INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" indicate notes.

Agentic attributes, 8
All India Survey on Higher Education (AISHE), 107
Asian context, gender equity in, 17–19
Aspiration, lack of, 69–71
Automobile industry, 63

Benevolent sexism, 12–13
Biological differences, 71–72
Board of Directors, 105
Boardroom
  gender equity in, 1–4 women in, 3, 67–69

Cognitive diversity, 85–86
Companies Act (2013), 2–3, 86–87, 100–101
Companies/Employers, 102–104

Day care policy, 81
Defective high-severity products, 101
Deloitte Global Centre for Corporate Governance, 1
Demographic diversity, 86
Department of Public Enterprises (DPE), 54
Directors' selection process in India, 51–55
Diversity in boards, 85–86

Economic participation and opportunity, 116–125 Education(al), 108 attainment, 125
  programmes, 65

Family responsibilities, 73–75
Female employees, obstacles facing by, 69
Female representation analysis on Boards of Fortune India, 85

Indian studies on gender board representation, 87–88 results, 89–92
study method, 87–89
'Feminity–competence' double bind, 9
Finance jobs, 39
Flexi working hours, 82
Formal mentors, 78

Gender roles and stereotypes, 8–11 stereotype by colleagues, 75 stereotype by employer, 75–76 Gender diversity, 1, 5, 35–36, 43–46, 67–68, 86, 102–105 in boardroom composition, 6 and inclusion, 64
Gender equality in India and South Asia Region, 111
Global Gender Gap Index, 111, 115–129
situation of women in South Asia, 112–115 Gender equity in Asian context, 17–19
in boardroom, 1–4
Gender Parity Score (GPS), 112
Generation Y, 19
Generation Z, 19
Glass ceiling, 4–5, 37, 108
'Glass cliff', 4
'Glass escalator', 4
Global Gender Gap Index, 111, 115–129
Global Gender Gap Report, 111
Government, 101–102
Grooming, 55–56
Groupthink, 6

Harvard Business Review study, 108
Health and survival, 125
Hero MotoCorp Ltd, 64
High gender representation on boards, outcomes of, 5–7
Higher education, empowering Indian women through, 107–108
Hostile sexism, 12–13
Hunt Partners, 44

'Ideal worker', 14, 99
India, gender equality in, 111
Informal mentoring, 78 relationships, 104
Interviews of board members and senior executives, 35 barriers preventing women in India from entering boardroom, 46–51
demographic details, 36

directors' selection process in India, 57–59
early identification of women directors, 41–46 grooming of woman directors, 55–57 increasing pool of potential candidates in order to ensuring greater gender diversity, 43–46
job roles, 39
lack of exposure for women, 39–40 networking and mentorship role in directors' selection process, 51–55
patriarchy, 40–41
pipeline problem, 37–38
self-imposed restrictions as wife and mother, 38–39 women facing obstacles to prevent them from reaching top jobs, 37–41

Job roles, 39

Kanya Saaksharta Protsahan Yojana, 108

Leadership growth strategy, 80–81
'Leaky pipeline', 37
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer community (LGBTQ community), 17, 19
Literature review and study method antecedents of low gender representation on boards, 58–17 gender equity in Asian context, 17–19 gender equity in boardroom, 1–4 metaphors, 4–5
outcomes of high gender representation on boards, 5–7 primary sources, 20–21 research method for study, 19–21 secondary sources, 21
Low gender representation on boards, antecedents of, 8 double bind, 11
gender roles and stereotypes, 8–11 organisational barriers, 14–17
sexism, 11–12, 13
social and family support, 12–14

Maternity Benefit Act (2017), 57, 103
McKinsey Global Institute (MGI), 21*n*1, 112

Mentoring, 77–78
Mentor–mentee relationship, 77
Mentorship, 77
in directors' selection process, 51–55
Metaphors, 4–5
#Metoo movement, 48
Mid-career, marriage and maternity (three Ms), 48
Middle East and North Africa region (MENA region), 112
Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), 107
Mobility, 72–73
Monitoring, 6

Networking, 72
in directors' selection process, 51–55

ONGC, 55
Organisational barriers, 1, 14–17

Part-time employment, 82
Paternalism, 76, 81, 99
Patriarchal belt, 112–113
Patriarchy, 40–41
Pipeline problem, 37–38, 63, 99
Policy-makers, 93, 106
Political empowerment, 116–125
Prejudice, 9, 11–12, 97
PSU sector, 49
Public Enterprises Selection Board (PESB), 55
Public Sector organizations, 54

Queen bee syndrome, 46, 97
Quitting, 71

Right to Education Act (RTE), 107
Role models/modelling, 77–81

Saakshar Bharat, 107
SABLA, 108
Self-esteem, lack of, 69–71
Self-grooming, 55, 59
Self-imposed restrictions as wife and mother, 38–39
Semi-structured interview technique, 65
Sexism, 11–13
Shiksha Sahayog Yojana, 107
Social and family support, 12–14
Social eco-system in India, 38
Socialisation process, 77
Socio-cultural traditions, 113

South Asia Region
gender equality in, 111–112 gender gap, 11
situation of women in, 112–115
Standard Chartered Bank, 3
Stereotypes, 8–11
Strategy involvement, 6

'Think-manager-think-male' construct, 17
Tokenism, 7, 67, 85, 92
Tokens, 7
Travel policy support, 82

Wall Street Journal, The, 4 Woman leader aspiration, 63, 104–105 codes and categories, 67–78
demographic details, 66
firm level, 75–76 group level, 73–75 individual level, 69–73 mentoring and role modelling, 77–78 obstacles facing female employees by, 69 role models, 78–81
sample, 65–66
women in boardroom, 67–68
Women on boards, 5
early identification of women directors, 41–43 lack of exposure for, 39–40 representation in boardrooms, 2 woman-friendly policies and practices at Hero MotoCorp, 81–83 woman-related issues, 69–71
Women in Leadership programme (WIL programme), 64, 86, 102, 104
World Economic Forum (WEF), 111