

Index

- Access to Housing and Affordability (AFA), 176–178
- Accountable government, 167
- Affordability (AFA), 149–150
- Affordable housing (AFH), 68, 169
  - addressing shortage of, 16–17
  - attracting political support for, 20
  - enhancement of, 120–121
  - Programme in Netherlands, 66
- Affordable mix, 11
- Africa's mixed-income housing development
  - Botswana Land Tenure Policy, 76–77
  - Botswana National Housing Programme, 77–78
  - case of Botswana Housing Programme, 75–76
  - housing delivery efforts in Nigeria, 78–80
  - overview of, 75–78
  - SHHA, 78
- African National Congress (ANC), 88
- Aided self-help' schemes, 49
- Amenities, attributes of, 63–64
- American housing policies, problems and challenges associated with, 56–57
- American suburbia, 29–30
- Apartheid settlement planning, community-building strategy and corrections of, 127–128
- Appropriation, 26–27
- Asian Pacific Network for Housing Research (APNHR), 64
- Assisted self-help housing, 47
- Australia
  - comparing mixed-income housing in United States and, 64
  - critique of social mix, 65
  - goals of social mix, 63–64
  - housing policy and social mix, 62–63
  - key priority on government housing policy agenda, 64
  - meaning of social mix, 61–62
  - mixed-income housing development in, 61–65
- Australia housing programme, 63
- Botswana Housing Programme
  - case of, 75–76
  - policy on social mix, 76
  - services on land, 76
- Botswana Land Tenure Policy, 76–77
- Botswana National Housing Programme, 77–78
- Botswana urban land for development, 76
- Brazil
  - favelas, 72
  - good lessons of My House, My Life, 74–75
  - housing policies in Brazil, 73–74
  - mixed-income housing development in, 71–75
  - process of land occupation, 72–73
- Brazilian government's mass affordable housing programme, The, 73–74
- Break(ing) New Ground (BNG), 92, 139, 180
- BRIDGE Housing Corporation, 17–18
- British approach, 61
- British Crime Survey, 37–38

- Broad range of incomes, 11
- California Center for Population Research (CCPR), 9–10
- Case study research approach, application of, 135
- Case study research design strengths, weaknesses and opportunities of, 134–135 suitability of, 133–134
- Certificate of Rights (COR), 76
- City of Johannesburg Inclusionary Housing Policy, 96–97
- City-By-Laws, 46–47
- Codevco, 136
- Coherent government, 167
- Cohesive society, 37
- Common Law Leasehold (CLL), 76–77
- Commonwealth Housing Commission, 62–63
- Commonwealth–State Housing Agreement (CSHA), 62–63
- Community Involvement and Participation (CIP), 143, 146, 153, 157, 169–173
- Community participation, 145
- Community-based organizations (CBOs), 44, 98
- Community-building strategy and corrections of apartheid settlement planning, 127–128
- Compact cities in developing countries, relevance of, 30–31
- Concentrated deprivation, growing, 58–59
- Concentrated poverty, problem of, 123
- Confirmatory factor analysis
AFA, 176–178
CIP, 172–173
IGSC, 178–179
NSS, 170–171
OSI, 175–176
TPAP, 173–175
- as used in mixed-income housing development, 170–179
- Consensus, 110–111
access to finance, 119
capacity within government and municipality, 124–126 collaboration between public and private partnership, 116–117 delays and long process in getting town planning approval, 120 enhancement of affordable housing, 120–121 factors at all spheres of government impact on mixed-income housing, 121
intergovernmental relations and coordination, 116
items experts, 115–127
mixed-income housing development as good and safe place to live/work and play, 124 mixed-income housing development eradication of informal settlements, 123 problem of bulk infrastructure, 124 problem of informal settlements and concentrated poverty, 123 promotion of integrated human settlements, 115–116 shift of human settlements from subsidy housing to self-help, 126–127 strong leadership from government, 117–118
- Constitution Court, 89–90
- Constitution of South Africa, Act 108 of 1996, 89–90
- Construction process, 48
- Conventional mass housing, 43–44
- Conventional thinking, 133
- Corporate Geographical Information of City of Johannesburg, 137–138
- Cosmo City Johannesburg, 139
application of case studies as research strategy, 133

