

INDEX

- Aarhus University, 147
- Absolute states, growth of, 183–184
- Accountability, 228, 229, 231, 237–239
- Accounting, setting up new procedures for, 195–196
- Administrative bureaucracy, 24–25
- Administrative ethnography, 93, 94
- Administrative order, 143
- Administrative reforms, 195
- content, 214
 - management instruments, 214–215
 - in New Public Management, 212–215
 - process, 212
 - trends, 212–213
- Administrative traditions, 3–4, 159, 161, 170–172
- and public executive identities, 163–164
- Agencification, 206, 217, 221
- Agenda-setting roles of bureaucracy, 210, 211
- Algeria, French administration in, 56
- Ambiguous society, 54, 56, 61–64
- Andersen, Agnes, 255
- Anglo-Saxon liberal tradition, and public executive identities, 163, 170
- Anglo-Saxon Model, 3
- Anti-administrative impulse, 14
- Anti-bureaucratic identities, 109–135
- action, 121–122
 - autonomy and discretion, 119–120
 - comparison of discourse and practice, 115–117
 - custodians of rule-bound government versus result-oriented entrepreneurs, 112–115
 - flexibility, variation and unpredictability, 122–124
 - framings of more or less influential professional norms, disentangling, 131–134
 - hierarchy of everyday bureaucratic practices, 127–128
 - outcome orientation, 118–119
 - power, 121
 - restricted autonomy and power, 128–131
 - routine, procedurality and predictability, 125–127
 - self-presentations, 117–118
 - Weberian ideal type, 124–125
 - working in a non-hierarchical environment, 120–121
- Anti-corruption, 181
- Audits, setting up new procedures for, 195–196
- Australia
- administrative reforms in public management, 215
- Austria
- role identities of public executive identities, 169, 170
- Authoritarianism, 258
- Autonomy, 5, 7, 112, 114, 119–120, 218, 246–250, 252, 257–261
- high managerial, 209
 - restricted, 128–131
 - state, 40–44

- Baldwin, Peter, 251
 Benchmarking, 218
 Berlin, Isiah, 258
 Bi-dimensional construct, public sector
 role identity as, 159–161
 Blair, Tony, 251
 Blau, Peter, 16, 19
 Bo Smith Committee, 276, 282*n*4
 BRICS, 7
 Britain
 administrative reforms in public
 management, 215
 anti-bureaucratic identities, 111,
 112, 115–121, 123–125,
 128–131, 134
 bureaucratic infrastructures,
 reforms effect on, 6
 entry into European Economic Community, 150
 hierarchical coordination, 210
 Ministry of Culture, 120
 perceptions of neutral competence, 77–82
 role identities of public executive
 identities, 170
 service provider identity, 4
 state bureaucracy, 27, 30
 Treasury, 116, 118
 Bure, Anders, 45
 Bureaucracy in transition, 1–9
 Bureaucracy theory, 1, 15, 25
 in Europe, reception of, 18–20
 textbook version of, 20–21
 Bureaucratic ethos, 6
 Bureaucratic hierarchy, 127–128
 Bureaucratic identities, 5–6
 Bureaucratic infrastructures, reforms effect on, 6
 Bureaucratic neutrality, 5
 Bureaucratic rationality, 8
 Bureaucratic roles, 210–211
 Bureaucratic self-sufficiency, 5

Cages of Reason, 27
 Career paths, 2

Cases to Seven Central Obligations, 276
 Charles XII, King, 50
 Child mortality, 42
 Christian III, King, 181–182
 Christian V, King, 188
 Church Law of 1686 (Sweden), 49
 Cicero, 269
 Çiftlik land, 53
 Citizens' participation, 213
 Civil servants
 appointment of, 185–186
 ideal civil servant, changing
 conceptions of, 274–275
 identity, 4
 legal regulations for, 187–189
 reactions to external control, 233–239
 salaries and pensions for, 197–198
 Civil service, 5, 73
 Civil society, 258, 259
 COCOPS (Coordination of Cohesion
 in the Public Sector of the Future) survey, 159,
 164–165, 171, 207, 222*n*1,
 227
 Codes of conduct, 218
Codex VII: Seven Central Obligations, 266–268
 ethical training and education,
 276–278
 ‘ethics of office’ perspective, 266,
 269–272, 277, 278
 ethics training, for public servants, 279
 ideal civil servant, changing
 conceptions of, 274–275
 organisational conditions,
 changing, 272–273
 political-administrative responsibility, obscuring, 279–280
 terms of employment, 272–273
 Codification, 267, 269, 281
 Collaboration, 213
 Collin, Jonas, 196

