

Index

- Academia, 70
- Access, 249
- Active agents, 216–217
- Ad hoc working group, 9
- ‘Adolescents’ sense of competence, 141
- “Age”, 161
- Anecdotes, 177–187
- “Annual pay”, 161
- Architecture and Urbanism course, 243–244
- Arya Samaj, 172
- Asymmetry, 19
- Attrition analysis, 265
- “Austerity” policies, 127
- Bachelor-level enrollment, gender imbalances in, 153
- Bangladesh, 213
  - data analysis procedures, 218–219
  - educational quality, 219–220
  - higher education and development in, 216–217
  - job market aspirations, 222–223
  - limited legal awareness, 221–222
  - methodological approach, 218
  - reflections on social norms and household dynamics, 220–221
  - research findings, 219
  - theoretical framework and research question, 213–214
  - trends in women’s education and empowerment in developing countries, 215–216
  - women’s college in Northern Bangladesh, 218–227
- Bangladesh National University, 218
- “Bonus”, 161
- “Bottom-up” agitation, 216–217
- Brahmanas*, 171
- Brahmo Samaj, 172
- Brazilian Association of Education (ABE), 232–233
- Brazilian educational system, 232
- Brazilian Higher Education
  - arriving at UFSC and observing dynamics of women, 237–240
  - dynamics of women per shift at UFSC, 239
  - female audience in sought-after courses at UFSC, 239–240
  - presence of women in most popular courses at UFSC, 240–247
  - profile of ingressants in, 234–237
  - UFSC enrollment by sex, 238
- “CAMES agrégation” in Anatomy and Neurosurgery, 142
- Canadian higher education, 273–274
  - ‘feminization of education, backlash, and boys’ underachievement, 274–276
  - fields of study by gender, 277–280
  - postsecondary educated women in labor force, 282–285
  - racialized women and socioeconomic disparities, 280–282
- Career days, 143
- CEPALSTAT, 252–253
- “Charter of Principles for Equality in Higher Education”, 25
- Chi-Square test, 261
- Child malnutrition, 173
- Child-friendly solutions, 106
- Chipko movement, 172
- Church’s monopoly on education, 231

- Civil Engineering course, 244–247
- Collaboration, 89
- Colombian Higher Education
  - attrition analysis, 265
  - categories, indicators, and databases, 251–252
  - characterization, 253–255
  - characterization of gender participation in, 256–261
- Colombian public policy, 266–269
  - after graduation, 265–266
  - method, 249–269
  - participation of Colombian women in higher education, 255–256
  - statistical association analysis, 261–265
- Colombian Society of Mathematics, 269
- Comitati Unici di Garanzia (CUG), 81–82
- Commission of Sati (Prevention) Act (1987), 174
- Complementary needs theory, 225
- Conservative Government's higher education policy, 98
- Côte d'Ivoire, 135
  - causes of girls' low representation in STEM, 137–141
  - economic factors, 139–140
  - factors related to education system, 139
  - Ivorian female scientists of reference, 141–143
  - proposals for boosting girls' motivation for science and technology education, 143–144
  - psychological factors, 140–141
  - sociocultural factors, 137–138
  - university situation of girls in, 136–137
- Coverage, 249
- Cramer's V test, 261
- Cultural
  - revolution in Iran, 193, 195–196, 203
  - stereotypes, 141
- Curricula, 90
- “Dalla parte delle bambine” (Belotti), 80
- Daneshgah-e-Azad-e-Eslami* (Free Islamic University), 196
- Decennial Education Plan, 268
- Democratization, 18–19
  - of education, 20
- Differentiated socialization, 39–40
- Diotima: Il pensiero della differenza sessuale* (Muraro), 82
- Discourses, 177–187
- Discrimination, 148
- “DIVA project” initiative, 90
- Doctoral-level enrollment, gender imbalances in, 154–155
- Domestic work, gendered division of, 45–47
- Double power, 27
- Dowry Prohibition Act (1961), 174
- Dual Approach, 67
- Economic and European Community (EEC), 21–22
- Economic Crisis on Equality Policies at Spanish university, 126–127
- Economic independence of women, 27
- Education for All (EFA), 217
- “Education of Muslim children”, 65
- Education(al). See also Higher education (HE)
  - in Africa, 139
  - gender, 42
  - in modern economy, 215
  - segregation of gender, 75
  - of women, 231

