience of procrastination”, 86
- Extradition Bill, 27

- Face-to-face interview, 78
- Facebook, 25, 173
- #Fallism movement, 59
- Feelings of exclusion, 142–144
- #Fees Must Fall (FMF), 56, 62, 67
- Field, 124–126
- Financial autonomy, 115
- Frictional unemployment, 99
- Frustration index, 45

- Gates Foundation, 6
- Gender dominance in clusters of IEAs, 174
- German colonialism, 126
- Global development, 2
- Global economic crisis, 22
- Global North, 145
- Global South, 145
- Global system, 3
- Globalization, 174
- Google, 97
- Google Meet, 78
- Google Scholar, 97
- Growth strategies, 33

- Hair making, 175
- Harambee Prosperity Plan, 123, 128
- Health, 80
- Higher education
  - “audit culture” in, 9
  - Black Consciousness, 55
  - born-free generation, 56
  - conversation, 56–57
  - decolonization, 56
  - ethnic minorities in, 5
  - findings, 67–69
  - issues, 4–13
  - marketization of, 8
  - methodology, 59–60
  - methodology and theoretical framework, 3–4
  - neoliberal transformation of, 3–4
  - neoliberalism in, 8, 12
  - post-RMF and decolonization activities in South Africa, 61–67
  - South African decolonization, 60–61
  - theorization of decolonization, 58–59
  - vision of, 10
- Higher Education Research Institute, 4
- Home and personal-related determiners, 81
- Home-related determiners, 82–86
- Hostage-taking Jeopardization of African youth future, 110–111
- Household works, 87
- Human capital theory, 140
- Human development, 81
- Human labour, 96

- Identity crisis, 40
- Illegality, 49
- Immaterial assistance, 82
- Immediate learning assessments, 87

- Immigration, 122
- In-depth interview (IDI), 171, 174
- In-school Youths, IEAs of, 172
- Inclusive development, 97, 103
- Income-earning activities (IEAs), 169
- consequences of, 175
  - of in-school youths, 172
  - nature of IEAs youth, 169
  - youth involved in, 174
- Independent Commission on
Multilateralism (ICM), 19
- Individual motivation, 77
- Individual procrastination, 88
- Industrialization, 174
- Inequality, 2, 19
- political economy of, 126–128
- Inferential statistics, 102
- Informal sector, 95
- Nigeria, 96
  - and youth employment, 100–101
- Instagram, 173
- Instant messages, 18
- Instituto Nacional de Estadística y
Geografía (INEGI), 34
- Instrumental case study, 78
- Intellectual works, 1
- Intentional procrastination, 76
- Inter disciplinary method, 2
- International Labour Organization
(ILO), 18–19, 96
- Intervention strategies, 157
- Interviewee, 175
- Intrinsic motivation, 84
- Job creation, 97
- Keynesian unemployment (see
Cyclical unemployment)
- Labour law, 148
- Laissez-faire* economics ideology, 26
- Latin American youth experience, 36
- Leadership, 2, 115
- Learning, 161
- learning-related determiners, 81,
86–89
- Leftist scholars, 7
- Less-formal approach, 159
- Likert scales, 37
- Lincoln and Guba method, 79
- Literature review, 141
- Male entrepreneur, 175
- Marginalization process, 153
- Market forces, 5
- Marxist economics, 125
- Massive open online courses
(MOOCs), 9–11
- Material assistance, 82
- Mental stress, 81
- Merton's anomie theory, 36
- Mexico, impoverished youth in
- data and methods, 37–40
  - general breakdown of sample, by age group, 38–39
  - neither criminal conduct nor frustration, but reduced expectations, 40–49
  - violence and youth, 34–37
- Migration as pathway escaping exclusion, 144–146
- Miles and Huberman approach, 142
- Millennium Development Goals, 95
- “Mixed economy”, 130
- Momentary academic detachment, 82
- Motivation, 77
- Multidisciplinary method, 2
- #MustFall* student movement, 59–60
- Namibia
- at Glance, 126
  - youth in Namibia's political economy order, 129–133
- National Bureau of Economic Research, 7
- National Development Plans (NDPs),
127
- National Directorate of Employment,
95
- National Economic Empowerment and Development Strategy, 95
- National Minister of Health, 144