- Common good motivation, 211
- Comparative public administration, 77–82
- Competence-based public service bargains, 140
- Competent neutrality, 72–73, 76, 82–86
- Conditionality, 248
- Confrontation, 258
- Constrained partisanship, 75
- Continental Federal Model, 3
- Continental Napoleonic Model, 3
- Cooperation, 213
- Corrosion of Character*, 28
- Corruption, 181, 185–187, 189, 196–200
 - in Denmark, 191–193
 - in Norway, 193–195
 - in Sweden, 193–195
- Cost-accounting systems, 218
- Craft administration, 25
- Creativity, 114
- Croatia, bureaucratic roles, 210
- Crosscutting cleavages, 248, 256–260
- Crown's Books, 48–50
- Cultural identity, 249
- Cutting red tape, 213

- Death of bureaucracy, 3
- Decentralisation, 215, 218
- Decorum officiale*, 273, 274
- Democracy, 4
- Democratic legitimacy, 74
- Denmark, 7–8
 - accounting and audits, setting up new procedures for, 195–196
 - civil servants, salaries and pensions for, 197–198
 - codex solution, in central administration, 265–282
 - corruption in, 191–193
 - Danish Economic Council, 145
 - Danish Law of, 1683, 187–188
 - Danish Tax and Customs Administration, 90, 93, 95, 96, 103–105
 - Economic Secretariat, 146
 - economist's role in government bureaucracies, 143–148
 - legal and administrative reforms in, 195
 - Ministry of Economy, 147
 - Ministry of Finance, 147, 148
 - Ministry of Taxation, 147, 148
 - National Board of Industrial Injuries, 90
 - National Danish Audit Office, 95, 96
 - new penal codes, adoption of, 196
 - outcome-based performance management systems
 - adaption to local contingencies, 103–104
 - negative VAT, 55% hit rate of, 91, 96, 97–98
 - negative VAT, auditing claims for, 90–91, 95–97
 - relations to existing literature, 104–105
 - perceptions of neutral competence, 77–82
 - politicisation, 218
 - role identities of public executive identities, 170
 - Social Democrats, 145, 146
 - Social Liberal Party, 145
 - Supreme Audit Institutions, 236–237
- De officiis*, 269
- Dertilis, George, 55
- Digitalisation, 8–9, 213
- Discretion, 119–120, 247
- Disillusionment, 248
- Division of labour, 42
- Division of power, 8
- Double-checking, 126–127
- Double loop learning, 226, 231, 239–240
- Downsizing, 217
- Due process, 158

- Eastern European tradition, and public executive identities, 163–164, 170
- East European Model, 3
- École Nationale d'Administration* (ENA), 116, 141
- Economic knowledge, 147
- Economists in government
bureaucracies, role of, 139–154
Denmark (1930–1990), 143–148
Ireland (1930–1990), 148–152
New Zealand (1930–1990), 148–152
Norway (1930–1990), 143–148
professions in public bureaucracies, position of, 141–143
- Economy and Society*, 15, 23
- Economy registration, 47–50, 62
- Education, 276–278
- Educational background, 189–190
- Effectiveness, 7
- Efficiency versus rationality, 21–22
- e-government, 213
- Elite politicians, 255
- Enlightenment, the, 188
- Enskifte*, 47
- Entrepreneurial manager, 114
- Entrepreneurship, 252
- Estonia
bureaucratic roles, 210
role identities of public executive identities, 164, 170
Supreme Audit Institutions, 228, 230, 236–237
- Ethical training, 276–278
- 'Ethics of office' perspective, 266, 269–272, 277, 278
- Ethics training, for public servants, 279
- Ethnicity, 249
- Ethnographic interviewing, 117
- Europe
bureaucracy theory in, reception of, 18–20
North–South divide in, 219–221
- European Economic Community (EEC), 150
- Europeanisation, 71
- European Union, 8
- External partnership, 213
- Fachkompetenzen*, 71, 84
- Faggot, Jacob, 46
- Fairness, 4, 7
- Family reunification, 267
- Fear of formality, 2–3
- Fianna Fáil, 150
- Fine Gael, 150
- Finland
managerial autonomy, 218
role identities of public executive identities, 170
- First World War, 149
- Fiscal-military state, 183
- France
anti-bureaucratic identities, 111–113, 115–117, 119–125, 127, 129–131, 134, 135n3
chefs de bureau, French
Ministry of Finance, 113, 120
École Nationale d'Administration, 141
French Revolution, 192–193
ideal type of bureaucracy, 19
role identities of public executive identities, 169
service provider identity, 4
state bureaucracy, 27, 30
- Frederik III, King, 183
- Frederik IV, 185
- Frederik VI, 193
- Frisch, Ragnar, 144
- Fukuyama, Francis, 41
- Fundamentalism, 258
- Germanic tradition, and public executive identities, 164, 170

