

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book is based on research on tourism and trade theory that we have undertaken over the last decade. Several parts of the book have been presented at seminars at the Universities of Lille 1, Sorbone Paris 1, Rome, Venice, John Hopkins Bologna Centre, City University of Hong-Kong and at tourism conferences in Cyprus and Sardinia. We thank the participants for providing comments. As is clear from the introduction, some of the research has been carried out with Jean-Jacques Nowak and we thank him for his insights, hard work and for sustaining our interest in this area of research. Jean-Pierre Laffargue read the entire manuscript and provided extremely detailed, critical and insightful comments, for which we are greatly indebted. Bharat Hazari thanks both the University of Lille 1 and CEPREMAP for providing a stimulating environment for research during his sabbatical. Pasquale Sgro thanks the University of Rome “La Sapienza” for providing research facilities in October/November 2002 when some of this work was carried out. Comments received from Chi-Chur Chao, Vijay Mohan and Eden Yu are gratefully acknowledged. Our thanks are also due to the following journals for allowing us to use material from published research: The Journal of International Trade and Economic Development, Pacific Economic Review and the Journal of Developing Areas.

Finally, and most importantly, we thank Lillian Barrie for preparing the manuscript. She suffered through the typing of many drafts and did an excellent job.

Bharat Hazari and Pasquale Sgro