- application of case study research approach, 135
- case study research, 131–133
- design principles guiding development, 137–138
- location and history, 135–137
- major challenges and achievements, 139–140
- planning of settlements, 136–137
- public–private partnership, 138
- social amenities and infrastructure, 138–139
- strengths, weaknesses and opportunities of case study research design, 134–135
- suitability of case study research design, 133–134
- Cronbach's alpha, 169
- Culture of poverty, 35–36
  - criticism of, 36
- Data analysis, 104–105
- Decision-making process, 21–22
- Delphi approach, 103
- Delphi instruments, 104–105
- Delphi methods, 4–5, 131–132, 166
- Delphi results, analysis of, 166–169
- Delphi study in mixed-income housing development
  - analysis of result, 104–114
  - consensus, 110–111
  - dissensus, 110–111
  - items experts achieved consensus, 115–127
  - items of dissensus, 127–128
  - objectives for case study, 103–104
  - response rate, 104
  - rounds, 105–106, 110, 113–114
  - theoretical overview of Delphi technique, 101–103
- Department of Human Settlements of Western Cape (The), 142–143
- Design principles guiding development, 137–138
- Dissensus, 110–111
- community-building strategy and corrections of apartheid settlement planning, 127–128
- items of, 127–128
- shift of government towards mixed-income housing, 128
- Diversity, 44–45
- Draft National Housing Policy, 83
- Dutch urban policy, The, 66–67
- East and Central European countries (ECE countries), 149–150
- Economic segregation, growing, 58–59
- Effective government, 167
- Efficiency, 95
- Efficient Market Hypothesis, 41–42
- Emulation, raising living standard through, 63
- Enable market work, 49
- Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA), 173–175
- Europe, housing affordability in, 65–66
- Falsification, 133–134
- Favelas, 72–74
- Filtering Model, 81–82
- Finance Linked Individual Subsidies (FLIPS), 137–138
- Financial Charter Agreement, The, 119
- FinMark Trust, 77–78
- First National Bank (FNB), 137
- Fixed Period State Grant (FPSG), 76
- Fourth Industrial Revolution, 180
- Garden City, 79
- Garden City Movement, 14–15
- Gauteng Provincial Government, 138
- Gentrification, 22
- Ghana
  - challenges faced in low-income housing delivery in, 83–85
  - housing delivery efforts in, 80–85
  - inadequate housing in, 81
- Ghana housing deficit statistics, 83
- Ghana Housing Policy, 83

- Ghana housing studies, lessons learnt from, 85
- Ghetto-specific culture, 53–54
- Good administration, 95
- Good school system with amenities, 170–171
- Government
- capacity within, 124–126
  - leadership from, 117–118
  - shift of government towards mixed-income housing, 128
- Government housing policy agenda, key priority on, 64
- Government interventions, 49
- Government policy in England, 59–60
- Government Reserved Areas (GRAs), 79
- Gross Value Added (GVA), 58
- Growth Acceleration, 74–75
- High-quality housing, 18–19
- Homeownership and Opportunity for People Everywhere VI Programme (HOPE VI Programme), 15, 54–55, 64
- redevelopment process, 21–22
- Housing, 42–46, 84, 143
- access to, 149–150
  - concept, 71
  - environment, 46–47
  - market, 41–42
  - project development, 75
  - research, 41, 44–45
  - South Africa's vision for, 89
  - units, 73–74
- Housing Accord, 88
- Housing Act* (1937), 14
- Housing Act* (1997), 90–93, 96–97
- Housing affordability, 149–150
- in Europe, 65–66
- Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 11
- failure, 55
  - HUD-assisted multifamily housing developments, 11
- Housing Code 2000, The, 88–89
- Housing delivery
- approach, 80
  - challenges faced in low-income housing delivery in Ghana, 83–85
  - efforts in Ghana, 80–85
  - efforts in Nigeria, 78–80
  - Ghana housing deficit statistics, 83
  - Ghana Housing Policy, 83
  - inadequate housing in Ghana, 81
  - lessons learnt from Ghana housing studies, 85
  - process, 88
  - urbanization and settlements, 82–83
- Housing development
- lesson learnt with housing development in Nigeria, 80
  - process, 90–91
- Housing Green Paper, 59–60
- Housing Market Renewal Pathfinder, 57
- Housing policy/policies, 62–63, 71
- in Brazil, 73–74
  - enable market work and government interventions, 49
  - environment, 46–47, 147–148
  - evolution of, 46–50
  - origin of self-help in housing, 47–49
  - self-help housing, 47
- Housing Subsidy System (HSS), 92–93
- Human Development Index (HDI), 75–76
- Human settlements from subsidy housing to self-help, shift of, 126–127
- Inadequate housing in Ghana, 81
- Inclusionary Housing Policy, 96–97, 115–116
- Income structures, tenure and design, 12–13
- Informal settlements
- mixed-income housing development eradication of, 123
  - problem of, 123