- Germany
 ideal type of bureaucracy, 19
 role identities of public executive identities, 169, 170
 service provider identity, 4
- Globalisation, 71
- Goal displacement, 2, 5, 8, 17
- Good governance, 19, 28, 111
- Gouldner, Alvin, 16, 18, 19
- Governance capacity, 8
- Government bureaucracies, role of economists in, 139–154
 Denmark (1930–1990), 143–148
 Ireland (1930–1990), 148–152
 New Zealand (1930–1990), 148–152
 Norway (1930–1990), 143–148
 professions in public bureaucracies, position of, 141–143
- Great Depression, 149
- Great Northern War, 184, 185
- Greco-Turkish War of, 1922, 53
- Greece
 distant taxation, 55–60, 62
 Greek Statistical Bureau, 59
 Greek statistics, 41
 land ownership, 51–55, 62
 registration system in municipalities, 58
 state infrastructural capacities, building, 39–65
 state–society relations, ambiguity of, 55–60, 62, 64
- Gustav II Adolf, 44
- Gustav Vasa, King, 48, 181
- Handbook of Public Administration*, 140
- Herrschaft*, 29
- Herrschaftsverband*, 29
- Hierarchical coordination, 209–210
- High managerial autonomy, 209
- Historical contingencies, 61, 63, 64
- Hungary
 bureaucratic roles, 210
 formality of bureaucracy, fear of, 2
 role identities of public executive identities, 169
- HW Director, 253
- Hybridisation, 158, 161, 171–173
- Iceland
 role identities of public executive identities, 169, 170
- Ideal civil servant, changing conceptions of, 274–275
- Ideal type bureaucracy
 administrative bureaucracy, 24–25
 anti-bureaucratic identities, 124–125
 bureaucracy theory in Europe, reception of, 18–20
 custodians of rule-bound government versus result-oriented entrepreneurs, 112–115
 efficiency versus rationality, 21–22
 hypothesis and, 22–24
 organisations, as natural systems, 17–18
 in organisation theory and public administration, 13–32, 256
 professional bureaucracy, 24–25
 relative superiority of bureaucracy, 22
 state bureaucracy, 27–31
 textbook version of Weber's bureaucracy theory, 20–21
 Weber scholars, 26–27
- Impersonality, 160
- Inclusiveness, 4
- India, political leadership in, 5
- Infant mortality, 42
- Information and communication technology (ICT), 8
- Infrastructural power of the state, 41
- Innovation, 252
- Institutional stability, 159
- Instrumental motivation, 211

Ireland

- Department of Finance, 149–151
- economist's role in government
 - bureaucracies, 148–152
- Fianna Fáil, 150
- Fine Gael, 150
- hierarchical coordination, 210
- Irish Civil War, 149
- role identities of public executive
 - identities, 170
- Treasury, 149

Italy

- role identities of public executive
 - identities, 169

Japan, state bureaucracy in, 27, 30

Just Institutions Matter: The Moral and Political Logic of the Universal Welfare State, 251

