

Index

- Accountability, 3, 59–61, 322, 334–335, 410, 412–419, 437, 475
 - bureaucratic politics in Mexico, 194–198
 - Chile's institutions of, 103–108
 - in Colombia, 127–132
 - congressional oversight, 103–104
 - control bodies, 104–105
 - in Costa Rica, 162–170
 - financial and economic, 128–129
 - formal instruments, 128–130
 - horizontal, 103–105, 162–169
 - informal instruments, 130–132
 - media, 130–131
 - in Paraguay, 220–221
 - performance, 129–130
 - political, 128
 - public, 131–132
 - Uribe effect, 132
 - in Uruguay, 247–249
 - vertical, 105–107, 169–170
- Accounting Tribunal (TCR), 230–231, 233
- Acto Legislativo* 02 of 2004, 118
- Administrative bureaucracy, 37
- Administrative decentralization, 471–472
- Administrative Department of Public Service, 120
- “Administrative modernization”, 11
- Administrative reforms, 13–14, 298–299
 - processes characteristics, 15–16
- Administrative Statute, 89–90
- Administrative style, 299
- Administrative Tribunal (TCA), 230–231, 233
- “Agencification”, 14, 135–136
- Agriculturally based economies, 312
- Agrupación Nacional de Empleados Fiscales* (ANEF), 102
- Alianza Democrática M-19 (AD M-19), 115
- American Congresses, 294–298
- American legislators, 297
- Andean Counterdrug Initiative (ACI), 134
- Antipoverty programs, governance in, 389–394
- Apps, 366–369
- Argentina, 23–27
 - Argentine state and successive reform processes, 39–41
 - bureaucracy, 35–38
 - characteristics of public employment, 28–35
 - characteristics of selected structures, 49–50
 - civil and no civil personnel by hierarchies, 47–48
 - congress, 25–26
 - federalism, 24
 - national public policy, 27
 - party system, 26–27
 - political parties, 35–37
 - politics of Argentine bureaucracy, 37–38
 - PPM in, 278–280
 - presidential rule, 25
 - selected organs according to type of link, 51
 - structure of government and political institutions, 24–27
- Argentina-Compra*, 358
- Argentina. gob. ar.*, 358, 361–362
- Argentine national bureaucracy, 24

- Aristocratic culture, 306
- Articulation in Semi-arid (ASA), 388–389
- Assembly's technical capacity, 303
- Auditoría Superior de la Federación
(ASF), 195
- Autonomous institutions, 151
- Bilaterals, 332
- Black Box, 397–399
- Bolsa Familia*, 74
- Brazil
- Brazilian Civil Service, 61–67
 - organizational structure, 55–57
 - political institutions, 57–61
 - political stability, 298–299
 - political system and administrative structures as institutional environments, 55–61
 - politics of public administration
in democratic Brazil,
68–76
 - PPM in, 269–272
 - public administration in, 55
- Brazilian “coalition presidentialism”, 271
- Brazilian bureaucratic building process, 299
- Brazilian Civil Service, 55, 61–67
 - social security policy changes in public sector, 67
 - weight of political appointees,
63–67
- Brazilian Pluriannual Plan, 464
- Brazilian public administration, 53
- Broadband diffusion, 347–349
- Budget
 - budget-oriented systems, 447–450
 - units, 323
- Budgetary resources, 321
- Bureaucracy, 279–280
- Bureaucratic Functional Capacity
Index (BCI), 127
- Bureaucratic Merit Index, 127
- Bureaucratic/bureaucracy politics,
99–103
 - of accountability, 194–198
 - in Colombia, 124–127
 - in Costa Rica, 160–161
 - in Latin America, 290
 - in Mexico, 190–194
 - in Paraguay, 216–220
 - in Uruguay, 245–246
- Bureaucratic–Weberian
administrations, 13–14
- Business Management System, 88–89
- Cardoso governments, 70–73
- Career bureaucrats, 335
- Career-based model. See Traditional civil service (TCS)
- Casa Civil*, 330
- Caudillismo*, 311
- “Caudillos”, 10
- Center of Government (CoG), 5, 320
 - and coordination, 473–474
 - functional and structural approaches, 320–321
 - increasing relevance, 324–326
 - institutional structure, 322–324
 - in Latin America, 326–336
 - political and technical functions,
321–322
 - political economy of strengthening,
335–336
- Centro Latinoamericano de Administración para el Desarrollo
(CLAD), 13–14, 72–73
- Centro para la Promoción de las Exportaciones e Inversiones
(CENPRO), 171–172
- Chile
 - accountability, 103–108
 - bureaucratic politics, 99–103
 - characteristics of Chilean public sector, 83–89
 - political stability, 298–299
 - PPM in, 267–269