- strategies, 95–96
- Innovation, 180
- Institutional perspective of housing research, 45–46
- Integrated Development Plan (IDP), 93–94
- Integrated human settlements, promotion of, 115–116
- Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), 89
- Integrated Urban Development Framework (IUDF), 173–175
- Inter-sectoral collaboration, 180
- Intergovernmental relations and coordination, 116
- Intergovernmental Support and Collaboration (IGSC), 142, 150–151, 163–164, 167, 169, 178–179
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 49
- Interventionist strategies, 49
- Johannesburg Social Housing Company (JOSHCO), 138
- Kaiser-Meyer-Olkin (KMO), 169–170
- Land
  - occupation process, 72–73
  - services on, 76
- Land Administration Project (LAP), 83–84
- Lands Department, 83–84
- Leadership from government, 117–118
- Lewis theory, 36
- Litigations, 83–84
- Local Development Documents (LDD), 59–60
- Local economic development (LED), 3–4
- Local public housing agencies (LHA), 14
- Low-cost housing, 44
- Low-cost Housing Provision, 179
- Low-income housing delivery in Ghana
  - access to land, 83–84
  - challenges faced in, 83–85
  - housing and mortgage, 84
  - regulations guiding building standards, 85
- Low-income inclusion, 11
- Low-Income Tax Credit (LITC), 14–15
- Management Information System (MIS), 133
- Market strength, 168
- Market-rate inclusion, 11
- Marxism, 42–43
- Migrant categories, 43–44
- Millennium, Housing Commission, The, 9–10
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 126
- Ministers' Council for Social Development (MINMEC), 92
- Mixed communities, 60
- Mixed-income, 10–11, 20–21, 68
  - communities, 166–167
  - developments, 10–11, 52
  - environment, 16
  - policies, 21–22
- Mixed-income housing, 11, 13, 16–17, 19–20, 68, 103–104, 127–128, 147–148, 150
  - factors at all spheres of government impact on, 121
  - shift of government towards, 128
  - in United States and Australia, 64
  - units, 138–139
- Mixed-Income Housing Delivery framework, 152–153
- Mixed-Income Housing Delivery model, 169–170
- Mixed-Income Housing Development (MIHD), 3, 9, 20, 64, 150–152, 169
  - addressing negative social behaviours, 19–20

addressing shortage of affordable housing, 16–17

attracting political support for affordable housing, 20

in Brazil, 71–75

challenge and implication of, 21–22 cycles of disadvantages and concentrated poverty of urban poor, 34–36

definitions and meaning, 9–14 developing high-quality housing, 18–19 eradication of informal settlements, 123 framework for, 4

gentrification, 22

goal and implication of mixed-income housing, 15–21

as good and safe place to live/work and play, 124 history of mixed-income housing policy, 14–15 housing delivery efforts in Ghana, 80–85 improvement in social network and avoiding negative behaviour, 15–16

income structures, tenure and design, 12–13

lessons learnt from, 67–68 to mitigate property value and community concerns, 17–18

mixed-income housing development/ neighbourhoods, 56–57

in Netherland, 65–67

overview of Africa's mixed-income housing development, 75–78

physical determinism, 26–34

as policy goal and policy, 60–61 political economy of place, 38 problems raised in mixed-income study, 22–23

project and neighbourhood, 13

providing economic advantage, 20–21

scale and intentions, 10–11

social cohesion and social capital, 37

social control, 37–38

spatial segregation, 38–39

sustainability of project, 13–14

theory and importance in housing research, 25–26

in United Kingdom, 57–61

in United States, 52–57

Mixed-Income Housing Development Framework (MIHDF), 152–153

access to housing and affordability, 149–150

analysis of Delphi results, 166–169 benefit of framework, 157–163

CFA as used in mixed-income housing development, 170–179

CIP, 143–146

composition and breakdown of variables, 141–142 development of framework, 152–153

