

Index

- Academics, 62
  - contexts, 57
  - women, 54
- Active Ageing, 174–175
- Ageing
  - migrants, 177
  - workforce, 174, 177
- Agency and control over WLI,
  - 180
- American Society of Reproductive Medicine (ASRM), 73
- Apprenticeship training
  - apprenticeship training working split shifts, 114–117
  - implications for practice, 121
  - job quality in hospitality jobs, 111–112
  - method, 112
  - waste of time also good use of time, 117–120
  - work-life balance, 110–111
- Assistive Reproduction Technology (ART), 136
- Autoethnographic approach, 126
- Autoethnography, 126

- Biographical narrative style
  - interviews, 99
- Body, 72
- Body Mass Index (BMI), 70
- Body work, 70
- Border theory, 175
- Bothersome, 148
- Boundaryless career, 175
- Bowel movements, 127
- Bradford Factor scoring, 89
- British Birth Cohort Study (1946), 139
- Business-related disciplines, 30

- Capital, 12
- Career, 141–142
  - career-critical soft skills, 46
- Categorisation, 83
- Childless not by choice (CNBC), 136
- Childlessness, 71, 76, 137–138
- Chromosomal abnormalities, 84
- Chronic illness, 124, 131
  - fitting into role of ‘ideal’ worker, 130–131
  - implications, 131–132
  - research approach, 126
  - social and cultural pressures of household on Pashtun woman with, 129–130
  - toward diagnosis of IBS, 128–129
  - unfolding pain, my work and life, 126–127
- CIPD 2022 Health and Wellbeing survey, 69
- Class travel, 20
- Class work, 19
- Class-based inequalities, 16
- Cognitive schemata, 19
- Complex interplay of work-life, 163–165
- Complex post-traumatic stress disorder (C-PTSD), 98
- Coping mechanisms, 57
- COVID-19, 165
  - pandemic, 13, 28, 97
  - and retirement, 165–166
  - on work-life interface at retirement, 166–168
- Cultural capital, 12
- Cultural norms as WLI moderator, 179–180
- Cultural pressures of household on Pashtun woman with chronic illness, 129–130

- Disenfranchised grief, 71, 85
- Diversity, 46
- Dominant contemporary discourse of retirement, 163
  - role of enterprise, 164–165
  - successful ageing, 163–164
  - successful ageing and work-life interface, 164
- Dual earner household, 179

- Economic capital, 12
- Economic context, 161
- Emotion work, 70, 72
- Employee Assistance Programme (EAP), 105
- Employee coping strategies and consequences, 75–76
- Employee empowerment, 46
  - implications for HR Function, 49–50
- Employers, 28, 38, 86, 91–92, 136
  - recommendations for, 91
- Employment
  - challenges of combining fertility treatment with, 71–73
  - perinatal mental illness and, 97–98
- Empowered employees, 49
- Empowerment, 44
  - concept, 42
  - theory, 45
- Enterprise, 164–165
- Equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI), 1, 76
- Equality Act (2010), 68, 92
- Evidence-based practitioners, 121
- Extended working lives, 174–175
- Extensification, 111

- Family-friendly policies, 139
- Fatherhood, 139
- Feminisms, 139
- Fertility treatment, 68
  - challenges exacerbated by lack of appropriate provisions, 73–75
  - challenges of combining fertility treatment with employment, 71–73
  - employee coping strategies and consequences, 75–76
  - implications for practice, 76–77
  - penalty, 76
  - ‘reproductive work’ of, 70–71
  - research study, 69–70
- Fertility-friendly provisions, 69
- Flexibility paradox, 18
- Fragmented working time, 110–112
  - patterns, 113

- Gender
  - inequalities, 167
  - as ubiquitous moderator of WLI, 175–176
- Generation Z
  - conceptual framework, 44–46
  - employee, 42
  - employees empowered, 47–48
  - employees experience
    - empowerment climate, 49
  - employees experience line manager relationships, 48
  - employees interpret empowerment, 47
  - employees monitor work progress, 48
  - employees want from career, 46
  - findings from interviews with generation Z employees, 46
  - implications of employee empowerment for HR Function, 49–50
  - organization under study, 44
  - participants, 42–44
- Gig work, 18
- Government policy, 161–162
- Graduate capitals, 36