- public sector personnel, 89–99
- reform and change, 108–112
- Chile Compra*, 111, 359
- Chilean public sector characteristics
 - executive, 83
 - government institutions, 83–89
 - judiciary, 84–85
 - legislature, 84
 - public administration, 86–89
 - subnational government, 85–86
- Chilean state, 81–82
- Christian Democratic Party (PDC), 82
- Citizen participation, 107
 - forums, 161
- Civil career system, 182–186
 - in Mexico, 182–186
- Civil servants, 158–160
- Civil service
 - laws, 89–93
 - systems in Latin America, 2
- Civil Service Development Index (CSDI), 265, 301
- Client-focused service, 252
- Clientelistic parties, 308–310, 312
- Closed model. See Career-based model
- Code drafting process, 421
- Collective bargaining, 275
- Colombia, 116
 - accountability, 127–132
 - agencification, formalization, peace, 135–136
 - basic structural features, 117–121
 - bureaucracy politics in, 124–127
 - economic performance, 116
 - executive branch, 117–118
 - fiscal adjustment, 133–134
 - government institutions, 117–120
 - judicial branch, 119
 - legislative branch, 118–119
 - links with civil society, 126
 - links with political parties, 125
 - local government, 120
 - other government institutions, 120
 - politics of bureaucracy, 124–127
 - presidency in “check”, 133
 - public administration, 120–121
 - public personnel, 121–124
 - reform and change, 132–138
 - state modernization, 133
 - transversal reforms with a fiscal focus, 134–135
- Colombian public administration, 115
- Colorado* party, 204, 232
- Comisión Nacional del Servicio Civil (CNSC)*, 121, 274–275
- Commission for Protection of Rights of People, 104
- Committee system, 296
- Communications, 322, 334–335
 - units, 323
- Community Aqueducts. See Community Organizations for Water and Sewerage Services (OCSAS)
- Community management of water, 388–389
- Community Organizations for Water and Sewerage Services (OCSAS), 388
- Competitive hiring processes, 92
- Comprehensive analysis, 1
- Concentric circles, 323
- Concertación* coalition, 82, 86–88, 99
- ‘Conditional Cash Transfers’ Programs (CCTP), 134
- Conditioned Transfer Programs (PTCs), 389, 394
- Congress, 25–26
- Congress capacity index, 301, 303
- Consejo de la Alta Dirección Pública*, 268
- Consejo Nacional de Producción (CNP). See National Council for Production
- Constitution (1988), 54–57, 59, 69
- Constitutional Court, 104–105
- Consultative Committee, 93
- Consultative Council, 276–277