- Employment characteristics of graduate women, 106–109
 employment, unemployment,
 inactivity rate, 106–107
 graduate wage benefit and individual rate of return on higher education, 107–109
- Empowering women, 76
- Empowerment, 213–214
- Engineering schools, 35
- “Enthusiasm for education” period,
 232–233
- EPEAEK II, 67–69
- Equal Remuneration Act (1976), 174
- Equal Treatment and Promotion of Equal Opportunities Act, 94
- EQUAPOL European research program, 68
- Equity, 249
- ERA Roadmap, 124–125
- Estado Novo*, 17–18, 26
- European Commission, 122
- European Research Area (ERA), 70, 122–123
- European Social Fund, 67
- Family
 academic tradition, 41–42
 socialization, 40–42
- “Fecundity management”, 76
- Federal Institutes and Federal Centers of Technological Education
 (CEFETs), 234
- Federal University of Santa Catarina
 (UFSC), 233, 237–238
 dynamics of women per shift at, 239
 enrollment by sex, 238 female audience in sought-after courses at, 239–240
 presence of women in most popular courses at, 240–247
- Female
 audience in sought-after courses at UFSC, 239–240
- courses, 236 insertion in labor market, 26–28 presence in higher education in Portugal, 20–25
 protagonism, 20
 ratio, 96–98
 socialization process, 18
- Female Stipend Program (FSP), 217
- Feminine, 18
- Feminine Mystique, The* (Friedan), 81
- Feminism, 93–94
- Feminization
 of Canadian higher education, 274–276
 of Greek higher education, 57–59 of higher education, 193, 196–198 of higher education in France, 33 of Italian culture, 78–79
- Femmes Ingénieurs* association, 39
- Flanders, 1
 current situation in, 2–3 gender inequalities in higher education in, 1–2
 gender segregation, 6
 policies and initiatives in, 4–8
- Flemish Education Council, 4–5, 7
- Flemish Government, 4–5
- Flemish interuniversity council, 4–6
- Focused group discussion in humanities, 182–184
 in management, 185–187
 in sciences, 184–185
- “Founding Mothers”, 79
- France
 feminization of higher education in, 33 higher education in, 33–34
- French higher education, 33–34 evolution of proportions of women
 in, 38
 family socialization, 40–42 gendered disparities, 39–40 gendered division of labor market and domestic work, 45–47

- lack of significant impact on part of official texts, 39
  - orientation process, 44–45
  - place of mathematics, 43–44
  - progress and inequalities, 35–39
  - socialization at school, 42–43
  - students enrolled in different sectors, 37
  - women's long road to majorityhood, 34–35
- Gender Equality Index, 84, 95
- Gender Equality Society Basic Law, 155–156
- Gender Gap Index, 95
- Gender imbalances, 4–6, 9, 153–157
  - in bachelor-level enrollment, 153
  - in doctoral-level enrollment, 154–155
  - efforts to reducing imbalances, 155–157
  - in master's-level enrollment, 153–154
  - in professional schools, 155
- Gender inequality, 19
  - in education, 21–22
  - gender segregation in Italian Academia, 79–82
  - in higher education in Flanders, 1–2
  - international data, 82–85
  - in Italy, 75–85
  - national landscape, 78–79
- Gender Parity Index (GPI), 175, 257
- GENDER-NET Plus, 125
- Gender(ed)
  - action plan, 5–6
  - balance, 3, 8
  - differences, 82
  - disparities, 39–40
  - division of labor market and domestic work, 45–47
  - education policies, 69–70
  - equality, 19–20, 75–76, 90, 147–148
  - female insertion in labor market, 26–28
  - female presence in higher education in Portugal, 20–25
  - gaps in higher education, 1
  - in India, 175–176
  - mainstreaming, 66–67
  - monitor, 6–7
  - policies genesis in Spain, 118–121
  - segregation in Italian Academia, 79–82
  - socialization, 39–40
  - stereotypes, 44–45
  - trends in Italian HE, 85–87
- GENERATION, 126
- General Secretariat for Gender Equality (GSGE), 63–64
- General skills, 165–166
- Glass ceilings, 28, 77, 103–104, 122–123, 128–129
  - syndrome, 25
- Global feminism, 201–202
- Global Gender Gap Index for Japan, 148
- Global Gender Gap Report, 89
- Graduate
  - students, 151–153
  - wage benefit and individual rate of return on higher education, 107–109
- Graduation, 249
- "Grandes Ecoles", 36–38
- Greek higher education
  - disparities by gender and fields of study, 59–60
  - feminization of, 57–59
  - labor market structure and disparities in access and persistence, 60–62
  - public policies of gender balance, 66–70
  - state of work knowledge, 62–66
- Gross Enrollment Ratio (GER), 96, 176