- Health, effects of miscarriage on, 84–91
- Health expectancy, 161

- Health well-being, menopause transition and, 153
- Heightened vulnerability, 61–62
- Herbal medications, 129
- Higher Education (HE), 54
- Home-working, 90
- Homeopathy, 129
- Hope technology, 68
- Hospitality, 110–111, 121
  - job quality in hospitality jobs, 111–112
  - workers, 113, 120
- Human resource management (HRM), 49, 110
  - policy, 63
- Human resources (HR), 90
  - implications for, 168–169
  - implications of employee empowerment for, 49–50
  - policies, 64
  - practice, 155
- Hybrid workers, 14

- Ideal worker, 15
  - fitting into role of, 130–131
- “Ideal-typical” work-life balance employee, 12
- Identity theories, 3
- Identity work, 19
- In vitro fertilisation (IVF), 68
- Inclusive Research Agenda, 110–111
- Inclusive transnational WLI approach, 180–181
- Inclusive work-life interface provisions, 105
- Inclusive work-life lens, 111–112
- Individual characteristics, 155
- Infertility, 68
- Insensitive reactions, 88
- International academics, 61
- International Foundation for Functional Gastrointestinal Disorders (IFFGD), 125
- Intracytoplasmic sperm injection (ICSI), 68

- Intuitive connectedness, 58
- Involuntarily childless, 136–137
- Involuntary childlessness, 136–137
- Irritable bowel syndrome (IBS), 7, 124–125
  - diagnosis of, 128–129

- Jobs, 73
  - characteristics, 155
  - menopause transition and job satisfaction, 152–153
  - quality in hospitality jobs, 111–112
- Joint-autoethnography, 54

- Keeping in Touch (KIT), 96

- Life concept, 12
- Life course, 185
  - work-life inclusion across, 4–5
- Life expectancy, 161
- Life-course concepts, 177
- Life-course perspective, 174–176
- Line managers, 149
- Lived experience interviews, 70
- Locational balance, 13–16

- Male childlessness
  - background, 136
  - career, 141–142
  - childlessness, 137–138
  - demographics, 136–137
  - findings, 140
  - men and masculinity, 138–139
  - social relationships, 142
- Masculinity, 138–139
- Maternal body work, 70
- Maternity, 96–97, 101–102
  - policies, 106
- Medical sources, 125
- Men, 138–139
- Menopause transition, 148
  - experiences of menopause transition in workplace, 151–152
  - findings, 151

- and health well-being, 153
- and job satisfaction, 152–153
- methods, 151
- in workplace, 149–150
- workplace support required for, 153–155
- workplace well-being and, 150–151
- Mental and physical health, 137
- Mental health, 101
- Mental illness, 97
- Miscarriage, 82
  - avenues for future research, 93
  - causes and risk factors, 83–84
  - effects of miscarriage on health and well-being, 84
  - effects on partners, 85
  - employers, 91–92
  - implications for practice, 92
  - miscarriage and work-life interface, 85–91
  - prevalence, 83
  - psychological effects, 84–85
  - recommendations for employers, 91
- Miscarriage and Infertility Support Training (MIST), 82
- Misconceptions, 84
- MIST Workshops, 92
- Mother and Baby Units (MBUs), 99
- Motherhood Mandate, 143
- Multiple sclerosis (MS), 124

- NHS, 96
  - fertility treatment, 70

- Obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD), 96
- Occupational Health, 92
- Office for National Statistics, 166
- One-size-fits-all approach, 180
- Organisations, 130–131, 186
  - implications for organisations/HR practice, 168–169
  - under study, 44

- Pakistan, 124, 126, 129
- Pandemic, 165

- Parallel Lives
  - benefits, 34–35
  - challenges of working whilst studying, 32–34
  - findings, 31
  - methodology, 30–31
  - motivations to work, 31–32
  - recommendations, 37–39
  - social and practical factors, 35
  - university support, 35–37
  - wellbeing, 34
- Parkinson's disease, 124
- Part-time job, 27
- Part-time working, 30
- Pashtun woman with chronic illness,
  - social and cultural pressures of household on, 129–130
- Paternity, 96
  - policies, 106
- Peri-menopause, 149
- Perinatal mental illness, 96–97
  - (see also Chronic illness)
  - and employment, 97–98
  - experience of, 99–100
  - implications, 105–106
  - our study, 99
  - impact of perinatal mental illness
    - on police employment, 103–105
    - impact of police work on, 100–103
    - research context, 98
- Personal matters, 86
- Personal Resource Allocation (PRA), 175, 180
- Physical balance, 13–16
- Physical borders, 15
- Police context, 103
- Police employment, impact of
  - perinatal mental illness on, 103–105
- Police organizations, 98
- Police service, 155
- Police work on perinatal mental illness, impact of, 100–103
- Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 85, 96