- “Continental European model”, 232
 Contract employees, 90
 Contraction–retraction dynamics, 40
 “Contrata”, 267
 “Contratado a honorario”, 267
 Coordinating Committee of Deputy Ministers (CCV), 329–330
 Coping with turbulence, 474
 Core state careers, 71
 Corruption, 127, 409, 429–430, 475 reduction, 409
 Costa Rica, 4 bureaucracy and political parties, 160
 bureaucracy politics in, 160–161
 PPM in, 272–273
 relation with civil society, 160–161
 Costa Rican Electricity Institute (ICE), 153
 Costa Rican public administration, 147
 accountability, 162–170
 Costa Rican public institutions characteristics, 148–156 government system, 148–151 philosophy and culture of governance, 155–156
 politics of bureaucracy, 160–161
 public administration, 151–154
 public personnel system, 157–160
 reform and change, 170–174
 Council for Internal Government
 Audits, 104
 Credible commitment, 477–478
 Crowdsourcing, 363
 “Cuoteo”, 269

 Decentering governing, 477
 Decentralization, 136–137, 471–472, 477
 Decentralized administration, 27
 Defense of Free Competition Court, 85
 Delegative democracy, 292
 Democracy, 25

 ‘Democratic accountability in context of PPME systems’
 trends and challenges,
 459–464
 emphasis on evaluation, 461–462
 new developments and trends, 460–462
 opening spaces to negotiating with sector-specific authorities, 461 political orientation integrating budget considerations,
 460–461
 PPME systems to citizens and parliaments, 462
 recurrent and new challenges,
 462–464
 Democratic backsliding, 474
 Democratic opening, 180
 Democratic political theory, 17
 Democratic Security Program (PDS),
 134
 Democratic stability, 231
 Democratization, 35
Departamento Administrativo de la Función Pública (DAFP).
 See Administrative
 Department of Public Service
 Depoliticization, 470–471
 Differentiated Procurement Regime
 (RDC), 76
 Digital agenda, 475
 Digital governance, 475
 in LA, 5–6
 Digital government (DG), 344
 AgendaSetting and policy design from regional perspective,
 350–353
 comparative data and participation
 performance, 353–357
 comparative overview in Latin
 America, 349–357
 E-government to, 137–138

- Digital Public Administration. See also Latin American public administration
 comparative overview of digital government in Latin America, 349–357
 e-government implementation in Latin American Countries,
 357–369
 LatAm countries and information society, 345–349
 National Agendas, 357–360
 Digital social media, 364
 Digitalization, 359
 DIPRES, 446
Dirección General de Servicio Civil (Civil Service General Directorate), 272–273
 Direction and Advisory Positions
 (DAS), 63, 271
- E-consultation, 355
 E-decision-making, 355
 E-government to digital government,
 137–138
 E-information, 355
 E-Participation, 355–357
 Economic
 accountability, 128–129
 boom, 4
 decentralization, 136–137
 liberalization, 180
 variables, 12–13
 Educational funding, 74
 eLAC, 351
 Electoral Court, 85
 Electronic Government
 (E-Government). See also
 Digital government (DG),
 344, 350
 implementation in Latin American Countries, 357–369
 in LatAm countries, 345
- Electronic Public Service Delivery
 Portals, 360–362
 Employment, 267
 Employment Contracts Act, 29
 Enactment coalition, 191
 Ethics Committees, 421
 Ethics training, 421
 “European continental model”, 10–11
 European debates on governance,
 376–384
 Evidence-based policy, 252
 Executive Branch Commissioned Positions (FCPE), 65
 Executive’s role in institutions,
 291–294
 searching for external coercion,
 294
 Explicitly mixed systems, 452–453
 Export expansion prosperity, 309–310
 Export-based prosperity, 308–309
 External coercion, searching for, 294
- “Fast Track” system, 275
 Federal Transparency Act on Access to Information. See Ley
Federal de Transparencia
de Acceso a la Información
 (LFTAIPG)
 Federalism, 24
 Financial accountability, 128–129
 “First-Generation Reforms”, 170
 Fiscal Adjustment, 133–134
 Fiscal relations, 471
 Fiscal Responsibility Law, 63
 Fondo Nacional de Desarrollo
 Regional (FNDR), 86–88
 Formalism, 2
 Formalization, 135–136
 Framework Law Regulating National
 Public Employment, 29
 Functional capacity index, 301
- Game theory, 295

