

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Academic disciplines, 139
- Act
- of listening, 23
 - of re-telling, 36
 - of storytelling, 25–26
 - of telling, 23
- Active listening, 130
- Actors, 35
- ‘Acts of narrative’, 23
- Ageing, 28
- Agency of patient, 37
- Air quality in Kenyan context, 87–93
- American Society of Clinical Oncologists, 78
- Anonymisation, 132–134
- Anonymity, issue of, 131–134
- Appalachian Center for Translational Research in Health Care (ACTRID), 78
- Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC), 78
- Appreciation, An*, 75
- Authentic storytelling, 36
- Bloch, Ernst [German philosopher], 15
- Brainstorming process, 82
- Breaking Bad News, 82, 85, 86
- ‘Bureaucratic proceduralism’, 25
- Campbell’s model, 83
- Cancer, performing stories of, 65–76
- Cancer Stories Project, 79
- Carers as silent participants, 47
- Case studies
- co-creating digital stories, 60–65
 - creatively approaching online Digital Storytelling Workshops for MHL, 107–113
 - digital dialogues as mutual recovery, 45–60
 - Digital Storytelling in Swansea Bay Health Board, 102–107
 - Loneliness in Digital Age, 93–99
 - patience and titillation, 65–76
 - patient voices, 40–45
 - resulting, 39–40
 - stories to power
 - communication modules, 76–87
 - Storytelling for Health Conferences, Swansea, 99–102
 - Tupumue, 87–93
- Center for Disease Control (CDC), 78
- Charon, Rita, 17, 32
- model, 21–23
 - and Narrative Medicine, 17–24
- Circulation of stories, 25
- Co-creating digital stories, 60, 64–65
- context, 61–62
 - digital story creation process, 62–64
 - Melaneia Warwick, 60–61

- Co-production process, 34
 Cognitive functioning, 80
 Communication technique, 51
 Community of storytelling, 30
 ‘Company of Wolves, The’
 (Carter), 31
 COVID-19, 62–63, 107
 Creative intervention, 46
 Creative Practice as Mutual
 Recovery Project, 34, 45
 Creative writing, 39
 Creativity, 33, 51, 53–54
 CSP project, 86
- Dancers, 35
 Daydreaming, 15, 66
 Dead Dad Show, 56
 Deep listening, 130
 Democratic health service, 23
 Digital Dialogues as Mutual Recovery, 45
 Anne Basting, 50–55
 Michael Wilson, 45–50
 Oliver Double, 55–60
 Digital photography, 12
 Digital story, 103
 creation process, 62–64
 Digital Storytelling, 39, 127–128
 patient voices, 40–45
 in Swansea Bay Health Board, 102–107
 Digital technology, 46, 122
 Dignity agenda, 3
 Doctor–patient relationship,
 18–19, 33
 Doctors’ stories of vulnerability,
 48–50
 Documenting stories, 122
- East Tennessee State University*
 (ETSU), 76, 119
 Echo cardiogram (ECG), 9
 Effective storytelling, 36, 136
 Egalitarian health service, 23
 Empathy and Trust in Online Communication
 (EMoTICON), 93
 End-of-Life Care, 86
- Ethics in storytelling, 130–131
 ETSU Cancer Stories Project, 86
 ‘Evidence of experience’, 41
 Expert Patient Programme, 42–43
 Extensive postgraduate programme, 119
- Face-to-face workshops, 64
Fairy Tales and Therapy (Leith), 32
 Family, 86
 Federation for European Storytelling, 119
 Fine artists, 35
 Frank, Arthur, 24 and The Wounded Storyteller, 24–29
- Gender, 63
 George Ewart Evans Centre for Storytelling at University of South
 Wales, 119
 ‘Godfather Death’ (Grimms’ Fairy Tales), 141–146
Guardian, The, 58
- Healing Story Alliance, 119
 Health and well-being, 23
 Health contexts, 39
 Health education in Kenyan
 context, 87–93
 Health service practitioners, 4
 Healthy storytelling culture, 3
 Hero’s Journey, The (Campbell),
 31, 83
 HIPPA Act, 86
Homo fictus, 12
Homo narrans, 12
 Human activity storytelling, 12
 Human-to-human bond-making, 20
- Identity, 21
 Illness, 26
 as disruptive event, 27–28 narratives, 2
 and storytelling, 27
 Improvisational storytelling process, 50–51

- Improvisatory approach, 111
In Praise of Slow (Honoré), 127
 Information, 11, 14
 forms, 131–132
 multi-modal, 63
 Interdisciplinary team of researchers, 93–94
 Internet, 12

 Jargon, 15, 124–125

 Kenyan Medical Research Institute
 (KEMRI), 89
 Knowledge, 11
 Knowledge system, 4, 14–15,
 23–26, 67, 139
 storytelling exists as, 23–24

 Language, 123–127
 of storytelling, 12
 ‘Le Petit Chaperon Rouge’
 (Perrault), 31
 Listener, 21, 23, 35
 Listening, 120, 129–130
 act of, 23
 Living Through Treatment,
 79, 85, 86
 Loneliness in Digital Age (LiDA),
 93–99
 Long-term research enterprises, 86
 Loughborough Storytelling
 Academy, 108
 Lymphoma, 124

