

INDEX

- Academic consequences of commuting, 44
- Access, 2, 6
- Accommodation, 152–153
- Alienation, 66–67, 78
- Ambivalences, 146–147
- Anxiety, 6, 77–78, 100, 126, 143–144
- Autistic spectrum disorder, 121
- Belonging, 12–15, 54–55, 96, 103–104, 155
- Black, Asian and minority ethnic (BAME), 3–4, 6, 10–11, 30–31, 33–34
 - ethnic inequalities in higher education, 96–97
 - experiences of students from minority ethnic backgrounds, 97–116
 - race and ethnicity in higher education, 94–96
 - students, 93
- Bologna Process, 27–28
- British Sign Language (BSL), 124
- Capital, 51
- Case study approach, 19
- Cognitive dissonance, 96–97
- Commitments
 - childcare, 134
 - cultural and religious, 12–13
 - employment, 79
 - family, 33
 - shared political, 129
- Commuter students, 12–14
 - and age on entry, 33
 - and disability, 35
 - disciplinary backgrounds of, 35–37
 - and ethnicity, 33–34
 - financial situation of, 46
 - and social class background, 30–33
- Commuters, 1–2, 19, 144
- Commuting, 1–3
 - cost of, 13

- disadvantages of, 145–146
- factors associated with commuting decisions, 142–144
- for financial and social reasons, 87–89
- pros and cons, 3–4
- reasons for, 144–145
- reasons for commuting and implications, 42–45
- students, 15–17
- COVID-19 pandemic, 2
- impact on lives of commuting students, 17–18
- Cultural commitments, 12–13
- Degrees of inequality, 141
 - ambivalences, 146–147
 - disadvantages of commuting, 145–146
 - factors associated with commuting decisions, 142–144
 - lessons from pandemic, 148–149
 - reasons for commuting, 144–145
 - responding to students' academic and social needs, 149–157
 - temporary commuters, 147–148
- Deprivation, 26, 30–31
- Disability, 9–10, 26–27, 35
 - discrimination, 120–121
- Disability Discrimination Act, 120–121
- Disabled students, 119–120
 - experiences of disabled students commuting to university, 125–137
 - and institutional support, 123–124
 - living with social deprivation and anxiety, 125–128
 - mature student living with multiple disabilities, 128–133
 - policy context, 120–121
 - profile of disabled students in higher education, 121–123
 - young student with diagnosis of autistic spectrum disorder, 133–137
- Disabled Students Allowance (DSA), 10, 121, 123–124
- Disadvantages of commuting, 145–146
- Discrimination, 12–13
- Disproportionality, 26
- Diversity
 - neural, 121
 - students', 3–5
- Dominant culture, 55, 143–144

- Education, 120
- Employment, 5–6, 54, 82, 90–91
 - commitments, 79
 - paid, 159
 - part-time, 13
- Engagement, 158
 - academic, 14
 - quality of, 148–149
 - social, 13–14
 - studies of, 15–16
- Equality, 27–28
- Equality Act 2010, 94, 123–124
- Equity, 25–26
- Ethnic inequalities in higher education, 96–97
- Ethnicity, 9–11, 33–34, 93
 - in higher education, 94–96
- European Higher Education Area (EHEA), 27–28
- Exclusionary spaces, 96–97
- Experiences, 1
 - of BAME students, 6
 - of commuting students, 4
 - of disabled students commuting to university, 125–137
 - intersectionality of, 141–142
 - students', 1–2
 - WP students' experiences of commuting, 38–47
- Facilities, 153–155
- Family, 3–4, 15–16, 153
- Finance, 144
- Financial situation of commuter students, 46
- Friendship, 15, 63, 147–148
- Geographical mobility, 11–12
- Hearing impairments, 122
- Higher education (HE), 1–2, 9–10
 - ethnic inequalities in, 96–97
 - participation in, 93
 - profile of disabled students in, 121–123
 - profile of low SES students in, 54–55
 - profile of mature students in, 77–79
 - race and ethnicity in, 94–96
 - social policy on tackling inequalities in, 26–29
- Home-based students, 144
- Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS), 35–36
- Identities, 1–3, 15, 90
- Impairment, 122
- Inclusive culture, 155–157
- Individual interviews, 21
- Inequality, 141