- General System of Participations (GSP), 136–137
- Global Initiative for Fiscal Transparency (GIFT), 416
- Gobernaciones*, 90
- Gobierno en Línea* (GEL), 359–360
- Good governance, 376, 407–408
- FOIA in Latin America, 413–415
- in LAC, 408
- Press Freedom in Latin America and Caribbean, 416
- theoretical framework, 408–411
- Governance, 375
- in antipoverty programs, 389–394
- Black Box, 397–399
- conceptualizations on interactive governance and meta-governance, 384–385
- European debates on, 376–384
- ideal type, 378–380
- impacts, differences, and institutional legacies, 394–395
- in Latin America, 376, 385–394
- model of welfare state, 383
- principal conflicts, 381–382
- reflections on state reform, 395–397
- theory, 409–410
- “Governance without government”, 377
- Government effectiveness, 36–37
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 355
- “Habsburg model” of royal government, 305
- Heterogeneity of NGOs, 393
- “Honorary” contract employees, 90
- Horizontal accountability. See also Vertical accountability, 103–105
- congressional oversight, 103–104
- control bodies, 104–105
- Human Resource and Professional Service Unit, 185
- Human Resources Management System, 158
- Human Rights National Commission (CNDH), 190–191
- Hyper-presidential setting, 292
- Ibero-American Charter for Electronic Government (ICEG), 350
- Ibero-American Interoperability Framework, 351
- IDB. See Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)
- Impacts, 423–428
- Imperfect neo-Weberianism, 275
- Income and services transfers, 390–391
- Incorporation, 306–307
- Indirect administration, 56
- Industrial organization of US Congress, 296
- Informal sources of accountability, 107–108
- Information and Claims Office (OIRS), 111
- Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs), 344
- Information System for Financial Management (SIGFE), 111
- Innovation Labs, 366–369
- Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), 275–276
- Institutional strengthening, 13
- Institutionalization of PPME systems in region, 453–454
- Institutionalized favoritism, 306–307
- Institutions, 291–298
- American vs. Latin American Congresses, 294–298
- executive’s role, 291–294
- Instituto Nacional de Aprendizaje* (National Apprenticeship Institute), 272

- Integrated poverty–reduction programs, 390–391
- Integrated State, 263–264
- Integrated System of Financial Information (SIIF), 129
- Integrity, 419–423
- “Intelligent public governance”, 17
- Intelligent state, 477
- Intendencias*, 90
- Intendentes*, 83, 85–86
- Inter-American Development Bank (IADB), 127, 300, 350, 385
- Inter-institutional Network for Transparency, 168
- Inter-temporal constitutional convention, 295–296
- Interactive governance, conceptualizations on, 384–385
- Interministerial Coordination Division (DCI), 329
- Internal Control units, 130
- International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), 387
- International Conference on National Evaluation Capacities (NEC), 439
- International cooperation, 469
- International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI), 419
- Interoperability, 345, 351 initiatives, 362–363
- Inversión Sectorial de Asignación Regional (ISAR), 86–88
- Judiciary as policymaker, 58–59
- Judiciary Investigation Organism, 150
- Justicialist Party (PJ), 26–27
- Labor Contract Law, 29, 33
- Labor Populism, 312
- Labor-intensive agriculture, 311
- Latin America
 - bureaucracy and politics in, 289–290
 - bureaucracy politics in, 290
 - civil service systems in, 2
 - CoG in, 326–336
 - comparative historical analysis, 307–312
 - cultural explanation, 305–307
 - effects on bureaucratic performance, 300–305
 - experienced economic growth, 1
 - FOIA in, 413–415
 - governance in, 376, 385–394
 - institutions, 291–298
 - political stability, 298–299
 - PPM in, 265–280
 - public administration in, 2, 6
- Latin America and Caribbean (LAC), 407–408
 - good governance in, 408
 - Press Freedom in, 416
- Latin American Center for Developing Administration (CLAD), 350
- Latin American Congresses, 294–298
- Latin American countries (LatAm countries), 344
 - E-Government in, 345, 357–369
 - and information society, 345–349
- Latin American public administration, 10
 - administrative reform processes characteristics, 15–16
 - first configurations of public administration model, 11–12
 - historical construction of model, 11–15
 - latest trends in reform of public administrations, 16–17
 - Public Management Reforms of 1980s, 12–15

