

INDEX

- Abstraction, 3, 127
- Agile work, 10
- Becoming processes, 13
- Behavioural Public Administration (BPA), 58–59
- Bibliometric analysis, 51–52, 54
 - co-word analysis and science mapping, 53–54
 - sample selection, 52–53
- ‘Black box’ of identity, 2, 123
- Bottom-up process, 124
- Clusters
 - analysis, 52
 - and associated dimensions, 59
 - dimensions and positioning, 61
 - and dimensions of identity in public sector, 54–59
 - evolution of terms over time, 58–59
 - theorising from clusters, 59–63
- Co-words analysis, 3, 51–54, 126
- Communication, 101, 104–105
- Conflicts, 101, 104–105
- Control, 75, 101–103, 105
- Coping behaviours, 17, 32–33
- COVID-19 pandemic, 1, 10, 73, 77–78
- Cultural values, 1
- Devices, 62
- Digital tools, 73
- Digital version, 129–130
- Digital world, transferring identity in, 100–101
- Dis-identification, 8
- Discursive forces, 13
- Dislocation, 108
- Disorientation, 89–90
- Employee motivation, 1
- Employee well-being, 76, 81, 128
- Ethnographic analysis, 3–4
- Ethnographic approach, 29, 75–76
- External drivers of change, 54–56
- Fantasmatic logics, 110, 112, 129
- Flexible work, 10
- Formal devices, 62
- Free riding, 101–103, 105
- Generative resistance, 12–13
- Geographical areas, 28
- Human resource management (HRM), 10, 76–77
- Hybrid work, 10
- Hybridisation, 31–32
- Hyperconnectivity and lack of disconnection, 87–89
- Identification, 8–9
- Identity, 1–2, 51, 125
 - bibliometric analysis, 52–54
 - clusters and dimensions of identity in public sector, 54–59
 - complexity, 3
 - conceptualisation, 8
 - discovering threats, struggles and coping behaviours, 30–35
 - features in public sector, 17

- framing of identity issues in public sector, 16–29
- and importance for studying organisations, 7–11
- macro-areas/dimensions, 3
- overlapping, 94–95
- in public sector, 63–65
- reinforcement, 96–98
- segmentation, 96
- sensemaking, 95–96
- struggles, 17
- (temporary) impoverishment and instability, 93–94
- theorising from clusters, 59–63
- threats, 17
- visual methods for enhancing studies on identity, 36–37
- Impression management, 57–58
- Informal devices, 62
- Integrated analysis, 123–124
- Interactions, 57
- Interpretation, 62
- Interpretive/adaptive approach, 61–62
- Interrelated analysis, 123–124
- Isolation, 101, 103–105
- Iterative process of identity formation, 35
- Itinerant workstations, 91–92
- Job Demands-Resources model (JD-R model), 78–79
- Job satisfaction, 1, 77
- Level of analysis, 17
- Lockdown period, 77–78
- Loneliness, 89–90
- Making meanings, 80
- Management by objectives (MBO), 107
- Methodological approach, 52
- Micro-level analysis, 123
- Micro-politics of resistance, 13
- Motivation, 101–103, 105
- Nesting, 80
- New normal, 84
- New Public Governance (NPG), 10, 31, 111
- New Public Management (NPM), 1, 9–10, 13–14, 31, 110–111
- Normative approach, 61
- Organisation-centric studies, 9
- Organisational change, 9
- Organisational citizenship behaviours (OCB), 56–57, 76–77
- Organisational contexts, 1
- Organisational homelessness, 80
- Organisational performance, 1
- Organisations, 76–78, 80
- Organizational citizenship, 56–57
- Organizational control, 57
- Overlapping of work and private life, 85–86
- Personal experiences, 1
- Personal resources, 79
- Personality, 7
 - traits, 79
- Photo-elicitation, 36–37, 81, 125–126
- Placemaking, 80
- Policy-making, 64
- Political logics
 - of contestation, 111, 129
 - of defence, 129
 - of equivalence, 110
- Political movements, 109
- Political practices, 108
- Post NPM-inspired reforms, 1
- Post-lockdown experiences of smart working, 99–105
- Power, Performance and People (3P), 107
- Prevailing discourses, 15
- Private space within public space, 80
- Public administration (PA), 17, 27, 82, 84

- cases, 28
- Public employees, 30, 75
 - threats, struggles and coping behaviours, 33–35
- Public managers, 12–13
- Public sector, 1
 - framing of identity issues in public sector, 16–29
 - identity in, 63–65
 - main identity threats, struggles and coping behaviours in, 31–33
 - reforms and cage to employees' identity, 11–15
 - research design, 16–27
 - results, 27–29
- Public Value (PV), 10
- Regimes, 57
- Relations, 57
- Remote work, 10, 77, 80
- Research design, 81–84
- Research methods, 17, 29
- Resistance, 15
- Roles and rules imposition, 56
- Science Mapping, 52–54
 - of 'Identity in Public Sector', 56
- Self-alienation, 8
- Smart Public Management, 129
- Smart Working (SW), 1, 10, 74, 77, 129
 - characteristics of regimes, 108–113
 - positive and negative aspects, 105–108
 - post-lockdown experiences of, 99–105
 - regimes, 110–113
 - solutions suggested by participants, 98–99
- Social isolation, 78
- Social logics, 110, 129
- Social norms, 1
- Social practices, 108
- Struggles, 32
- Subjectivity, 75
- Telework, 10
- Theoretical reasoning, 64
- Theorisation, 3
- There's no place like home, 80
- Threats, 32
- Translation, 62–63
- Uncertainty, 14
- Visual methods, 27, 81, 125–126
 - for enhancing studies on identity, 36–37
- VOSviewer, 3, 52–53, 58, 126
- Web of Science (WOS), 2, 16, 37, 52–53, 125
- Well-being, 76
- Working, 77
- Work–life balance, 76, 81, 128
- Workload, 101–105
 - and collaboration among colleagues, 102
- Workplace, 75–76, 81
 - organisation of workplace and effects on identity, 92–98
 - organisation of workplace and effects on individual activities, 85–92
 - re-organising workplaces during covid-19 lockdown, 84–99
- Workplace, Work–life balance and (employee) Well-being (3W), 107