- Group of 7 (G7), 280–281
Guidance, 90
- Harare Declaration, 135
Headcount, 96–97
Hellenic Statistical Authority (ELSTAT), 58
Higher Council of Education, 194
Higher education (HE), 75, 85, 200 currents status of women in education prior to, 174–175 development in Bangladesh, 216–217 distribution of women by field of study in, 98–100 factors influencing women's access to, 177–187
    feminization of, 196–198
    in France, 33–34
    graduate wage benefit and individual rate of return on, 107–109 and job market, 198–200 narratives by women dropped out of, 178–182 narratives by women pursuing, 182–187 policies, 81–82
    public policies to promoting gender balance in, 104–106 system in Flanders, 2
    women in, 101–104
    women in India, 176–177
    women's motivations and demand for, 200–202
Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), 234, 250 policies of, 8–13
Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC), 225
Hindu property laws, 221–222
Hindu Succession Act (1956), 174
Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation Program, 124
Horizontal segregation, 76–77, 88
Household dynamics, 223
Human capital, 215
Human Development Index (HDI), 213–214
Human Research Ethics Committee, 218
Humanities, focused group discussion in, 182–184
Hungarian
    critical points in scientific and social debate, 109–111 distribution of women by field of study in higher education, 98–100 employment characteristics of graduate women, 106–109 general tendencies of Hungarian HE and proportion of women, 96–98 higher education admissions system, 98–99 perception surveys, 94–95 proportion of women in higher education and completion rate, 101–102 public policies to promoting gender balance in higher education, 104–106 status consistency, 103–104 women in higher education and labor market, 101–104 women's politics, 93–96
Hungarian Gender Gap Index, 95
Iberian cultural tradition, 231
Illusion of equality, 77
Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act (1956), 174
Imposed segregation, 75
Inactivity rate, 106–107
Inclusive excellence, 126–127

- Income disparity, 157–159
- India
- currents status of women in
    - education prior to higher education in, 174–175
  - factors influencing women's access to higher education, 177–187
  - gender and job market in, 175–176
  - historical chronicle of status of women in, 171–172
  - legislative provisions for protection of women's rights and security in, 174
  - status of political participation of women in India during contemporary times, 173–174
  - status of women in India during contemporary times, 172–175
  - women in higher education in, 176–177
- Indian National Army, 172
- Indicators of Education Systems (INES), 253
- Inequality, 19
- Infant mortality rate (IMR), 173
- Information System on Science, Technology, and Innovation, 119
- Instrumental empowerment, 214
- International Standard Classification of Education (ISCED), 149–151
- Intrinsic empowerment, 214
- Invisible bonds, 77
- Iran
- cultural revolution in, 193
  - feminization of higher education, 196–198
  - higher education and job market, 198–200
  - problematizing Islamization, 202–206
  - women's motivations and demand for higher education, 200–202
- Iranian Higher Education, women in, 194–196
- Islamic educational revolution, 195–196
- “Islamic packaging” of education, 204
- Islamic Republic, 200
- gender ideology, 207
- Islamization, 193
- in Malakzadeh's conception, 205
  - problematizing, 202–206
- Italy, 75
- collaboration, 89
  - critical points and perspectives, 89–90
  - curricula and guidance, 90
  - gender (in)equality, 75–85
  - gender trends in Italian HE, 85–87
  - parents and teachers, 90
  - stereotypes, 89–90
  - study paths and world of work, 87–89
- Japan Science Technology Agency (JST), 157
- Japanese Higher Education
- characteristics in labor market, 157–164
  - gender imbalances, 153–157
  - solution in higher education, 164–167
  - women in, 149–153
- Job market. See also Labor market, 198–200, 223
- aspirations, 222–223
  - in India, 175–176

