

INDEX

- Access to resources, 74
- Achievement (what you achieve)– ascription (who you are) dimension, 92–94
- Achievement motivation theory, 27
- Activity-based working, 16
- Adaptability, 59
- African countries, flexible working in, 68–69
- Annualised hours, 50
- Australia, flexible working in, 69
- Autonomy, 46
- Better Ways of Working (BWOW),
15–16
- Border theory, 78
- Born digital, 21
- ‘Bossware’, 56
- Burnout, 29
- Career progression, 45
- China, flexible working in, 66–67
- Coal miners, 8
- Collaborative work, 74
- Collateral changes, 51–52
- Commercial organisations, 36
- Communications, 37
  - skills, 59
  - styles, 63
  - tools, 57
- Company culture, 74
- Compatibility issues, 54
- Competing demands, 79–82, 100
- Compressed workweek, 49
- Conflict model, 78
- Construction workers, 61
- Control, lack of, 54
- Corporate culture, 17
- Corporations, 6
- Correlation statistics, limitations of,
71–72
- Corridor effect, 29–30
- Corridor effect, 45
- Covid-19, 1
  - lockdowns, 37
  - pandemic, 8, 48, 67
- Cultural differences, 63
  - country trends, 69–70
  - days working at home/in office,
64–66
  - general impact of culture, 63–64
- Culture, general impact of, 63–64
- Data privacy concerns, 54
- Days working at home/in office,
64–66
- Development mode, 7
- Diagnostic questionnaires, 16
- Dictums, 2
- Diligence, 59–60
- Disrupted sleep patterns, 13
- Diversification of freelance work, 48
- Diversity, 20–21
- ‘Do’s and Don’ts’ model, 76–77

- Early research, 16
  - partnership with Vodafone UK, 15–17
- Emergency responders, 61
- Employees, 1
  - burnout, 13
  - monitoring software, 57
  - new generations of, 19–20
  - well-being, 45
- Employers, 1, 73
- Employment Relations (Flexible Working) Bill 2022, 73
- Entrepreneurial spirit, 21
- Environmental consciousness, 21
- European Union (EU), 48
- Evidence-led framework, 1–2
- Face-to-face meetings, 2
- Fair Work Act 2009, 69
- Feedback
  - comments, 39–40
  - profiles, 38
- Financial opportunities, 46
- Fiverr, 48–49
- Flexibility, 20, 28, 46
- Flexible benefits and policies, 100
- Flexible hours, 49
- Flexible working, 14, 31–32, 45
  - advantages of working from home, 41–42
  - app, 35
  - arrangements, 15, 45
  - competing demands, 79–82
  - database, 38
  - diligence, 59–60
  - disadvantages of working from home, 42
  - example recommendations, 41
  - feedback comments, 39–40
  - four-dimensional model, 35–37
  - gap in knowledge, 73–74
  - higher rates, 71
  - historical trends, 11–13
  - integration model, 78–79
  - jobs, 61–62
  - keystroke activity, 57–58
  - lower rates, 70–71
  - national differences, 66–69
  - new body of knowledge required, 76–77
  - people in employment with flexible working patterns, 12
  - personality types, 58–59
  - shift work, 13–14
  - software to monitor, 56–57
  - staff to return to office, 75–76
  - through-through thinking, 82–83
  - vigilance decrement, 60–61
  - work-life balance, 77–78
- Flexitime, 49
- Formal norms, 19
- Four-dimensional model, 35–37
- Freelance working, 48–49
- Freelancer.com, 48–49
- Future ways of working, 99–100
- Generation Z, 21
  - members, 22
  - resigned from job, 23–25
- Generational values, 21–23
- Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC), 67
  - flexible working in, 67–68
- Hawthorne Effect, 11
- Hawthorne Works, 11
- Health insurance, 48
- Health problems, increased risk of, 13
- Health-care professionals, 61
- Hotel and restaurants/catering hospitality, 61

- House of Commons, 1
- Human Relations School, 11
- Hybrid work arrangements, 99

- Ideal working practice, 35
- Inclusion, 20
- Independence, 46, 59
- Individual–group dimension, 86–87
- Individualism, 87
- Individuality, 21
- Informal norms, 19
- Information technology (IT), 37, 53, 83, 91
  - acceleration of IT developments, 53–54
  - remote video meetings, 55–56
- Institute of Economic Research (IFO), 64
- Instrumental model, 78
- Integration model, 78–79
- Interactive App, 35
- Internal (take control)–external (go with the flow) dimension, 96–97