- Latin American Transparency Index
Budget (ILTP), 416
- Law on Participation, 107
- Legal counsel units, 323
- Legalism, 2
- Legislative Assembly, 272
- Legislative Power*, 148
- Legislatures, 295
- Legitimacy, 437
- Ley de Nuevo Trato*, 267–268
- Ley del Nuevo Trato Laboral* (LNTL),
91, 98, 100
- Ley del Servicio Profesional de Carrera*
(LSPC), 182–183
- Ley Federal de Transparencia de*
Acceso a la Información
(LFTAIPG), 197
- Local decentralization, 386
- Macroeconomic stabilization process,
72
- Management commitments, 15
- Management for results (MfR), 441–442
- Management Improvement Programs,
102, 108–109
- Market governance, dilemmas
and tensions around,
387–388
- Merit systems, 470–471
- Meritocratic
bureaucracy, 37
practices, 34
principles, 10
- Meta-governance, conceptualizations on, 384–385
- Mexican MCS, 276–277
- Mexican SED, 452
- Mexico
bureaucracy politics in, 190–194
links with actors and political parties, 191–193
links with civil society, 193–194
PPM in, 275–278
- Mexico's public administration. See also Latin American public administration, 177–178
bureaucratic politics of
accountability, 194–198
civil career system, 182–186
current profile of public administration, 180–182
democratic transition and change in Mexico's government and
public administration,
178–182
governmental institutions, 178–180
politics of bureaucracy, 190–194
public employees, 186–190
public personnel, 182–190
reform and change, 198–200
- Middle Ages' capital markets, 294–295
- Mining Committee, 296
- Ministerial coordination mechanisms,
39
- Ministry of Administration and State
Reform (MARE), 70–71
- Ministry of National Planning and Economic Policy
(MIDEPLAN), 328
- Ministry of Social Development
and Inclusion (MIDIS),
329–330
- Modelo de Acessibilidade de Governo*
Eletrónico (e-MAG),
358–359
- Modern civil service (MCS), 261,
264–265
- Modern professional civil service
(MPCS), 5
- Monitoring and evaluation (M&E), 438–439
- Monitoring inflation, 331
- “MOP-Gate” corruption scandal,
267–268
- More Autonomous Public Bodies
(MAPB), 238
- Nacional* party, 232

- National Anti-Corruption System, 195
- National Civil Service Directorate, 91
- National Civil Service Office (ONSC), 233
- National Commission of Civil Service.
See Comisión Nacional del Servicio Civil (CNSC)
- National Council for Production, 153
- National Development Plan (NDP), 445
- National Electoral Institute (INE), 190–191
- National Institute for Access to Information (INAI), 190–191
- National Insurance Institute (INS), 153
- National Office of Civil Service, 274–275
- National Performance Monitoring and Evaluation Systems in Latin America, nature and logic of, 443–444
- National Planning Department (DNP), 327–328
- National Procurement Agency, 129
- National Program of Accountability, Transparency and Fight Against Corruption (PNTCDA), 195
- National public policy, 27
- National Results-Based Management and Evaluation System (SINERGIA), 129–130, 332
- National School of Public Administration, 269–270
- National System of Administrative Profession (SINAPA), 40
- Neo-weberianism/Post-NPM, 476
- Neoliberal reforms, 3–4
- Networks, 377
- New Constitution of 1991 (NC91), 116, 117, 119, 121, 125, 132
- New Deal Law (Ley del Nuevo Trato), 299
- New National System of Civil Servants, 29
- New Public Administration models, 12
- New Public Management (NPM), 2, 4, 11–14, 16, 89, 261, 264, 376 model, 470 paradigm, 31
- Non-state public entity, 153
- Nonclientelistic popular articulation, 309–310
- Nonstate Public Bodies (NEPB), 238
- Normalization process of contracted workers, 29
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 180
- Nuclear Regulatory Agency, 32
- Office of Planning and Budget (OPP), 328
- Online Government Strategy, 138
- Open, useful, reusable government data index (OUR government data index), 138
- Open Budget Index, 416
- Open data, 364–366
- Open government, 364–366, 419
- Open government data (OGD), 138
- Open Government Declaration*, 365
- Open Government Partnership (OGP), 365–366, 440
- Open model. See Position-based model
- Organismo de Investigación Judicial* (OIJ). See Judiciary Investigation Organism
- Organization of American States (OAS), 350
- Ouidorias*, 60
- Overcentralization, 470
- Pacto por México*, 191