 Making art process, 35
 Medical and Health Humanities,
 32–33
 Medical education, 20
 Medical Humanities, 33
 MeHeLP project, 61–62
 Mental health literacy (MHL), 60
 Mental Health Stigma in Kerala, 60–65
 Modern age of medicine, 25
 Modification, 14
 Morden, Daniel, 101*n*1
 Moth, The, 12, 56, 119
 Multi-modal information, 63

 Musicians, 35
 Mutual process, 34
 Mutual recovery, 45–46
 Mutuality, 23, 34–36
 in sharing stories activity, 49

 Naming, 14
 Narrative and health, 17
 ‘Narrative competence’, 18
 Narrative Medicine, 2, 49, 79,
 80, 97
 Rita Charon and, 17–24
 ‘Narrative surrender’, 25
 ‘Narrative Turn’, 11–12
 ‘Narrative wreckage’, 26
 National Audit Office, 42
 National Health Service (NHS), 1
 National Storytelling Network, 118
 National Storytelling Week, 118
 Neo-liberal managerialism, 19
 NHS Ethics Approval processes, 131
 NHS Modernisation Agency,
 41–42

 Office of Rural Health
 Partnerships, 86
 Online Digital Storytelling Workshops for MHL, 107
 challenges and strategies, 110–112
 context, 108
 data collection approach, 108–110
 emerging methodological strategies, 112–113
 Melaneia Warwick, 107–108
 Opportunities of storytelling,
 122–139

 Paternalism, 33
 Patience, 65–76
 Patient Experience Team, 68
 Patients illness narratives, 21 stories of triumph, 47–48
 Performance, 39
 ‘Personal Turn’, 12

- Postmodern age of medicine, 25
 Power communication modules, stories to, 76–87
 Predictability, 28
 Prescription, story by, 29–32
 Preservation of authority, 135
 Professional actors, 136–137
 Professional storytellers, 11
 Professional storytelling, 11
Public Cervix Announcement
 (Sprinkle), 75

 Quality of service, 1
 Quest narrative, 32
 Questionnaires, 2

 R-25 instructional modules, 79–80
 Radical approach, 18, 22
 ‘Radical hope’, 28
 Real listening, 130
 Recognition, 37–38
 Recovery process, 45–46
 Restoration, 28
 Rita Charon and Narrative
 Medicine, 17–24

 ‘Scientific competence’, 18
 ‘Self-stories’, 26
 Service providers, 34
 Slow storytelling, 127–129
Smokescreens and Castles (Kane),
 56
 Social justice, 15
 Social media, 12
 Social processes, 23
 Society for Storytelling in UK, 118
 Spirituality, 86
 Statistics, 2
 Status, 134–138
 Story Health, 98
 ‘Story-time’, 126
 Story/stories, 10, 11, 14, 23, 129 circulation of, 25 development processes, 108 documenting, 122
 about health and not about health, 120–121
 to power communication modules, 76–87
 by prescription, 29–32, 34
 as reflection, 121
 story-listening, 81
 values in, 120
 Storyteller, 42–43, 129, 136–137
 Storyteller, The (Benjamin), 35
 Storytelling, 2–4, 5–6, 8–9, 10–11,
 19, 22, 26, 38, 39, 103,
 115–116, 128
 Arthur Frank and The Wounded Storyteller,
 24–29
 challenges and opportunities of,
 122–123
 engaging with, 115 ethics, 130–131
 in health, 115
 implementing, 115–120 issue of anonymity, 131–134
 language, 123–127
 listening, 129–130
 practice of, 32–36
 purpose of, 11–15, 81
 Rita Charon and Narrative
 Medicine, 17–24
 slow, 127–129
 status, 134–138
 story by prescription, 29–32
 transdisciplinarity, 138–139
 work package, 46 workshop, 46
 Storytelling Academy at Loughborough
 University, 64, 119, 138
Storytelling for Health, 3, 49, 106
 Strategic Leadership of Clinical Governance, 42
 Swansea Bay Health Board, Digital Storytelling in,
 102–107
 Swansea Digital Storytelling, 102

 Technology, 95–96, 127
 Teller roles in storytelling,
 21, 23, 35
 Telling story, 31, 126

- Timeslips approach, 51–53
Titillation, 65–76
Traditional stories, 118
Transdisciplinarity, 37, 138–139
‘True Life Storytelling’ clubs, 12, 56, 119
Tupumue project, 87
 challenges and strategies, 91–92
 context, 88–89
 data collection approach, 89–90
 emerging methodological strategies, 92–93 participating in, 87–88
‘Über-qualitative’ data, 42
UK Global Challenges Research Fund (GCRF), 60
UK Research Councils, 93
Unstructured interviews, 122
Urban Manchester, 5–6
Utopian element of storytelling, 66
Valuing stories, 120
Verbal language, 123
Vocabulary of storytelling, 12
Vulnerability, doctors’ stories of, 48–50
Well-being, health and, 23
Wendy’s Neverland, 52
WeVideo (online video editing software), 64, 109–110
WhatsApp, 65
Wounded Storyteller, The, 24–29
Writers, 35
Zoom (cloud-based video conferencing service), 64, 109, 111