- Jobs, 61–62
  - characteristics, 27
  - demands–control model, 27
  - enlargement, 12
  - enrichment, 12
  - holder, 7–8
  - job-hiring environment, 20
  - life cycle, 7–8
  - loss or dissatisfaction, 47
  - promotion rates, 45
  - rotation, 12
  - satisfaction, 12, 29, 45
  - sharing, 50

- Key jangling, 58
- Keystroke activity, 57–58

- Legal and regulatory frameworks, 63
- Local Government Association (LGA), 2
- Lyft, 47

- Management style, 74
- Manufacturing and production workers, 61
- Maslow’s hierarchy of needs, 8
- Mechanical diggers, 9
- Mental health, 20
- Meta-level dilemmas, 85
  - achievement (what you achieve)–ascription (who you are) dimension, 92–94
  - individual–group dimension, 86–87
  - internal (take control)–external (go with the flow) dimension, 96–97
  - neutral (emotions concealed)–affective (emotions displayed) dimension, 90–92
  - specific (low involvement)–diffuse (high involvement) dimension, 88–90
  - time orientation, 95
  - universalism (rules)–particularism dimension, 85–86
- Mobile working, 50
- Modern-day shift work, 13
- Motivation–hygiene theory, 12

- National Employment Standards, 69
- Neutral (emotions concealed)–affective (emotions displayed) dimension, 90–92
- New generations of employees, 19–20
- Non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 83

- Norms, 19
- Northern Rock, 36

- Office technology, 6
- Online platforms, 48–49
- Organisations, 29
- Overworking, 28

- Paperless office, 6
- Particularist societies, 86
- Passion, 46
- Perception, 74
- Performance mode, 7
- Personal growth, 20
- Personality types, 58–59
- PO model, 76
- Popularity, 48
- Positive behaviour, 28
- Pre-Covid-19, 12
- Presenteeism, 28–29
- Presenteeism, 45
- Productivity gain, 11
- Professional growth, 20
- Project management software, 57
- Purpose-driven work, 20

- Quality of life (QOL), 31
- Quality Time, 79
- Questionnaires, 16

- Reconciliation, 89
- Remote communication, 63
- Remote meetings, 2
- Remote video meetings, 55–56
- Remote work, 49
- Repair and maintenance costs, 54
- Result-based performance management, 16
- Retail workers, 61
- Retirement benefits, 48
- Retirement mode, 7
- Russia, flexible working in, 67

- Safety risks, 13
- Scientific Management, 11
- Security concerns, 74
- Security risks, 54
- Segmentation model, 78
- Self-actualisation, 8
- Self-care, prioritising, 28
- Self-employment, 46
  - issues of flexible working, 46–48
  - rates, 47–48
  - US trends, 47
- Self-motivation, 58
- Self-promotion, 49
- Setting boundaries, 27
- Setting goals, 28
- Shift swapping, 50
- Shift work, 13–14
- Social isolation, 13
- Socio-technical effect, 8–9
- Space, 35
- Specific (low involvement)–diffuse (high involvement) dimension, 88–90
- Spillover model, 78
- Staff, 35
- Surgical procedures, 51

- Taylorism, 11
- Technology, 20, 35, 59
  - technology-enabled collaboration, 15
- Telechirics, 50–51
- Telecommuting (see Working from home (WFH))
- Through-through thinking, 82–83
- Time management, 59
- Time orientation, 95
- Time tracking software, 57

- Triangulation, 30
- Trompenaars' seven-dimensional model, 64
- Uber, 47
- UK Bank, 43n2
- UK local councils, 1
- Universalism (rules)–particularism dimension, 85–86
- Upwork, 48–49
- US Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), 47
- US Resume Builder, 22–23
- Values, 19
  - systems, 21
- Video meetings, 56
- Vigilance decrement, 13, 60–61
- Virtual collaboration tools, 99
- Virtual private networks (VPNs), 53, 93
- Vodafone, 35
  - partnership with, 15–17
- Well-being, 20, 99
- Work
  - culture, 63
  - first impressions, 5–6
  - job life cycle, 7–8
  - socio-technical effect, 8–9
- Work-life balance, 20, 27, 45, 63, 71, 77–78
  - contrasting responses, 31–32
  - corridor effect, 29–30
  - lack of, 13
  - movement, 27–28
  - presenteeism, 28–29
  - respondents, 30–33
- Workers, 11
- Workforce
  - generation Z, 23–25
  - generational values, 21–23
  - generations in workplace, 21
  - management technology, 58
  - new generations of employees, 19–20
- Working app, ways of, 35
- Working from home (WFH), 31, 49–50
  - advantages, 41–42
  - disadvantages, 42
- Workload, 28
- Workplaces, 7, 63