- Kinder, Kuche, Kirche (KKK), 26
 KU Leuven, 8–13
- “La donna contro sè stessa”
 (Ravaglioli), 80
- La Ilustración de la Mujer (The Enlightenment of Women)*, 115–116
- Labor, 216
- Labor market. See also Job market, 5 characteristics in, 157–164 female insertion in, 26–28
 gendered division of, 45–47
 women in, 101–104
- Labour Market Observatory (OLE),
 250
- Land, 216
- Law and legal frameworks, 223
- Law on Guidelines and Bases (LDB), 233
- Le Deuxième Sexe* (de Beauvoir), 81
- Leaky pipeline, 3, 25
- Learning at school or university, 47
- Legislative provisions for protection of women’s rights and security
 in India, 174
- Liberal arts, 98
- Lisbon strategy, 7
- LOIEMH, 118
- Long First Degree (LFD), 256
- Longer tenure with high salary, 160–161
- Management, focused group discussion
 in, 185–187
- Masculinization of school dropout, 20
- Master’s-level enrollment, gender imbalances in, 153–154
- Maternity Benefit Act (1961), 174
- Mathematical and Technological Structures Sciences (SSMT),
 136–137
- Mathematics, place of, 43–44
- Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act (1971), 174
- Medicine and Day Law course,
 242–243
- Mediocrity, 185–186
- Mehrieh* tradition, 201–202
- Middle-and upper-class girls, 46
- Millennium Development Goals-8
 (MDGS-8), 216
- Ministry of Education, 67
- Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports,
 Science and Technology
 (MEXT), 149–151, 156–157
- Ministry of Science, Technology and Higher Education, 23
- Mocidade Portuguesa*, 17, 18
- Mocidade Portuguesa Feminina*, 17
- Modification of the Organic Law of Universities (LOMLOU),
 120
- “Monthly pay”, 161
- Muslim Minority of Western Thrace, 65
- Muslim property laws, 221–222
- Napoleonic model, 116–117
- Narratives, 177–187
 by women dropped out of higher education, 178–182
 by women pursuing higher
 education, 182–187
- National Agronomic Institute in Paris, 35
- National Development Plan, 268
- National Plan for the Development of the Education/Training
 Sector, 136–137
- National Program for Gender
 Equality, 69
- National System of Higher Education
 Information (SNIES),
 249–250
- Natural sciences, technology, and engineering, 24

- Neo-liberal
  - approach, 215
  - policy turn, 201–202
- Network of Gender Units of Spanish Universities for University Excellence (RUIGEU), 128
- New Public Management at Spanish university, 126–127
- Night Law course, 244–247
- Nonresident Indian (NRI), 180

- Observable factors, 148
- Occupation analysis, 160–164
  - longer tenure with high salary, 160–161
  - shorter tenure with high salary, 161–164
- Ontario Medical Association (OMA), 284–285
- Ontario Ministry of Education, 275–276
- Organic Law of Secondary Education (LOGSE), 117
- Organic University Law (LOU), 118
- Orientation process, 44–45

- Pact Populist school system, 233
- Parental income, 282
- Parents, 90
  - academic ambitions, 41
  - professions, 41–42
- Passive recipients, 216–217
- Patriarchal family model, 231
- Pedagogical factors, 139
- Pink quotas, 78
- Portugal
  - economic development, 18
  - female presence in higher education in, 20–25
- Portuguese Constitution (1976), 18–19
- Portuguese educational system, 21
- Portuguese financial crisis, 28
- Postgender studies, 82

- Postsecondary educated women in labor force, 282–285
- Prarthana Samaj, 172
- Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (Regulation and Prevention of Misuse) Act (1994), 174
- Private higher education network, 22
- Privatization process. See also
  - Feminization, 22
- Professional schools, gender imbalances in, 155
- Program for International Student Assessment (PISA), 21
- Prohibition of Child Marriage Act (2006), 174
- Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act (2005), 174
- Pseudonyms, 219
- PSOE government, 127
- Psychology of Sex Differences, The* (Maccoby), 81
- Public policies
  - of gender balance, 66–70
  - to promoting gender balance in higher education, 104–106
- Public Research Organizations, 120

- Quality of education, 223
- Quantitative approach, 233–234
- Quit India Movement, 172

- Rani Jhansi Regiment, 172
- Ready-made garments (RMG), 216–217
- Recruitment trends, 97–98
- Research and innovation (R&I), 124–125
- Restart Postdoctoral Fellowship program (RPD program), 157
- Retention, 249
- Rita Lobato Velho Lopes case, 232
- “Rocco law”, 79