- Postpartum psychosis (PPP), 96
 Pre-professional career identity, 37
 Pregnancy, 83–85, 89
   loss, 92
 Presenteeism, 104
 Psychological balance, 18–20
 Psychological borders, 18
 Psychological empowerment, 49

 Relationships, 35
 Reproductive labor, 70
 ‘Reproductive work’ of fertility treatment, 70–71
 Research study, 69–70
 Resource-based theories, 3
 Retirement
   COVID-19, 165–168
   dominant contemporary discourse of, 163–165
   economic context, 161
   government policy, 161–162
   health and life expectancy, 161 implications for Organisations/HR
     Practice, 168–169
   personal choice, 162–163 traditional conceptions of, 160 and work-life interface, 165–168

 Scholarship on work-life interface, 2–4
 Selection process, 49
 Self-care, 70
 Self-monitoring of performance, 48
 Semi-structured interviews, 30
 Single, 56
 Single discipline, 55
 Single households, 55
 Social capital, 13
 Social class, 12–13, 20
   outcomes, 13–16
   psychological balance, 18–20
   temporal balance, 16–18
 Social infertility, 68
 Social mobility, 13, 19–20
 Social pressures of household on Pashtun woman with chronic illness, 129–130

 Social relationships, 142
 Solo-living women academics
   heightened vulnerability, 61–62
   methodological approach, 57–58 portrayal of lived working life by solo-living women
       academics, 58
   practical implications, 62–64
   time-biases, 58–61
   WLB and, 55–56
   WLB and women academics,
     56–57
 Spatial borders, 15
 Split shifts, apprenticeship training working, 114–117

 Stigma, 101
 Students, 34–36, 38
 Successful ageing, 163–164
 Symbolic capital, 13

 Taboo, 88, 185
   subject, 126, 128
 Temporal balance, 16–18
 Time, 115
 Time-biases, 58–61
 Traditional work-family boundary theory, 175

 Transition
 Transnational life courses, WLI across, 176–177
 Trauma, 97, 100
 Trust, 47

 UK police service, 148, 150
 Un-retirement, 162
 University, 38
   support, 35–37
 University of North Carolina (UNC),
   125
 Unpaid labor, 70

 Vulnerability, 62

 Wearies, 163
 Wellbeing, 34, 151
   effects of miscarriage on, 84–91

- Women, 83, 92
  - health taboos, 86
  - WLB and women academics, 56–57
- Work, 28, 82–83, 85–88, 90, 92
  - meaning of work as moderator of WLI, 178–179
- Work-family, 2
- Work-integrated learning, 29
- Work-life
  - challenges, 74, 96–97
  - complex interplay of, 163–165
  - conflict, 68–69, 72–73, 75
- Work-life inclusion, 185, 187
  - across life course, 4–5
- Work-life interface (WLI), 50, 85–91, 110, 164, 174–175
  - active ageing, extended working lives and WLI, 174–175
  - agency and control over WLI, 180
  - cultural norms as WLI moderator, 179–180
  - empirical evidence, 177
  - ‘gender’ as ubiquitous moderator of, 175–176
  - ‘gender’ as ubiquitous moderator of WLI, 175–176
  - inclusive transnational WLI approach, 180–181
  - meaning of ‘work’ as moderator of WLI, 178–179
  - ongoing impact of pandemic on work-life interface at retirement, 166–168
  - retirement and, 165–168
  - scholarship, 2–4, 98
  - theories, 175
  - WLI across ‘transnational’ life courses, 176–177
- Worker well-being, 111–112, 114, 117–118
- Working, learning, playing, and giving (WLPG), 29
- Work-life balance (WLB), 12–13, 28–29, 34, 110–111
  - outcomes, 13–16
  - psychological balance, 18–20
  - and solo-living, 55–56
  - temporal balance, 16–18
  - and women academics, 56–57
- Work-life–study boundaries, 38
- Workplace, 136, 138, 142
  - context, 153, 156
  - experiences, 93
  - experiences of menopause transition in, 151–152
  - findings, 151
  - and menopause transition, 150–151
  - menopause transition in, 149–150
  - methods, 151
  - well-being, 148
- World Gastroenterology Organisation Global Guidelines (WGO Global Guidelines), 124
- World Health Organization, 68, 174