- National Planning Commission, 132
- National Poverty Eradication Programme, 95
- National Youth Council (NYC), 123, 130
- National Youth Policy (NYP), 123
- Need theory, 77
- Neoliberal education, 4
- Neoliberal hegemony, 6
- Neoliberal transformation, 4–5
  - of higher education, 3–4
- Neoliberalism on universities, 11
- “Netizens”, 28
- Nigeria
  - informal sector, 96
  - protest, 24–26
  - youth unemployment and causes, 98–100
- Nigerian
  - formal sector and youth employment demand, 100
  - informal economy, 95
- “Non-legitimated” capital, 154
- Not in education and not in employment or training (NEET), 131
- #NotTooYoungToRun protest, 24
- #OccupyNigeriaprotest, 24
- Office for Standards in Education (Ofsted), 159
- Online education, 75
- Online learning, 82
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 12, 18, 170
- Organized crime, 34
  - enrolment in, 111–112
- Palgrave pilot project, 10
- Pan-Africanism, 55
- Pattern coding, 142
- Personal-related determiners, 82–86
- Philanthropic efforts within university education, 6
- Philanthropy, 7
- Photography, 175
- Pico-economics, 77
- Policy choices of society, 125
- Policy-makers, 5, 24
- Political alternation, 109
- Political barriers, 18
- Political cynicism, 17
- Political decolonization, 56
- Political economy, 124–126
  - of Namibia, 121
  - of unemployment, inequality and poverty, 126–128
- Political game, 107
- Political parties, creation of, 114
- Political transition, 108
- “Poor”, 35*n*2
- Post-RMF in South Africa, 61–67
- Poverty, 36, 95
  - political economy of, 126–128
- Prioritization of certain needs, 45
- “Private initiative”, 3
- Private training providers, 159
- Procrastination, 75–76, 79, 86
- “Promoters”, 23
- Protest, 28
  - youth exclusion and, 20–21
- Psychological approach, 121
- Psychology, 2
- Qualitative approach, 78, 109
- Qualitative data, 172
- Qualitative study, 59
- Quality
  - of life, 148–149
  - of youth, 122
- Quantitative data, 171
- Quiet disaffection, 158–159, 163
- Racism, 122
- Rationality, 58
- Realities of youth exclusion, 110–111
- Recreational motivators, 149
- Reflection, 160
  - for disaffected students, 162
  - and reclamation of agency, 162–163

- #ReformPolice on social media, 25
- Repetitive classroom, 85
- Representative democracy, 107
  - crisis of, 108
- Research design, 170
- “Research targets”, 9
- Researchgate, 97
- Residual unemployment, 99
- #RhodesMustFall movement (RMF movement), 56, 62, 67
  - and Students’ Movements, 60–61
- Sample size determination formula, 171
- Sampling techniques, 59, 109
- Satellite campuses, 11
- School, 155, 159, 163
  - conformity, 157
  - in England, 156
  - environment, 155
- Schooling, 158, 162
  - commonalities in, 122
  - compulsory, 154–155, 157
  - in England, 153
  - youth age in, 131
- Science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM), 8, 12
- Seasonal unemployment, 98–99
- Secondary research method, 122
- Segalinks (see Segun Awosanya)
- Segun Awosanya, 24
- Self-exploration, journey of, 160–162
- Semi-authoritarian regime, 109
- Semi-structured interview, 59
- Semi-systematic literature review, 141
- #Shackville, 59
- Siamese revolution (1932), 22–23
- Slavery, 24
- “Smartphone generation”, 25
- Social actors, 124
- Social capital, 115
- Social commitment, 114
- Social conflict theory, 20
- Social environment, 89
- Social exclusion, 19, 40, 44, 142–144
  - of youth, 139
- Social marginalization, 35
- Social media, 18, 173
- Social mobility, 5
- Social order
  - field and political economy, 124–126
  - methodology, 122–123
  - Namibia at Glance, 126
  - political economy of
    - unemployment, inequality and poverty, 126–128
  - youth as social category, 123–124
  - youth in Africa, 128–129
  - youth in Namibia’s political economy order, 129–133
  - youth in Namibian context, 121–122
- Social praxis, 121
- Social stratifications, 122
- Social transformation, 7
- Social transgression, 36, 49
- Socialization, 80
- Society
  - policy choices of, 125
  - political economy of, 125
- Socioanthropological approach, 110
- Sociological imagination, 121
- “Soft skills”, 140
- Soro sok* (see #EndSARS protest)
- South Africa
  - post-colony, 56
  - post-RMF and decolonization
    - activities in, 61–67
  - youths in, 57
- South African
  - colonialism, 126
  - condition of governance and labour law, 148
  - context of South Africa, 139–140
  - decolonization, 60–61
  - employment growth and opportunity, 146–148
  - methodology, 141–142
  - migration as pathway escaping exclusion, 144–146