- Padrões de Interoperabilidade em Governo Eletrônico* (e-PING), 358–359, 363
- Paraguay, 4, 203–204
- accountability, 220–221
 - bureaucracy politics in, 216–220
 - government institutions, 205–207
 - links with political parties, 216–217
 - links with society, 218–219
 - politics of bureaucracy in, 216–220
 - public administration, 208–210
 - public sector personnel, 211–216
 - reform and change, 222–223
- Paraguayan MCE-SIPP, 452
- Parallel bureaucracy, 38
- Parliamentary power, 26
- Parliamentary Republic, 81–82
- Participation, 471–472
- Participatory government, 363
- Partido dos Trabalhadores*, 271–272
- Partido Revolucionario Institucional* (PRI), 182, 275–276
- Party for Democracy (PPD), 82
- Party professionals, 476
- Party system, 26–27
- Patronage bureaucracy, 33–34, 38
- Performance, 32
- accountability, 129–130
 - indicators, 110
 - management, 472
 - performance-based management, 252
 - performance-related management, 271
- Performance monitoring and improvement units, 322, 331–333
- Permanent staff, 90
- Personal computing, 347
- Plan Nacional de Gobierno Electrónico* (PNGE), 358
- Planning-oriented systems, 447–450
- Plano Plurianual* (PPA), 73
- “Planta”, 267
- Policy
- advice units, 323
 - coordination, 321–323, 329–331
 - councils, 60
 - entrepreneurs, 54
 - networks, 377
- Política de Gobierno Digital*, 359–360
- Political accountability, 128, 221
- Political appointees, 208
- Political Committee, 333–334
- Political decentralization, 471
- Political dimension, 396
- Political economy of strengthening CoG, 335–336
- Political institutions in Brazil, 57–61
- accountability, 59–61
 - congress, political parties, and governing coalitions, 57–58
 - judiciary as policymaker, 58–59
- Political management, 322, 333–334
- Political parties, 35–37
- Political responsiveness, 335
- Political science research, 320
- Political stability, 298–299
- Political systems, 452
- Political trap, 429–430
- Political-managers, 279–280
- Political-administrative environment, 55
- Politicization, 2, 476
- “Politicized incompetence”, 219
- Politics of Argentine bureaucracy, 37–38
- Politics of bureaucracy, 3
- Politics of public administration in democratic Brazil, 68–76
- Ascendance of Center Left, 73–75
 - Cardoso governments, 70–73
 - continuity and change, 75–76
 - turbulent years, 69–70
- Populism, 312
- Portal Pagos del Estado*, 111
- Portal Tramites del Estado*, 111

