

Part 3

Migrants and Economic Structures

This section examines the creative energies that migrants inject in the economic structures in both private sphere (in terms of entrepreneurship and social enterprise) and public spheres (in terms of contribution to organisational and occupational life).