- Institutional support, 123–124
- Institutions, 153
- Intersectionality of experience, 141–142
- Last-minute class cancellations, 151
- Learning, 150–152
- Linguistics, 79–80
- Living and commuting arrangements, 40–41
- Living at home, 15–16, 104–105
- Lockdowns, 17–18
- Marginalisation, 6–7, 96–97, 137–138, 143–144
- Mature students
 - care-experienced student, 80–84
 - at case study university, 79–89
 - commuting for financial and social reasons, 87–89
 - experiences of, 77
 - profile of mature students in higher education, 77–79
 - returning to study at later stage in life, 85–87
- Medicine and Veterinary Medicine (MVM), 35–36
- Mental health, 63–64
 - difficulties, 6–7
 - problems, 122
- Microaggression, 96–97
- Microsoft Teams,
 - transcription facility in, 21–22
- Minority ethnic backgrounds
 - anxiety strong family and financial support for living at home, 97–101
 - balancing study and commuting, 112–116
 - belonging and relatedness at university, 101–104
 - experiences of students from, 97–116
 - familial pressures and impact of racism on decision to live at home, 104–108
 - overcoming loneliness and isolation as commuter student, 108–112
- Mixed methods approach, 4
- Mobility issues, 122
- National of Students (NUS), 96
- National policies, 77–78
- Neural diversity, 121
- Non-commuters, 1–2

- Normative assumptions, 157
- Normative difficulties, 122
- On-line survey findings, 20–21, 38, 47
- Online teaching, 48
- Open University (OU), 85
- Otherness, 78
- Outcomes, 2–3, 141
 - of commuting students, 1
 - educational, 25–26
 - equitable, 26
 - positive, 13–14
- Paid work, 13
- Participation in higher education, 93
- Peers, 13–14
- Physical impairments, 122
- Post Graduate Diploma in Education (PDGE), 84
- Post-university careers, 7–8
- Progression, 94–96
- Qualitative methods, 20
- Quantitative methods, 20
- Race, 10–11
 - in higher education, 94–96
- Racial inequality, 96–97
- Redistribution, 2–3
- Religious commitments, 12–13
- Research methods, 19–22
- Rest of the UK (RUK), 19–20
- Retention, 15–16, 53–54, 93
- Science, Computing and Engineering (SCE), 35–36
- Scottish Commission for Fair Access (2021), 17–18
- Scottish Funding Council (SFC), 17–18, 28–29
- Scottish Government, 28–29, 51–52
- Scottish Index of Multiple Deprivation (SIMD), 17–18, 28–31, 51
- Scottish university, 2
- Sense of belonging, 13–14
- Shelter, 153–155
- Short case studies, 77
- Short vignettes, 93, 119–120
- Social activities, 3–4, 12–14, 46–47, 135, 153
- Social and cultural capital, 51
- Social categories, 9–11
 - literature review, 11–17
- Social categorisation, 11
- Social characteristics of
 - commuter students, 25–26
 - social policy on tackling inequalities in higher education, 26–29

- students' social characteristics at case study university, 29–37
- WP students' experiences of commuting, 38–47
- Social characteristics of respondents, 39–40
- Social class, 30–33
- Social deprivation, 142
- Social dimension, 27–28
- Social disadvantage, 142
- Social dynamics, 4, 25–26
- Social inequalities of students, 1
- Social justice, 1–3
- Social life, 11–12, 42–43, 70–71, 85, 141
- Social policy on tackling inequalities in higher education, 26–29
- Social spaces, 7–8, 154–155
- Social ties, 144–145
- Social-emotional support from families, 15–16
- Socio-economic status (SES), 4–5, 51
 - family-oriented student, 67–71
 - middle-class student, 71–74
 - policy context, 52–54
 - profile of low SES students in higher education, 54–55
 - student with experience of commuting and living in student accommodation, 59–64
 - and students' daily lives, 55–74
 - young man with minimal university engagement, 64–67
- Special Educational Needs and Disability Act, 120–121
- Student with experience of commuting and living in student accommodation, 59–64
- Students Award Agency Scotland (SAAS), 144
- Students' daily lives, 55–74
- Students' social characteristics at case study university, 29–37
 - commuter students and age on entry, 33
 - commuter students and disability, 35
 - commuter students and ethnicity, 33–34
 - commuter students and social class background, 30–33
 - disciplinary backgrounds of commuter students, 35–37
- Support, 72

- community-support
 - networks, 15–16
 - emotional and social, 3–4
 - financial, 46
 - institutional, 123–124
- Survey respondents'
 - disciplinary background and year of study, 38
- Tackling Elitism*, 61–62
- Teaching, 150–152
- Temporary commuters, 147–148
- Timetabling, 7–8, 14, 21–22, 48, 150, 159
- Transition, 11–12, 103, 143–144
- Travel grants, 7–8, 154, 159
- Uncertainty, 17–18
- Universities, 3, 46–47, 52–53, 142
- Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS), 77–78
- Universities UK (UUK), 96
- University of St Andrews, 155
- Visual impairments, 122
- Widening access initiatives, 17–18
- Widening participation (WP), 4, 20, 31
 - students' experiences of commuting, 38–47
- Young commuter students, 15