Kammarkollegium, 45

Keynesian economics, 142, 145–150

King's Law of, 1665, 183, 184, 188

Kinship, 249

Kollegier, 184

Kronans Jordeböcker, 46, 48

Laffer, Arthur, 147

Lagaskifte, 47

Land ownership, 51–55

- complexities of, 62

Land taxation (jordränta), 48

Land taxation law of, 1880, 56

Lantmäteriet (the Swedish Land Survey Board), 44–45, 46

Latin America, 153

Leadership, political, 5, 129

Lebensführungen, 270

Lebensordnungen, 270

Legality, 158

Legal reforms, 195

Legibility of space, 44–47, 62

Life expectancy, 42

Life-long loyalty of civil servant, 2

Lipset, Seymour Martin, 44

Lithuania

- bureaucratic roles, 210
- role identities of public executive
 - identities, 169, 170

Local politics, 250, 258

Logic of Social Research, The, 44

Low politicization, 208–209

Lutheran Church, 188

Lutheranism, 198–199

Lutheran Reformation of, 1536, 182

Management instruments, 214–215

Management of Innovation, 25

Managerialism, 158, 160, 161, 163, 167, 206, 248

Managerial state, 206

Mann, Michael, 41, 42, 60

Mansolas, Alexandros, 57, 58

Marketization, 206

Mediatization, 9, 71

Merit-based recruitment, 70, 189–190

Merton, Robert K., 16

Metropolitan Project (Department of Sociology, Stockholm University), 40

Mock bureaucracy, 18

Moore, Barrington, 57

Motivation, 211–212

Mundell, Robert, 147

Municipal Assembly, 252

Napoleonic administrative tradition, and public executive

- identities, 164, 170

Napoleonic wars, 192

National Board of Industrial Injuries (Denmark), 90

Negative VAT

- auditing claims for, 90–91, 95–97
- 55% hit rate, 91, 97–98

Neighbourhood, 249

Neoclassical economics, 147

Neo-liberal bureaucracy, 2, 9

Neo-liberal policies, 258

- Neo-Weberian State (NWS), 206, 207
and NPM values, trade-off between, 211
- Neo-Weberian state, 4
- Netherlands, the
role identities of public executive
identities, 170
- Neutral bureaucracy, 70, 71
- Neutral competence, 69–86
Danish and British perceptions of, 77–82
research design and methods,
75–77
- New penal codes, adoption of, 196
- New Public Governance (NPG), 4, 206, 212, 213, 217
- New Public Management (NPM), 4, 14, 92, 111, 158–161, 226
Nordic bureaucracy beyond,
205–222
- New Spirit of Capitalism, The*, 28
- New York City Police Department, activity-based targets in, 91
- New Zealand
administrative reforms in public
management, 215
Conservative Party, 150
economist's role in government
bureaucracies, 148–152
Labour Party, 149
Treasury, 151, 152
- Non-hierarchical environment,
120–121
- Nordic bureaucracy beyond New Public Management, 205–222
administrative reforms, 212–215
bureaucratic roles, 210–211
database, 207–208
motivation, 211–212
North–South divide, in Europe,
219–221
performance of reforms, 215–216
similarities and differences, 217–219
structural features of bureaucracy, 208–210
success of reforms, 216–217
value preferences, 211
- Nordic models of public
administration, 4
- Nordic tradition, and public executive
identities, 164, 170
- Northcote Trevelyan Report, 77
- North–South divide, in Europe,
219–221
- Norway
anti-bureaucratic identities, 111,
112, 115–117, 121–126,
128, 130, 131, 134, 135_{n4}
corruption in, 193–195
Economic Division, Ministry of Finance, 145, 147
economist's role in government
bureaucracies, 143–148
identity-profile patterns within and across administrative traditions, 169, 170
Ministry of Finance, 116, 144, 145,
147
Norwegian Labour Party, 144
Norwegian School of Economics
(NHH), 147
Social Democrats, 144
street-level bureaucracy, 249
- Note-writing process, 125–126
- OECD, 93
Forum on Tax Administration, 91
'Measures of Tax Compliance
Outcomes', 91
- Office-holding, 275
- On-the-job training, 141
- Organisational conditions, changing, 272–273
- Organisational dimension of offices, 268, 271
- Organisational learning, 231, 233, 237
patterns of, 232