IGSC, 150–151

interpretation of model, 153–157

NSS, 142–143

OSI, 148–149

questionnaire survey results, 169–170

recommendations, 179–180

TPAP, 146–148

Mixed-income housing neighborhoods (MIHN), 21–22

Moderate-income inclusion, 11

Modernization Theory, 49

Mortgage, 84

Municipality, capacity within, 124–126

My House, My Life (MHML), 74–75

good lessons of, 74–75

programmes, 74–75

National Affordable Housing Agreement, 64

- National Building Regulation (NBR), 180
- National Development Plan (NDP), 30, 93–94, 117, 180
- National government and Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act, The, 95–96
- National Housing Accord, 88
- National Housing Act (1934), 14
- National Housing Bank, 71–72
- National Housing Code of 2009, 92–93
- National Housing Forum, 88
- National Housing Law Project, The, 55
- National Housing Programme (NHP), 79–80
- National Housing Subsidy Database (NHSDB), 92–93
- National Housing Subsidy Programme, 89
- National Housing Subsidy System (NHSS), 92–93
- National Housing Summit, 88
- National Low-Income Housing Coalition, The, 56
- National norms and Standard 1999, 91–92
- National Priority Project (NPP), 6
- National Unity Government, The, 88
- National Upgrading Support Programme (NUSP), 117
- Nearness to Social Services (NSS), 2, 142–143, 169–171
- Negative behavior, improvement in social network and avoiding, 15–16
- Negative social behaviours, addressing, 19–20
- Neighbourhood Group/Ward Committee, 179
- Neo-marxist perspectives of housing research, 42–43
- Neoclassical economists, 41–42
- Neoclassical models, 41–42
- Neoclassical perspectives of housing research, 41–42
- Netherland
affordable Housing Programme in Netherlands, 66 housing affordability in Europe, 65–66
mixed-income housing development in, 65–67
new urban housing policy, 67
- New Jersey State Supreme Court, 14–15
- New urban housing policy, 67
- New urbanism, 28, 30, 54
critique of, 31–32
developers, 32
- Nigeria
current housing delivery approach, 80
housing delivery efforts in, 78–80
lesson learnt with housing development in Nigeria, 80
National Housing Programme, The, 79–80
Nigeria Public Housing, 79
Nigerian housing problems, 79
Nigerian Institute for Social and Economic Research, The, 79
- NLIHC, 56
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 44, 98
- Non-marxist perspectives of housing research, 43–44
- Non-profit organizations (NPOs), 146
- Not in My Backyard (NIMBY), 16–18, 96–97, 178–179
- Occupant Social Interaction (OSI), 148–149, 152, 157, 169, 175–176
- One-for-one replacement policy, 56
- Participation, 26–27
- Path dependence, 32–33
- Path dependency theory, 32–34
- Pedestrian-friendly streetscapes, 28–29
- Peoples Housing Process (PHP), 98
- Petty commodity production, 44

- Philosophical perspectives of housing
  - research, 41–46
  - evolution of housing policies, 46–50
  - institutional perspective, 45–46
  - neo-marxist perspectives, 42–43
  - neoclassical perspectives, 41–42
  - non-marxist perspectives, 43–44
  - social perspective and approaches, 44–45
- Physical determinism, 26–34
  - critique of new urbanism, 31–32
  - new urbanism, 28–30
  - path dependency theory, 32–34
  - relevance of compact cities in
    - developing countries, 30–31
  - Right to City Model, 26–28
- Physical environment, 37–38
  - attributes of, 63–64
- Planning, 59–60
- Policy context, changes in, 59–60
- Political economy
  - of mixed-income developments, 151–152
  - of place, 38
- Politics, 38
- Post-colonial governments, 47
- Poverty, 36, 58
  - adverse effects of concentrations of, 53–54
  - criticism of culture of poverty
    - concepts, 36
  - culture of poverty, 35–36
  - cycles of disadvantages and
    - concentrated poverty of urban poor, 34–36
  - urban underclass theory, 34–35
- Prevention of Illegal Eviction Act (1988) (PIE), 90
- Private custodianship, 54–55
- Private partnership, collaboration
  - between public and, 116–117
- Private sectors, 80
- Public housing authorities, 13
- Public Housing Programme
  - adverse effects of concentrations of poverty, 53–54
  - implications of, 52–54
- Public partnership, collaboration
  - between private and, 116–117
- Public–private partnership, 138
- Quality schools, 13
- Regional Spatial Development Framework (RSDF), 136
- Registered Social Landlords (RSLs), 57
- Reification of physical models, 32
- Rent Act, 81–82
- Research methods, 101–102
- Research strategy, application of case studies as, 133
- Residential mix, 64
- Right to the City Model, 26, 28, 144–145
- Seamless integration, 12–13
- Self-help, shift of human settlements
  - from subsidy housing to, 126–127
- Self-help housing, 47
  - origin of, 47–49
- Self-help Housing Agency (SHHA), 78
- Site-and-service schemes, 49
- Small, medium and micro enterprise (SMME), 180
- Smart cities, 180
- Social acceptance, 63
- Social amenities
  - and infrastructure, 138–139
  - and services, 142–143
- Social capital, 21–22, 37
- Social cohesion, 37
- Social control, 37–38
- Social Exclusion Unit, 58–59
- Social Housing Regulatory Authority (SHRA), 98
- Social integration, 76
- Social mix, 57, 62–63
  - attributes of physical environment and amenities, 63–64

