ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A conference in honour of Aman Ullah took place at Riverside Mission Inn on March 13–15, 2015 to celebrate his long and productive academic career. We would like to thank the following sponsors for their support (in alphabetical order): editors of Advances in Econometrics, Emerald Group Publishing Ltd., Info-Metrics Institute of American University, International Association for Applied Econometrics (IAAE) and the University of California Riverside's College of Humanities Arts and Social Sciences, Department of Economics, Department of Statistics, School of Business Administration and School of Public Policy.

We also like to express our thanks to the following UC-Riverside staff: Damaris Carlos, Gary Kuzas, Mark Manalang, Tanya Wine (and Mark Wine) and Patricia Winkler, and two of our graduate students: Bai Huang and Najrin Khanom. Their hard work and dedication before, during, and after the event made our work much easier.

This AIE volume is a collection of papers, most of them presented at the conference, on topics in which Aman Ullah has made major contributions – nonparametric and semiparametric econometrics, finite sample econometrics, shrinkage methods, information/entropy econometrics, model specification testing, robust inference and panel/spatial models. Each paper was rigorously refereed by two or three experts. We would like to thank the following reviewers for their critical and constructive reviews (in alphabetical order): Deniz Baglan (Howard University), Yong Bao (Purdue University), Martin Burda (University of Toronto), Zongwu Cai (University of Kansas), Matias Cattaneo (University of Michigan), John Chao (University of Maryland), Juan Carlos Escanciano (Indiana University), Yanqin Fan (University of Washington), Jiti Gao (Monash University), Amos Golan (American University), William Greene (New York University), Daniel Henderson (University of Alabama), Eric Hillebrand (University of Aarhus), Cheng Hsiao (University of Southern California), Emma Iglesias (University of Coruña), Atsushi Inoue (Vanderbilt University), David Jacho-Chavez (Emory University), Ivan Jeliazkov (University of California, Irvine), Fei Jin (Shanghai University of Finance and Economics), Degui Li (University of York), Dong Li