- Organisations, as natural systems, 17–18
- Organisation theory, ideal type bureaucracy in, 13–32
 administrative bureaucracy, 24–25
 bureaucracy theory in Europe,
 reception of, 18–20
 efficiency versus rationality, 21–22
 hypothesis and, 22–24
 organisations, as natural systems, 17–18
 professional bureaucracy, 24–25
 relative superiority of bureaucracy, 22
 state bureaucracy, 27–31
 textbook version of Weber's
 bureaucracy theory, 20–21
 Weber scholars, 26–27
- Ørsted, A. S., 196
- Oslo School of economics, 144
- Ottoman Empire, 53, 55
- Outcome-based performance
 management systems, 89–106
 comparison of
 adaption to local contingencies, 103–104
 relations to existing literature, 104–105
 negative VAT
 auditing claims for, 90–91,
 95–97
 55% hit rate, 91, 97–98
 proactive information work, 98–100
 public administration, 91–93
 qualitative outcomes, 100–102
 qualitative study, 93–95
- Outsourcing tax collection, 57
- Parsonian systems theory, 18
- Parsons, Talcott
 interpretation of Weber, 16–17
- Patterns of conflict, 252–256
- Payroll taxes (arbetsgivaravgift), 98–100
- Peace in the Feud*, 257
- Pensions, for civil servants, 197–198
- People counting, 47–50, 62
- Performance and of bureaucracy, 210
- Performance audit, 226–241 changes from, 236–237
 data and methods, 232–233
 influence of public administrative systems and cultures,
 239–240
 style of, 230–232
 influence of, 238–239
 traditions of, 229–230
 usefulness of, 235–236
- Performance management, 213
- Performance of reforms, 215–216
- Performance-related pay, 215, 218
- Permanency, 114
- Poland
 formality of bureaucracy, fear of, 2
- Political accountability, 3
- Political-administrative responsibility,
 obscuring, 279–280
- Political leadership, 5, 129
- Political Leadership among Swat Pathans*, 257
- Political Order and Political Decay*, 28, 42
- Political sponsorship, 142
- Politicisation, 70, 71, 75, 78, 83, 84, 217, 218
- 'Politics as a Vocation', 269
- Politics of solidarity, 251
- Polizeywissenschaften, 15
- Portugal
 role identities of public executive
 identities, 169–170
- Positive freedom, 258
- Post-bureaucracy, 2, 3, 9
- Power, 121, 249
 balance, 8
 division of, 8
 infrastructural, of the state, 41
 restricted, 128–131

- Pragmatic welfare policy relativism, 250
- Predictability, 125–127
- Prioritisation, 247
- Privatisation, 213
- Proactive information (PI), 91, 94, 98–100, 102
- Procedurality, 125–127
- Professional bureaucracy, 24–25
- Professional discretion, 246
- Professional identity, 110–112, 115–117, 119, 124, 131, 132, 134
- Professionalisation of management, 158, 160
- Professional task motivation, 211
- Professions in public bureaucracies, position of, 141–143
 administrative features, 143
 economic factors, 142
 political factors, 142
 professional factors, 142
- Prussia, state bureaucracy in, 28
- Public administration
 ideal type bureaucracy in, 13–32
 neutral competence, compared, 77–82
 new organisation of, 225–241
 Nordic models of, 4
 performance management in, 91–93
 systems and cultures, differences in, 227–229
- Public bureaucracies, 2
- Public–private cooperation, 6
- Public sector executives, hybrid role identities of, 157–173, 176
 administrative traditions, 159, 161, 163–164, 169–172
 bi-dimensional construct, 159–161
 data sand method, 164–169
 disentangling, 161–163
 future developments in, 172–173
 identity-profile patterns within and across administrative traditions, 169–172
 limits of, 172–173
 managerialism, 158, 160, 161, 163, 167
 operationalisation, 165–167
- Public sector reforms, 158, 160
- Public servant identity, 4
- PULS-evaluation, 282n5
- Punishment-centred bureaucracy, 18, 24
- Qualitative study outcome-based performance management systems, 93–95, 100–102
- Quality of Government Institute, University of Gothenburg, Sweden, 42
- Rådmann (the chief administrator of the municipality), 253, 254
- Rationalisation theory, 20–21
- Rationality versus efficiency, 21–22
- Rättergångsexam, 190
- Rechtsstaat*, 3, 113, 206, 227, 240
- Reform models, 3–4
- Relative superiority of bureaucracy, 22
- Representative bureaucracy, 18, 24, 25
- Resistance, 258, 260
- Result-oriented entrepreneurs versus rule-bound government, custodians of, 112–115
- Revkarlar*, 45
- Rokkan, Stein, 43
- Role identities
 defined, 158
 distinguished from self-identity, 160
 of public sector executives, 157–173, 176
 administrative traditions, 159, 161, 163–164, 169–172
 bi-dimensional construct, 159–161
 data and method, 164–169