- Position-based model. See Traditional civil service (TCS)
- Poverty governance, tensions and dilemmas in, 392–394
- Poverty-Reduction Strategy (PRSP), 389
- President's direct support units, 323
- Presidential Delivery Unit, 331–332
- Presidential rule, 25
- Privatization(s), 12–13
of public services, 386
- Professional bureaucracy, 299
- Professional Career Service, 182–183
- Professional Career Service Act. See Ley del Servicio Profesional de Carrera (LSPC)
- Professional Career Service Law, 276
- Professional Career System (SPC), 184
- Professionalization, 271
- Professionalized “Weberian” bureaucracy, 300
- Program evaluations, 110
- Program for Public Administration Renewal, 134
- Programa de Aceleração do Crescimento* (PAC), 74
- Programa de Renovación de la Administración Pública* (PRAP). See Program for Public Administration Renewal
- Programas de Mejoramiento de Gestión* (PMGs). See Management Improvement Programs
- Provincial Economic and Social Council (CESPRO), 86
- Public accountability, 438
- Public administration, 1, 86–89
in Argentina, 39
in Colombia, 120–121
current issues, 470–475
future, 476–478
generalizations, 467–468
in Latin America, 2, 9–11
model, 17
in Paraguay, 208–210
research, 320
unconsolidated model of public management reform, 469–470
in Uruguay, 232–239
- Public bureaucracy, 1
- Public conferences, 60
- Public Contracts Court, 85
- Public employees, 93–99
in Mexico, 186–190
- Public employment, 217
characteristics in Argentina, 28–35
subnational public employment, 34–35
- Public Employment Framework Law, 29
- Public Expenditure and Financial Accountability initiative (PEFA initiative), 416
- Public hearings, 60, 161
- Public integrity, 419–420
- Public management. See also Strategic management in Brazil, 61
policy community, 72–73
unconsolidated model of public management reform, 469–470
- Public Management Reforms, 12–15, 72 after 2010, 75–76
- Public Performance Monitoring and Evaluation system (PPME system), 6, 437, 440 absence of key stakeholders in conversation, 457–459 budget-oriented vs. planning-oriented systems, 447–450
classifying distinct approaches, 447

- democratic accountability in
 - context of PPME systems' trends and challenges, 459–464
- diverse functions, tools, and stakeholders, 444–447
- five to twelve systems, 450–453
- institutionalization of PPME
 - systems in region, 453–454
- lack of credibility of information, 454–455
- low coherence and high fragmentation, 455–457
- results-oriented, 441–447
- Public personnel
 - civil servants, 158–160
 - in Colombia, 121–124
 - institutional framework of, 157–158
 - public employees, 121–124
 - rewards of office, 124
 - system in Costa Rica, 157–160
- Public personnel management (PPM), 261
 - historical background, 262–265
 - Latin America, 265–280
- Public Prosecutions Office Organic Law, 166–167
- Public sector personnel, 3
 - in Chile, 89–99
 - civil service laws, 89–93
 - in Paraguay, 211–216
 - public employees, 93–99
 - in Uruguay, 239–243
- Public service development index, 303
- Public Service Secretariat (SFP), 276
- Public–private partnership law, 75–76
- Pure transfers programs, 390–391
- Radical Civic Union (UCR), 26–27
- Radical mass parties, 308–310
- Radical Party (PR), 82
- redGEalc, 353
- Regional Ministerial Secretariats (SEREMI), 85–86
- Renovación Nacional (RN), 82
- Reorganization Act (1939), 324–325
- Responsive bureaucracy, 264
- Responsive competence, 335
- Results-based budgeting, 111
- Results-based management, 16
- “Rule of Law”, 424–428
- School of Governance, 376
- Secretaría de la Función Pública (SFP), 183–184
- Secretarías*, 209–210, 210
- Secretariat of Finance and Public Credit, 195
- Secretariat of Public Administration. See Secretaría de la Función Pública (SFP)
- Secretary of Civil Service, 211
- Secretary of Federal Administration (SAF), 69–70
- Sectoral Cabinets, 330
- SEDAP-PR (National Secretary of Public Administration), 69
- Semi-autonomous institutions, 151
- Senior Public Management Council, 92
- Senior Public Management System, 92, 103
- SEPLAN-PR (National Secretary of Planning), 69
- Service comptroller's offices, 168–169
- Servicio Nacional de Electricidad (SNE), 172
- Servicio Profesional Electoral* (Professional Electoral Service), 278
- SHCP. See Secretariat of Finance and Public Credit
- SINEP, 33
- Sinergia territorial*, 445
- Sistema Administrador de Empresas* (SEP), 88–89
- Sistema de Alta Dirección Pública*, 267–268