- critique of, 65
- goals of, 63–64
- to increase opportunities, 64
- meaning of, 61–62
- policies, 63–64, 76
- raising living standard through emulation, 63
- social acceptance and well-being, 63
- Social network and avoiding negative behavior, improvement in, 15–16
- Social perspective and approaches of housing research, 44–45
- Social Services Support Centres, 179
- South Africa Human Settlement White Paper (1994), 146
- South Africa's human settlement drive, 180
- South Africa's vision for housing, 89
- South African housing goals in relation to sustainable development goals, 97
- South African housing policy and legislative framework
  - Breaking New Ground 2004, 92
  - City of Johannesburg Inclusionary Housing Policy, 96–97
  - Constitution of South Africa, Act 108 of 1996, 89–90
  - explanation of term adequate housing, 87
  - gaps identified in literature and contributions of study, 98–99
  - lessons learnt from review of literature, 97–98
  - National Development Plan of 2012, 93–94
  - National Housing Code of 2009, 92–93
  - National Housing Subsidy Programme, 89
  - national norms and Standard 1999, 91–92
  - navigating South African Housing Policy, 88
  - negotiating South African Housing Policy Pre-1994, 88
  - prevention of Illegal Eviction Act, 90
  - South Africa's Vision for Housing, 89
  - South African Housing Goals in Relation to SDGs, 97
  - South African Housing Policy of 1994, 88–99
  - Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, 94–96
  - The Housing Act, 90–91
  - South African human settlement environment, 5–6
  - Spatial determinism, 31–32
  - Spatial Development Frameworks (SDFs), 93–94
  - Spatial justice, 95
  - Spatial planning and Land Use Management Act 16 of 2013 (SPLUMA), 94–96
  - Spatial resilience, 95
  - Spatial segregation, 38–39
  - Spatial sustainability, 95
  - Structural Equation Model (SEM), 2, 152, 169
  - Subsidy housing to self-help, shift of human settlements from, 126–127
  - Survey, 166
    - method, 4–5
  - Sustainability
    - concept, 141
    - of project, 13–14
  - Sustainable Human Settlements Development, 97
  - Tenure land reform system, 77
  - Tenure reforms, 76–77
  - Theory and importance in housing research, 25–26
  - Theory testing, 4–5
  - Town planning approval, delays and long process in getting, 120

- Town Planning Approval and Policy (TPAP), 146, 148, 169, 173, 175
- Traditional neighbourhood design (TND), 54
- Traffic Impact Assessment (TIA), 173–175
- Transparent government, 167
- Triangulation, 134
- Tribal land allocation process, 78
- UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs report, 97
- UN Habitat Agenda (1996), 145
- UN publication Urban Society, 38–39
- UN-Habitat report (2013), 72
- Underclass, 34
- United Kingdom
  - changes in policy context, 59–60
  - growing economic segregation and concentrated deprivation, 58–59
  - mixed-income housing development as policy goal and policy, 60–61
  - mixed-income housing development in, 57–61
  - mixed-income housing development in Australia, 61–65
- United Nations, The, 145
- United Nations Department of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, 143
- United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE), 94–95
- United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT), 80–81
- United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 97, 126
- South African housing goals in relation to, 97
- United States
  - comparing mixed-income housing in Australia and, 64
  - concept, 54–55
  - criticisms, 55–56
  - HOPE VI Programme, 54
  - implications of Public Housing Programme, 52–54
  - mixed-income housing development in the, 52–57
  - problems and challenges associated with American housing policies, 56–57
- United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, 14
- United States Housing Act (1937), 14
- Upgrading Informal Settlements Programme (UIISP), 117
- Urban Dynamics Pty Ltd, 136
- Urban Institute, The, 56
- Urban Land Institute, 17–18
- Urban poor, cycles of disadvantages and concentrated poverty of, 34–36
- Urban underclass theory, 34–35
- Urbanism, 18–19
- Urbanization and settlements, 82–83
- Variables, composition and breakdown of, 141–142
- Ventilated improved pit (VIP), 92
- Wegner–Steagall Housing Act, 14
- Well-being, 63
- White Paper policy, The, 88
- World Bank, 49
  - enablement housing strategies, 49