- disentangling, 161–163
- future developments in, 172–173
- identity-profile patterns within and across administrative traditions, 169–172
- limits of, 172–173
- managerialism, 158, 160, 161, 163, 167
- operationalisation, 165–167
- Royal Life Guard, 187
- Rudbeckius, Johannes (Bishop), 49
- Rule-bound government versus result-oriented entrepreneurs, custodians of, 112–115
- Rule of law, 181, 184, 186, 189, 200

- Salaries, for civil servants, 197–198
- Scandinavian Model, 3
- Scandinavian states, building of, 179–201
 - absolute states, growth of, 183–184
 - accounting and audits, setting up new procedures for, 195–196
 - bureaucratic framework, changing, 184
 - civil servants
 - appointment of, 185–186
 - legal regulations for, 187–189
 - salaries and pensions for, 197–198
 - corruption
 - in Denmark, 191–193
 - in Norway, 193–195
 - in Sweden, 193–195
 - Danish administration, legal and administrative reforms in, 195
 - educational background, 189–190
 - historical realms of, 181–183
 - Lutheranism, 198–199
 - merit-based recruitment, 189–190
 - new penal codes, adoption of, 196
 - setting up restrictions through a formal oath of office, 186–187
 - Weberian bureaucracy, 180, 186, 189, 190, 195, 198–199
 - in nineteenth century, 198–199
- Schröder, Gerhard, 251
- ‘Science as a Vocation’, 269
- Scott, James C., 44, 46
- Second World War, 54, 144, 153, 226
- Self-presentations, anti-bureaucratic, 117–118
- Selznick, Philip, 16, 18, 19
- Semantic dimension of offices, 268, 271
- Serbia
 - bureaucratic roles, 210
 - role identities of public executive identities, 169, 170
- Service gap, 247, 248
- Service improvement, 214
- Service provider identity, 4
- Sideris, Aristotelis D., 56
- Simplification of space, 44–47, 62
- Single identification number (AMKA), 65
- Single loop learning, 226, 231, 238
- Social equality, 4
- Social Liberal Party (Norway), 145
- Society, simplifying and objectifying, 50–51, 62
- Södertörn University, 40
- Solskifte*, 46, 47
- Sotiropoulos, Sotirios, 52
- Spain
 - role identities of public executive identities, 169
 - state bureaucracy, 28
- Specialisation, 160
- Sportler*, 192
- Stability, 7
- State autonomy, 40–44
 - components of, 41
- State bureaucracy, 27–31
 - changes in bureaucracy and identity, 28–29