- Sistema de Información y Gestión del Empleo Público (SIGEP)*, 123
- Sistema Nacional de Profesión Administrativa (SINAPA), 278
- Smart Cities, 366–369
- Smart governance, 366–369
- Social actors, 1
- Social media, 363–364
- Social mobilization, 170
- Social Organizations, 56
- Social Organizations of Public Interest, 56
- Social security policy changes in public sector, 67
- Social trap, 429–430
- Socialist Party (PS), 82
- Spanish feudalism, 305
- Spoils system, 262
- State capacity, 472–473
- State modernization, 133
- State reform, 375
 - processes, 10
 - reflections on, 395–397
- State-owned companies, 153
 - state-owned company-private entity, 153
 - state-owned company-public entity, 153
- State-owned enterprises (SOEs), 54, 56, 209–210, 237
- Strategic management, 327–328
 - of government, 321
- Strategy units, 322–323
- Strength of committee system, 301–303
- Subnational public employment, 34–35
- Superintendencia General de Entidades Financiera (SUGEF), 171
- Superintendencias*, 88
- Superior Tribunal of Electoral Justice (TSJE)
- Supreme Audit Institutions (SAIs), 419
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 439
- System for Administrative Development (SISTEDA), 120–121
- System of Programming and Management by Objectives and Results (SIGOB), 129–130
- Tackling corruption, 423
- Targeted poverty-reduction policies, 386
- Temporary personnel (contratados), 215–216
- Timing of industrialization, 309
- Traditional civil service (TCS), 261
- Transparency, 411–412
- Transparency Council, 106
- Transparency International, 423–424
- Transparency Law, 75, 105–106
- Transparency pacts, 130
- Transversal careers, 75
- Tri-Ministerial Council, 93
- Tribunal de Servicio Civil* (Civil Service Court), 272
- Tribunal Electoral Supremo* (Supreme Electoral Tribunal), 272
- Turbulence, 2
- “Un millón de cisternas rurales” program, 388–389
- “Unified national public service system”, 243
- Union Demócrata Independiente* (UDI), 82, 101
- United Nations Development Program (UNDP), 385
- United Nations e-Government Development Index (EGDI), 353–354
- United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America (CEPAL), 350

- United Nations' Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 386
- United States Congress, 295
- Uruguay, 230
 - accountability, 247–249
 - bureaucracy politics in, 245–246
 - government institutions, 230–232
 - links with civil society, 245
 - links with political parties, 243–245
 - politics of bureaucracy, 243–246
 - PPM in, 273–275
 - public administration, 232–239
 - public sector organization, 234–236
 - public sector personnel, 239–243
 - reform and change, 249–254
- Uruguayan democracy, 5
- Veedurías Ciudadanas*, 128
- Vertical accountability. See also Horizontal accountability, 105–107
 - citizen participation, 107
 - informal sources of accountability, 107–108
 - transparency and access to information, 105–106
- “Voice and Accountability” Index, 416–418
- Voucher system, 74
- Water Co-ops. See Community Organizations for Water and Sewerage Services (OCSAS)
- Water Committees. See Community Organizations for Water and Sewerage Services (OCSAS)
- Water governance, 386–389
- Weberian façade, 306
- Weberian models, 10, 14
- World Bank (WB), 385
- Worldwide Governance Indicators (WGI), 36–37