- Royal Decree, 115
 Rural development projects, 140
 Rural societies, 179
- “Salon de l’Enseignement Supérieur de Côte d’Ivoire” (SES-CI), 143
- “Sati” tradition, 171
- Satyagraha Movement, 172
- School dropout, 21
- School environment, 139
- School of Medicine, 194
- School of Political Sciences, 194
- Science, technology, engineering, mathematics (STEM), 2–3, 24–25, 76–77, 136, 273–274, 277
- causes of girls’ low representation in, 137–141
  - problem, 4–5
  - STEM Monitor, 2–3, 7
- Science Education of Women in Canada: A statement of concern, The*, 277
- Sciences, focused group discussion in, 184–185
- Scientific research system, 25
- Secondary education, 20, 232
- Secretary of State for Universities, Research, Development, and Innovation (SEUIDI), 125–126
- Segregation, 6
- “Self-censorship”, 43–44
- Self-segregation, 75, 77
- “Ser Pilo Paga” program, 253–254
- Sexual equality, 82
- Sexual Harassment of Women at Work-place (Prevention and Protection) Act (2013), 174
- She Figures Report, 88
- Shorter tenure with high salary, 161–164
- Smart economics, 215
- Smritis*, 171
- Social Cognitive Career Theory, 9–10
- Social sciences, 98
- Social stratification, 231
- Socialization at school, 42–43
- Society of Jesus, 231
- Socio-cultural norms, 223
- Soft sciences, 129
- Spain
- genesis of gender policies in, 118–121
  - Spanish Case in European Research Area Post-2020, 124–126
  - women’s access to universities in, 115–118
- Spanish Constitution (1978), 117
- Spanish Science and Technology Strategy, 119
- Spanish university, 117
- current data on presence of women at, 121–122
  - in European framework for equality policies, 122–124
  - New Public Management and Economic Crisis on Equality Policies at, 126–127
- Specialization, 260
- State Innovation Strategy, 120
- State Plan for Scientific and Technical Research, 119
- Statistical
- association analysis, 261–265
  - discrimination, 148
- Statistical Center of Iran (SCI), 199
- Stereotype(s), 89–90
- threat, 44–45
- Strategic emancipation, 224–225
- Strategic male engagement, 213
- SUPERA Project, 125
- Sustainable Development Goals-17 (SDGs-17), 216
- Sutras*, 171
- Swayamwar*, 171

- System for Prevention and Analysis of Dropout in Colombia (SPADIES), 250
- Taste discrimination, 166–167
- Teachers, 90
- Teaching strategies, 77
- Technical education, 254
- Technological education, 254
- Technological Educational Institutes (TEIs), 58
- Technological graduates, 254
- “Tenure”, 161
- “Top-down” distribution approach, 216–217
- Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX60), 284–285
- Traffic in Women, The* (Rubin), 81
- Training, 225–227
- Treatment, 225–227
- Trust, 224–227
- Turnover, 159–160
- “U-shape” effect, 216–217
- Undergraduate students, 149–151
- Unemployment, 28
rate, 106–107
- United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF), 235
- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), 135, 235 Institute of Statistics, 250–252
- University of Tehran, 194
- University Reform Law (1983), 117
- Unobservable factors, 148
- Upanishads*, 171
- Varna system, 171
- Vedas*, 171
- Vertical segregation, 77, 128–129
- Violence against women (VAW), 221–222
- Vlaamse Hogescholenraad* (VLHORA), 4
- Vlaamse Interuniversitaire Raad* (VLIR), 4
- Vlaamse Onderwijsraad* (VLOR), 4
- “Week for the Promotion of Research and Innovation” (SEPRI), 143
- “Weekly work hours”, 161
- Women
access to universities in Spain, 115–118 agency, 213–214
attraction to chemistry, 35 college in Northern Bangladesh, 218–227 education in higher education, 58 emancipation, 224
in higher education and labor market, 101–104 in higher education in India, 176–177 in Iranian Higher Education, 194–196 in Japanese Higher Education, 149–153 long road to majorityhood, 34–35 motivations and demand for higher education, 200–202 organizations, 66–67
- “Women, Science, and Innovation Observatory” (OMCI), 120–121
- Women and Science Unit (UMyC), 123–124
- Working-class girls, 46
- Work–life balance, 186–187