- organising as meaningful activity
 - at intermediary level, 29
- weaknesses in Weberian
 - explorations into bureaucracy, 30–31
- Weber, as historical-comparative scholar, 29–30
- State infrastructural capacities,
 - building, 39–65
 - distant taxation, 55–60, 62
 - economy registration and people counting, 47–50, 62
 - land ownership, 51–55, 62
 - legibility and simplification of space, 44–47, 62
 - simplifying and objectifying society, 50–51, 62
 - state autonomy, 40–44
 - state–society relations, ambiguity of, 55–60, 62, 64
- State–society contingencies, 64
- State–society relations, ambiguity of, 55–60, 62, 64
- Steering by contracts, 218
- Stinchombe, Arthur L., 44
- Street-level bureaucracy, 245–252, 256, 260, 261
- Street-level Bureaucracy*, 246
- Structural features of bureaucracy
 - hierarchical coordination, 209–210
 - high managerial autonomy, 209
 - low politicization, 208–209
- Structure of Social Action, The*, 16
- Subjective health, 42
- Success of reforms, 216–217
- Supplikker*, 188, 189
- Supply-side economics, 147
- Supreme Audit Institutions (SAI), 226–241
- Sweden
 - agrarian reform, 54
 - Christianity, 49
 - Church Law of, 1686, 49
 - corruption in, 193–195
 - economy registration and people counting, 47–50, 62
 - geographical maps, 45
 - geometrical maps, 45, 46
 - land mapping, 54
 - Lantmäteriet* (the Swedish Land Survey Board), 44–45
 - legibility and simplification of space, 44–47, 62
 - managerial autonomy, 218
 - Metropolitan Project (Department of Sociology, Stockholm University), 40
 - outcome-based performance management systems
 - adaption to local contingencies, 103–104
 - proactive information work, 98–100
 - relations to existing literature, 104–105
 - role identities of public executive identities, 170
 - service provider identity, 4
 - simplifying and objectifying society, 50–51, 62
 - state bureaucracy, 28
 - state infrastructural capacities, building, 39–65
 - Supreme Audit Institutions, 228, 231–232, 236–237
 - Swedish Level of Living Survey (Institute for Social Research), 40
 - Swedish National Bureau of Statistics, 194
 - Swedish Statistical Central Bureau, 51
 - Swedish Tax Agency, 90, 93–95, 99–101, 105
 - Tabellverket* (the Census Authority of Sweden), 50–51, 59, 65n4
 - Table Committee, 51
 - Tabellverket* (the Census Authority of Sweden), 50–51, 59, 65n4

- Tax(ation)
 administration, 90, 91, 94–96, 99, 101, 103, 105
 distant, 55–60, 62
 land (jordränta), 48
 negative VAT
 auditing claims for, 90–91,
 95–97
 55% hit rate, 91, 96, 97–98
 outsourcing tax collection, 57
 payroll (arbetsgivaravgift), 98–100
 tithe, 49
 Tax collector jobs, 55
 Terms of employment, 272–273
 Textbook version of Weber's
 bureaucracy theory, 20–21
 'The Third Way' approach, 251
 Thomsen, Christian Kettel, 270
 Tilly, Charles, 47
 Tithe, 49
 Tjänstebetänkandet, 190
 Traditional bureaucracy, 115
 Traditional roles of bureaucracy, 210
 Training dimension of offices, 268,
 271–272
 Transparency, 206, 213, 221
 Treaty of Versailles, 15
 Unemployment, 252
 Union support to administrative reforms, 212
 United Kingdom (UK) see Britain
 United States (USA)
 formality of bureaucracy, fear of, 2
 professional bureaucracy, 25
 administrative bureaucracy, 25
 state bureaucracy, 27, 30
 ideal type of bureaucracy, 18, 19, 24
 Universalism, 246–248, 250, 251,
 258, 261
 University of Canterbury, 151
 University of Copenhagen, 191
 University of Oslo, 144, 145
 Uppsala University, 45
 Value preferences, 211
 Varieties of bureaucracy, 3–4
 VAT, negative
 auditing claims for, 90–91, 95–97
 55% hit rate, 91, 97–98
 Venizelos, Eleftherios, 57
Verband, 29
 Wage formation, 2
 Weber, Marianne, 15
 Weber, Max, 1, 2, 5, 9, 70, 73, 269
 bureaucracy theory see
 Bureaucracy theory
 as historical-comparative scholar, 29–30
 ideal type bureaucracy, 13–32,
 112–115, 124–125, 256
 Parsons' interpretation of, 16–17
 as part of German scholarly tradition, 15–16
 rationalisation theory, 20–21
 Weber scholars, 26–27
 Welfare state, 2, 246–249, 251, 252,
 257–260
 Wilson, Woodrow, 70, 73
Wirtschaft und Gesellschaft, 24
 Working modes, 2