- quality of life, 148–149
- results and findings, 146
- social exclusion and feelings of exclusion, 142–144
- youth, 56, 140
- Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS), 24
- Stakeholders, 6
- Stellenbosch University (SU), 59
- Strain theory, 36
- Street trading, 102
- Structural unemployment, 99
- Students, 153, 170
  - employment, 169
  - holistic development of, 82
  - roles in decolonization/transformation committees, 66–67
- Successive assignment, 87
- Successive domestic work, 83
- Sure-P program, 95
- Sustainable development in Nigeria, 96–97, 99
- Systematic review method, 97
- Task averseness, 83
- Tax payment, decree for, 22
- Teaching-related determiners, 81, 86–89
- Teaching–learning principles, 76
- Technological innovation, 8, 10
- Technological transformation, 7
- Technological unemployment, 99
- Telegram, 173
- Temporal motivational theory (TMT), 77, 86, 88
- Temporary institutionalization of online learning, 82
- Temporary work overseas, 145
- Terrorism, enrolment in, 111–112
- Thailand protest, 22–23
- Thematic analysis, 78, 82, 142
- Traditional learning, 83
- Traditional political technique, 18
- Transferability, 79
- Transformation, 68–69
- Transnational education, 12
- Transnational networks, 143–144
- Triangulation, 110
- Twitter, 25, 173
- Underdevelopment of African continent, 111
- Unemployment, 19, 24, 95, 99, 131, 143, 147
  - political economy of, 126–128
  - rates in Namibia, 132
  - rates in Nigeria, 96
- United Nations, 107
- University, 5–6, 9, 10
  - education, 7
- University of Cape Town (UCT), 56
- University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), 4
- University of Fort Hare (UFH), 59
- University of Kwazulu Natal (UKZN), 59
- University of the Witwatersrand (Wits), 59
- Upper middle income country (Belarus), 22
- Urban gangs, 33
- Urbanization, 174
- Vandalism, 28
- Victim to casualty, 160–162
- Victimhood, 161
- Video-based online interviews, 78
- Violence in Mexico, 34–37
- Violent neighbourhood organizations, 33
- Vision 2030, 123
- Vocational learning environment, 159
- “Waithood”, 18
- Walton Trust, 6
- Western education, 174
- Westernization, 174
- WhatsApp, 25, 173
- White supremacism, 55
- World Health Organization, 18

- Young people, 157
  - consequences of young people exclusion, 111–112
  - exclusionary trajectories for, 112–114
- Youngsters, 18
- Youth
  - in Africa, 57, 128–129
  - age, 18, 139
  - age in Belarus, 21
  - contemporary world, 1
  - in contemporary world, 1
  - demonstrations, 17
  - deprivation, consumption, social transgression and, 36
  - in developing countries, 19
  - development, 124, 142
  - empowerment, 129
  - identity, 122
  - in Mexico, 34–37
  - in Namibia’s political economy order, 129–133
  - in Namibian context, 121–122
  - as social category, 123–124
  - in South Africa, 57, 139
- Youth citizen movements, 114
- Youth Development Index (YDI), 129
- Youth exclusion, 1, 18
  - causes, trajectories and ramifications of, 21
  - demographic information, 172
  - global perspective and context of, 18–19
  - IEAs of In-school Youths, 172–174
  - and protest, 20–21
  - realities of, 110–111
  - research methodology, 170–171
  - results/Findings and discussion, 172
  - skill sets and IEAs among youths, 174–176
- Youth Inclusion, 97, 110, 171
- Youth protest and activism, 27
- Youth unemployment, 141
  - employment generation, 95
  - findings, 101–103
  - informal sector and, 100–101
  - methodology, 97–98
  - Nigeria’s youth unemployment and causes, 98–100
  - Nigerian formal sector and youth employment demand, 100
  - PRISMA diagram for study, 98
  - sustainable development in Nigeria, 96–97
  - unemployment rate in Nigeria, 96
- Youth-led protests, 17–18
  - in Belarus, Thailand, Nigeria and China/Hong Kong, 21
  - Belarus protest, 21–22
  - China/Hong Kong Administrative Region, 26–29
  - global perspective and context of youth exclusion, 18–19
  - methodology, 21
  - Nigeria, 24–26
  - Thailand, 22–23
  - youth exclusion and protest, 20–21
- YouWin program, 95